JOINT PROXY STATEMENT/PROSPECTUS PROPOSED TRANSACTION — YOUR VOTE IS VERY IMPORTANT

Dear Stockholders:

Cohu, Inc., which we refer to as Cohu, Xavier Acquisition Corporation, a wholly owned subsidiary of Cohu, which we refer to as Merger Sub, and Xcerra Corporation, which we refer to as Xcerra, have entered into an agreement and plan of merger, dated as of May 7, 2018 (the “Merger Agreement”) pursuant to which Merger Sub will merge with and into Xcerra (the “Merger”), with Xcerra continuing as the surviving corporation of the Merger (the “Surviving Corporation”) and a wholly owned subsidiary of Cohu. At the effective time of the Merger (the “Effective Time”), (a) each share of Xcerra’s common stock, par value $0.05 per share (“Xcerra Common Stock”) issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time (other than dissenting shares and shares held by Cohu, Merger Sub, Xcerra or any direct or indirect wholly owned subsidiary of Cohu or Xcerra) will be converted into the right to receive (i) $9.00 in cash, without interest (the “Cash Consideration”), and (ii) 0.2109 of a validly issued, fully paid and nonassessable share of common stock of Cohu, par value $1.00 per share (“Cohu Common Stock”) (the “Stock Consideration”) and, together with the Cash Consideration, the “Merger Consideration”) and (b) each outstanding Xcerra restricted stock unit (an “Xcerra RSU”) that either (i) will vest automatically according to its terms at the Effective Time, or (ii) is held by a member of the board of directors of Xcerra, will be cancelled and converted into the right to receive the Merger Consideration. All Xcerra RSUs not described in the preceding sentence that are outstanding and unvested at the Effective Time will be assumed by Cohu and converted into a restricted stock unit award representing that number of shares of Cohu Common Stock equal to the product of (A) the number of shares of Xcerra Common Stock represented by such Xcerra RSU immediately prior to the Effective Time multiplied by (B) the sum of (1) the Stock Consideration plus (2) the quotient of (x) the Cash Consideration divided by (y) the volume weighted average of the trading prices of Cohu Common Stock on each of the three consecutive trading days ending on the trading day that is one trading day prior to the date of the closing of the Merger.

Immediately following the closing of the Merger, Cohu’s stockholders will own approximately 71% of the outstanding Cohu Common Stock, and Xcerra’s former stockholders will own approximately 29% of the outstanding Cohu Common Stock, based on the number of shares of Cohu and Xcerra Common Stock outstanding as of July 16, 2018. Cohu Common Stock is listed on the NASDAQ Global Select Market (“NASDAQ”) under the symbol “COHU” and Xcerra Common Stock is listed on NASDAQ under the symbol “XCRA.” Upon completion of the Merger, we expect to delist Xcerra Common Stock from NASDAQ.

The Merger will be a taxable transaction for U.S. federal income tax purposes.

Each of Cohu and Xcerra is holding a special meeting of its stockholders (the “Cohu Special Meeting” and the “Xcerra Special Meeting,” respectively) in order to obtain the stockholder approvals necessary to consummate the Merger. At the respective special meetings, Xcerra will ask its stockholders to approve the Merger Agreement and Cohu will ask its stockholders to approve the issuance of shares of Cohu Common Stock in connection with the Merger to the extent such issuance would require approval under NASDAQ Stock Market Rule 5635(a), which, subject to certain exceptions, generally requires stockholder approval prior to the issuance of common stock in connection with a merger to the extent such issuance would equal or exceed 20% of the issuer’s issued and outstanding common stock before such issuance (the “Stock Issuance Proposal”). Approval of the Stock Issuance Proposal by holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of Cohu Common Stock represented in person or by proxy at the Cohu Special Meeting, and approval of the Merger Agreement by the holders of two-thirds of the outstanding shares of Xcerra Common Stock are conditions to the consummation of the Merger. The obligations of Cohu, Merger Sub and Xcerra to complete the Merger are also subject to the satisfaction or waiver of several other conditions to the Merger set forth in the Merger Agreement and described in this joint proxy statement/prospectus. More information about Cohu, Merger Sub, Xcerra and the Merger is contained in this joint proxy statement/prospectus. We urge you to read this joint proxy statement/prospectus, and the documents incorporated by reference into this joint proxy statement/prospectus, carefully and in their entirety. In particular, we urge you to read carefully “Risk Factors” beginning on page 27.

After careful consideration, the board of directors of each of Cohu and Xcerra have determined that the Merger Agreement and the Merger are fair to, advisable and in the best interests of, their respective stockholders. Accordingly, the Cohu board of directors recommends that the Cohu stockholders vote FOR the Stock Issuance Proposal and FOR the Cohu Adjournment Proposal (as defined in Cohu’s “Notice of Special Meeting of Cohu Stockholders to be Held on August 30, 2018”) and the Xcerra board of directors recommends that the Xcerra stockholders vote FOR the approval of the Merger Proposal (as defined in Xcerra’s “Notice of Special Meeting of Xcerra Stockholders to be Held on August 30, 2018”), FOR the Xcerra Adjournment Proposal (as defined in Xcerra’s “Notice of Special Meeting of Xcerra Stockholders to be Held on August 30, 2018”) and FOR the Xcerra Non-Binding Advisory Proposal (as defined in Xcerra’s “Notice of Special Meeting of Xcerra Stockholders to be Held on August 30, 2018”).

We are very excited about the opportunities the Merger brings to both Cohu stockholders and Xcerra stockholders, and we thank you for your consideration and continued support.

To the Stockholders of Cohu, Inc.:

Cohu, Inc. ("Cohu") will hold a special meeting of stockholders (the "Cohu Special Meeting") at Cohu's corporate offices, located at 12367 Crosthwaite Circle, Poway, California 92064-6817, on August 30, 2018, at 8:30 a.m., Pacific Time, unless postponed or adjourned to a later date. The Cohu Special Meeting will be held for the following purposes:

1. to approve the issuance of Cohu common stock in connection with the merger (the "Merger") of Xavier Acquisition Corporation ("Merger Sub") with and into Xcerra Corporation ("Xcerra") with Xcerra continuing as the surviving corporation and a wholly owned subsidiary of Cohu, to the extent such issuance would require approval under NASDAQ Stock Market Rule 5635(a); the Merger is being effected pursuant to the Agreement and Plan of Merger, dated May 7, 2018, by and among Cohu, Merger Sub and Xcerra (the "Merger Agreement"), a copy of which is attached as Annex A to the joint proxy statement/ prospectus accompanying this notice (the "Stock Issuance Proposal"); and

2. to approve any adjournment of the Cohu Special Meeting, if necessary or appropriate, including to permit further solicitation of proxies if there are not sufficient votes at the time of the Cohu Special Meeting to approve the Stock Issuance Proposal (a "Cohu Adjournment Proposal").

These items of business are described in the accompanying joint proxy statement/prospectus. Please refer to the attached document, including the Merger Agreement and all other annexes, including any documents incorporated by reference, for further information with respect to the business to be transacted at the Cohu Special Meeting. You are encouraged to read the entire document carefully before voting. In particular, see the section entitled "Risk Factors" beginning on page 27.

Only Cohu stockholders of record at the close of business on July 30, 2018 are entitled to notice of the Cohu Special Meeting and to vote at the Cohu Special Meeting and any adjournments or postponements of the Cohu Special Meeting. The Cohu board of directors (the "Cohu Board") has fixed the close of business on July 30, 2018 as the record date for determination of Cohu stockholders entitled to receive notice of, and to vote at, the Cohu Special Meeting or any adjournments or postponements thereof.

The Cohu Board has unanimously approved and declared advisable the Merger Agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, including the Merger, and has determined that the Merger Agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, including the Merger, are fair to, advisable and in the best interests of Cohu and Cohu's stockholders. The Cohu Board has approved and declared fair, advisable and in the best interests of, Cohu and Cohu's stockholders, the issuance of Cohu's common stock in the Merger. In deciding to approve the Merger Agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, including the Merger and the issuance of Cohu common stock in the Merger, the Cohu Board considered a number of factors, including those listed in the section entitled "Recommendation of the Cohu Board and Cohu's Reasons for the Merger."

Whether or not you plan to attend the Cohu Special Meeting in person, please complete, sign and date the enclosed proxy card(s) as soon as possible and return it in the postage-paid envelope provided, or vote your shares of Cohu common stock by telephone or over the Internet as described in the accompanying joint proxy statement/prospectus. Submitting a proxy or voting by telephone or Internet now will not prevent you from being able to vote at the Cohu Special Meeting by attending in person and casting a vote. However, if you do not return or submit your proxy or vote your shares of Cohu common stock by telephone or over the Internet or vote in person at the Cohu Special Meeting, it will have no effect in determining the outcome of the Stock Issuance Proposal, provided that a quorum is achieved. If you attend the Cohu Special Meeting in person or by proxy, and you abstain from voting, that will have the same effect as a vote AGAINST approval of the Stock Issuance Proposal.

Cohu stockholders who hold their shares of Cohu common stock in “street name” and wish to submit a proxy must provide instructions to the broker, bank, trustee or other nominee that holds their shares of Cohu common stock as to how to vote their shares of Cohu common stock with respect to the proposals above. Q: What is this document?

A: This joint proxy statement/prospectus serves as the joint proxy statement through which Cohu and Xcerra provide their respective stockholders with important information regarding their respective special meetings, the Merger and the other transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement and solicit proxies to obtain approvals from their respective stockholders for the approval of the Merger Agreement (in the case of Xcerra) and the issuance of shares of Cohu common stock, par value $1.00 per share ("Cohu Common Stock"), in connection with the Merger (in the case of Cohu), to the extent such issuance requires approval pursuant to NASDAQ Stock Market Rule 5635(a), which, subject to certain exceptions, generally requires stockholder approval prior to issuances of common stock in connection with a merger to the extent such issuance would equal or exceed 20% of the issuer's issued and outstanding common stock before such issuance. It also serves as the prospectus by which Cohu will offer and issue Cohu Common Stock pursuant to the Merger.

Q: Why am I receiving this joint proxy statement/prospectus?

A: The board of directors of Cohu (the "Cohu Board"), the board of directors of Merger Sub, and the board of directors of Xcerra (the "Xcerra Board") have each approved the Merger of Merger Sub with and into Xcerra pursuant to the Merger Agreement that is described in this joint proxy statement/prospectus. A copy of the Merger Agreement is attached to this joint proxy statement/prospectus as Annex A. See "The Merger" and "The Merger Agreement" for more information.

In order to complete the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement, including the Merger, Xcerra stockholders must approve the Merger Agreement and Cohu stockholders must approve the issuance of shares of Cohu Common Stock in connection with the Merger, as such issuance would equal or exceed 20% of the issued and outstanding Cohu Common Stock before such issuance, and all other conditions to the Merger set forth in the Merger Agreement must be satisfied or waived. Cohu and Xcerra will hold separate special meetings of their respective stockholders to vote on these proposals. This joint proxy statement/prospectus contains important information, which you should read carefully, about the Merger Agreement, the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement, including the Merger and the issuance by Cohu of shares of Cohu Common Stock in connection with the Merger, and the respective special meetings of the Cohu stockholders and the Xcerra stockholders.

The enclosed proxy materials allow you to grant a proxy or vote your shares by telephone or Internet without attending Xcerra's or Cohu's respective special meeting in person.

Your vote is important. We encourage you to submit your proxy or vote your shares by telephone or Internet as soon as possible.

Q: What is the proposed transaction for which I am being asked to vote?

A: Cohu and Xcerra stockholders are being asked to vote with respect to two distinct matters. Xcerra stockholders are being asked to vote on a proposal to approve the Merger Agreement pursuant to which Merger Sub will merge with and into Xcerra, with Xcerra surviving such Merger as a wholly owned subsidiary of Cohu. Cohu stockholders are being asked to approve the Stock Issuance Proposal. See “The Merger — Overview” and “The Merger — Merger Consideration” for more information regarding the Merger and the Merger Consideration.

Q: What if approval of the Stock Issuance Proposal is not obtained?

A: The approval by the Cohu stockholders of the Stock Issuance Proposal is a condition to the obligations of the parties to the Merger Agreement to complete the Merger.

If the Cohu stockholders do not approve the issuance of shares of Cohu Common Stock pursuant to the Merger, then the parties are not obligated to consummate the Merger and each party will have the right to terminate the Merger Agreement.

Q: What if the Xcerra stockholder approval of the Merger Agreement is not obtained?

A: The approval by the Xcerra stockholders of the Merger Agreement is a condition to the obligations of the parties to the Merger Agreement to complete the Merger.

If Xcerra’s stockholders do not approve the Merger Agreement, then the Merger will not be consummated and each party will have the right to terminate the Merger Agreement.

Q: Why are Cohu and Xcerra proposing the Merger?

A: The Cohu Board and Xcerra Board each believe that the Merger will provide substantial strategic and financial benefits to the stockholders of Cohu and Xcerra, respectively. To review the reasons for each board of directors’ approval of the Merger and the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement, see “The Merger — Recommendation of the Cohu Board and Cohu’s Reasons for the Merger” and “The Merger — Recommendation of the Xcerra Board and Xcerra’s Reasons for the Merger” for more information.

Q: What are the positions of the Cohu Board and the Xcerra Board regarding the Merger and the related proposals that are being put to a vote of their respective stockholders?

A: The Cohu Board and the Xcerra Board have each unanimously approved and declared advisable the Merger Agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, including the Merger, and determined that the Merger Agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, including the Merger, are fair to, advisable and in the best interests of, the Cohu stockholders or Xcerra stockholders, as applicable. The Cohu Board unanimously recommends that Cohu stockholders vote: (1) FOR the Stock Issuance Proposal and (2) FOR the Cohu Adjournment Proposal at the Cohu Special Meeting. The Xcerra Board unanimously recommends that Xcerra stockholders vote: (1) FOR the approval of the Merger Agreement; (2) FOR any Xcerra Adjournment Proposal; and (3) FOR the Xcerra Non-Binding Advisory Proposal. See “The Merger — Recommendation of Cohu’s Board of Directors and Cohu’s Reasons for the Merger” and “The Merger — Recommendation of Xcerra’s Board of Directors and Xcerra’s Reasons for the Merger” for more information.

Q: What vote is required to approve each proposal on the agenda for the Cohu Special Meeting?

A: The approval of the Stock Issuance Proposal requires the affirmative vote of a majority of shares of Cohu Common Stock present in person or represented by proxy at the Cohu Special Meeting and entitled to vote, assuming a quorum is present. If you are a Cohu stockholder who attends the Cohu Special Meeting in person or by proxy, and you abstain from voting, that will have the same effect as a vote AGAINST approval of the Stock Issuance Proposal. Shares not in attendance whether by proxy or in person at the Cohu Special Meeting and broker non-votes will have no effect on the outcome of the Stock Issuance Proposal, provided that a quorum is achieved. See “Questions and Answers about the Special Meetings and the Merger — What if I don’t provide my bank, broker or other nominee with instructions on how to vote?” for an explanation of broker non-votes.

To approve the Cohu Adjournment Proposal, the affirmative vote of a majority of the shares of Cohu Common Stock present in person or represented by proxy at the Cohu Special Meeting and entitled to vote is required, regardless of whether a quorum is present. If you are present in person or represented by proxy at the Cohu Special Meeting abstain from voting, it will have the same effect as a vote AGAINST the Cohu Adjournment Proposal, while broker non-votes and shares of Cohu Common Stock not in attendance at the Cohu Special Meeting will have no effect on the outcome of the Cohu Adjournment Proposal. See “The Cohu Special Meeting” for more information.

Q: What vote is required to approve each proposal on the agenda for the Xcerra Special Meeting?

A: The affirmative vote of the holders of two-thirds of the outstanding shares of Xcerra’s common stock, par value $0.05 per share (“Xcerra Common Stock”) on the close of business on July 27, 2018 (the “Xcerra Record Date”) is required to approve the Merger Agreement. Approval of the Merger Agreement by Xcerra’s stockholders is a condition to the closing of the Merger.

Approval of the proposal to Xcerra Adjournment Proposal, whether or not a quorum is present, requires the affirmative vote of a majority of the shares of Xcerra Common Stock having voting power present in person or represented by proxy at the Xcerra Special Meeting and entitled to vote on the subject matter. Approval of the Xcerra Non-Binding Advisory Proposal requires the affirmative vote of a majority of the shares of Xcerra Common Stock having voting power present in person or represented by proxy at the Xcerra Special Meeting and entitled to vote on the subject matter.

If an Xcerra stockholder abstains from voting, that abstention will have the same effect as if the stockholder voted “AGAINST” the proposal to approve the Merger Agreement. For Xcerra stockholders who abstain from voting their shares of Xcerra Common Stock, such abstention will have the same effect as if such Xcerra stockholder voted “AGAINST” any Xcerra Adjournment Proposal and “AGAINST” the Xcerra Non-Binding Advisory Proposal. An abstention occurs when a stockholder attends a meeting either (i) in person, but abstains from voting or (ii) by proxy, by marking the box labeled “Abstain.” If an Xcerra stockholder signs and returns its proxy card(s) but does not mark its card(s) to tell the proxies how to vote its shares on each proposal, the shares will be voted as recommended by the Xcerra Board.

See “The Xcerra Special Meeting” for more information.

Q: Why am I being asked to cast a non-binding, advisory vote regarding compensation that will or may become payable to Xcerra’s named executive officers in connection with the Merger?

A: SEC rules require Xcerra to seek a non-binding, advisory vote regarding compensation that will or may become payable by Xcerra to its named executive officers in connection with the Merger.

Q: What is the compensation that will or may become payable to Xcerra’s named executive officers in connection with the Merger for purposes of this advisory vote?

A: The compensation that will or may become payable by Xcerra to its named executive officers in connection with the Merger is certain compensation that is tied to or based on the Merger and payable to certain of Xcerra’s named executive officers. For further detail, see the section captioned “Xcerra Proposal 3: Advisory, Non-binding Vote on Merger-Related Executive Compensation Arrangements.”

Q: What will happen if stockholders do not approve the compensation that will or may become payable by Xcerra to its named executive officers in connection with the Merger at the Xcerra Special Meeting?

A: Approval of the Xcerra Non-Binding Advisory Proposal is not a condition to completion of the Merger. The vote with respect the Xcerra Non-Binding Advisory Proposal is an advisory vote and will not be binding on Xcerra. If the Merger Agreement is approved by the Xcerra stockholders and the Merger is completed, the compensation that will or may become payable by Xcerra to its named executive officers in connection with the Merger may be paid to Xcerra's named executive officers even if the Xcerra stockholders fail to approve the Xcerra Non-Binding Advisory Proposal.

Q: What is the difference between holding shares as a stockholder of record and in street name?

A: If your shares are registered directly in your name with Cohu's or Xcerra's transfer agent, you are considered, with respect to those shares, to be the "stockholder of record." In this case, this joint proxy statement/prospectus and your proxy card have been sent directly to you by Cohu or Xcerra.

If your shares are held through a bank, broker or other nominee, you are considered the "beneficial owner" of shares of common stock held in "street name." In that case, this joint proxy statement/prospectus has been forwarded to you by your bank, broker or other nominee who is considered, with respect to those shares, to be the stockholder of record. As the beneficial owner, you have the right to direct your bank, broker or other nominee how to vote your shares by following their instructions for voting. You are also invited to attend the Cohu Special Meeting (if you are a beneficial owner of Cohu Common Stock) or the Xcerra Special Meeting (if you are a beneficial owner of Xcerra Common Stock). However, because you are not the stockholder of record, you may not vote your shares of Cohu Common Stock or Xcerra Common Stock in person at the Cohu Special Meeting or the Xcerra Special Meeting, respectively, unless you obtain a "legal proxy" from your bank, broker or other nominee.

Q: What will happen in the Merger?

A: In the Merger, Merger Sub, a wholly owned subsidiary of Cohu, will merge with and into Xcerra, the separate corporate existence of Merger Sub will cease, and Xcerra will continue as the surviving corporation of the Merger (the "Surviving Corporation") and a wholly owned subsidiary of Cohu. If the Merger is completed, the Xcerra Common Stock will be delisted from NASDAQ and will be deregistered under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the "Exchange Act").

Q: Will the Merger affect the board of directors of Cohu after the Merger?

A: Yes. At the effective time of the Merger (the "Effective Time"), two members of the Xcerra Board will be appointed to the Cohu Board.

Q: What will Xcerra stockholders receive in the Merger?

A: At the Effective Time, each share of Xcerra Common Stock issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time (other than (a) dissenting shares and (b) shares held by Cohu, Merger Sub, Xcerra or any direct or indirect wholly owned subsidiary of Cohu or Xcerra ("Cancelled Shares")) will be converted into the right to receive (i) $9.00 in cash, without interest (the "Cash Consideration"), and (ii) 0.2109 of a validly issued, fully paid and nonassessable share of Cohu Common Stock, (the "Stock Consideration" and, together with the Cash Consideration, the "Merger Consideration").

Q: How does the Merger Consideration compare to the unaffected market price of the Xcerra Common Stock?

A: As of [●], 2018, the most recently ended full trading day prior to the date of this joint proxy statement/prospectus, the Merger Consideration constitutes a premium of (1) approximately [●]% to the closing price of Xcerra Common Stock on May 7, 2018, the last full trading day prior to the date on which the Merger was announced and (2) approximately [●]% to the average closing price of Xcerra Common Stock over the 30 trading day period ending on May 7, 2018, the last full trading day prior to the date on which the Merger was announced.

Q: What percentage of Cohu Common Stock will be owned by former Xcerra stockholders following the consummation of the Merger?

A: Immediately following the consummation of the Merger, former Xcerra stockholders will own approximately 29% of the issued and outstanding Cohu Common Stock based on the number of issued and outstanding shares of Cohu Common Stock and Xcerra Common Stock on July 16, 2018.

Q: Do Xcerra stockholders have appraisal rights?

A: Under the Massachusetts Business Corporation Act (the “MBCA”), Xcerra is required to state whether it has concluded that Xcerra stockholders are, are not or may be entitled to assert appraisal rights, which are generally available to stockholders of a merging Massachusetts corporation under Section 13.02(a)(1) of the MBCA, subject to certain exceptions. For the reasons described under the caption “The Merger — Appraisal Rights for Xcerra Stockholders,” Xcerra has concluded that Xcerra stockholders may be entitled to appraisal rights. The relevant provisions of the MBCA have not been the subject of judicial interpretation and Xcerra and Cohu reserve the right to contest the validity and availability of any purported demand for appraisal rights in connection with the Merger.

Under Part 13 of the MBCA, Xcerra stockholders who believe they are or may be entitled to appraisal rights in connection with the Merger must, in order to exercise those rights:

- prior to the Xcerra Special Meeting, deliver to Xcerra a written notice of intent to demand payment for such stockholders’ shares of Xcerra Common Stock if the Merger is effectuated;
- NOT vote for the proposal to approve the Merger Agreement; and
- comply with the other procedures under Part 13 of the MBCA.

Failure to follow exactly the procedures specified under the MBCA may result in the loss of any appraisal rights. If you hold your shares of Xcerra Common Stock through a bank, brokerage firm or other nominee and you wish to exercise appraisal rights, you should consult with your bank, brokerage firm or other nominee to determine the appropriate procedures for the making of a demand for appraisal by your bank, brokerage firm or nominee. See the section captioned “The Merger — Appraisal Rights for Xcerra Stockholders” and the text of Part 13 of the MBCA reproduced in its entirety as Annex D to this joint proxy statement/prospectus.

Q: Do any of Cohu’s directors or officers have interests in the Merger that may differ from those of Cohu’s stockholders generally?

A: Yes. In considering the recommendation of the Cohu Board with respect to the Stock Issuance Proposal, Cohu stockholders should be aware that Cohu’s directors and executive officers may have interests in the Merger that are different from, or in addition to, the interests of Cohu stockholders generally. In (i) evaluating and negotiating the Merger Agreement, (ii) approving the Merger Agreement and the Merger, and (iii) recommending that the Cohu stockholders approve the Stock Issuance Proposal, the Cohu Board was aware of and considered these interests to the extent that they existed at the time, among other matters. For more information, see the section of this joint proxy statement/prospectus captioned “The Merger — Interests of Cohu’s Directors and Executive Officers in the Merger.”

We currently expect that Cohu’s directors and executive officers will vote their shares of Cohu Common Stock (1) FOR the Stock Issuance Proposal and (2) FOR the Cohu Adjournment Proposal, although none of them has entered into any agreement requiring them to do so.

Q: Do any of Xcerra’s directors or officers have interests in the Merger that may differ from those of Xcerra’s stockholders generally?

A: Yes. In considering the recommendation of the Xcerra Board with respect to the proposal to approve the Merger Agreement, Xcerra stockholders should be aware that Xcerra’s directors and executive officers may have interests in the Merger that are different from, or in addition to, the interests of Xcerra stockholders generally. In (i) evaluating and negotiating the Merger Agreement; (ii) approving the Merger Agreement and the Merger; and (iii) recommending that the Merger Agreement be approved by Xcerra stockholders, the Xcerra Board was aware of and considered these interests to the extent that they existed at the time, among other matters. For more information, see the section of this proxy statement captioned “The Merger — Interests of Xcerra’s Directors and Executive Officers in the Merger.”

We currently expect that Xcerra’s directors and executive officers will vote their shares of Xcerra Common Stock (1) “FOR” the approval of the Merger Agreement; (2) “FOR” any Xcerra Adjournment Proposal; and (3) “FOR” the Xcerra Non-Binding Advisory Proposal.

Q: When do you expect to complete the Merger?

A: While Cohu and Xcerra expect to complete the Merger in the fourth calendar quarter of 2018, the completion of the Merger is subject to the satisfaction of certain conditions to closing, including the receipt of required regulatory approvals. See “The Merger Agreement — Conditions to the Closing of the Merger.”

Q: What is required to complete the Merger?

A: Each of Cohu’s and Xcerra’s obligation to consummate the Merger is subject to a number of conditions specified in the Merger Agreement, including the following: (i) approval of the issuance of Cohu Common Stock in the Merger by the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of Cohu Common Stock represented in person or by proxy at the Cohu Special Meeting; (ii) approval of the Merger Agreement by the affirmative vote of the holders of two-thirds of the outstanding shares of Xcerra Common Stock; (iii) expiration or termination of the waiting period under the Hart-Scott-Rodino Antitrust Improvements Act of 1976 and receipt of customary antitrust clearances in Germany; (iv) the Cohu Common Stock to be issued in the Merger being approved for listing on NASDAQ; (v) the Registration Statement on Form S-4 (the “Registration Statement”) which will be filed by Cohu with respect to the Cohu Common Stock to be issued in the Merger being declared effective by the SEC; (vi) the representations and warranties of each of Cohu and Xcerra being true and correct, subject to the materiality standards contained in the Merger Agreement; (vii) the absence of specified adverse laws or orders; (viii) material compliance by each of Cohu and Xcerra with its respective covenants contained in the Merger Agreement; and (ix) the absence of a material adverse effect with respect to the other party after execution of the Merger Agreement. The consummation of the Merger is not subject to a financing condition.

Q: What are the U.S. federal income tax consequences of the Merger to U.S. holders of Xcerra Common Stock?

A: The exchange of Xcerra Common Stock pursuant to the Merger will be a taxable transaction for U.S. federal income tax purposes. Accordingly, a U.S. holder (as defined in “Material United States Federal Income Tax Consequences”) of Xcerra Common Stock who receives the Merger Consideration in exchange for such U.S. holder’s shares of Xcerra Common Stock generally will recognize taxable gain or loss in an amount equal to the difference, if any, between the Cash Consideration plus the fair market value of the Stock Consideration received and such U.S. holder’s adjusted tax basis in the shares of Xcerra Common Stock that are exchanged. See “Material United States Federal Income Tax Consequences” for more information.

Q: What is the amount of debt financing to be incurred in connection with the Merger?

A: In connection with the proposed Merger, on May 7, 2018, Cohu obtained a financing commitment (the “Commitment Letter”) from Deutsche Bank AG New York Branch (the “Lender”) pursuant to which the Lender (acting alone or through or with affiliates selected by it) has committed to provide to Cohu a first lien term loan facility in an aggregate principal amount of $350.0 million (the “Term Facility”) and if cash on hand of Xcerra is not available at the closing of the Merger, a cash bridge facility in an aggregate principal amount of up to $100.0 million (the “Cash Bridge Facility” and, together with the Term Facility, the “Facilities”) to finance a portion of the Cash Consideration and pay related costs and expenses. The obligations of the Lender to provide the Facilities are subject to a number of customary conditions. The Commitment Letter terminates upon the earliest of (i) the valid termination or abandonment of the Merger Agreement prior to the consummation of the Merger, (ii) the consummation of the Merger without the use of any Facility, and (iii) the Termination Date (as defined in the Merger Agreement and including any extension of the Termination Date in accordance with the Merger Agreement).

Q: What is the Marketing Period?

A: The Marketing Period (as defined in “The Merger Agreement — Closing and Effective Time”) is the first period of twenty consecutive business days, subject to certain terms and excluded dates set forth in the Merger Agreement, commencing on the first date when and throughout which period (i) Cohu will have received from Xcerra certain required financing information in connection with the debt financing and such financing information meets certain requirements set forth in the Merger Agreement and (ii) the conditions to each party’s obligation to effect the Merger and the conditions to the obligations of Cohu and Merger Sub to effect the Merger will have been satisfied and nothing has occurred and no condition or state of fact exists that would cause any of such conditions to fail to be satisfied assuming the closing were to be scheduled for any time during such twenty consecutive business day period. For more information about the Marketing Period please see “The Merger Agreement — Closing and Effective Time.”

Q: Should Xcerra stockholders send in stock certificates now?

A: NO, XCERRA STOCKHOLDERS SHOULD NOT SEND STOCK CERTIFICATE(S) WITH THE PROXY CARD(S). If the Merger is completed, Cohu will send Xcerra stockholders written instructions for sending in their stock certificates or, in the case of book-entry shares, for surrendering their book-entry shares. See “The Merger Agreement — Exchange and Payment Procedures” for more information.

A: Owners of Cohu Common Stock are eligible to vote at the Cohu Special Meeting if they are stockholders of record at the close of business on July 30, 2018 (the "Cohu Record Date"). See "The Cohu Special Meeting — Record Date; Outstanding Shares; Shares Entitled to Vote" for more information.

Q: Does my vote matter?

A: Yes, your vote is very important. Cohu and Xcerra cannot consummate the Merger unless Xcerra stockholders approve the Merger Agreement and the Cohu stockholders approve the Stock Issuance Proposal. Whether or not you plan to attend the Cohu Special Meeting or Xcerra Special Meeting, please vote as soon as possible by following the instructions in this joint proxy statement/prospectus.

In the event the Merger is not consummated for any reason, Xcerra will remain an independent public company, Xcerra Common Stock will continue to be listed and traded on NASDAQ and registered under the Exchange Act, and Xcerra will continue to file public reports with the SEC. Under specified circumstances, Xcerra will be required to pay Cohu a termination fee upon the termination of the Merger Agreement; and under different specified circumstances, Cohu will be required to pay Xcerra a termination fee upon the termination of the Merger Agreement. See "The Merger Agreement — Termination Fees" for more information.

Q: What constitutes a quorum?

A: For purposes of the Cohu Special Meeting, a quorum is the presence at the Cohu Special Meeting, either in person or by proxy, of holders of shares of outstanding Cohu Common Stock entitled to vote at the Cohu Special Meeting representing at least a majority of the outstanding voting power of Cohu Common Stock.

For purposes of the Xcerra Special Meeting, a quorum is the presence at the Xcerra Special Meeting, either in person or by proxy, of holders of shares of outstanding Xcerra Common Stock entitled to vote at the Xcerra Special Meeting representing at least a majority of the outstanding voting power of Xcerra Common Stock.

Shares of Cohu Common Stock or Xcerra Common Stock that are represented in person or by proxy at the Cohu Special Meeting or the Xcerra Special Meeting, respectively, but for which the holders have abstained from voting, if any, will be included in the calculation of the number of shares of Cohu Common Stock or Xcerra Common Stock represented at the Cohu Special Meeting or Xcerra Special Meeting, respectively, for purposes of determining whether a quorum has been achieved. Broker non-votes will not be included in the calculation of the number of shares of Cohu Common Stock or Xcerra Common Stock represented at the Cohu Special Meeting or Xcerra Special Meeting, respectively, for purposes of determining whether quorum has been achieved.

Q: What should I do now?

A: You should read this joint proxy statement/prospectus carefully, including the annexes, and return your completed, signed and dated proxy card(s) by mail in the enclosed postage-paid envelope or submit your voting instructions by telephone or over the Internet as soon as possible so that your shares will be represented and voted at the Cohu Special Meeting or the Xcerra Special Meeting, as applicable. A number of banks and brokerage firms participate in a program that also permits stockholders whose shares are held in “street name” to direct their vote by telephone or over the Internet. This option, if available, will be reflected in the voting instructions from the bank or brokerage firm that accompany this joint proxy statement/prospectus. If your shares are held in an account at a bank or brokerage firm that participates in such a program, you may direct the vote of these shares by telephone or over the Internet by following the voting instructions enclosed with the proxy form from the bank or brokerage firm. See “The Cohu Special Meeting” and “The Xcerra Special Meeting” for more information.

Q: What happens if I sell or otherwise transfer my shares before the Cohu Special Meeting or the Xcerra Special Meeting?

A: If you transfer your shares of Xcerra Common Stock or Cohu Common Stock after the Xcerra Record Date or the Cohu Record Date, as applicable, but before the Xcerra Special Meeting or Cohu Special Meeting, respectively, you will retain (subject to any arrangements made with the purchaser of such stockholder’s shares) your right to vote at the Xcerra Special Meeting or Cohu Special Meeting, as applicable. In order for Xcerra stockholders to receive the Merger Consideration pursuant to the Merger, they must hold their shares of Xcerra Common Stock through the Effective Time.

Q: How do I vote my shares of Cohu Common Stock?

A: You may vote your shares of Cohu Common Stock by proxy or, subject to the below, in person at the Cohu Special Meeting. Cohu recommends that you submit your proxy even if you plan to attend the Cohu Special Meeting. If you submit your proxy, you may change your vote if you attend and vote at the Cohu Special Meeting; however, mere attendance at the Cohu Special Meeting after submitting your proxy will have no effect on your vote.

You may use the enclosed proxy card(s) to tell the persons named as proxies how to vote your shares of Cohu Common Stock. If you properly complete, sign and date your proxy card(s) or submit your voting instructions by telephone or over the Internet, your shares of Cohu Common Stock will be voted in accordance with your instructions. The named proxies will vote all shares of Cohu Common Stock at the Cohu Special Meeting for which proxies have been properly submitted (whether by mail, telephone or over the Internet) and not revoked.

The deadline for voting electronically through the Internet or by telephone is 11:59 p.m., Eastern Time, on August 29, 2018.

Q: How do I vote my shares of Xcerra Common Stock?

A: If you hold shares of Xcerra Common Stock that are registered in your name with Xcerra’s transfer agent, Computershare Investor Services, you may cause such shares of Xcerra Common Stock to be voted by returning a signed and dated proxy card in the accompanying prepaid envelope, or may vote in person at the Xcerra Special Meeting. Additionally, you may grant a proxy electronically over the Internet or by telephone by following the instructions on the enclosed proxy card. You must have the enclosed proxy card available, and follow the instructions on the proxy card, in order to grant a proxy electronically over the Internet or by telephone. Based on the received proxy cards or Internet and telephone proxies, the proxy holders will vote your shares of Xcerra Common Stock according to your directions.

If you plan to attend the Xcerra Special Meeting and wish to vote in person, you will be given a ballot at the Xcerra Special Meeting. Even if shares of Xcerra Common Stock are registered in your name, you are encouraged to vote by proxy even if you plan to attend the Xcerra Special Meeting in person. If you attend the Xcerra Special Meeting and vote in person by ballot, such vote will revoke any previously submitted proxy.

The deadline for voting electronically through the Internet or by telephone is 11:59 p.m., Eastern Time, on August 29, 2018.

Q: What if I hold shares in both Cohu and Xcerra?

A: If you are a Cohu Stockholder and an Xcerra Stockholder, you will receive two separate packages of proxy materials. A vote as an Xcerra stockholder for the proposal to approve the Merger Agreement will not constitute a vote as a Cohu stockholder for approval of Stock Issuance Proposal, or vice versa. THEREFORE, PLEASE, SIGN, DATE AND RETURN ALL PROXY CARDS THAT YOU RECEIVE, WHETHER FROM COHU OR XCERRA, OR SUBMIT A PROXY AS BOTH A COHU STOCKHOLDER AND AN XCERRA STOCKHOLDER OVER THE INTERNET.

Q: What is a Proxy?

A: A proxy is your legal designation of another person, referred to as a “proxy,” to vote your shares of Cohu Common Stock or Xcerra Common Stock, as applicable. The written document describing the matters to be considered and voted on at the Cohu Special Meeting and the Xcerra Special Meeting, respectively, is called a “proxy statement.” The document used to designate a proxy to vote your shares of Cohu Common Stock or Xcerra Common Stock, as applicable, is called a “proxy card.”

With respect to the matters to be voted on at the Cohu Special Meeting, Luis A. Müller, Cohu’s President and Chief Executive Officer, Jeffrey D. Jones, Cohu’s VP Finance and Chief Financial Officer, and Thomas D. Kampfer, Cohu’s VP, Corporate Development, General Counsel and Secretary, with full power of substitution, are the proxy holders for the Cohu Special Meeting.

With respect to the matters to be voted on at the Xcerra Special Meeting, David G. Tacelli, Xcerra’s President and Chief Executive Officer, Mark J. Gallenberger, Xcerra’s Chief Financial Officer and Chief Operating Officer, and Colin Savoy, Xcerra’s Chief Legal Counsel and Corporate Secretary, with full power of substitution, are the proxy holders for the Xcerra Special Meeting.

Q: If I am planning to attend the Cohu Special Meeting or Xcerra Special Meeting, should I return my proxy card(s)?

A: Yes. Returning your completed, signed and dated proxy card(s) or voting by telephone or over the Internet ensures that your shares will be represented and voted at the Cohu Special Meeting or Xcerra Special Meeting, as applicable, in the case you are unable to attend. See “The Cohu Special Meeting — How to Vote” and “The Xcerra Special Meeting — Voting of Proxies” for more information.

Q: How will my proxy be voted?

A: If you complete, sign and date your proxy card(s) or vote by telephone or over the Internet, your shares of Cohu Common Stock or Xcerra Common Stock will be voted in accordance with your instructions. If you sign and date your proxy card(s) but do not indicate how you want to vote at the Cohu Special Meeting or Xcerra Special Meeting, respectively:

- for Cohu stockholders of record as of the Cohu Record Date, your shares of Cohu Common Stock will be voted FOR the Stock Issuance Proposal and FOR any Cohu Adjournment Proposal.
- for Xcerra stockholders of record as of the Xcerra Record Date, your shares of Xcerra Common Stock will be voted FOR the approval of the Merger Agreement; FOR any Xcerra Adjournment Proposal; and FOR the Xcerra Non-Binding Advisory Proposal.

Q: Can I change my vote after I mail my proxy card(s) or vote by telephone or over the Internet?

A: Yes. If you are a stockholder of record of Cohu Common Stock or of Xcerra Common Stock (that is, you hold your shares in your own name and not through a bank, broker or other nominee) as of the close of business on the Cohu Record Date or Xcerra Record Date, as applicable, you can change your vote by:

- sending a written notice to the corporate secretary of Cohu or Xcerra, as applicable, that is received prior to your special meeting and states that you revoke your proxy;

- signing, dating and delivering a new valid proxy card(s) bearing a later date that is received prior to the Cohu Special Meeting or Xcerra Special Meeting, as applicable;
- voting again by telephone or over the Internet by 11:59 p.m. Eastern Time on August 29, 2018; or
- attending the Cohu Special Meeting or Xcerra Special Meeting, as applicable, and voting in person, although your attendance alone will not revoke your proxy.

If your shares are held in a “street name” account, you must contact your broker, bank or other nominee to change your vote.

Q: What if my bank, broker or other nominee holds my shares in “street name”?

A: If a bank, broker or other nominee holds your shares for your benefit but not in your own name, your shares are in “street name.” In that case, your bank, broker or other nominee will send you a voting instruction form to use in voting your shares. The availability of telephone and Internet voting depends on the voting procedures of your bank, broker or other nominee. Please follow the instructions on the voting instruction form sent to you by your bank, broker or other nominee. If your shares are held in street name and you wish to vote in person at the Cohu Special Meeting or Xcerra Special Meeting, you must contact your bank, broker or other nominee and request a document called a “legal proxy.” You must bring this legal proxy to the Cohu Special Meeting or Xcerra Special Meeting, as applicable, in order to vote in person.

Q: What if I don’t provide my bank, broker or other nominee with instructions on how to vote?

A: Generally, a bank, broker or other nominee may vote the shares that it holds for you only in accordance with your instructions. However, if your bank, broker or other nominee has not received your instructions, your bank, broker or other nominee has the discretion to vote on certain matters that are considered routine. A “broker non-vote” occurs if your bank, broker or other nominee cannot vote on a particular matter because your bank, broker or other nominee has not received instructions from you and because the proposal is not routine. None of the matters being presented to Cohu stockholders for a vote at the Cohu Special Meeting or to Xcerra Stockholders at the Xcerra Special Meeting is considered a routine matter. Therefore, your bank, broker or other nominee will not be permitted to vote at the Cohu Special Meeting or Xcerra Special Meeting without instruction from you.

Q: What if I abstain from voting?

A: Your abstention from voting will have the following effect:

If you are a Cohu stockholder:

If a Cohu stockholder abstains from voting, that abstention will have the same effect as if the Cohu stockholder voted AGAINST the Stock Issuance Proposal. If a Cohu stockholder abstains from voting, that abstention will have the same effect as if the Cohu stockholder voted AGAINST the Cohu Adjournment Proposal. An abstention occurs when a stockholder attends a meeting either (i) in person, but abstains from voting or (ii) by proxy, by marking the box labeled “Abstain.” If a Cohu stockholder signs and returns its proxy card(s) but does not mark its card(s) to tell the proxies how to vote its shares on each proposal, the shares will be voted as recommended by the Cohu Board.

If you are an Xcerra stockholder:

If an Xcerra stockholder abstains from voting, that abstention will have the same effect as if the Xcerra stockholder voted AGAINST the proposal to approve the Merger Agreement. If an Xcerra stockholder abstains from voting, that abstention will have the same effect as if the Xcerra stockholder voted AGAINST any Xcerra Adjournment Proposal and AGAINST the Xcerra Non-Binding Advisory Proposal. An abstention occurs when a stockholder attends a meeting either (i) in person, but abstains from voting or (ii) by proxy, by marking the box labeled “Abstain.” If an Xcerra stockholder signs and returns its proxy card(s) but does not mark its card(s) to tell the proxies how to vote its shares on each proposal, the shares will be voted as recommended by the Xcerra Board.

Q: What does it mean if I receive multiple proxy cards?

A: You may hold shares in multiple accounts, such as brokerage accounts and 401(k) accounts. It is important that you complete, sign, date and return each proxy card or voting instruction form you receive or vote using the telephone or the Internet as described in the instructions included with your proxy card(s) or voting instruction form(s).

Q: Where can I find the voting results of the special meetings?

A: If available, each of Cohu and Xcerra may announce preliminary voting results at the conclusion of the Cohu Special Meeting and the Xcerra Special Meeting, as applicable. Each of Cohu and Xcerra intends to publish final voting results in a Current Report on Form 8-K to be filed with the SEC following the Cohu Special Meeting and the Xcerra Special Meeting, respectively. All reports that Cohu and Xcerra file with the SEC are publicly available when filed. See the section of this joint proxy statement/prospectus captioned “Where You Can Find More Information.”

Q: What will happen to Xcerra equity awards at the time of the Merger?

A: Pursuant to the Merger Agreement, each Xcerra restricted stock unit (each, an “Xcerra RSU”) that is outstanding and either (i) vests automatically according to its terms at the Effective Time or (ii) is held by a member of the Xcerra Board (each, a “Vested RSU”) will be cancelled and terminated as of the Effective Time and the holder of such Vested RSU will receive:

(1) an amount in cash (without interest) equal to the product of (x) $9.00 multiplied by (y) the total number of shares of Xcerra Common Stock represented by such Vested RSU; and

(2) a number of shares of Cohu Common Stock equal to the product of (x) 0.2109 multiplied by (y) the total number of shares of Xcerra Common Stock represented by such Vested RSU immediately prior to the Effective Time (such consideration, the “Vested RSU Consideration”).

Each Xcerra RSU that is outstanding and unvested as of the Effective Time (an “Unvested RSU”) will be assumed by Cohu and shall be converted into a Cohu restricted stock unit award (each, an “Assumed RSU”) representing the number of whole shares of Cohu Common Stock equal to the product of (1) the number of shares of Xcerra Common Stock represented by such Unvested RSU immediately prior to the Effective Time multiplied by (2) the Equity Award Exchange Ratio, rounded down to the nearest whole share. The “Equity Award Exchange Ratio” is the sum of (1) 0.2109, plus (2) the quotient of (x) $9.00 divided by (y) the volume weighted average of the trading prices of Cohu Common Stock on each of the three consecutive trading days ending on the trading day that is one trading day prior the Merger closing date.

Pursuant to the Merger Agreement, Xcerra will not establish any new offering period under Xcerra’s Third Amended and Restated Employee Stock Purchase Plan (the “Xcerra ESPP”) and Xcerra will take all actions necessary so that (i) any offering period and purchase period (or similar period during which shares may be purchased) underway as of the date of the Merger Agreement under the Xcerra ESPP is terminated as of no later than the last payroll date immediately preceding the Effective Time (the “Final Exercise Date”); (ii) any pro-rata adjustments that may be necessary to reflect any shortened offering period or purchase period (or similar period) are made and so that any such shortened offering period or purchase period (or similar period) is treated as a fully effective and completed offering period or purchase period, as applicable, for all purposes under the Xcerra ESPP; (iii) each participant’s shares purchase right under the Xcerra ESPP outstanding as of the Final Exercise Date are exercised as of the Final Exercise Date; (iv) no further offering periods or purchase periods (or similar periods during which shares may be purchased) will commence under the Xcerra ESPP on or after the date of the Merger Agreement; (v) no participant in the Xcerra ESPP may increase the rate of his or her contributions to the Xcerra ESPP on or after the date of the Merger Agreement; (vi) no individual who is not participating in the Xcerra ESPP as of the date of the Merger Agreement may commence participation in the Xcerra ESPP on or after the date of the Merger Agreement; and (vii) the Xcerra ESPP is terminated as of the Final Exercise Date, provided, however, that termination of the Xcerra ESPP will be subject to the consummation of the Merger.

Quorum and Required Vote

A quorum of stockholders is necessary to hold a valid special meeting of Cohu. The required quorum for the transaction of business at the Cohu Special Meeting is a majority of the issued and outstanding shares of Cohu Common Stock entitled to vote at the Cohu Special Meeting, whether present in person or represented by proxy. Any abstentions will be counted as present and entitled to vote in determining whether a quorum is present at the Cohu Special Meeting. For shares held in "street name," your bank, broker or other nominee will not be permitted to vote at the Cohu Special Meeting without specific instructions as to how to vote from you as the beneficial owner of the shares of Cohu Common Stock. A broker non-vote (as defined below) will have no effect on the Stock Issuance Proposal (assuming a quorum is achieved) or any proposal to adjourn the Cohu Special Meeting. Broker non-votes will not be counted as present for purposes of determining whether a quorum is present at the Cohu Special Meeting.

The approval of the Stock Issuance Proposal requires the affirmative vote of a majority of shares present in person or represented by proxy at the Cohu Special Meeting, assuming a quorum is present. Approval of any Cohu Adjournment Proposal requires the affirmative vote of a majority of the shares of Cohu Common Stock present in person or represented by proxy at the Cohu Special Meeting and entitled to vote is required, regardless of whether a quorum is present.

The proposals to be considered at the Cohu Special Meeting are non-routine matters, and banks, brokers and other nominees cannot vote on these proposals without such Cohu stockholder’s instructions. Therefore, it is important that each Cohu stockholder cast its vote or instruct its bank, broker or nominee on how such Cohu stockholder wishes to vote its shares of Cohu Common Stock.

The Xcerra Special Meeting

Required Vote

The affirmative vote of the holders of two-thirds of the outstanding shares of Xcerra Common Stock is required to approve the Merger Agreement. Approval of any Xcerra Adjournment Proposal, whether or not a quorum is present, requires the affirmative vote of a majority of the shares of Xcerra Common Stock having voting power present in person or represented by a proxy at the Xcerra Special Meeting and entitled to vote on the subject matter. Approval, by non-binding advisory vote, of the Xcerra Non-Binding Advisory Proposal requires the affirmative vote of a majority of the shares of Xcerra Common Stock having voting power present in person or represented by proxy at the Xcerra Special Meeting and entitled to vote on the subject matter.

Voting and Proxies

Any Xcerra stockholder of record entitled to vote may submit a proxy by returning a signed proxy card by mail in the accompanying prepaid reply envelope or granting a proxy electronically over the Internet or by

As of July 16, 2018, Xcerra’s directors and officers beneficially owned and were entitled to vote, in the aggregate, 1,938,811 shares of Xcerra Common Stock, representing approximately 3.5% of the shares of Xcerra Common Stock outstanding on July 16, 2018. Xcerra’s directors and executive officers have informed Xcerra that they currently intend to vote: (1) “FOR” the approval of the Merger Agreement; (2) “FOR” any Xcerra Adjournment Proposal; and (3) “FOR” the Xcerra Non-Binding Advisory Proposal.

Interests of Cohu Directors and Executive Officers in the Merger (beginning on page 133)

Some of Cohu’s executive officers and members of its board of directors, in their capacities as such, may have financial interests in the Merger that may be different from, or in addition to, their interests as stockholders and the interests of Cohu stockholders generally.

Cohu’s named executive officers are not party to any agreements or understandings concerning compensation that is based on or otherwise relates to the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement.

The members of the Cohu Board were aware of and considered these interests, among other matters, in evaluating and negotiating the Merger Agreement and the Merger, and in recommending that Cohu stockholders vote for the Stock Issuance Proposal.

The interests summarized above are discussed in more detail in the section entitled “The Merger — Interests of Cohu Directors and Executive Officers in the Merger.”

Interests of Xcerra Directors and Executive Officers in the Merger (beginning on page 133)

When considering the recommendation of the Xcerra Board that Xcerra stockholders vote to approve the proposal to approve the Merger Agreement, Xcerra stockholders should be aware that Xcerra’s directors and executive officers may have interests in the Merger that are different from, or in addition to, the interests of Xcerra's stockholders. In (i) evaluating and negotiating the Merger Agreement; (ii) approving the Merger Agreement and the Merger; and (iii) recommending that the Merger Agreement be approved by Xcerra's stockholders, the Xcerra Board was aware of and considered these interests to the extent that they existed at the time, among other matters. These interests include the following:

- compensation to be paid to members of the Xcerra Board who are appointed to the Cohu Board following the consummation of the Merger;
- the entitlement of Xcerra executive officers to receive payments and benefits under Change-of-Control Employment Agreements and executive employment agreements in connection with certain terminations of employment;
- continued indemnification and directors' and officers' liability insurance to be provided by the Surviving Corporation;
- termination of Vested RSUs held by certain Xcerra executive officers and members of the Xcerra Board at the Effective Time in exchange for the Vested RSU Consideration;
- conversion of Unvested RSUs held by certain executive officers into Assumed RSUs; and
- pursuant to the terms and conditions of Xcerra's 2010 Stock Plan (the "2010 Stock Plan"), accelerated vesting of Assumed RSUs upon termination of the employment of executive officers by Xcerra or Cohu without "cause" (as defined in the 2010 Stock Plan) within one year following the completion of the Merger.

If the proposal to approve the Merger Agreement is approved, the shares of the Xcerra Common Stock held by Xcerra's directors and executive officers will be treated in the same manner as outstanding Xcerra Common Stock held by all other Xcerra stockholders.

Post-Closing Cohu Board

At the Effective Time, two members of the Xcerra Board will be appointed to the Cohu Board.

Listing of Cohu Common Stock and Delisting of Xcerra Common Stock (page 142)

Approval of the listing on NASDAQ of the shares of Cohu Common Stock to be issued in the Merger pursuant to the Merger Agreement is a condition to each party's obligation to complete the Merger. If the Merger is completed, the Xcerra Common Stock will be delisted from NASDAQ and will be deregistered under the Exchange Act.

Appraisal Rights for Xcerra Stockholders (page 142)

Under the MBCA, Xcerra is required to state whether it has concluded that Xcerra stockholders are, are not or may be entitled to assert appraisal rights, which are generally available to stockholders of a merging Massachusetts corporation under Section 13.02(a)(1) of the MBCA, subject to certain exceptions. For the reasons described under the caption "The Merger — Appraisal Rights," Xcerra has concluded that Xcerra stockholders may be entitled to appraisal rights. The relevant provisions of the MBCA have not been the subject of judicial interpretation and Xcerra and Cohu reserve the right to contest the validity and availability of any purported demand for appraisal rights in connection with the Merger.

Under Part 13 of the MBCA, Xcerra stockholders who believe they are or may be entitled to appraisal rights in connection with the Merger must, in order to exercise those rights:

- prior to the Xcerra Special Meeting, deliver to Xcerra a written notice of intent to demand payment for such stockholders' shares of Xcerra Common Stock if the Merger is effectuated;

- NOT vote for the proposal to approve the Merger Agreement; and
- Comply with the other procedures under Part 13 of the MBCA.

An Xcerra stockholder's failure to follow exactly the procedures specified under the MBCA may result in the loss of any appraisal rights for such stockholder. If an Xcerra stockholder holds shares of Xcerra Common Stock through a bank, brokerage firm or other nominee and wishes to exercise appraisal rights, such Xcerra stockholder should consult with its bank, brokerage firm or other nominee to determine the appropriate procedures for the making of a demand for appraisal by such bank, brokerage firm or nominee. See the section captioned "The Merger — Appraisal Rights" and the text of Part 13 of the MBCA reproduced in its entirety as Annex D to this joint proxy statement/prospectus.

Conditions to the Closing of the Merger (beginning on page 167)

The completion of the Merger depends upon the satisfaction or waiver of a number of conditions which, to the extent permitted by applicable laws and as described below, may be waived by Cohu, Merger Sub and Xcerra, as applicable.

The obligations of Cohu and Merger Sub, on the one hand, and Xcerra, on the other hand, to consummate the Merger are subject to the satisfaction or waiver (where permitted by applicable law), at or prior to the Effective Time, of each of the following conditions:

- the approval of the Merger Agreement by the affirmative vote of the holders of two-thirds of the outstanding shares of Xcerra Common Stock and the approval of the issuance of Cohu Common Stock in the Merger by a majority of Cohu stockholders represented in person or by proxy at the Cohu Special Meeting;
- the expiration or termination of the applicable waiting period under the Hart-Scott-Rodino Antitrust Improvements Act of 1976 (the "HSR Act") and expiration or termination of the applicable waiting period or approval by the relevant governmental authorities of any foreign antitrust jurisdictions, as applicable;
- the consummation of the Merger, the issuance of Cohu Common Stock in the Merger or the other transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement not being made illegal or otherwise prohibited by any law or order of any governmental authority in the U.S.;
- the Registration Statement becoming effective with no stop order suspending the effectiveness of the Registration Statement having been issued by the SEC and no proceeding to that effect having been commenced or threatened; and
- the authorization for listing on NASDAQ of the shares of Cohu Common Stock issuable in the Merger.

In addition, the obligations of Cohu and Merger Sub to consummate the Merger are subject to the satisfaction or waiver (where permitted by applicable law), at or prior to the Effective Time, of each of the following additional conditions:

- the representations and warranties of Xcerra relating to requisite stockholder approval and absence of certain changes being true and correct in all respects as of the date of the Merger Agreement and on and as of the closing date of the Merger with the same force and effect as if made on and as of such date (or, in the case of those representations and warranties that are made as of a particular date or period, as of such date or for such period);
- certain representations and warranties of Xcerra relating to Xcerra's capitalization being true and correct in all but de minimis respects as of the date of the Merger Agreement and on and as of the closing date of the Merger with the same force and effect as if made on and as of such date or period, except for those representations and warranties which address matters only as of a particular date or period (which representations will have been true and correct as of such particular date);

- the representations and warranties of Xcerra relating to organization and standing, authorization and enforceability, brokers, opinion of Xcerra's financial advisor, state anti-takeover statutes and shareholders' rights plans being true and correct in all material respects as of the date of the Merger Agreement and on and as of the closing date of the Merger with the same force and effect as if made on and as of such date, except in each case for those representations and warranties which address matters only as of a particular date or period (which representations will be true and correct in all respects as of such particular date or period), but without regard to any qualification as to materiality or material adverse effect contained therein;
- the other representations and warranties of Xcerra set forth elsewhere in the Merger Agreement being true and correct in all respects as of the date of the Merger Agreement and on and as of the closing date of the Merger with the same force and effect as if made on and as of such date (disregarding all materiality qualifications contained in such representations and warranties), except (1) for any failure to be so true and correct which would not reasonably be expected to have, individually or in the aggregate, a Company Material Adverse Effect (as defined in the Merger Agreement and described in "The Merger Agreement — Representations and Warranties"), and (2) for those representations and warranties which address matters only as of a particular date or period (which representations will have been true and correct as of such particular date or period, except for any failure to be so true and correct as of such date which would not reasonably be expected to have, individually or in the aggregate, a Company Material Adverse Effect);
- Xcerra having performed in all material respects the obligations required by the Merger Agreement to be performed by Xcerra at or prior to the Effective Time;
- there not having occurred any event, occurrence, revelation or development of a state of circumstances or facts which, individually or in the aggregate, has had or would reasonably be expected to have a Company Material Adverse Effect; and
- the receipt by Cohu and Merger Sub of a certificate of Xcerra, validly executed for and on behalf of Xcerra and in its name by a duly authorized officer, certifying that the conditions described in the preceding six paragraphs have been satisfied.

In addition, the obligation of Xcerra to consummate the Merger is subject to the satisfaction or waiver (where permitted by applicable law), at or prior to the Effective Time, of each of the following additional conditions:

- the representations and warranties of Cohu relating to requisite stockholder approval and absence of certain changes being true and correct in all respects as of the date of the Merger Agreement and on and as of the closing date of the Merger with the same force and effect as if made on and as of such date (or, in the case of those representations and warranties that are made as of a particular date or period, as of such date or for such period);
- certain representations and warranties of Cohu relating to Cohu's capitalization being true and correct in all but de minimis respects as of the date of the Merger Agreement and on and as of the closing date of the Merger with the same force and effect as if made on and as of such date, except for those representations and warranties which address matters only as of a particular date or period (which representations will have been true and correct as of such particular date or period);
- the representations and warranties of Cohu relating to organization and standing, authorization and enforceability, brokers, opinion of Cohu's financial advisor and state anti-takeover statutes being true and correct in all material respects as of the date of the Merger Agreement and on and as of the closing date of the Merger with the same force and effect as if made on and as of such date, except in each case for those representations and warranties which address matters only as of a particular date or period (which representations will be true and correct in all respects as of such particular date or period), but without regard to any qualification as to materiality or material adverse effect contained therein;

- each of the remaining representations and warranties of Cohu set forth in the Merger Agreement being true and correct as of the date of the Merger Agreement and on and as of the closing date of the Merger with the same force and effect as if made on and as of such date (except for those representations and warranties which address matters only as of a particular date or period, which representations will have been true and correct as of such particular date or period), and except for any failure to be so true and correct which would not reasonably be expected to have, individually or in the aggregate, a material adverse effect on the ability of Cohu to consummate the Merger or any of the other transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement, but without regard to any qualification as to materiality or material adverse effect contained therein;
- Cohu and Merger Sub having performed in all material respects all obligations required by the Merger Agreement be performed by Cohu or Merger Sub prior to the Effective Time;
- there not having occurred any event, occurrence, revelation or development of a state of circumstances or facts which, individually or in the aggregate, has had or would reasonably be expected to have a Parent Material Adverse Effect (as defined in the Merger Agreement and described in “The Merger Agreement — Representations and Warranties”); and
- the receipt by Xcerra of a certificate of Cohu and Merger Sub, validly executed for and on behalf of Cohu and Merger Sub and in their respective names by a duly authorized executive officer thereof, certifying that the conditions described in the preceding six paragraphs have been satisfied.

Regulatory Approvals Required for the Merger (beginning on page 139)

The completion of the Merger is subject to compliance with the HSR Act. The notifications required under the HSR Act to the U.S. Federal Trade Commission and the Antitrust Division, were filed on May 25, 2018, and the transaction is currently under review by the Antitrust Division. Under the HSR Act, the Merger may not be completed until the required 30-day HSR waiting period has expired or been terminated. The original waiting period was originally scheduled to expire on June 25, 2018. On June 25, 2018 in consultation with Xcerra, Cohu voluntarily withdrew its HSR Act notification, and re-filed the notification and report form under the HSR Act with the U.S. Federal Trade Commission and the Antitrust Division on June 27, 2018, which restarted the 30-day waiting period as of the date the notification was re-filed. The waiting period with respect to the re-filed notification and report form expires at 11:59 p.m., Pacific Time, on July 27, 2018, unless it is shortened by a grant of early termination or extended by the Antitrust Division issuing a request for additional information, also known as a “second request.” If a second request is issued, the transaction cannot close until 30 days after substantial compliance with the second request unless the parties otherwise agree with the Antitrust Division not to close the transaction, enter into a consent decree with the Antitrust Division, or the Antitrust Division concludes its investigation and grants early termination of the second waiting period.

The completion of the Merger is also subject to compliance with applicable foreign antitrust laws. The German Act Against Restraints of Competition (“GWB”) requires pre-merger notification of and approval by the FCO. The Merger may not be completed until either the German Federal Cartel Office (“FCO”) clears the merger or the mandatory waiting period expires. The parties have filed with the FCO on June 16, 2018. On July 16, 2018, the FCO issued a decision in which it granted clearance.

Termination of the Merger Agreement (beginning on page 169)

The Merger Agreement contains certain customary termination rights, including, among others, (i) the right of either Cohu or Xcerra to terminate the Merger Agreement if Xcerra's stockholders fail to approve the Merger Agreement or if Cohu's stockholders fail to approve the issuance of Cohu Common Stock, (ii) the right of either Cohu or Xcerra to terminate the Merger Agreement if the board of directors of the other party changes its recommendation to such party's shareholders, (iii) the right of Xcerra to terminate the Merger Agreement to accept a Company Acquisition Proposal resulting in a "superior proposal" (as described further in "The Merger Agreement — Alternative Acquisition Proposals"), (iv) the right of either Cohu or Xcerra to terminate the Merger Agreement if the Merger has not occurred by November 7, 2018 (as such date may be extended by either party pursuant to the Merger Agreement, the "Termination Date") and (v) the right of either Cohu or Xcerra to terminate the Merger Agreement due to a material breach by the other party of any of its representations, warranties or covenants, subject to certain conditions.

Termination Fees (beginning on page 170)

The Merger Agreement provides for Xcerra to pay to Cohu a termination fee of $22.8 million (the "Xcerra Termination Fee") if the Merger Agreement is terminated (i) by Cohu as a result of a change in the Xcerra Board recommendation to Xcerra's stockholders or a failure of Xcerra to comply with the non-solicitation and board recommendation covenants in the Merger Agreement; (ii) by Xcerra in order to accept a Company Acquisition Proposal resulting in a "superior proposal" (as described further in "The Merger Agreement — Alternative Acquisition Proposals"); (iii) by either Cohu or Xcerra if (A) the Merger has not been consummated by the Termination Date or (B) Xcerra shall have failed to obtain the necessary shareholder approval for the Merger and, in each case of (A) and (B) a competing proposal with respect to Xcerra was publicly disclosed and not publicly withdrawn prior to the meeting of Xcerra's shareholders and Xcerra either consummates a transaction with respect to a competing proposal or enters into a definitive agreement with respect to a competing proposal, in each case within twelve months of such termination; or (iv) by Cohu if Xcerra is in breach of a representation, warranty or covenant that would cause the closing conditions to fail to be satisfied, and the breach cannot be cured within 20 calendar days, so long as Cohu has not materially breached the Merger Agreement.

The Merger Agreement provides for Cohu to pay to Xcerra a termination fee of $22.8 million (the "Cohu Termination Fee") if the Merger Agreement is terminated by Xcerra (i) as a result of Cohu's breach of a representation, warranty or covenant that would cause the closing conditions to fail, and the breach cannot be cured within 20 calendar days, so long as Xcerra has not materially breached the Merger Agreement or (ii) as a result of a change by the Cohu Board in its recommendation that Cohu's shareholders approve the issuance of Cohu Common Stock in the Merger. The Merger Agreement further provides for Cohu to pay to Xcerra a termination fee of $45.0 million (the "Financing Termination Fee") if the Merger Agreement is terminated by Xcerra as a result of Cohu's failure to consummate the Merger within five business days of written notice from Xcerra to Cohu at a time when all closing conditions have been satisfied and the Marketing Period has expired.

Material United States Federal Income Tax Consequences (beginning on page 173)

The exchange of Xcerra Common Stock pursuant to the Merger will be a taxable transaction for U.S. federal income tax purposes. Accordingly, a U.S. holder (as defined in "Material United States Federal Income Tax Consequences") of Xcerra Common Stock who receives the Merger Consideration in exchange for such U.S. holder's shares of Xcerra Common Stock generally will recognize taxable gain or loss in an amount equal to the difference, if any, between the Cash Consideration plus the fair market value of the Stock Consideration received and such U.S. holder's adjusted tax basis in the shares of Xcerra Common Stock exchanged therefor.

THIS JOINT PROXY STATEMENT/PROSPECTUS CONTAINS A GENERAL DESCRIPTION OF THE MATERIAL UNITED STATES FEDERAL INCOME TAX CONSEQUENCES OF THE MERGER.

THIS DESCRIPTION DOES NOT ADDRESS ANY NON-U.S. TAX CONSEQUENCES, NOR DOES IT PERTAIN TO STATE, LOCAL OR OTHER TAX CONSEQUENCES. CONSEQUENTLY, YOU ARE URGED TO CONTACT YOUR OWN TAX ADVISOR TO DETERMINE THE PARTICULAR TAX CONSEQUENCES TO YOU OF THE MERGER.

RISK FACTORS

In deciding whether to vote for the proposals discussed in this joint proxy statement/prospectus, we urge you to consider carefully all of the information included or incorporated by reference in this joint proxy statement/prospectus. You should also read and consider the risks associated with each of the businesses of Cohu and Xcerra, because these risks will also affect Cohu after the consummation of the Merger. The risks associated with the business of Cohu can be found in Cohu's Exchange Act reporting, including Cohu's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 30, 2017 and its Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the fiscal quarter ended on March 31, 2018, which are incorporated by reference in this joint proxy statement/prospectus. The risks associated with the business of Xcerra can be found in Xcerra's Exchange Act reporting, including Xcerra's Annual Report on Form 10-K for its fiscal year ended July 31, 2017, and its Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q for the fiscal quarters ended on October 31, 2017, January 31, 2018 and April 30, 2018, which are incorporated by reference in this joint proxy statement/prospectus. See the section of this joint proxy statement/prospectus entitled "Where You Can Find More Information."

Risk Factors Relating to the Merger

The number of shares of Cohu Common Stock that Xcerra stockholders will receive in the Merger is based on a fixed exchange ratio. Because the Merger Agreement does not provide for any adjustment to the Merger Consideration, Xcerra stockholders will be exposed to the risk of market fluctuations in the price of Cohu Common Stock and Xcerra stockholders cannot be certain of the value of the Stock Consideration they will receive in the Merger.

Pursuant to the terms of the Merger Agreement, upon the consummation of the Merger, each outstanding share of Xcerra Common Stock will be cancelled and automatically converted into the right to receive the Merger Consideration, consisting of 0.2109 of a share of Cohu Common Stock and $9.00 in cash. The exchange ratio is fixed, and there will be no adjustment to the Merger Consideration for changes in the market price of Cohu Common Stock or Xcerra Common Stock prior to completion of the Merger. Accordingly, the exact value of the Stock Consideration each Xcerra stockholder will receive in connection with the Merger is not determinable prior to the date of delivery of the Stock Consideration. Stock price changes may result from a variety of factors, some of which are out of Cohu's and Xcerra's control, including general market and economic conditions, changes in the respective businesses, operations and prospects of Cohu and Xcerra, regulatory considerations, and other risks discussed in this section of this joint proxy statement/prospectus. Neither Cohu nor Xcerra is permitted to terminate the Merger Agreement or resolicit the vote of its respective stockholders solely because of changes in the market price of either Cohu Common Stock or Xcerra Common Stock.

Because the Merger will be consummated after the Xcerra Special Meeting, the value of the Stock Consideration to be received by Xcerra stockholders will not be known at the time of the Xcerra Special Meeting and the Merger Consideration actually received by Xcerra Stockholders upon the consummation of the Merger may be greater or less than the Merger Consideration that would be payable to Xcerra stockholders if the Merger were consummated immediately following the Xcerra Stockholder Meeting. In determining how to vote their shares of Xcerra Common Stock, Xcerra stockholders should obtain current stock price quotations for Cohu Common Stock and Xcerra Common Stock prior to the Xcerra Special Meeting. Cohu Common Stock and Xcerra Common Stock are listed on NASDAQ under the symbols "COHU" and "XCRA," respectively.

The market price of Cohu Common Stock after the Merger might be affected by factors different from, or in addition to, those currently affecting the respective market prices of Cohu Common Stock and Xcerra Common Stock.

The businesses of Cohu and Xcerra differ and, accordingly, the results of operations of Cohu and the market price of Cohu Common Stock after the Merger may be affected by factors different from, or in addition to, those currently affecting the independent results of operations of each of Cohu and Xcerra and the market prices of Cohu Common Stock and Xcerra Common Stock. For a discussion of the businesses of Cohu and Xcerra and of factors to consider in connection with those businesses, see the documents incorporated by reference into this document and referred to under the heading “Where You Can Find More Information.” Additionally, see the section of this joint proxy statement/prospectus entitled “Comparative Per Share Market Price Information” for additional information on the market value of shares of Cohu Common Stock and Xcerra Common Stock.

Until the Effective Time or the termination of the Merger Agreement in accordance with its terms, Cohu and Xcerra are prohibited from entering into certain business combination transactions and taking certain other actions.

From the date of the Merger Agreement, and continuing until the earlier of the Effective Time or the termination of the Merger Agreement in accordance with its terms, except as permitted by certain limited exceptions in the Merger Agreement or required by the respective fiduciary duties of the Xcerra Board and the Cohu Board and subject to the other requirements of the Merger Agreement, the Cohu Board may not withdraw, withhold, amend, qualify or modify, in any manner adverse to Xcerra, its recommendation that the Cohu stockholders approve the Stock Issuance Proposal and the Xcerra Board may not withdraw, withhold, amend, qualify or modify, in a manner adverse to Cohu, its recommendation that the Xcerra stockholders approve the Merger Agreement. See “The Merger Agreement — The Xcerra Board’s recommendation; Xcerra Board Recommendation Change” and “The Merger Agreement — The Cohu Board’s recommendation; Cohu Board Recommendation Change” for additional information. In addition, during such time, neither the Xcerra Board nor the Cohu Board may recommend an acquisition proposal to acquire beneficial ownership of more than 20% of the issued and outstanding common stock, or more than 20% of the consolidated assets, of Xcerra or Cohu, respectively, other than the Merger, or negotiate or authorize negotiations with a third party regarding an acquisition proposal other than the Merger, except as permitted by certain limited exceptions in the Merger Agreement or required by their fiduciary duties and subject to the other requirements of the Merger Agreement. These provisions may limit Xcerra’s and Cohu’s respective ability to pursue offers from third parties that could result in greater value to their respective stockholders than the value resulting from the Merger. In the event that the Xcerra Board or the Cohu Board change their respective recommendations, Xcerra or Cohu, as the case may be, will be required, pursuant to the terms of the Merger Agreement, to pay to the other party a $22.8 million termination fee. See “The Merger Agreement — Termination Fees” for additional information. The termination fee payable by Xcerra and Cohu in certain circumstances may also discourage third parties from pursuing an alternative acquisition proposal with respect to Xcerra or Cohu, or might result in third parties proposing to pay a lower value per share to acquire Xcerra or Cohu than such third party might otherwise have been willing to pay in the absence of such termination fee. The Merger Agreement also requires Xcerra and Cohu to, and to each cause their respective subsidiaries to, conduct their respective businesses in the ordinary course consistent with past practice. See “The Merger Agreement — Conduct of Business Pending the Merger” for additional information. Altogether, the foregoing could have the effect of delaying other strategic transactions and may, in some cases, make it impossible to pursue other strategic transactions that are available only for a limited time.

The Merger is subject to a number of conditions, some of which are outside of the parties’ control, and if these conditions are not satisfied or waived, the Merger will not be completed.

The Merger Agreement contains a number of conditions that must be satisfied or in some cases waived in order to complete the Merger. Those conditions include, among other customary conditions, (i) approval of the Merger by at least two-thirds of the shares of Xcerra Common Stock entitled to vote at the Xcerra Special Meeting, (ii) approval of the Stock Issuance Proposal by a majority of the shares of Cohu Common Stock present, in person or by proxy, at the Cohu Special Meeting, (iii) expiration or termination of all waiting periods (and any extensions thereof) under applicable antitrust laws, including the applicable waiting periods under the HSR Act and foreign antitrust laws and the receipt of any requisite consents with respect to applicable antitrust laws (the “Approvals”), (iv) no material action being taken by any governmental entity enjoining or otherwise prohibiting consummation of the Merger and no law being enacted or promulgated by any governmental entity making the consummation of the Merger illegal, (v) authorization for listing by NASDAQ of the shares Cohu Common Stock to be issued in connection with the Merger, (vi) the accuracy of the representations and warranties of the parties to the applicable standards provided by the Merger Agreement, (vii) performance in all material respects by each party of their respective covenants in the Merger Agreement, (viii) the absence of any event or occurrence that had or would reasonably be expected to have a material adverse effect on Cohu or Xcerra, and (ix) the effectiveness of the Registration Statement of which this joint proxy statement/prospectus forms a part. See “The Merger Agreement — Conditions to the Closing of the Merger” for a more detailed description of the conditions to the closing of the Merger.

The required satisfaction or waiver of the foregoing conditions could delay the completion of the Merger for a significant period of time or, if not ever satisfied or waived, may prevent the Merger from occurring at all. Any delay in completing the Merger could cause the combined company not to realize some or all of the benefits that the parties expect the combined company to achieve. As such, there can be no assurance that the conditions to the closing of the Merger will be satisfied or waived or that the Merger will be completed.

In addition, if the Merger is not completed by the Termination Date, Cohu or Xcerra may choose to terminate the Merger Agreement. Cohu or Xcerra may also elect to terminate the Merger Agreement in certain other circumstances, and the parties can mutually decide to terminate the Merger Agreement at any time prior to the closing of the Merger. See “The Merger Agreement — Termination of the Merger Agreement” and “The Merger Agreement — Termination Fees” for a more detailed description of these circumstances.

Cohu and Xcerra must obtain required approvals and governmental and regulatory consents to complete the Merger, which, if delayed, not granted or granted subject to conditions, may jeopardize or delay the consummation of the Merger, result in additional expenditures of money and resources and/or reduce the anticipated benefits of the Merger.

The Merger is subject to customary closing conditions, including, among others, the receipt of the Approvals.

The governmental agencies from which the parties will seek the Approvals have broad discretion in administering the governing regulations. As a condition to their approval of the Merger, these governmental agencies may impose requirements, limitations or costs, require divestitures or place restrictions on the conduct of Cohu’s business after consummation of the Merger. These requirements, limitations, costs, divestitures or restrictions could jeopardize or delay the consummation of the Merger. However, as described further in “The Merger Agreement — Efforts to Complete the Merger,” in no event shall Cohu, Merger Sub or Xcerra, in connection with their respective efforts to obtain the Approvals, be required to agree to the sale, license, assignment, transfer or other divestiture or disposition of, holding separate or any other limitation on (A) in the case of businesses, services, products or assets of Xcerra and its subsidiaries, any such businesses, services, products or assets that generated aggregate revenue for the twelve month period ended December 30, 2017 of greater than $20.0 million and (B) in the case of businesses, services, products or assets of Cohu and its subsidiaries, any such businesses, services, products or assets that generated aggregate revenue for the twelve month period ended December 30, 2017 of greater than $4.0 million, and, further, none of Cohu, Merger Sub or Xcerra is required to agree to any sale, license, assignment, transfer or other divestiture or disposition of, holding separate or any other limitation on products or services that have not yet been commercialized (including those under development or in the research, planning, prototyping, design, pre-production, evaluation or testing phases). Even if the Approvals are obtained and all other conditions to the closing of the Merger are satisfied, no assurance can be given as to the terms, conditions and timing of the Approvals. If Cohu or Xcerra agrees to any requirements, limitations, costs, divestitures or restrictions in order to obtain the Approvals or any other approval or consent required to consummate the Merger, these requirements, limitations, costs, divestitures or restrictions could adversely affect Cohu’s ability to integrate its operations with Xcerra’s operations, reduce the anticipated benefits of the Merger, and have a material adverse effect on the business and results of operations of Cohu after consummation of the Merger. Any requirements, limitations, costs, divestitures or restrictions imposed by any governmental agencies could also result in delay or failure to consummate the Merger.

Any delay in completing the Merger may significantly reduce the benefits expected to be obtained from the Merger.

In addition to the Approvals, the Merger is subject to a number of other conditions that are beyond the control of Cohu and Xcerra and that may prevent, delay or otherwise materially adversely affect completion of the Merger. Cohu and Xcerra cannot predict whether and when these other conditions will be satisfied. Further, the requirements for obtaining the Approvals could delay the completion of the Merger for a significant period of time or prevent the Merger from occurring. Any delay in completing the Merger could result in the failure to realize some or all of the cost synergies projected to result from the Merger and other benefits that Cohu and Xcerra expect to achieve if they successfully complete the Merger within the expected timeframe and integrate their respective businesses. See “The Merger Agreement — Conditions to the Closing of the Merger” for more information.

The consummation of the Merger may permit counterparties to certain agreements with Xcerra to terminate those agreements.

Xcerra is a party to certain agreements that give the counterparties to such agreements certain rights, including consent and/or termination rights, in connection with “change in control” transactions or otherwise. Under certain of these agreements, the Merger may constitute a “change in control” or otherwise give rise to consent or termination rights in favor of the counterparty thereto. If Cohu and Xcerra are unable to negotiate the waiver of any such provision and/or obtain consent from the counterparty to any such agreement with respect to the Merger, such counterparty may assert its rights under the applicable agreement, potentially terminating the agreement or seeking monetary damages. Even if Cohu and Xcerra are able to negotiate waivers or obtain required consents under these agreements, the counterparties thereto may require a fee for such waivers or consent or seek to renegotiate the agreements on terms that may be less favorable to Xcerra or the combined company and which may adversely affect the value of Cohu Common Stock following completion of the Merger.

Uncertainty about the Merger may cause Cohu’s and Xcerra’s current and prospective employees to experience uncertainty about their future roles and relationships with Cohu, whether or not the Merger is completed.

Uncertainties about the effect of the Merger on Cohu’s and Xcerra’s current and prospective employees’ future roles and relationships with Cohu and Xcerra, respectively, may cause them to choose to pursue other opportunities, which could have an adverse effect on the business of Cohu and Xcerra prior to or after the Merger. These uncertainties may impair Cohu’s and Xcerra’s ability to retain, recruit or motivate key management, sales, marketing, engineering, technical and other personnel. If, despite Cohu’s and Xcerra’s retention efforts, key employees depart because of issues relating to the uncertainty and difficulty of integration or a desire not to remain with the combined company following the consummation of the Merger, Cohu’s and Xcerra’s businesses could be seriously harmed. Any delay in completing the Merger may further increase such uncertainties and the adverse effects related thereto.

Uncertainty about the Merger may adversely affect Cohu’s and Xcerra’s businesses and relationships with customers or other counterparties, whether or not the Merger is completed.

Each of Cohu and Xcerra is subject to risks in connection with the pendency of the Merger, including the pendency and outcome of any legal proceedings with respect to the Merger and of foregoing opportunities that Cohu or Xcerra, respectively, might otherwise pursue absent the Merger. In addition, in response to the announcement of the Merger and regardless of whether the Merger is ultimately completed, Cohu’s and Xcerra’s respective existing or prospective customers, suppliers, business or strategic partners or other counterparties may:

- delay, defer or cease purchasing goods or services from or providing goods or services to Cohu or Xcerra, as applicable;

- delay or defer other decisions concerning, or refuse to extend credit to, Cohu or Xcerra, as applicable;
- cease further joint development activities; or
- otherwise seek to change the terms on which they do business with Cohu or Xcerra, as applicable.

While Cohu and Xcerra are attempting to address these risks through communications with their respective existing and prospective customers, suppliers or joint development partners, such parties may be reluctant to continue to do business with Cohu or Xcerra, as applicable, due to the potential uncertainty about, among other things, product offerings and the support and service following the consummation of the Merger.

The Merger Agreement subjects Cohu and Xcerra to certain restrictive covenants that will restrict the way each party conducts its respective business until either the consummation or the termination of the Merger which could adversely affect the price of Cohu Common Stock and Cohu's results of operations, as well as the price of Xcerra Common Stock and Xcerra's results of operations.

The Merger Agreement restricts each of Xcerra and Cohu, subject to certain exceptions, from making certain acquisitions and taking other specified actions until the completion of the Merger, or the termination of the Merger Agreement pursuant to its terms. These restrictions may prevent Cohu and Xcerra from pursuing otherwise attractive business opportunities and making other changes to their respective businesses prior to completion of the Merger or termination of the Merger Agreement. See “The Merger Agreement — Conduct of Business Pending the Merger” for further detail on the various restrictions on Cohu and Xcerra during the pendency of the Merger.

Some of Cohu's and Xcerra's officers and directors may have interests in the Merger that are different from, or in addition to, the interests of Cohu stockholders and Xcerra stockholders.

When considering the recommendation of the Cohu Board and the Xcerra Board with respect to the Merger, Xcerra stockholders and Cohu stockholders should be aware that some directors and executive officers of Xcerra and Cohu, respectively, may have interests in the Merger that may be different from, or in addition to, the interests of Xcerra stockholders and Cohu stockholders, respectively. These interests include, among others, potential payments under employment agreements and change in control severance agreements, rights to acceleration of vesting and exercisability of options, and acceleration of vesting of restricted stock units as a result of the Merger, rights to ongoing indemnification and insurance coverage for acts or omissions occurring prior to the Merger, continued employment as an executive officer of Cohu and/or service as a director of Cohu. See “The Merger — Interests of Cohu Directors and Executive Officers in the Merger” and “The Merger — Interests of Xcerra Directors and Executive Officers in the Merger” for more information.

As a result of these interests, the directors and executive officers of Cohu or Xcerra, as the case may be, might be more likely to support and to vote in favor of the proposals described in this joint proxy statement/prospectus than if such persons did not have these interests. Each of Cohu's and Xcerra's stockholders should consider whether these interests might have influenced the directors and executive officers of Cohu and Xcerra, respectively, to support or recommend, with respect to Xcerra, approval of the Merger Agreement or, with respect to Cohu, approval of the issuance of the Cohu Common Stock payable in the Merger. At the close of business on Cohu Record Date, Cohu's directors and executive officers were entitled to vote approximately [●]% of the then-outstanding shares of Cohu Common Stock. As of the close of business on Xcerra Record Date, Xcerra's directors and executive officers were entitled to vote approximately [●]% of the then-outstanding shares of Xcerra Common Stock.

There can be no assurance that Cohu will be able to secure the funds necessary to pay the Cash Consideration on acceptable terms, in a timely manner or at all.

Cohu intends to fund the Cash Consideration to be paid to Xcerra stockholders with a combination of unrestricted cash on hand and debt financing. To this end, Cohu has entered into the Commitment Letter providing for, as of the date of this joint proxy statement/prospectus, the Term Facility and the Cash Bridge Facility. The obligations of the Lender to provide the Facilities are subject to a number of customary conditions. However, as of the date of this joint proxy statement/prospectus, neither Cohu nor any of its subsidiaries has entered into definitive agreements for the Debt Financing (as defined herein) (or any equity issuance or other financing arrangements in lieu thereof). There can be no assurance that Cohu will be able to secure the Debt Financing pursuant to the Commitment Letter. See “The Merger — Financing Relating to the Merger” for a discussion of Cohu’s Merger-related financing.

In the event that the Debt Financing contemplated by the Commitment Letter is not available, other financing may not be available on acceptable terms, in a timely manner or at all. If Cohu is unable to secure financing, the Merger may be delayed or not be completed. In addition, Cohu may be required, pursuant to the terms of the Merger Agreement, to pay to Xcerra a $45.0 million termination fee if the Merger Agreement is terminated by Xcerra under certain circumstances related to a failure by Cohu to obtain financing. See “The Merger Agreement — Termination Fees — Termination Fee Payable by Cohu” for more information.

The failure to complete the Merger could have an adverse impact on the price of each of Xcerra Common Stock and Cohu Common Stock as well as the future business and operating results of Xcerra and Cohu.

If the Merger is not completed, Xcerra and Cohu would be subject to a number of consequences that could adversely affect their businesses, results of operations and the price of each of Xcerra Common Stock and Cohu Common Stock, including the following:

- Xcerra and Cohu would not realize the anticipated benefits of the Merger, including among other things, increased operating efficiencies;
- either party could be required to pay a termination fee of $22.8 million to the other party under certain circumstances, and Cohu could be required to pay the Financing Termination Fee of $45.0 million if the failure to complete the Merger related to a failure by Cohu to obtain financing;
- Xcerra and Cohu will have incurred significant costs in connection with the Merger that they will be unable to recover, including transaction, legal, employee-related and other costs;
- either party could experience the potential loss of key personnel during the pendency of the Merger, as employees may experience uncertainty about their future roles with the combined company;
- Xcerra and Cohu will have been subject to certain restrictions on the conduct of their respective businesses, which could prevent them from making certain acquisitions or dispositions or pursuing certain business opportunities during the pendency of the Merger;
- Xcerra or Cohu could be subject to legal proceedings related to the Merger;
- the failure of the Merger to be consummated could result in negative publicity and a negative impression of Xcerra or Cohu in the investment community;
- either party could experience disruptions to its business resulting from the announcement and pendency of the Merger, including any adverse changes in its relationships with its customers, strategic partners, suppliers, licensees, other business partners and employees, may continue or intensify in the event the Merger is not consummated;
- Xcerra or Cohu may not be able to take advantage of alternative business opportunities or effectively respond to competitive pressures;
- either party could experience an increase in employee departures; and
- The trading price of Xcerra Common Stock and/or Cohu Common Stock may decline to the extent that the current respective market prices of Xcerra Common Stock and Cohu Common Stock reflect an assumption that the Merger will be completed.

The occurrence of any of these events, individually or in combination, could have a material adverse effect on Xcerra's and/or Cohu's results of operations or the trading price of Xcerra Common Stock or Cohu Common Stock.

Litigation that may be filed against Xcerra, Cohu and Merger Sub could prevent or delay the completion of the Merger or result in the payment of damages following completion of the Merger.

Xcerra, Cohu, Merger Sub and members of the Xcerra Board and Cohu Board may in the future be parties, among others, to various claims and litigation related to the Merger, including putative stockholder class actions. Among other remedies, the plaintiffs in such matters may seek to enjoin the Merger. The results of complex legal proceedings are difficult to predict, and could delay or prevent the Merger from becoming effective in a timely manner. The existence of litigation relating to the Merger could impact the likelihood of obtaining the required approval of the Xcerra stockholders and the Cohu stockholders. Moreover, any future litigation could be time consuming and expensive, could divert Cohu and Xcerra's respective management's attention away from their regular business, and, if adversely resolved against either Cohu, Xcerra or Merger Sub, could have a material adverse effect on their respective financial condition.

One of the conditions to the closing of the Merger is that no governmental authority of competent jurisdiction shall have issued any order, judgment, decision, decree, injunction, ruling, or award that has the effect of prohibiting or otherwise preventing the consummation of the Merger, the issuance of Cohu Common Stock in the Merger or the other transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement, and that no law shall have been enacted, issued or promulgated by any governmental authority of competent jurisdiction that has the effect of making the Merger, the issuance of Cohu Common Stock in the Merger or the other transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement illegal or that has the effect of prohibiting or otherwise preventing the consummation of the Merger, the issuance of Cohu Common Stock in the Merger or the other transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement. Consequently, if a settlement or other resolution is not reached with respect to any future litigation resulting in the imposition of injunctive or other relief prohibiting, delaying or otherwise adversely affecting Cohu's and/or Xcerra's ability to complete the Merger on the terms contemplated by the Merger Agreement, then such injunctive or other relief may prevent the Merger from becoming effective in a timely manner or at all.

Shares of Cohu Common Stock to be received by Xcerra stockholders in connection with the Merger will have rights different from the shares of Xcerra Common Stock.

Upon completion of the Merger, the rights of former Xcerra stockholders who become Cohu stockholders will be governed by Cohu's amended and restated certificate of incorporation, as amended, and Cohu's amended and restated bylaws. The rights associated with Xcerra Common Stock are different from the rights associated with Cohu Common Stock. See "Comparison of Rights of Stockholders" for a comparison of the rights associated with Cohu Common Stock and those associated with Xcerra Common Stock.

Risk Factors Relating to the Combined Company Following the Merger

Cohu may fail to realize the benefits expected from the Merger, which could adversely affect Cohu's stock price.

The anticipated benefits Cohu expects from the Merger are, necessarily, based on projections and assumptions about the combined businesses of Cohu and Xcerra, which may not materialize as expected or which may prove to be inaccurate. The value of Cohu Common Stock following the completion of the Merger could be adversely affected if Cohu is unable to realize the anticipated benefits from the Merger on a timely basis or at all. Achieving the benefits of the Merger will depend, in part, on Cohu's ability to integrate the business and operations of Xcerra successfully and efficiently with Cohu's business. The challenges involved in this integration, which will be complex and time-consuming, include the following:

- difficulties entering new markets or manufacturing in new geographies where Cohu has no or limited direct prior experience;

Table of Contents

- successfully managing relationships with Cohu and Xcerra's combined supplier and customer base;
- coordinating and integrating independent research and development and engineering teams across technologies and product platforms to enhance product development while reducing costs;
- coordinating sales and marketing efforts to effectively position the combined company's capabilities and the direction of product development;
- limitations or restrictions required by regulatory authorities on the ability of management of Cohu and of Xcerra to conduct planning regarding the integration of the two companies;
- difficulties and significant costs in integrating the systems and processes of two companies with complex operations including multiple manufacturing sites;
- the increased scale and complexity of Cohu's operations resulting from the Merger;
- Cohu's ability to achieve the cost synergies contemplated by the proposed transaction within the expected time frame, and significant costs of integration and restructuring;
- retaining key employees of Cohu and Xcerra;
- obligations that Cohu will have to counterparties of Xcerra that arise as a result of the change in control of Xcerra; and
- the diversion of management attention from other important business objectives.

If Cohu does not successfully manage these issues and the other challenges inherent in integrating an acquired business of the size and complexity of Xcerra, then Cohu may not achieve the anticipated benefits of the Merger and Cohu's revenue, expenses, operating results and financial condition could be materially adversely affected.

The business and operating results of Cohu could be harmed by the highly cyclical nature of the semiconductor industry.

Cohu and Xcerra operate in the semiconductor industry. Historically, the semiconductor industry has been highly cyclical with recurring periods of diminished product demand. Significant downturns in the semiconductor industry are often experienced in connection with, or in anticipation of, excess manufacturing capacity worldwide, maturing product cycles and declines in general economic conditions. Even if demand for the products and solutions of Cohu and Xcerra remains constant after the completion of the Merger, oversupply in the semiconductor industry may create competitive pressures that can degrade pricing levels and reduce revenues of the combined company. Any failure to expand in cycle upturns to meet customer demand and delivery requirements or contract in cycle downturns at a pace consistent with cycles in the industry could have an adverse effect on the business of the combined company.

Cohu stockholders and Xcerra stockholders will have a reduced ownership and voting interest after completion of the Merger and will exercise less influence over management.

Cohu stockholders currently have the right to vote on the election of the Cohu Board and on other matters affecting Cohu. Similarly, Xcerra stockholders presently have the right to vote on the election of the Xcerra Board and on other matters affecting Xcerra. Immediately following the Merger, Cohu stockholders will own approximately 71% of Cohu Common Stock, and Xcerra stockholders will own approximately 29% of Cohu Common Stock, based on the number of shares of Cohu and Xcerra Common Stock outstanding as of July 16, 2018. As a result, current Cohu stockholders and current Xcerra stockholders may have less influence on the management and policies of the combined company than they now have on the management and policies of Cohu and Xcerra, respectively.

Uncertainties associated with the Merger may cause a loss of employees and may otherwise materially adversely affect the future business and operations of the combined company.

The combined company's success after the Merger will depend in part upon the ability of the combined company to retain executive officers and key employees of Cohu and Xcerra. In some of the fields in which Cohu and Xcerra operate, there are only a limited number of people in the job market who possess the requisite skills and it may be increasingly difficult for the combined company to hire personnel over time. The combined company will operate in several geographic locations where the labor markets, especially for technical professionals, are particularly competitive. Each of Cohu and Xcerra has experienced difficulty in hiring and retaining sufficient qualified management, manufacturing, technical, application engineering, marketing, sales and support personnel in parts of their respective businesses.

Current and prospective employees of Cohu and Xcerra may experience uncertainty about their roles with the combined company following the Merger. In addition, key employees may depart because of issues relating to the uncertainty and difficulty of integration or a desire not to remain with the combined company following the Merger. The loss of services of any key personnel or the inability to hire new personnel with the requisite skills could restrict the ability of the combined company to develop new products or enhance existing products in a timely manner, to sell products to customers or to manage the business of the combined company effectively. Also, the business, financial condition and results of operations of the combined company could be materially adversely affected by the loss of any of its key employees, by the failure of any key employee to perform in his or her current position, or by the combined company's inability to attract and retain skilled employees, particularly for technical professionals.

Third parties may claim that the combined company is infringing their intellectual property, and the combined company could suffer significant litigation or licensing expenses or be prevented from selling its products or services.

The semiconductor industry is characterized by uncertain and conflicting intellectual property claims and vigorous protection and pursuit of intellectual property rights. Each of Cohu and Xcerra from time to time is involved in disputes regarding patent and other intellectual property rights. Each of Cohu and Xcerra has in the past received, and the combined company may in the future receive, communications from third parties asserting that certain of products, processes or technologies of the combined company infringe upon their patent rights, copyrights, trademark rights or other intellectual property rights. The combined company may also receive claims of potential infringement if it attempts to license intellectual property to others. Defending these claims may be costly and time consuming, and may divert the attention of management and key personnel from other business issues. The complexity of the technology involved and the uncertainty of intellectual property litigation increase these risks. Claims of intellectual property infringement also might require the combined company to enter into costly royalty or license agreements. The combined company may be unable to obtain royalty or license agreements on acceptable terms, or at all. Similarly, changing the combined company's products or processes to avoid infringing the rights of others may be costly or impractical. The combined company may also be subject to significant damages or injunctions against the development and sale of certain of its products and services. Resolution of such disputes could have a material adverse effect on the combined company's results of operations or financial condition and may require material changes in production processes and products.

The combined company may not be able to adequately protect or enforce its intellectual property rights, which could harm its competitive position, cause license and royalty revenue to decline and result in costly litigation to enforce its rights.

The combined company's success and future revenue growth will depend, in part, on its ability to protect its intellectual property. The combined company will primarily rely on patent, copyright, trademark and trade secret laws, as well as nondisclosure agreements and other methods, to protect its proprietary technologies and processes. It is possible that competitors or other unauthorized third parties may obtain, copy, use or disclose, illegally or otherwise, the combined company's proprietary technologies and processes, despite efforts of the combined company to protect its proprietary technologies and processes. While the combined company will hold a significant number of patents, there can be no assurance that such patents will not be challenged. As new patents are issued, the claims allowed may not be sufficiently broad to protect the combined company's technology. In addition, any of Cohu's or Xcerra's existing patents, and any future patents issued to the combined company, may be challenged, invalidated or circumvented, either in connection with the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement or otherwise. As such, any rights granted under these patents may not provide the combined company with meaningful protection. Cohu and Xcerra may not have, and in the future the combined company may not be able to obtain, foreign patents or pending applications corresponding to its U.S. patents and applications. Even if foreign patents are granted, effective enforcement in foreign countries may not be available. If the combined company's patents do not adequately protect its technology, competitors may be able to offer products similar to the combined company's products. The combined company's competitors may also be able to develop similar technology independently or design around the combined company's patents.

The combined company may incur significant patent litigation costs as part of the licensing process or to enforce its patents. Litigation is subject to inherent risks and uncertainties that may cause actual results to differ materially from the combined company's expectations. If the combined company brings a patent infringement action and is not successful, its competitors would be able to use similar technology to compete with the combined company. Moreover, the defendant in such an action may successfully countersue the combined company for infringement of such counterparty's patents or assert a counterclaim that the combined company's patents are invalid or unenforceable. If the combined company does not prevail in the defense of patent infringement claims, it could be required to pay substantial damages and royalties, cease the manufacture, use and sale of infringing products in one or more geographic locations, expend significant resources to develop non-infringing technology, discontinue the use of specific processes or obtain licenses to the technology infringed, all of which could be materially adverse to the business and results of operations of the combined company.

The Merger could have an adverse effect on the Cohu and Xcerra brands.

The success of Cohu and Xcerra is largely dependent upon the ability of Cohu and Xcerra to maintain and enhance the value of their respective brands, their customers' connection to and perception of their respective brands, and sustain a positive relationship with customers and suppliers. Brand value, and as a result the businesses and results of operations of Cohu and Xcerra, could be severely damaged if the Merger receives considerable negative publicity or if customers or suppliers otherwise come to have a diminished view of the respective brands of Cohu and Xcerra as a result of the Merger or the common ownership of the existing businesses.

Following the Merger, Cohu will have significantly less cash on hand than Cohu and Xcerra collectively have as of the date of this joint proxy statement/ prospectus.

Following an assumed completion of the Merger on March 31, 2018, after all other pro forma adjustments relating to the Merger, Cohu would have had, on a pro forma basis as of March 31, 2018, approximately $151.1 million in cash, cash equivalents, and marketable securities. In addition, the combined company would have had, on a pro forma basis as of March 31, 2018 approximately $351.5 million in long-term indebtedness and $3.3 million of other short-term borrowings. By comparison, as of June 30, 2018, Cohu had approximately $150.9 million in cash, cash equivalents, and marketable securities, and as of June 30, 2018, Xcerra had approximately $147.4 million in cash, cash equivalents, and marketable securities. In addition, as of June 30, 2018, Cohu had approximately $5.3 million of long-term debt and $3.2 million of other short term borrowings, and as of June 30, 2018, Xcerra had approximately $2.1 million of long-term debt. If the actual amount of cash and cash equivalents that Cohu has on hand following the Merger is less than expected, this could adversely affect Cohu's ability to grow and to perform which in turn could have a materially adverse effect on the business and results of operations of the combined company. See "The Merger — Financing Relating to the Merger" for more information.

The use of cash and incurrence of substantial indebtedness in connection with the financing of the Merger may have an adverse impact on Cohu's liquidity, limit Cohu's flexibility in responding to other business opportunities and increase Cohu's vulnerability to adverse economic and industry conditions.

The Merger will be financed in part by the use of Cohu's cash on hand and the incurrence of indebtedness. As of June 30, 2018, Cohu had approximately $127.0 million of cash and cash equivalents, approximately $23.9 million of short-term investments and approximately $8.4 million of total debt outstanding. In connection with the Merger, Cohu expects to enter into the Facilities. The proceeds from the Facilities are expected to be used to pay part of the Cash Consideration and to pay transaction related fees and expenses. The use of cash on hand and indebtedness to finance the acquisition will reduce Cohu's liquidity and could cause Cohu to place more reliance on cash generated from operations to pay principal and interest on Cohu's debt, thereby reducing the availability of Cohu's cash flow for working capital, dividend and capital expenditure needs or to pursue other potential strategic plans. Cohu expects that the agreements it will enter into with respect to the Debt Financing will contain certain negative covenants, including limitations on Cohu's ability to incur additional liens and indebtedness or to pay dividends and make certain investments. Cohu's ability to comply with these negative covenants may be affected by events beyond its control. The indebtedness and these negative covenants will also have the effect, among other things, of limiting Cohu's ability to obtain additional financing, if needed, limiting its flexibility in the conduct of its business and making Cohu more vulnerable to economic downturns and adverse competitive and industry conditions. In addition, a breach of the negative covenants could result in an event of default with respect to the indebtedness, which, if not cured or waived, could result in the indebtedness becoming immediately due and payable and could have a material adverse effect on Cohu's business, financial condition or operating results. See "The Merger — Financing Relating to the Merger" for more information.

Because of high debt levels, Cohu may not be able to service its debt obligations in accordance with their terms after the completion of the Merger.

Cohu's ability to meet its expense and debt service obligations contained in the agreements Cohu expects to enter into with respect to the Debt Financing will depend on Cohu's future performance, which will be affected by financial, business, economic and other factors, including potential changes in industry conditions, industry supply and demand balance, customer preferences, the success of Cohu's products and pressure from competitors. In addition, Cohu is subject to interest rate risks, and continuing increases in interest rates will increase Cohu's debt service obligations. Should Cohu's revenues decline after the Merger, Cohu may not be able to generate sufficient cash flow to pay its debt service obligations when due. If Cohu is unable to meet its debt service obligations after the Merger or should Cohu fail to comply with the covenants contained in the agreements governing its indebtedness, Cohu may be required to refinance all or part of its debt, sell important strategic assets at unfavorable prices, incur additional indebtedness or issue Cohu Common Stock or other equity securities. Cohu may not be able to, at any given time, refinance its debt, sell assets, incur additional indebtedness or issue equity securities on terms acceptable to Cohu, in amounts sufficient to meet Cohu's needs or at all. If Cohu is able to raise additional funds through the issuance of equity securities, such issuance would also result in dilution to Cohu's stockholders. Cohu's inability to service its debt obligations or refinance its debt could have a material adverse effect on its business, financial conditions or operating results after the Merger. In addition, Cohu's debt obligations may limit its ability to make required investments in capacity, technology or other areas of its business, which could have a material adverse effect on its business, financial conditions or operating results.

The Merger may result in significant charges or other liabilities that could adversely affect the financial results of the combined company.

The financial results of the combined company may be adversely affected by cash expenses and non-cash accounting charges incurred in connection with the integration of the respective businesses and operations of Cohu and Xcerra. The amount and timing of these possible charges are not yet known. Further, Cohu's failure to identify or accurately assess the magnitude of certain liabilities that Cohu is assuming in the Merger could result in unexpected litigation or regulatory exposure, unfavorable accounting charges, unexpected increases in taxes due, a loss of anticipated tax benefits or other adverse effects on Cohu's business, operating results or financial condition. The price of Cohu Common Stock following the Merger could decline to the extent the combined company's financial results are materially affected by any of these events.

Cohu expects to incur substantial expenses related to the Merger.

Cohu expects to incur substantial expenses in connection with the consummation of the Merger and integrating the business, operations, systems, technologies, policies and procedures of Xcerra with those of Cohu. While Cohu has assumed that a certain level of transaction and integration expenses would be incurred, there are a number of factors beyond its control that could affect the total amount or the timing of its integration expenses. Many of the expenses that will be incurred, by their nature, are difficult to estimate accurately at the present time. As a result, the transaction and integration expenses associated with the Merger could, particularly in the near term, exceed the savings that Cohu expects to achieve from the elimination of duplicative expenses and the realization of economies of scale and cost savings related to the integration of the businesses following the completion of the Merger.

Significant developments stemming from the current U.S. presidential administration's priorities or initiatives, particularly with respect to trade, could have a material adverse effect on the combined company.

The current U.S. presidential administration has proposed restrictions on free trade generally and significant increases in tariffs on goods imported into the United States, particularly from China. In addition, the administration has notified Congress of its intentions to begin renegotiating NAFTA, and withdrawn the United States from negotiations for the Trans-Pacific Partnership. Changes in U.S. social, political, regulatory and economic conditions or in laws and policies governing foreign trade, manufacturing, development and investment in the territories and countries where Cohu or Xcerra currently develop and sell products and any negative sentiments towards the United States as a result of such changes, could adversely affect the business of the combined company. To the extent U.S. policies lead to an economic downturn, in the United States or abroad, the effects could materially affect the business of the combined company in many ways, any of which could have a material adverse effect on the combined company's results of operations.

Cohu's actual financial position and results of operations may differ materially from the unaudited pro forma financial data included herein.

The unaudited pro forma financial data included herein are presented for illustrative purposes only and are not necessarily indicative of what Cohu's actual financial position or results of operations would have been had the Merger been completed on the dates indicated. These data reflect adjustments, which are based upon preliminary estimates, to allocate the purchase price to Xcerra's net assets. The purchase price allocation reflected in this document is preliminary, and final allocation of the purchase price will be based upon the actual purchase price and the fair value of the assets and liabilities of Xcerra as of the date of the completion of the Merger. In addition, subsequent to the closing date of the Merger, there may be further refinements of the purchase price allocation as additional information becomes available.

Accordingly, the final purchase accounting adjustments might differ materially from the pro forma adjustments reflected herein. See "Selected Unaudited Pro Forma Combined Financial Information" for more information.

The unaudited prospective financial information of Cohu and Xcerra included in this joint proxy statement/prospectus involves risks, uncertainties and assumptions, many of which are beyond the control of Cohu and Xcerra. As a result, it may not prove to be accurate and is not necessarily indicative of current values or future performance.

The unaudited prospective financial information of Cohu and Xcerra referred to in “The Merger — Opinion of Cohu’s Financial Advisor, Deutsche Bank,” “The Merger — Opinion of Xcerra’s Financial Advisor, Cowen” and “The Merger — Unaudited Prospective Financial Information,” involves risks, uncertainties and assumptions and is not a guarantee of future performance. While the unaudited prospective financial information utilized by Cohu, Xcerra and their respective advisors in connection with the Merger and summarized in this joint proxy statement/prospectus was prepared in good faith based on information available at the time of preparation, no assurance can be made regarding future events or that the assumptions made in preparing such unaudited prospective financial information will accurately reflect future conditions. In preparing such unaudited prospective financial information, the respective managements of Cohu and Xcerra each made assumptions regarding, among other things, future economic, competitive, regulatory and financial market conditions and future business decisions that may not be realized and that are inherently subject to significant uncertainties and contingencies, including, among others, risks and uncertainties described or incorporated by reference in this section and the section entitled “Cautionary Statement Concerning Forward-Looking Statements,” all of which are difficult to predict and many of which are beyond the control of Cohu and Xcerra and, if the Merger is completed, will be beyond the control of the combined company. Thus, the future financial results of Cohu and Xcerra and, if the Merger is completed, the combined company, may materially differ from those expressed in the unaudited prospective financial information due to factors that are beyond Cohu’s and Xcerra’s ability to control or predict. Neither Cohu nor Xcerra can provide any assurance that Cohu’s or Xcerra’s unaudited prospective financial information will be realized or that Cohu’s or Xcerra’s future financial results will not materially vary from the applicable unaudited prospective financial information. The opinions rendered to the Cohu Board and Xcerra Board by the parties’ respective financial advisors were based on the respective financial analyses performed, which considered factors such as market and other conditions then in effect, and prospective financial information and other information made available to such financial advisors, as of the date of their respective opinions. As a result, the opinions do not reflect changes in events or circumstances after the date of the opinions.

The opinions rendered to the Cohu Board and the Xcerra Board by the parties’ respective financial advisors were provided in connection with, and at the time of, the Cohu Board’s and the Xcerra Board’s respective evaluations of the Merger. The opinions were necessarily based on the respective financial analyses performed, which considered market and other conditions then in effect, and prospective financial information and other information made available to them, as of the date of the respective opinions, which may have changed after the date of the respective opinion. The opinions did not speak as of the time that the Merger would be completed or as of any date other than the date of such opinions. For more information, see the sections entitled “The Merger — Opinion of Cohu’s Financial Advisor, Deutsche Bank” and “The Merger — Opinion of Xcerra’s Financial Advisor, Cowen.”

The Merger will result in changes to the Cohu Board that may affect the strategy and operations of the combined company as compared to that of Cohu and Xcerra as they currently exist.

If the Merger is completed, the composition of the Cohu Board will change. Upon completion of the Merger, the Cohu Board will include two new members selected from members of the Xcerra Board. There can be no assurance that the newly constituted Cohu Board will function effectively as a team and that there will not be any adverse effect on the combined company's business as a result.

Cohu cannot provide assurance that it will be able to continue paying dividends at the current rate.

Cohu plans to continue its currently quarterly dividend practices following the Merger. However, Cohu stockholders may not receive the same dividends following the Merger for various reasons, including the following:

- as a result of the Merger and the issuance of shares of Cohu Common Stock in connection with the Merger, the total amount of cash required for Cohu to pay dividends at its current rate will increase;
- Cohu may not have enough cash to pay such dividends due to Cohu's cash requirements, capital spending plans, cash flow or financial position;
- decisions on whether, when and in which amounts to make any future distributions will remain at all times entirely at the discretion of the Cohu Board, which reserves the right to change Cohu's dividend practices at any time;
- Rising interest rates, which increase Cohu's debt service obligations;
- Cohu may desire to retain cash to maintain or improve its credit ratings; and
- the amount of dividends that Cohu's subsidiaries may distribute to Cohu may be subject to restrictions imposed by state or foreign law, restrictions that may be imposed by state or foreign regulators, and restrictions imposed by the terms of any current or future indebtedness that these subsidiaries may incur.

Uncertainties underlie Cohu's expectation that, relative to Cohu on a stand-alone basis, the Merger will be accretive to Cohu's earnings per share after consummation of the Merger.

Cohu believes that, relative to Cohu on a stand-alone basis, the Merger will be accretive to Cohu's earnings per share following the consummation of the Merger. However, Cohu cannot give any assurance that the Merger will be accretive to Cohu's earnings per share. In addition to the uncertainties that underlie any financial forecast, Cohu will account for the Merger as an acquisition under Accounting Standards Codification Topic 805, "Business Combinations," or "ASC 805". The total cost of the Merger will be allocated to the underlying identifiable net tangible and intangible assets and liabilities based on their respective estimated fair values. Until the acquisition price and other factors are known, Cohu can only estimate the allocation of the acquisition price to the net assets acquired and the effect of the allocation on future results. That estimate could materially change.

Note 1. Description of the Merger

On May 7, 2018, Cohu, Merger Sub and Xcerra entered into the Merger Agreement, pursuant to which the Merger will be consummated, with Xcerra continuing as the Surviving Corporation. At the Effective Time, each share of Xcerra Common Stock issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time (other than dissenting shares and shares held by Cohu, Merger Sub, Xcerra or any direct or indirect wholly owned subsidiary of Cohu or Xcerra), will be converted into the right to receive, in the aggregate for all shares of Xcerra Common Stock, the Merger Consideration, estimated at approximately $785.6 million as of May 31, 2018. Following consummation of the Merger, Xcerra will be a wholly owned subsidiary of Cohu.

Cohu intends to finance the Merger, including all related fees and expenses, with the following:

- $179.0 million cash from combined balance sheets;
- The incurrence of $350.0 million from the Term Facility;
- The issuance of approximately 11,780,000 shares of Cohu Common Stock; and
- The issuance of approximately 751,000 Assumed RSUs to Xcerra employees, of which a portion of the fair value of the Assumed RSUs will be attributed to pre-Merger services.

Immediately prior to the Effective Time, each Xcerra RSU that is a Vested RSU will be cancelled and terminated as of the Effective Time and the holder of such Vested RSU will receive the Vested RSU Consideration, which is composed of:

- (1) an amount in cash (without interest) equal to the product of (x) $9.00 multiplied by (y) the total number of shares of Xcerra Common Stock represented by such Vested RSU; and
- (2) a number of shares of Cohu Common Stock equal to the product of (x) 0.2109 multiplied by (y) the total number of shares of Xcerra Common Stock represented by such Vested RSU immediately prior to the Effective Time.

Immediately prior to the Effective Time, each Unvested RSU will be assumed by Cohu and shall be converted into an Assumed RSU representing the number of whole shares of Cohu Common Stock equal to the product of (1) the number of shares of Xcerra Common Stock represented by such Unvested RSU immediately prior to the Effective Time multiplied by (2) the Equity Award Exchange Ratio, rounded down to the nearest whole share. The Equity Award Exchange Ratio is calculated as the sum of (1) 0.2109, plus (2) the quotient of (x) $9.00 divided by (y) the volume weighted average of the trading prices of Cohu Common Stock on each of the three consecutive trading days ending on the trading day that is one trading day prior to the Merger closing date.

The completion of the Merger is subject to the approval of the Merger Agreement by the Xcerra stockholders, the approval of the Stock Issuance Proposal by the Cohu stockholders, receipt of the Approvals and subject to the satisfaction or, to the extent permitted by law, waiver of all of the conditions to the Merger set forth in the Merger Agreement and described in this joint proxy statement/prospectus, certain other conditions to the closing of the Merger. As of the date of this joint proxy statement/prospectus, Cohu and Xcerra expect the Merger to be completed in the second half of 2018.

Note 2. Basis of Pro Forma Presentation

The unaudited pro forma condensed combined financial statements were prepared using the acquisition method of accounting and are based on the historical consolidated financial statements of Cohu and Xcerra.

The acquisition method of accounting is based on Accounting Standards Codification (“ASC”) 805, Business Combinations (“ASC 805”), and uses the fair value concepts defined in ASC 820, Fair Value Measurement (“ASC 820”).

ASC 805 requires, among other things, that most assets acquired and liabilities assumed be recognized at their fair values as of the acquisition date. In addition, ASC 805 requires that the consideration transferred be measured at the date the merger is completed at the then-current market price. This requirement will likely result in a per share equity component that is different from the amount assumed in these unaudited pro forma condensed combined financial statements, since the market price of the shares of Cohu Common Stock at the Effective Time is likely to be different than the $24.02 market price that was used in the preparation of the unaudited pro forma condensed combined financial statements. The market price of $24.02 was based upon the closing price of shares of Cohu Common Stock on NASDAQ on May 31, 2018.

ASC 820 defines the term “fair value” and sets forth the valuation requirements for any asset or liability measured at fair value, expands related disclosure requirements and specifies a hierarchy of valuation techniques based on the nature of the inputs used to develop the fair value measures. Fair value is defined in ASC 820 as “the price that would be received to sell an asset or paid to transfer a liability in an orderly transaction between market participants at the measurement date.” This is an exit price concept for the valuation of the asset or liability. In addition, market participants are assumed to be buyers and sellers in the principal (or the most advantageous) market for the asset or liability. Fair value measurements for an asset assume the highest and best use by these market participants. As a result of these standards, Cohu may be required to record the fair value of assets which are not intended to be used or sold and/or to value assets at fair value measures that do not reflect Cohu’s intended use of those assets. Many of these fair value measurements can be highly subjective, and it is possible that other professionals, applying reasonable judgment to the same facts and circumstances, could develop and support a range of alternative estimated amounts.

Under the acquisition method of accounting, the assets acquired and liabilities assumed will be recorded, as of the Effective Time, primarily at their respective fair values and added to those of Cohu. Financial statements and reported results of operations of Cohu issued after the Effective Time will reflect these values, but will not be retroactively restated to reflect the historical financial position or results of operations of Xcerra.

Under ASC 805, acquisition-related transaction costs (e.g., advisory, legal and other professional fees) are not included as a component of consideration transferred but are accounted for as expenses in the periods in which such costs are incurred. Merger-related transaction costs expected to be incurred by Cohu include, among other costs, estimated fees related to obtaining the Term Facility. Total Merger-related transaction costs expected to be incurred by Cohu and Xcerra are estimated to be approximately $22.8 million in total. Cohu did not incur any material Merger-related transaction costs during the twelve months ended December 30, 2017, and incurred approximately $0.3 million of Merger-related transaction costs during the three months ended March 31, 2018. Xcerra did not incur any Merger-related transaction costs during the twelve months ended January 31, 2018 or during the three months ended January 31, 2018.

The unaudited pro forma condensed combined balance sheet as of March 31, 2018, is required to include adjustments which give effect to events that are directly attributable to the Merger regardless of whether they are expected to have a continuing impact on the combined results or are non-recurring. Therefore, Merger-related transaction costs expected to be incurred by Cohu and Xcerra subsequent to March 31, 2018, are reflected as a pro forma adjustment to the unaudited pro forma condensed combined balance sheet as of March 31, 2018, with the impact presented as an increase to accrued expenses and other current liabilities and a decrease to retained earnings.

The unaudited pro forma combined financial information is presented solely for informational purposes and is not necessarily indicative of the combined results of operations or financial position that might have been achieved for the periods or dates indicated, nor is it necessarily indicative of the future results of the combined company. The unaudited pro forma combined financial information has not been adjusted to give effect to certain expected financial benefits of the Merger, such as tax savings, cost synergies or revenue synergies, or the anticipated costs to achieve these benefits, including the cost of integration activities. The unaudited pro forma combined financial information does not reflect possible adjustments related to restructuring or potential divestitures that may occur prior to, or subsequent to, completion of the Merger, that have yet to be determined. Further, one-time transaction-related expenses anticipated to be incurred prior to, or concurrent with, the closing of the Merger are not included in the unaudited pro forma combined statements of income. However, the impact of such transaction expenses is reflected in the unaudited pro forma combined balance sheet as a decrease to retained earnings and as an increase to other accrued expenses as noted above. Although Cohu projects that significant cost savings will result from the Merger, there can be no assurance that these cost savings will be achieved. Any restructuring or integration-related costs will be expensed in the appropriate accounting periods after completion of the Merger.

Note 3. Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

After the completion of the Merger, Cohu will review Xcerra's accounting policies. As a result of that review, Cohu may identify differences between the accounting policies of the two companies that, when conformed, could have a material impact on the combined financial statements. With the exception of one accounting policy related to recently issued accounting guidance that Cohu adopted on December 31, 2017, Cohu is not aware of any differences that would have a material impact on the combined financial statements, and therefore, the unaudited pro forma condensed combined financial statements assume there are no other differences in accounting policies other than the one described below.

Adoption of New Revenue Accounting Standard

Net sales presented in the unaudited pro forma condensed combined statement of income for the year ended December 30, 2017, were recognized, for both Cohu and Xcerra, using ASC 605, Revenue Recognition ("ASC 605"). Cohu adopted ASC 606, Revenue from Contracts with Customers ("ASC 606"), on December 31, 2017, the first day of its 2018 fiscal year using the modified retrospective method of adoption which only applies to those contracts which were not completed as of December 31, 2017. Cohu's net sales presented in the unaudited pro forma condensed combined statement of income for the three months ended March 31, 2018, have been accounted for under the provisions of ASC 606.

Under ASC 605, Xcerra recognizes revenue when persuasive evidence of an arrangement exists, delivery has occurred or services have been rendered, the seller's price is fixed or determinable and collectability is reasonably assured. Revenue related to equipment sales is recognized when: (a) Xcerra has a written sales agreement; (b) delivery has occurred or service has been rendered; (c) the price is fixed or determinable; (d) collectability is reasonably assured; (e) the equipment delivered is a standard product with historically demonstrated acceptance; and (f) there is no unique customer acceptance provision or payment tied to acceptance or an undelivered element significant to the functionality of the system. Generally, payment terms are time based after product shipment. From time to time, sales to a customer may involve multiple elements, in which case revenue is recognized on the delivered element provided that (1) the undelivered element is a proven technology, (2) there is a history of acceptance on the equipment with the customer, (3) the undelivered element is not essential to the customer's application, (4) the delivered item(s) has value to the customer on a stand-alone basis, and (5) if the arrangement includes a general right of return relative to the delivered item(s), delivery or performance of the undelivered item(s) is considered probable and substantially in the control of Xcerra. The arrangement consideration, or the amount of revenue to be recognized on each separate unit of accounting, is allocated at the inception of the arrangement to all deliverables on the basis of their relative selling price. Revenue related to maintenance and service contracts is recognized ratably over the duration of the contracts.

For Xcerra, ASC 606 will be effective for its fiscal year beginning on August 1, 2018, and Xcerra currently anticipates adopting ASC 606 using the modified retrospective method. Xcerra's management has completed its preliminary assessment of the financial statement impact of the new standard and does not expect it to have a material impact on its financial position or results of operations. This preliminary assessment is based on a review of the types and number of revenue arrangements currently in place including the review of individual customer contracts related to these revenue streams. The exact impact of the new standard will be dependent on facts and circumstances at adoption and could vary from quarter to quarter.

Based on Xcerra's preliminary assessment, Xcerra's management expects Xcerra's results will not be materially different from those recognized under ASC 605 and, as such, no adjustment to Xcerra's net sales in the unaudited pro forma condensed combined statement of income for the three months ended March 31, 2018, has been made.

Note 4. Estimate of Consideration Expected to be Transferred

The following is a preliminary estimate of the Merger Consideration expected to be transferred to effect the Merger (in thousands, except per common share data):

Aggregate Cash Consideration:

Stockholders:
Xcerra Common Stock outstanding as of April 30, 2018	54,915
Multiplied by Cash Consideration	$ 9.00
Preliminary estimate of aggregate Cash Consideration paid to Xcerra stockholders	$494,235
Holders of Xcerra RSUs:
Vested RSUs as of immediately prior to the Effective Time	938
Multiplied by Cash Consideration	$ 9.00
Preliminary estimate of aggregate Cash Consideration paid to holders of Vested RSUs	$ 8,442
Preliminary fair value estimate of aggregate Cash Consideration	$502,677

Stock Consideration:

Stockholders:
Xcerra Common Stock outstanding as of April 30, 2018	54,915
Multiplied by Stock Consideration	0.2109
Multiplied by per share price of Cohu Common Stock on May 31, 2018	$ 24.02
Preliminary fair value estimate of aggregate Stock Consideration paid to Xcerra stockholders	$278,189
Holders of Xcerra RSUs:
Vested RSUs as of immediately prior to the Effective Time	938
Multiplied by Stock Consideration	0.2109
Multiplied by per share price of Cohu Common Stock on May 31, 2018	$ 24.02
Preliminary fair value estimate of aggregate Stock Consideration paid to holders of Xcerra RSUs	$ 4,752
Preliminary fair value estimate of aggregate Stock Consideration	$282,941

Aggregate Merger Consideration:

Aggregate Stock Consideration	282,941
Estimate of aggregate Merger Consideration expected to be transferred (a)	$785,618

- (a) As further described in Note 1, Description of the Merger, beginning on page 52 of this joint proxy statement/prospectus, each Unvested RSUs will not be settled upon completion of the Merger, and instead will be converted into an Assumed RSU. The above table excludes approximately 1,283,000 Xcerra RSUs outstanding at April 30, 2018, that will be converted into approximately 751,000 Assumed RSUs, from the estimate of total consideration expected to be transferred. Other consideration transferred will include the portion of the fair value of the Assumed RSUs that is attributed to pre-Merger services. The fair value attributable to post-Merger services will be recorded as compensation expense in Cohu's post-Merger financial statements. At this time, Cohu is unable to reasonably estimate the respective amounts attributable to pre- and post-Merger services.

The estimated Merger Consideration expected to be transferred reflected in these unaudited pro forma condensed combined financial statements does not purport to represent the actual Merger Consideration that will be transferred when the Merger is completed. In accordance with ASC 805, the fair value of equity securities issued as part of the Merger Consideration will be measured on the date the Merger is completed at the then-current market price. This requirement will likely result in a different value of the Stock Consideration, and that difference may be material. For example, if the per share price of Cohu Common Stock on the date the Merger is completed increased or decreased by 10% from the price assumed in these unaudited pro forma condensed combined financial statements, the Merger Consideration would increase or decrease by approximately $28.3 million, which would be reflected in these unaudited pro forma condensed combined financial statements as an increase or decrease to goodwill.

Note 5. Estimate of Assets to be Acquired and Liabilities to be Assumed

The total estimated purchase price was allocated to Xcerra's net tangible and intangible assets based on their estimated fair values as of March 31, 2018, the effective date of the Merger for the purposes of this pro forma presentation. The following table is a preliminary estimate of the assets to be acquired and the liabilities to be assumed by Cohu in the Merger, reconciled to the estimate of the Merger Consideration at March 31, 2018 (in thousands):

Assets Acquired and Liabilities Assumed:
Current assets, including cash received	$ 384,667
Property, plant and equipment	34,591
Other assets	2,191
Intangible assets (b)	308,300
Goodwill (c)	166,435
Total assets acquired	896,184
Liabilities assumed (d)	(110,566)
Net assets acquired	$ 785,618

- (b) As of completion of the Merger, identifiable intangible assets are required to be measured at fair value, and these acquired assets could include assets that are not intended to be used or sold or that are intended to be used in a manner other than their highest and best use. For purposes of these unaudited pro forma condensed combined financial statements and consistent with the ASC 820 requirements for fair value measurements, it is assumed that all assets will be used, and that all acquired assets will be used in a manner that represents the highest and best use of those acquired assets.
- (c) Goodwill is calculated as the difference between the acquisition date fair value of the Merger Consideration expected to be transferred and the aggregate values assigned to the assets acquired and liabilities assumed. Goodwill is not amortized.
- (d) Includes a preliminary estimate of $29.1 million of net deferred tax liabilities recorded as a result of the purchase price allocation.

Under the HSR Act and other relevant laws and regulations, there are significant limitations on Cohu's ability to obtain specific information about Xcerra's intangible assets prior to completion of the Merger. As of the date of this joint proxy statement/prospectus, Cohu does not have sufficient information as to the amount, timing and risk of the cash flows from all of Xcerra's identifiable intangible assets to determine their fair value. Some of the more significant assumptions inherent in the development of intangible asset values, from the perspective of a market participant, include, but are not limited to: the amount and timing of projected future cash flows (including revenue and profitability); the discount rate selected to measure the risks inherent in the future cash flows; the assessment of the asset's life cycle; and the competitive trends impacting the asset. However, for purposes of these unaudited pro forma condensed combined financial statements and using publicly available information, such as historical revenues, Xcerra's cost structure, industry information for comparable intangible assets and certain other high-level assumptions, the fair value of Xcerra's identifiable intangible assets and their weighted average useful lives have been preliminarily estimated as follows (dollars in thousands):

	Estimated Fair Value	Estimated Useful Life (Years)
Developed technology	$ 170,000	8
Customer relationships	86,600	8
In-process research and development (IPR&D)	20,600	indefinite
Backlog	15,800	0.5
Trademarks and trade names	14,000	6
Favorable lease	1,300	4
Total	$ 308,300

The value assigned to developed technology was determined by using the multi-period excess earnings method under the income approach. Developed technology, which comprises products that have reached technological feasibility, includes the products in Xcerra's product line. The revenue estimates used to value the developed technology were based on estimates of relevant market sizes and growth factors, expected trends in technology and the nature and expected timing of new product introductions by Xcerra and competitors. The estimated cash flows were based on revenues for the developed technology net of operating expenses and net of contributory asset charges. The discount rate utilized to discount the net cash flows of the developed technology to present value was based on the risk associated with the respective cash flows taking into consideration the perceived risk of the technology relative to the other acquired assets, the weighted average cost of capital, the internal rate of return, and the weighted average return on assets.

The value assigned to customer relationships was determined by using the with and without method under the income approach, which analyzes the difference in discounted cash flows generated with the customer relationships in place compared to the discounted cash flows generated without the customer relationships in place.

In-process research and development ("IPR&D") represents the estimated fair value assigned to research and development projects acquired in a business combination that have not been completed at the date of acquisition and which have no alternative future use. IPR&D is initially accounted for as an indefinite-lived intangible asset. Once a project reaches technological feasibility amounts capitalized related to the project are reclassified to developed technology and the intangible asset begins to be amortized over its estimated useful life. For the IPR&D, additional research and development will be required to assess technological feasibility.

The value assigned to backlog acquired was estimated based upon the contractual nature of the backlog as of the assumed effective date of the Merger, using the income approach to discount back to present value the cash flows attributable to the backlog.

The value assigned to trademarks and trade names was estimated using the relief-from-royalty method of the income approach. This approach is based on the assumption that in lieu of ownership, a company would be willing to pay a royalty in order to exploit the related benefits of this intangible asset.

In our preliminary estimate of the fair value of Xcerra's net assets, Cohu identified a lease that appears to be at a favorable rate compared to current market rates. As a result, Cohu anticipates recording a $1.3 million favorable lease asset, which must be amortized to rent expense over the terms of the related lease.

These preliminary estimates of fair value and estimated useful life will likely be different from the amounts included in the final acquisition accounting, and the difference could have a material impact on the accompanying unaudited pro forma condensed combined financial statements. Once Cohu has full access to information about Xcerra's intangible assets, additional insight will be gained that could impact (i) the estimated total value assigned to identifiable intangible assets, (ii) the estimated allocation of value between finite-lived and indefinite-lived intangible assets and/or (iii) the estimated weighted average useful life of each category of intangible assets. The estimated intangible asset values and their useful lives could be impacted by a variety of factors that may become known to Cohu only upon access to additional information and/or by changes in such factors that may occur prior to completion of the Merger. These factors include, but are not limited to, changes in the regulatory, legislative, legal, technological and/or competitive environments. Increased knowledge about these and/or other elements could result in a change to the estimated fair value of the identifiable Xcerra intangible assets and/or to the estimated weighted average useful lives from what Cohu has assumed in these unaudited pro forma condensed combined financial statements. The combined effect of any such changes could then also result in a significant increase or decrease to Cohu's estimate of associated amortization expense.

Note 6. Reclassification and Pro Forma Adjustments

Pro forma adjustments are necessary to reflect the financial statement impact directly attributable to the Merger as detailed below. Due to differences in presentation, certain reclassification adjustments are necessary to conform certain of Xcerra's amounts to Cohu's presentation.

In the process of finalizing our purchase price allocation, if information becomes available which would indicate the existence of a material pre-acquisition contingency and it is determined that events giving rise to the contingency occurred prior to the effective date of the Merger and the amounts can be reasonably estimated, such items will be included in our final purchase price allocation.

The pro forma adjustments included in the unaudited pro forma condensed combined balance sheet are as follows:

- (a) Represents Cohu's historical consolidated balance sheet as of March 31, 2018.
- (b) Represents Xcerra's historical consolidated balance sheet as of January 31, 2018.
- (c) Adjustments required to conform Xcerra's condensed financial statement presentation with Cohu's presentation. Adjustments include reclassifying amounts presented by Xcerra in total current other accrued liabilities into accrued compensation, accrued warranty and income taxes payable. Additionally, Xcerra's noncurrent other accrued liabilities has been reclassified into accrued retirement benefits, deferred income taxes and noncurrent income tax liabilities.
- (d) Adjustment to record the anticipated net proceeds from the $350.0 million Term Facility, less underwriting fees and original issue discount totaling approximately $7.0 million which is recorded as a direct reduction of the loan amount.
- (e) Adjustment to record short-term and long-term liabilities related to the Term Facility.
- (f) Adjustment to record shares of Cohu Common Stock issued in connection with the Merger.
- (g) Adjustment to reflect the net cash paid to Xcerra shareholders of approximately $502.7 million.
- (h) Adjustment to reflect the estimated fair value of inventories acquired. The fair value calculation is preliminary and subject to change. The fair value was determined based on the estimated selling price of the inventory, less the remaining manufacturing and selling costs and a normal profit margin on those manufacturing and selling efforts. After the Merger, the step-up in inventory fair value will increase cost of sales over approximately six months as the inventory is sold. This increase is not reflected in the pro forma condensed combined statements of income because it does not have a continuing impact.

- (i) Adjustments to increase the basis in certain acquired property, plant and equipment to estimated fair value which is subject to change after finalization of review of the specific types, nature, age, condition and location of Xcerra's property, plant and equipment.
- (j) Adjustments to remove Xcerra's historical goodwill totaling $45.9 million and to record the estimated fair value of goodwill totaling $166.4 million based on net assets acquired as if the Merger closed on March 31, 2018.
- (k) Adjustments to remove Xcerra historical intangible assets totaling $8.5 million and to record the estimated fair value of identifiable intangible assets of approximately $308.3 million as if the Merger occurred on March 31, 2018.
- (l) Adjustment to record the tax effects of the various purchase accounting entries recorded as a result of the merger.
- (m) Adjustment to record an estimate of post-acquisition compensation expense liability required by change in control agreements of Xcerra's executive officers.
- (n) Estimated adjustment to decrease the assumed deferred revenue obligations to a fair value of $4.0 million. The fair value was determined based on the estimated costs to fulfill the remaining performance obligations plus a normal profit margin. This calculation of fair value is preliminary and subject to change.
- (o) Adjustment to record one-time transaction-related expenses consisting of legal, accounting, debt issuance and other third-party expenses anticipated to be incurred prior to, or concurrent with, the closing of the Merger.
- (p) Adjustment to eliminate the historical stockholder equity accounts of Xcerra.
- (q) Adjustments to eliminate the historical accumulated deficit of Xcerra totaling $461.6 million and to record estimated one-time transaction-related expenses totaling $22.8 million and an estimate of post-acquisition compensation expense liability totaling $6.3 million as described above.

The pro forma adjustments included in the unaudited pro forma condensed combined statements of income are as follows:

- (r) Represents Cohu's historical consolidated statement of income for the year ended December 30, 2017 or the three months ended March 31, 2018, as applicable.
- (s) Represents Xcerra's historical consolidated statement of operations for the twelve months ended January 31, 2018 or the three months ended January 31, 2018, as applicable.
- (t) Adjustments required to conform Xcerra's financial statement presentation with Cohu's presentation. Adjustments include reclassifying amortization and restructuring expenses into cost of sales, research and development and selling, general and administrative. In addition, Xcerra's foreign exchange losses have been reclassified from other (expense) income into selling, general and administrative expense.

- (u) Adjustment to reflect estimated additional interest expense associated with the Term Facility as well as the amortization of estimated debt issuance costs of $5.3 million and original issue discount of $1.7 million as follows:

	Year Ended December 30, 2017	Three Months Ended March 31, 2018
	(in thousands)
Additional interest expense associated with the $350.0 million variable-rate Term Facility to partially fund the Merger with an assumed maturity of 7 years and an assumed weighted average annual interest rate of 4.8%*	$ (16,862)	$ (4,173)
Amortization of estimated debt issuance costs and original issuance discount totaling $7.0 million associated with the Term Facility to be issued to partially fund the Merger	(1,030)	(255)
Estimated adjustment to interest expense related to the Term Facility	$ (17,892)	$ (4,428)

* If interest rates were to increase or decrease by 0.125% from the rates assumed in estimating this pro forma adjustment to interest expense, pro forma interest expense would increase or decrease by approximately $0.4 million in the year ended December 30, 2017 and $0.1 million in the three months ended March 31, 2018.

- (v) Represents the income tax impact of the pro forma adjustments, using the appropriate statutory tax rates. These adjustments and the resulting pro forma tax provision differs from the U.S. federal statutory rate primarily due to the lack of a benefit on domestic losses as a result of Cohu and Xcerra's valuation allowance on deferred tax assets and foreign income taxed at different rates. This does not represent Cohu's effective tax rate, which will include other tax charges and benefits, and does not take into account any historical or possible future tax events that may impact Cohu following the consummation of the Merger.
- (w) Adjustment to cost of sales to eliminate Xcerra's historical intangible amortization expense, reflect estimated additional intangible asset amortization expense resulting from the fair value of Xcerra's intangible assets excluding amortization expense related to backlog because it does not have a continuing impact, to eliminate Xcerra's historical share-based compensation expense and to reflect the estimated share-based compensation expense related to the Assumed RSUs as part of the estimated share-based compensation expense as follows:

	(in thousands)
Eliminate Xcerra historical share-based compensation expense	$ (103)	$ (7)
Eliminate Xcerra historical amortization expense	(552)	(116)
Estimated transaction-related intangible asset amortization	21,252	5,313
Estimated transaction-related share-based compensation expense	63	4
	$ 20,660	$ 5,194

- (x) Adjustment to research and development expense to eliminate Xcerra’s historical share-based compensation expense and to reflect the estimated share-based compensation expense related to the Assumed RSUs as part of the estimated share-based compensation expense as follows:

	Year Ended December 30, 2017	Three Months Ended March 31, 2018
	(in thousands)
Eliminate Xcerra historical share-based compensation expense	$ (882)	$ (247)
Estimated transaction-related share-based compensation expense	539	136
	$ (343)	$ (111)

- (y) Adjustment to selling, general and administrative expense to eliminate Xcerra’s historical intangible amortization expense, to eliminate acquisition costs related to Xcerra, to reflect estimated additional intangible asset amortization expense resulting from the fair value of Xcerra’s intangible assets, to record estimated depreciation expense related to the fair market value adjustment to property, plant and equipment, to eliminate Xcerra’s historical share-based compensation expense and to reflect the estimated share-based compensation expense related to the Assumed RSUs as part of the estimated share-based compensation expense as follows:

	Year Ended December 30, 2017	Three Months Ended March 31, 2018
	(in thousands)
Eliminate Xcerra historical amortization expense	$ (49)	$ (21)
Eliminate Cohu’s acquisition costs related to Xcerra	(27)	(296)
Eliminate Xcerra historical share-based compensation expense	(6,312)	(1,770)
Estimated transaction-related intangible asset amortization	13,480	3,370
Estimated transaction-related share-based compensation expense	3,857	975
Estimated depreciation related to fair market value adjustment to property, plant and equipment	376	94
	$ 11,325	$ 2,352

- (z) Represents the estimated reduction in interest income earned on Cohu’s cash and short-term investments (cash reserves) of approximately of $0.6 million and $0.2 million for the year ended December 30, 2017 and the quarter ended March 31, 2018, respectively.
- (aa) The combined basic and diluted earnings per share from continuing operations for the periods presented are based on the combined weighted average basic and diluted shares of Cohu Common Stock and Xcerra Common Stock. COMPARATIVE HISTORICAL AND UNAUDITED PRO FORMA
PER SHARE FINANCIAL INFORMATION

The following table sets forth selected historical and unaudited pro forma combined per share information for Cohu and Xcerra.

Historical Per Common Share Information of Cohu and Xcerra. Cohu and Xcerra have different fiscal years. Cohu's fiscal year is based on a 52- or 53-week period ending on the last Saturday in December, whereas Xcerra's fiscal year is based on a July 31st fiscal year-end. The historical per common share information of Cohu and Xcerra below for the three months ended March 31, 2018 is derived from (1) Cohu's three months ended March 31, 2018 and (2) Xcerra's three months ended January 31, 2018. This historical per common share information of Cohu and Xcerra for the year ended December 31, 2017 is derived from (1) Cohu's year ended December 30, 2017 and (2) Xcerra's 12-month period ended January 31, 2018. Accordingly, Xcerra's results of operations for the three months ended January 31, 2018 are included in both the annual and interim pro forma condensed combined income statements.

Unaudited Pro Forma Combined per share of Cohu Common Stock Data. The unaudited pro forma combined per share of Cohu Common Stock data set forth below give effect to the Merger under the acquisition method of accounting, as if the merger had been effective on January 1, 2017, the first day of Cohu's fiscal year ended December 30, 2017, in the case of income from continuing operations per share. The unaudited pro forma combined book value per share of Cohu Common Stock data set forth below give effect to the Merger under the acquisition method of accounting, as if the Merger had been effective March 31, 2018, assuming that each outstanding share of Xcerra Common Stock and the Vested RSUs had been converted into shares of Cohu Common Stock pursuant to the Merger Agreement.

The unaudited pro forma combined per share of Cohu Common Stock data is derived from the consolidated financial statements of each of Cohu and Xcerra as of and for the three months ended March 31, 2018, will include (1) Cohu's three months ended March 31, 2018 and (2) Xcerra's three months ended January 31, 2018, and for the year ended December 30, 2017 will include (1) Cohu's year ended December 30, 2017 and (2) Xcerra's 12-month period ended January 31, 2018.

The acquisition method of accounting is based on ASC 805, Business Combinations, and uses the fair value concepts defined in ASC 820, Fair Value Measurements, which Cohu has adopted as required. Acquisition accounting requires, among other things, that most assets acquired and liabilities assumed be recognized at their fair values as of the acquisition date. Fair value measurements recorded in acquisition accounting are dependent upon certain valuation studies of Xcerra's assets and liabilities and other studies that have yet to commence or progress to a stage where there is sufficient information for a definitive measurement. Accordingly, the pro forma adjustments reflect the assets and liabilities of Xcerra at their preliminary estimated fair values. Differences between these preliminary estimates and the final values in acquisition accounting will occur, and these differences could have a material impact on the unaudited pro forma combined per share information set forth in the following table.

The unaudited pro forma combined per share of Cohu Common Stock data does not purport to represent the actual results of operations that Cohu would have achieved had the companies been combined during these periods or to project the future results of operations that Cohu may achieve after completion of the Merger.

Unaudited Pro Forma Combined per Xcerra Equivalent Share Data. The unaudited pro forma combined per Xcerra equivalent share data set forth below shows the effect of the Merger from the perspective of an owner of shares of Xcerra Common Stock. The information was calculated by multiplying the unaudited pro forma combined per share of Cohu Common Stock amounts by 0.2109 pursuant to the Merger Agreement.

THE COHU SPECIAL MEETING

Overview

This joint proxy statement/prospectus is being provided to Cohu stockholders as part of a solicitation of proxies by the Cohu Board for use at the Cohu Special Meeting and at any adjournments or postponements thereof. This joint proxy statement/prospectus is first being furnished to Cohu stockholders on or about July 30, 2018. In addition, this joint proxy statement/prospectus constitutes a prospectus for Cohu in connection with the issuance by Cohu of its common stock pursuant to the Merger Agreement. This joint proxy statement/prospectus provides Cohu stockholders with information they need to know to vote or instruct their vote to be cast at the Cohu Special Meeting.

Date, Time and Place of the Cohu Special Meeting

The Cohu Special Meeting will be held at Cohu's corporate offices, located at 12367 Crosthwaite Circle, Poway, California 92064-6817 on August 30, 2018, at 8:30 a.m., Pacific Time, unless adjourned or postponed to a later date or time.

Purposes of the Cohu Special Meeting

At the Cohu Special Meeting, Cohu's stockholders will be asked:

- to approve the Stock Issuance Proposal; and
- to approve the Cohu Adjournment Proposal.

Record Date; Outstanding Shares; Shares Entitled to Vote

The Cohu Record Date is the close of business on July 30, 2018. This means that you must be a stockholder of record of Cohu Common Stock at the close of business on the Cohu Record Date, in order to vote at the Cohu Special Meeting. You are entitled to one vote for each share of Cohu Common Stock you own. At the close of business on [●], 2018, there were [●] shares of Cohu Common Stock outstanding and entitled to vote, held by approximately [●] holders of record.

A complete list of Cohu stockholders entitled to vote at the Cohu Special Meeting will be available for inspection at the principal place of business of Cohu during regular business hours for a period of no less than ten days before the Cohu Special Meeting and at the place of the Cohu Special Meeting during the meeting.

Quorum and Vote Required

A quorum of stockholders is necessary to hold a valid special meeting of Cohu. The required quorum for the transaction of business at the Cohu Special Meeting is a majority of the issued and outstanding shares of Cohu Common Stock entitled to vote at the Cohu Special Meeting, whether present in person or represented by proxy. Any abstentions will be counted as present and entitled to vote in determining whether a quorum is present at the Cohu Special Meeting. For shares held in "street name," your bank, broker or other nominee will not be permitted to vote at the Cohu Special Meeting without specific instructions as to how to vote from you as the beneficial owner of the shares of Cohu Common Stock. A broker non-vote (as defined below) will have no effect on the Stock Issuance Proposal (assuming a quorum is achieved) or the Cohu Adjournment Proposal. Broker non-votes will not be counted as present for purposes of determining whether a quorum is present at the Cohu Special Meeting.

The approval of the Stock Issuance Proposal requires the affirmative vote of a majority of shares present in person or represented by proxy at the Cohu Special Meeting, assuming a quorum is present. If you are a Cohu stockholder who attends the meeting in person or by proxy, and you abstain from voting, that will have the same effect as a vote AGAINST approval of the Stock Issuance Proposal. Broker non-votes and shares not in attendance at the Cohu Special Meeting will have no effect on the Stock Issuance Proposal, provided that a quorum is achieved.

To approve the Cohu Adjournment Proposal, the affirmative vote of a majority of the shares of Cohu Common Stock present in person or represented by proxy at the Cohu Special Meeting and entitled to vote is required, regardless of whether a quorum is present. Abstentions will have the same effect as a vote AGAINST the Cohu Adjournment Proposal, while broker non-votes and shares not in attendance at the Cohu Special Meeting will have no effect on the outcome of the Cohu Adjournment Proposal.

Stock Ownership and Voting by Cohu's Directors and Executive Officers

At the close of business on July 16, 2018, Cohu's directors and executive officers had the right to vote approximately 783,314 shares of the then-outstanding Cohu Common Stock at the Cohu Special Meeting, collectively representing approximately 2.7% of Cohu Common Stock outstanding and entitled to vote on that date. We currently expect that Cohu's directors and executive officers will vote their shares FOR the Stock Issuance Proposal and FOR any Cohu Adjournment Proposal, although none of them has entered into any agreement requiring them to do so.

How to Vote

You may vote your shares of Cohu Common Stock in person at the Cohu Special Meeting or by proxy. Cohu recommends that you submit your proxy even if you plan to attend the Cohu Special Meeting. If you submit your proxy, you may change your vote if you attend and vote at the Cohu Special Meeting; however, mere attendance at the Cohu Special Meeting will have no effect on your vote.

Owners of record (that is, stockholders of record who hold shares of Cohu in their own name, as opposed to through a bank, broker or other nominee), as of the close of business on the Cohu Record Date, may vote in person at the Cohu Special Meeting or by proxy. This means that you may use the enclosed proxy card(s) to tell the persons named as proxies how to vote your shares. If you properly complete, sign and date your proxy card(s) or submit your voting instructions by telephone or over the Internet, your shares will be voted in accordance with your instructions. The named proxies will vote all shares at the Cohu Special Meeting for which proxies have been properly submitted (whether by mail, telephone or over the Internet) and not revoked. Owners of record have three ways to vote by proxy:

- Internet: You can vote over the Internet at the Web address shown on your proxy card(s). You will be prompted to enter your Control Number from your proxy card. This number will identify you as a stockholder of record. Follow the simple instructions that will be given to you to record your vote. If you vote over the Internet, do not return your proxy card(s).
- Telephone: You can vote by telephone by calling the toll-free number on your proxy card(s). You will be prompted to enter your Control Number from your proxy card. This number will identify you as a stockholder of record. Follow the simple instructions that will be given to you to record your vote. If you vote by telephone, do not return your proxy card(s).
- Mail: You can vote by mail by simply signing, dating and mailing your proxy card(s) in the postage-paid envelope included with this joint proxy statement/prospectus.

If you sign and return your proxy card(s) but do not mark your card(s) to tell the proxies how to vote your shares on each proposal, your shares will be voted as recommended by the Cohu Board.

The deadline for voting electronically through the Internet or by telephone is 11:59 p.m., Eastern Time, on August 29, 2018.

Cohu stockholders who hold shares of Cohu Common Stock in a stock brokerage account or through a bank, broker or other nominee (“street name” stockholders) who wish to vote at the Cohu Special Meeting should be provided a voting instruction card by the institution that holds their shares. If this has not occurred, contact the institution that holds your shares. A number of banks and brokerage firms participate in a program that also permits stockholders whose shares are held in “street name” to direct their vote by telephone or over the Internet. If your shares are held in an account at a bank or brokerage firm that participates in such a program, you may direct the vote of these shares by telephone or over the Internet by following the voting instructions enclosed with the proxy form from the bank or brokerage firm. The Internet and telephone proxy procedures are designed to authenticate stockholders’ identities, to allow stockholders to give their proxy voting instructions and to confirm that those instructions have been properly recorded. Votes directed by telephone or over the Internet through such a program must be received by 11:59 p.m., Eastern Time, on August 29, 2018. Directing the voting of your shares will not affect your right to vote in person if you decide to attend the Cohu Special Meeting; however, you must first obtain a signed and properly executed legal proxy from your bank, broker or other nominee to vote your shares held in “street name” at the Cohu Special Meeting. Requesting a legal proxy prior to the deadline described above will automatically cancel any voting directions you have previously given by telephone or over the Internet with respect to your shares.

With respect to the Stock Issuance Proposal and any Cohu Adjournment Proposal for shares held in “street name,” if you do not instruct your bank, broker or other nominee how to vote your shares, your bank, broker or other nominee will not be authorized to vote, and a broker non-vote will occur. A broker non-vote will have no effect on the Stock Issuance Proposal (provided that a quorum is achieved) or any Cohu Adjournment Proposal.

If you abstain from voting with respect to the Stock Issuance Proposal or the Cohu Adjournment Proposal by submitting a properly executed proxy marked “Abstain,” your abstention will have the same effect as a vote AGAINST such proposal.

Revoking Your Proxy

If you are the owner of record as of the close of business on the Cohu Record Date, you can revoke your proxy at any time before its exercise by:

- sending a written notice to Cohu, Inc. at 12367 Crosthwaite Circle, Poway, California 92064-6817, attention: Corporate Secretary, bearing a date later than the date of the proxy, that is received prior to the Cohu Special Meeting and states that you revoke your proxy;
- submitting your voting instructions again by telephone or over the Internet;
- signing another valid proxy card(s) bearing a later date and mailing it so that it is received by Cohu prior to the Cohu Special Meeting; or
- attending the Cohu Special Meeting and voting in person, although attendance at the Cohu Special Meeting will not, by itself, revoke a proxy.

If you are a “street name” stockholder, you must follow the instructions found on the voting instruction card provided by your bank, broker or other nominee, or contact your bank, broker or other nominee in order to revoke your previously given proxy.

Other Voting Matters

Voting in Person

If you plan to attend the Cohu Special Meeting and wish to vote in person, Cohu will give you a ballot at the special meeting. However, if your shares are held in “street name,” you must first obtain from your bank, broker or other nominee a legal proxy authorizing you to vote the shares in person, which you must bring with you to the Cohu Special Meeting.

Proxy Solicitations

Cohu is soliciting proxies for the Cohu Special Meeting from Cohu stockholders. Cohu will bear the entire cost of soliciting proxies from Cohu stockholders. In addition to this mailing, Cohu's directors, officers and employees (who will not receive any additional compensation for their services) may solicit proxies personally, and by telephone, facsimile, courier service, mail, email, Internet, press release or advertisement (including on television, radio, newspapers or other publications of general distribution). Okapi Partners LLC ("Okapi"), has been engaged to aid in the distribution and solicitation of proxies. Cohu will pay Okapi a fee estimated to be approximately $18,000 plus a reasonable amount to cover expenses. Cohu has agreed to indemnify Okapi against certain liabilities arising out of or in connection with this engagement. Cohu will also reimburse brokers or other persons holding Cohu Common Stock in their names or the names of their nominees for the expenses of forwarding soliciting material to their principals.

Cohu stockholders should not submit any stock certificates with their proxy cards.

Cohu stockholders will not need to send in their share certificates or surrender their book-entry shares.

Other Business

Cohu is not aware of any other business to be acted upon at the Cohu Special Meeting. If, however, other matters are properly brought before the Cohu Special Meeting, your proxies will have discretion to vote or act on those matters according to their best judgment and they intend to vote the shares as the Cohu Board may recommend.

COHU PROPOSAL 1
THE STOCK ISSUANCE PROPOSAL

As discussed elsewhere in this joint proxy statement/prospectus, Cohu stockholders are considering and voting on the proposal to approve the issuance of Cohu Common Stock in connection with the Merger of Merger Sub with and into Xcerra with Xcerra surviving the Merger as the Surviving Corporation and a wholly owned subsidiary of Cohu to the extent such issuance would require approval under NASDAQ Stock Market Rule 5635(a), which, subject to certain exceptions, generally requires stockholder approval prior to issuances of common stock in connection with a merger to the extent such issuances would equal or exceed 20% of the issuer's issued and outstanding common stock before such issuance. The Merger is being effected pursuant to the Merger Agreement, a copy of which is attached as Annex A to this joint proxy statement/ prospectus. The approval of this proposal by the stockholders of Cohu is a condition to consummation of the Merger.

The approval of the Stock Issuance Proposal requires the affirmative vote of a majority of shares present in person or represented by proxy at the Cohu Special Meeting, assuming a quorum is present.

You should read carefully this joint proxy statement/prospectus in its entirety for more detailed information concerning the proposed common stock issuances and the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement, including the Merger. In particular, you are directed to the Merger Agreement, which is attached as Annex A to this joint proxy statement/prospectus.

After careful consideration, the Cohu Board has approved and declared advisable the Merger Agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, including the Merger and has determined that the Merger Agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, including the Merger, are fair to, advisable and in the best interests of, Cohu and the Cohu stockholders. Accordingly, the Cohu Board recommends that Cohu stockholders vote FOR the Stock Issuance Proposal, and your properly signed and dated proxy will be so voted unless you specify otherwise.

COHU PROPOSAL 2
THE COHU ADJOURNMENT PROPOSAL

Cohu stockholders may be asked to vote on a proposal to adjourn the Cohu Special Meeting if necessary or appropriate, including to permit further solicitation of proxies if there are not sufficient votes at the time of the Cohu Special Meeting to approve the Stock Issuance Proposal.

The Cohu Board recommends that Cohu stockholders vote FOR any proposal to adjourn the Cohu Special Meeting, and your properly signed and dated proxy will be so voted unless you specify otherwise.

Please note that pursuant to Article I, Section 8 of Cohu's bylaws, a majority in voting power of the stockholders present in person or by proxy and entitled to vote has the power to adjourn the Cohu Special Meeting for any reason, whether or not quorum is present. Any postponement or adjournment of the Cohu Special Meeting is subject to conditions set forth in the Merger Agreement (for more information see "The Merger Agreement — Stockholder Meetings; Proxy Statement/Prospectus").

THE XCERRA SPECIAL MEETING

The Xcerra Board is soliciting proxies for use at the Xcerra Special Meeting.

Date, Time and Place

Xcerra will hold the Xcerra Special Meeting on August 30, 2018, at 9:30 a.m., Eastern Time, at the offices of Xcerra at 825 University Avenue, Norwood, Massachusetts 02062.

Purpose of the Xcerra Special Meeting

At the Xcerra Special Meeting, Xcerra will ask stockholders to vote on proposals to (i) approve the Merger Agreement, (ii) approve any Xcerra Adjournment Proposal and (iii) approve the Xcerra Non-Binding Advisory Proposal.

Xcerra Board Recommendation

The Xcerra Board, after considering various factors described under the caption “The Merger — Reasons for the Merger and Recommendation of the Xcerra Board,” has unanimously (i) determined that the terms of the Merger and the other transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement are fair to, and in the best interests of Xcerra and its stockholders, (ii) determined that it is in the best interests of Xcerra and its stockholders, and declared it advisable, to enter into the Merger Agreement, (iii) approved the execution and delivery by Xcerra of the Merger Agreement, the performance by Xcerra of its covenants and agreements contained therein and the consummation of the Merger and the other transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement upon the terms and subject to the conditions contained therein and (iv) resolved to recommend that the Xcerra stockholders approve the Merger Agreement in accordance with the MBCA, subject to the conditions contained therein. The Xcerra Board recommends that Xcerra stockholders vote: (A) “FOR” the approval of the Merger Agreement; (B) “FOR” any Xcerra Adjournment Proposal; and (C) “FOR” the Xcerra Non-Binding Advisory Proposal.

Xcerra Record Date; Shares Entitled to Vote; Quorum

Only Xcerra stockholders of record as of the Xcerra Record Date are entitled to notice of the Xcerra Special Meeting and to vote at the Xcerra Special Meeting. A list of Xcerra stockholders entitled to vote at the Xcerra Special Meeting will be available at Xcerra’s principal executive offices, located at 825 University Avenue, Norwood, Massachusetts 02062, during regular business hours for a period of no less than ten days before the Xcerra Special Meeting and at the place of the Xcerra Special Meeting during the meeting.

As of July 27, 2018, there were [●] shares of Xcerra Common Stock outstanding and entitled to vote at the Xcerra Special Meeting.

The holders of a majority in voting power of the Xcerra Common Stock issued and outstanding and entitled to vote at the Xcerra Special Meeting, present in person or represented by proxy, will constitute a quorum at the Xcerra Special Meeting. In the event that a quorum is not present at the Xcerra Special Meeting, it is expected that the meeting will be adjourned to solicit additional proxies.

Vote Required; Abstentions and Broker Non-Votes

The affirmative vote of the holders of two-thirds of the outstanding shares of Xcerra Common Stock on the Xcerra Record Date is required to approve the Merger Agreement. Approval of the Merger Agreement by Xcerra’s stockholders is a condition to the closing of the Merger.

Approval of any Xcerra Adjournment Proposal, whether or not a quorum is present, requires the affirmative vote of a majority of the shares of Xcerra Common Stock having voting power present in person or represented by proxy at the Xcerra Special Meeting and entitled to vote on the subject matter. Approval, by non-binding, advisory vote, of compensation that will or may become payable to Xcerra's named executive officers in connection with the Merger requires the affirmative vote of a majority of the shares of Xcerra Common Stock having voting power present in person or represented by proxy at the Xcerra Special Meeting and entitled to vote on the subject matter.

If an Xcerra stockholder abstains from voting, that abstention will have the same effect as if the stockholder voted "AGAINST" the proposal to approve the Merger Agreement. For Xcerra stockholders who abstain from voting, the abstention will have the same effect as if the stockholder voted "AGAINST" any Xcerra Adjournment Proposal and "AGAINST" the Xcerra Non-Binding Advisory Proposal. An abstention occurs when a stockholder attends a meeting either (i) in person, but abstains from voting or (ii) by proxy, by marking the box labeled "Abstain." If an Xcerra stockholder signs and returns its proxy card(s) but does not mark its card(s) to tell the proxies how to vote its shares on each proposal, the shares will be voted as recommended by the Xcerra Board.

Each "broker non-vote" will also count as a vote "AGAINST" the proposal to approve the Merger Agreement, but will have no effect on (i) any Xcerra Adjournment Proposal or (ii) the Xcerra Non-Binding Advisory Proposal. A "broker non-vote" generally occurs when a bank, broker or other nominee holding shares on behalf of a stockholder does not vote on a proposal because the bank, broker or other nominee has not received such stockholder's voting instructions and lacks discretionary power to vote the shares. "Broker non-votes," if any, will be counted for the purpose of determining whether a quorum is present.

Shares of Xcerra Common Stock Held by Xcerra's Directors and Executive Officers

As of July 16, 2018, Xcerra directors and executive officers beneficially owned and were entitled to vote, in the aggregate, 1,938,811 shares of Xcerra Common Stock, representing approximately 3.5% of the shares of Xcerra Common Stock outstanding on July 16, 2018. Xcerra directors and executive officers have informed Xcerra that they currently intend to vote: (1) "FOR" the approval of the Merger Agreement; (2) "FOR" any Xcerra Adjournment Proposal; and (3) "FOR" the Xcerra Non-Binding Advisory Proposal.

Voting of Proxies

If an Xcerra stockholder holds shares of Xcerra Common Stock that are registered in such Xcerra stockholder's name with Xcerra's transfer agent, Computershare Investor Services, such Xcerra stockholder may cause such shares of Xcerra Common Stock to be voted by returning a signed and dated proxy card in the accompanying prepaid envelope, or may vote in person at the Xcerra Special Meeting. Additionally, an Xcerra stockholder may grant a proxy electronically over the Internet or by telephone by following the instructions on the enclosed proxy card. Xcerra stockholders must have the enclosed proxy card available, and follow the instructions on the proxy card, in order to grant a proxy electronically over the Internet or by telephone. Based on the received proxy cards or Internet and telephone proxies, the proxy holders will vote Xcerra stockholders' shares of Xcerra Common Stock according to such stockholders' directions.

The deadline for voting electronically through the Internet or by telephone is 11:59 p.m., Eastern Time, on August 29, 2018.

If an Xcerra Stockholder plans to attend the Xcerra Special Meeting and wishes to vote in person, such stockholder will be given a ballot at the Xcerra Special Meeting. If shares of Xcerra Common Stock are registered in the stockholder's name, such stockholder is encouraged to vote by proxy even if such stockholder plans to attend the Xcerra Special Meeting in person. If an Xcerra stockholder attends the Xcerra Special Meeting and votes in person by ballot, such vote will revoke any previously submitted proxy.

Voting instructions are included on the enclosed proxy card. All shares of Xcerra Common Stock represented by properly signed and dated proxies received in time for the Xcerra Special Meeting will be voted at the Xcerra Special Meeting in accordance with the instructions of the stockholder. Properly signed and dated proxies that do not contain voting instructions will be voted: (1) “FOR” approval of the Merger Agreement; (2) “FOR” any Xcerra Adjournment Proposal; and (3) “FOR” the Xcerra Non-Binding Advisory Proposal.

If shares of Xcerra Common Stock are held in “street name” through a bank, broker or other nominee, an Xcerra stockholder may vote through its bank, broker or other nominee by completing and returning the voting form provided by such bank, broker or other nominee or attending the Xcerra Special Meeting and voting in person with a “legal proxy” from such bank, broker or other nominee. If such a service is provided, an Xcerra stockholder may vote over the Internet or by telephone through its bank, broker or other nominee by following the instructions on the voting form provided by such bank, broker or other nominee. If an Xcerra stockholder does not return its bank’s, broker’s or other nominee’s voting form, does not vote via the Internet or telephone through its bank, broker or other nominee, if possible, or does not attend the Xcerra Special Meeting and vote in person with a “legal proxy” from its bank, broker or other nominee, it will have the same effect as if such Xcerra stockholder voted “AGAINST” the proposal to approve the Merger Agreement but will not have any effect on any Xcerra Adjournment Proposal or the Xcerra Non-Binding Advisory Proposal.

Revocability of Proxies

If you are an Xcerra stockholder of record, you may change your vote or revoke your proxy at any time before it is voted at the Xcerra Special Meeting by:

- signing another proxy card with a later date and returning it to us prior to the Xcerra Special Meeting;
- submitting a new proxy electronically over the Internet or by telephone after the date of the earlier submitted proxy;
- delivering a written notice of revocation to Xcerra’s Corporate Secretary; or
- attending the Xcerra Special Meeting and voting in person by ballot.

If you are an Xcerra stockholder who has submitted a proxy, your appearance at the Xcerra Special Meeting, in the absence of voting in person or submitting an additional proxy or revocation, will not have the effect of revoking your prior proxy.

If you are an Xcerra stockholder who holds your shares of Xcerra Common Stock in “street name,” you should contact your bank, broker or other nominee for instructions regarding how to change your vote. You may also vote in person at the Xcerra Special Meeting if you obtain a “legal proxy” from your bank, broker or other nominee.

Any adjournment, postponement or other delay of the Xcerra Special Meeting, including for the purpose of soliciting additional proxies, will allow Xcerra stockholders who have already sent in their proxies to revoke them at any time prior to their use at the Xcerra Special Meeting as adjourned, postponed or delayed.

Solicitation of Proxies

The expense of soliciting proxies in connection with the Xcerra Special Meeting will be borne by Xcerra. Xcerra has engaged The Proxy Advisory Group, LLC, a proxy solicitation firm (the “Xcerra Proxy Solicitor”), to assist Xcerra in the solicitation of proxies and provide related advice and informational support, for a services fee, plus customary disbursements, which are not expected to exceed $20,000 in total. Xcerra will also indemnify the Xcerra Proxy Solicitor against losses arising out of its provisions of these services on Xcerra’s behalf. In addition, Xcerra may reimburse banks, brokers and other nominees representing beneficial owners of shares of Xcerra Common Stock for their expenses in forwarding soliciting materials to such beneficial owners. Proxies may also be solicited by Xcerra’s directors, officers and employees, personally or by telephone, email, fax, over the Internet or other means of communication. No additional compensation will be paid for such services.

Adjournments or Postponements

Although it is not currently expected, the Xcerra Special Meeting may be adjourned for the purpose of, among other things, soliciting additional proxies, by the vote of a majority of the shares of Xcerra Common Stock represented at the Xcerra Special Meeting, whether or not a quorum is present. Any signed proxies received by Xcerra for which no voting instructions are provided on such matter will be voted “FOR” an Xcerra Adjournment Proposal.

Appraisal Rights

Under the MBCA, Xcerra is required to state whether it has concluded that Xcerra stockholders are, are not or may be entitled to assert appraisal rights, which are generally available to stockholders of a merging Massachusetts corporation under Section 13.02(a)(1) of the MBCA, subject to certain exceptions. For the reasons described under the caption “The Merger — Appraisal Rights,” Xcerra has concluded that Xcerra stockholders may be entitled to appraisal rights. The relevant provisions of the MBCA have not been the subject of judicial interpretation and Xcerra and Cohu reserve the right to contest the validity and availability of any purported demand for appraisal rights in connection with the Merger.

Under Part 13 of the MBCA, Xcerra stockholders who believe they are or may be entitled to appraisal rights in connection with the Merger must, in order to exercise those rights:

- prior to the Xcerra Special Meeting, deliver to Xcerra a written notice of intent to demand payment for such stockholders’ shares of Xcerra Common Stock if the Merger is effectuated;
- NOT vote for the proposal to approve the Merger Agreement; and
- Comply with the other procedures under Part 13 of the MBCA.

Your failure to follow exactly the procedures specified under the MBCA may result in the loss of any appraisal rights. If you hold your shares of Xcerra Common Stock through a bank, brokerage firm or other nominee and you wish to exercise appraisal rights, you should consult with your bank, brokerage firm or other nominee to determine the appropriate procedures for the making of a demand for appraisal by your bank, brokerage firm or nominee. See the section captioned “The Merger — Appraisal Rights” and the text of Part 13 of the MBCA reproduced in its entirety as Annex D to this joint proxy statement/prospectus.

Important Notice Regarding the Availability of Proxy Materials for the Xcerra Special Meeting to be Held on August 30, 2018

This joint proxy statement/prospectus is available at <http://www.xcerra.com/investors/download-library> under “Investors Download Library.”

XCERRA PROPOSAL 1: APPROVAL OF THE MERGER AGREEMENT

Xcerra is asking Xcerra stockholders to approve the Merger Agreement.

For a summary of and detailed information regarding this proposal, see the information about the Merger Agreement and the Merger throughout this joint proxy statement/prospectus, including the information set forth in the sections captioned “The Merger” beginning on page 82 of this joint proxy statement/prospectus and “The Merger Agreement” beginning on page 146 of this joint proxy statement/prospectus. A copy of the Merger Agreement is attached to this joint proxy statement/prospectus as Annex A. Xcerra stockholders are urged to read the Merger Agreement carefully in its entirety.

Under applicable law and the terms of Xcerra’s articles of organization, Xcerra cannot complete the Merger without the affirmative vote of two-thirds of the outstanding shares of Xcerra Common Stock voting in favor of the proposal to approve the Merger Agreement. If an Xcerra stockholder abstains from voting, fails to cast a vote, in person or by proxy, or fails to give voting instructions to its brokerage firm, bank, trust or other nominee, it will have the same effect as a vote against the proposal to approve the Merger Agreement.

The Xcerra Board unanimously recommends that you vote “FOR” this proposal.

XCERRA PROPOSAL 2: XCERRA ADJOURNMENT PROPOSAL

Xcerra may ask Xcerra stockholders to approve a proposal to adjourn the Xcerra Special Meeting to a later date or dates if necessary or appropriate to solicit additional proxies if there are insufficient votes to approve the Merger Agreement at the time of the Xcerra Special Meeting. If Xcerra stockholders approve an Xcerra Adjournment Proposal, Xcerra could adjourn the Xcerra Special Meeting and any adjourned session of the Xcerra Special Meeting and use the additional time to solicit additional proxies, including proxies from stockholders that have previously returned properly executed proxies voting against approval of the Merger Agreement. Among other things, approval of an Xcerra Adjournment Proposal could mean that, even if Xcerra had received proxies representing a sufficient number of votes against approval of the Merger Agreement such that the proposal to approve the Merger Agreement would be defeated, Xcerra could adjourn the Xcerra Special Meeting without a vote on the approval of the Merger Agreement and seek to convince the holders of those shares to change their votes to votes in favor of approval of the Merger Agreement. Additionally, Xcerra may seek to adjourn the Xcerra Special Meeting if a quorum is not present or otherwise at the discretion of the chairman of the Xcerra Special Meeting.

The Xcerra Board unanimously recommends that you vote “FOR” this proposal.

XCERRA PROPOSAL 3: ADVISORY, NON-BINDING VOTE ON MERGER-RELATED EXECUTIVE COMPENSATION ARRANGEMENTS

Section 14A of the Exchange Act, which was enacted as part of the Dodd-Frank Wall Street Reform and Consumer Protection Act of 2010, requires that Xcerra provide its stockholders with the opportunity to vote to approve, on an advisory, non-binding basis, the payment of certain compensation that will or may become payable to Xcerra's named executive officers in connection with the Merger, as disclosed in the section of this joint proxy statement/prospectus captioned "The Merger Agreement — Potential Payments Upon Termination or Change-in-Control — Golden Parachute Compensation."

Accordingly, Xcerra is asking Xcerra stockholders to indicate their approval of such compensation that will or may become payable to Xcerra's named executive officers in connection with the Merger.

In general, the various plans and arrangements pursuant to which these compensation payments may be made have previously formed part of Xcerra's overall compensation program for Xcerra's named executive officers and previously have been disclosed to Xcerra stockholders as part of the Compensation Discussion and Analysis and related sections of Xcerra's annual proxy statement. These historical arrangements were adopted and approved by the Compensation Committee of the Xcerra Board, which is composed solely of non-management directors, and are Xcerra believes they are reasonable and in line with marketplace norms.

As required by Section 14A of the Exchange Act, Xcerra is asking its stockholders to vote on the adoption of the following resolution:

"RESOLVED, that the compensation that may be paid or become payable to Xcerra's named executive officers in connection with the Merger, as disclosed in the joint proxy statement/prospectus in the table entitled 'Golden Parachute Compensation' under the heading 'The Merger Agreement — Potential Payments Upon Termination or Change-in-Control — Golden Parachute Compensation,' including the associated narrative discussion, is hereby APPROVED."

The vote on executive compensation payable in connection with the Merger is a vote separate and apart from the vote to approve the Merger Agreement. Accordingly, you may vote to approve the executive compensation and vote against approval of the Merger Agreement, or vice versa. Because the vote is advisory in nature only, it will not be binding on Xcerra, and because Xcerra is contractually obligated to pay the compensation if the Merger is consummated, the compensation will be payable, subject only to the conditions applicable thereto, regardless of the outcome of the advisory vote.

Approval of the advisory resolution on executive compensation payable to Xcerra's named executive officers in connection with the Merger requires the affirmative vote of a majority of the shares of Xcerra Common Stock present in person or represented by proxy at the Xcerra Special Meeting and entitled to vote on the subject matter. Proxies received but marked as abstentions will be considered a vote "AGAINST" this proposal. The Xcerra Board recommends a vote "FOR" this proposal.

The Xcerra Board unanimously recommends that you vote "FOR" this proposal.

THE MERGER

Overview

The Cohu Board and the Xcerra Board have each approved the Merger Agreement. Pursuant to the Merger Agreement, Merger Sub, a wholly owned subsidiary of Cohu, will merge with and into Xcerra, with Xcerra continuing as the Surviving Corporation and a wholly owned subsidiary of Cohu.

Merger Consideration

At the Effective Time, each share of Xcerra Common Stock issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time (other than dissenting shares and Cancelled Shares) will be converted into the right to receive (i) the Cash Consideration of $9.00 per share of Xcerra Common Stock and (ii) the Stock Consideration of 0.2109 of a share of Cohu Common Stock per share of Xcerra Common Stock.

Background of the Merger

Each of the Cohu Board and the Xcerra Board, together with members of the respective management teams of Cohu and Xcerra, regularly reviews and assesses the performance, future growth prospects, business plans and overall strategic direction of Cohu and Xcerra, respectively, and considers a variety of strategic alternatives that may be available to Cohu and Xcerra, respectively, including continuing to pursue each respective company's strategy as a stand-alone company or pursuing potential strategic or financing transactions with third parties, in each case with the goal of maximizing stockholder value.

In April of 2016, the Xcerra Board approved the engagement of Cowen to assist in Xcerra's exploration of strategic alternatives, including strategic partnerships and growth opportunities in the Chinese market in light of the importance of the Chinese market to Xcerra and Xcerra's potential growth opportunities in China. Members of Xcerra's management thereafter directed representatives of Cowen to approach, on Xcerra's behalf, a total of seven Chinese parties (the "2016 Potential Partners"), including Sino IC Capital Co. Ltd. ("Sino IC Capital"), each of which was identified by Cowen as a party that may be interested in pursuing a strategic transaction with Xcerra and able to assist Xcerra in its efforts to grow its business in China.

Beginning in April of 2016, at the request of the Xcerra Board and management of Xcerra, Cowen approached each of the 2016 Potential Partners on behalf of Xcerra. During the period beginning on April 19, 2016 and continuing through September 2, 2016, members of Xcerra's management and representatives of Cowen engaged in various discussions relating to a potential strategic transaction involving Xcerra with each of the 2016 Potential Partners and participated in meetings with all but one of such parties. All 2016 Potential Partners other than Sino IC Capital ultimately indicated to representatives of Cowen that such parties were not interested in pursuing a strategic transaction with Xcerra at that time.

Thereafter, Xcerra continued to engage in discussions and negotiations with Sino IC Capital and its related party, Unic Capital Management Co., Ltd. ("Unic Capital"), regarding a strategic transaction involving Xcerra. On April 7, 2017, Xcerra entered into an Agreement and Plan of Merger with Unic Capital and China Integrated Circuit Industry Investment Fund Co., Ltd., as joined by Unic Acquisition Corporation ("Unic Merger Sub") (as amended, the "Unic Merger Agreement"), providing for the acquisition by Unic Capital of 100% of the outstanding shares of Xcerra Common Stock at a per share price of $10.25 in cash and the merger of Unic Merger Sub with and into Xcerra (the "Unic Merger"), with Xcerra surviving the Unic Merger. On August 4, 2017, Unic Capital subsequently assigned all of its rights under the Unic Merger Agreement to Hubei Xinyan Equity Investment Partnership (Limited Partnership) ("Hubei"). The closing of the Unic Merger was subject to certain conditions, including clearance by the Committee on Foreign Investment in the United States ("CFIUS").

The Unic Merger Agreement included a "go-shop" provision that provided Xcerra with the ability to solicit, and subject to the payment by Xcerra of a reduced termination fee to accept, alternative proposals for an acquisition of Xcerra during the period beginning on the date of the Unic Merger Agreement and continuing until May 12, 2017 (the “Go-Shop Period”).

On April 10, 2017, Luis Müller, Cohu’s President and Chief Executive Officer, emailed David Tacelli, Xcerra’s President and Chief Executive Officer, in order to extend his congratulations on the announcement of the Unic Merger, as well as to inquire about the transaction process. Mr. Tacelli referred Mr. Müller to the terms of the Unic Merger Agreement, including those provisions relating to the Go-Shop Period, and indicated that representatives of Cowen would initiate outreach during the Go-Shop Period. There was no further communication between Messrs. Müller and Tacelli during the pendency of the Unic Merger.

During the Go-Shop Period, at the direction of the Xcerra Board, representatives of Cowen contacted a total of 55 parties, including 33 strategic parties and 22 financial sponsors, to solicit their interest in a possible acquisition of Xcerra. Of the 55 parties contacted by representatives of Cowen, only one party, Cohu, executed a confidentiality agreement. Also during the Go-Shop Period, Cohu had brief discussions with representatives of Cowen regarding Cohu’s consideration of a possible acquisition proposal pursuant to which Cohu would acquire all outstanding Xcerra Common Stock for a combination of cash and stock consideration. Cohu did not provide the economic terms of any such possible acquisition proposal. However, on April 14, 2017, Cohu indicated that it was not interested in pursuing a strategic transaction involving Xcerra.

On May 12, 2017, the Go-Shop Period expired. None of the 55 parties contacted during the Go-Shop Period, nor any other party, submitted an alternative acquisition proposal to Xcerra during the Go-Shop Period.

On October 3, 2017, Mr. Tacelli received a telephone call from the chief executive officer of a publicly traded company (“Company A”). Company A was one of the parties contacted by Cowen during the Go-Shop Period. On the call, Mr. Tacelli and the representative of Company A discussed working together on joint projects, following which, the representative inquired as to Xcerra’s interest in selling Xcerra’s LTXC tester business to Company A. Mr. Tacelli referred the representative of Company A to the terms of the Unic Merger Agreement, and subsequently informed representatives of Hubei and Unic Capital of the inquiry. There were no further communications concerning any transaction with Company A during the pendency of the Unic Merger, and at no time during the pendency of the Unic Merger did Xcerra receive an alternative acquisition proposal from any third party.

On October 12, 2017, at a special meeting called for that purpose, Xcerra stockholders voted to approve the Unic Merger and adopt the Unic Merger Agreement, which reflected a purchase price per share of Xcerra Common Stock of $10.25 payable in cash.

In October 2017, the Cohu Board engaged Deutsche Bank to provide advisory and investment banking services and engaged Cleary Gottlieb Steen & Hamilton LLP (“Cleary Gottlieb”) as its legal advisor, in each case with respect to a potential transaction with Xcerra in the event that the Unic Merger ultimately was not completed.

In December 2017, Xcerra and Hubei submitted a request to withdraw and re-file their joint voluntary notice to CFIUS to allow more time for review and discussion with CFIUS in connection with the Unic Merger.

On December 4, 2017, the Cohu Board held a telephonic meeting where Cohu management provided an update to the Cohu Board regarding the Unic Merger and potential acquisition strategies for Cohu to pursue with regard to Xcerra. At the meeting, Cleary Gottlieb made a presentation regarding alternative approaches for a potential business combination of the two companies in the event that the Unic Merger Agreement were to be terminated. Representatives of Deutsche Bank reviewed with the Cohu Board certain preliminary financial information relating to Xcerra and Cohu.

On February 6, 2018, the Xcerra Board held a telephonic meeting, which was also attended by members of Xcerra’s management. At the meeting, the participants discussed recent developments with respect to Xcerra’s efforts to obtain CFIUS approval of the Unic Merger, including discussions held with representatives of CFIUS, consultations with Xcerra's legal and regulatory advisors, and certain other indications and reports that CFIUS approval would not likely be granted. The members of the Xcerra Board and Company management present at the meeting reviewed the options available to Xcerra if CFIUS approval were in fact denied, including the mechanisms for terminating the Unic Merger Agreement pursuant to its terms. Following discussion, the members of the Xcerra Board agreed that, based on the advice of its various advisors, obtaining CFIUS approval of the Unic Merger was highly unlikely and proceeding with the Unic Merger despite the failure to receive such approval would not be in the best interest of Xcerra's stockholders. As a result, the Xcerra Board unanimously approved the termination of the Unic Merger Agreement subject to the satisfactory negotiation of a mutual termination agreement with Hubei.

On February 21, 2018, after further discussions between Xcerra and Hubei concerning the CFIUS filing and the Unic Merger Agreement, Xcerra and Hubei jointly withdrew their joint voluntary notice to CFIUS.

On February 22, 2018, after further discussions between Xcerra and Hubei, Xcerra and Hubei entered into a termination agreement, dated February 22, 2018 (the "Termination Agreement"), pursuant to which Xcerra and Hubei mutually terminated the Unic Merger Agreement and agreed to release each other and certain related parties from certain claims and liabilities relating to the Unic Merger Agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby (the "Termination"). No termination fee was payable in connection with the Termination. Between April 7, 2017 and February 22, 2018 (i.e., during the period from the signing of the Unic Merger Agreement to the Termination), Xcerra received no alternative acquisition proposals.

On February 23, 2018, the chief executive officer of Company A telephoned Mr. Tacelli to discuss Company A's interest in exploring a potential strategic transaction involving Xcerra and Company A. Mark Gallenberger, Xcerra's Senior Vice President, Chief Operating Officer and Chief Financial Officer, also participated in the call. The participants discussed the potential implications of a strategic transaction involving Xcerra and Company A, including the cultural and operational fit of the two companies, as well as the potential business opportunities that a combination of Xcerra and Company A might create. The participants also discussed the scheduling of a subsequent in-person meeting in March to be attended by members of management of each company. The participants did not discuss any economic terms of a potential strategic transaction during the call.

Also on February 23, 2018, certain members of Cohu's management participated in a telephonic meeting with representatives of Deutsche Bank and Cleary Gottlieb to discuss the termination of the Unic Merger Agreement and a strategy for re-engaging with Xcerra. Cohu's management instructed representatives of Deutsche Bank to update its preliminary financial analysis with respect to Xcerra and Cohu.

On February 27, 2018, the Xcerra Board held a telephonic meeting, which was also attended by members of Xcerra's management. During the meeting, Mr. Tacelli led a discussion regarding the Termination and Xcerra's business opportunities, and provided a review of Xcerra's strategy and operations. Mr. Tacelli then reviewed with the Xcerra Board the discussion that had occurred with the representative of Company A on February 23, 2018 regarding a potential strategic transaction. The Xcerra Board directed management to pursue further discussions with representatives of Company A with respect to a potential strategic transaction.

On February 28, 2018, Mr. Müller and Thomas Kampfer, Cohu's Vice President of Corporate Development, General Counsel and Secretary, met telephonically with representatives of Cowen in connection with a previously scheduled meeting regarding general investment banking matters. At such meeting, representatives of Cowen discussed industry developments and benchmarking as well as potential acquisition partners for Cohu, including Xcerra. The materials prepared by Cowen for the meeting included, among other things, a pro forma income statement analysis, based solely on publicly available information, with respect to a hypothetical combination of Cohu and Xcerra, to gauge Cohu's potential interest in a transaction involving Xcerra. The pro forma income statement analysis did not assume any particular purchase price, range of purchase prices or form of consideration (such as cash or stock) for the hypothetical combination of Cohu and Xcerra. The representatives of Cowen indicated that they were not participating in such meeting in their capacity as representatives of Xcerra, as Cowen's prior engagement with Xcerra had expired, but indicated in the course of that conversation that they believed that management of Xcerra might be open to discussions with Cohu regarding a potential transaction. The representatives of Cowen discussed this conversation with Xcerra management the following day.

Later on February 28, 2018, the Cohu Board met telephonically with representatives of Deutsche Bank and Cleary Gottlieb to discuss updated preliminary financial information relating to Xcerra and Cohu prepared by Deutsche Bank. Following this discussion, the Cohu Board authorized members of Cohu's management to make an initial offer for the acquisition of all of the outstanding shares of Xcerra Common Stock for a purchase price of up to $13.00 per share .

On March 1, 2018, Mr. Müller sent an email to Mr. Tacelli requesting a telephonic meeting to discuss the Termination and the state of the semiconductor test market. Later on March 1, 2018, Mr. Tacelli and Mr. Müller participated in a telephonic meeting during which they discussed the Termination and the state of the semiconductor test market. During the meeting, Mr. Müller informed Mr. Tacelli that Cohu was interested in submitting to the Xcerra Board an offer to acquire all of the outstanding shares of Xcerra Common Stock. Mr. Tacelli advised Mr. Müller that he would share any offer received with the Xcerra Board.

Later on March 1, 2018, Mr. Müller delivered to Mr. Tacelli by email a written proposal letter, dated as of March 1, 2018 (the "Initial Proposal Letter"), from Cohu specifying, among other things, a non-binding offer for the acquisition by Cohu of 100% of the outstanding shares of Xcerra Common Stock at a per share price equal to $11.75, consisting of $8.57 payable in cash and $3.18 payable in Cohu Common Stock. On March 1, 2018, the closing price of Xcerra Common Stock was $9.95 per share and the closing price of Cohu Common Stock was $19.99 per share. The Initial Proposal Letter requested a response from Xcerra by March 15, 2018. Mr. Tacelli held a telephonic meeting with Roger W. Blethen, Chairman of the Xcerra Board, to review the terms of the Initial Proposal Letter.

Also on March 1, 2018, Xcerra and Company A entered into a customary non-disclosure agreement which did not contain a standstill provision.

On March 2, 2018, the Cohu Board met telephonically to discuss updates to the status of negotiations with Xcerra.

On March 2, 2018, Mr. Tacelli delivered a copy of the Initial Proposal Letter by email to the members of the Xcerra Board. Also on March 2, 2018, representatives of Cowen participated in a telephonic meeting with representatives of Deutsche Bank to discuss the terms of the Initial Proposal Letter and a potential strategic transaction involving Cohu and Xcerra, including, among other things, the timeline for a potential transaction, the scope of due diligence, the financing structure of the potential transaction, Xcerra's ability to solicit interest from other potentially interested parties and the potential for Xcerra representation on the Cohu Board following closing of a potential transaction.

On March 3, 2018, Mr. Tacelli participated in a telephonic meeting with Mr. Müller. During the meeting, Mr. Tacelli communicated to Mr. Müller that Xcerra was considering the Initial Proposal Letter and had retained Cowen to assist with financial analysis.

On March 6, 2018, the Xcerra Board held a telephonic meeting, which was also attended by members of Xcerra's management, representatives of Cowen and a representative of Latham & Watkins LLP, Xcerra's outside counsel ("Latham & Watkins"). At that meeting, the participants discussed the Termination and the market's reaction to the Termination, Company management's recent discussions with representatives of Company A and an in-person meeting to be held with representatives of Xcerra's management and representatives of Company A in the coming week, and the Initial Proposal Letter. Representatives of Cowen reviewed with the Xcerra Board Cowen's preliminary financial analysis of the implied per share purchase price of $11.75 included in the Initial Proposal Letter. A representative of Latham & Watkins provided an overview of the Xcerra Board's fiduciary duties in the context of an assessment of the Initial Proposal Letter and any other strategic transaction. After discussion, the Xcerra Board determined that, although the price per share conveyed in the Initial Proposal Letter was insufficient, Xcerra should continue to pursue further discussions with Cohu with respect to a potential strategic transaction and should also proceed with the in-person meeting with representatives of Company A in the coming week, and the Xcerra Board directed management and the representatives of Cowen to convey to Cohu that the Xcerra Board believed the purchase price offered in the Initial Proposal Letter was insufficient.

On March 10, 2018, Mr. Tacelli participated in a telephonic meeting with Mr. Müller. During the meeting, Mr. Tacelli communicated to Mr. Müller that Xcerra was continuing to evaluate the Initial Proposal Letter and expected to have feedback to Cohu by March 15, 2018.

On March 12 and March 13, 2018, members of Xcerra's management, including Messrs. Tacelli and Gallenberger, Pascal Rondé, Senior Vice President of Xcerra's Global Customer Team, and Steve Wigley, Vice President of Xcerra's LTXC tester business, met with representatives of Company A at their headquarters to discuss Company A's interest in a potential strategic transaction involving Xcerra. Each party gave a presentation of its business and discussion ensued regarding each of the presentations. At the conclusion of the meeting, representatives of Company A indicated that a combination of Xcerra's LTXC tester business with Company A's business would provide a strong value proposition, but that Company A was not sure how Xcerra's other businesses would fit into Company A's overall long-term strategy. The representatives of Company A indicated that they would follow up with Xcerra's management during the week of March 19, 2018, once Company A had further considered a potential strategic transaction involving Xcerra.

On March 14, 2018, Mr. Tacelli participated in a telephonic meeting with Mr. Müller. During the meeting, Mr. Tacelli communicated to Mr. Müller the Xcerra Board's belief that the per share purchase price set forth in the Initial Proposal Letter was insufficient as Xcerra's trading price had not fully normalized following the Termination, and that Xcerra's current trading price did not yet accurately reflect the value of Xcerra's business. Mr. Müller indicated that Cohu Board's belief that the offered amount represented a strong value for Xcerra's stockholders and suggested that the parties should continue discussions and possibly meet for in-person discussions at the end of the month. Messrs. Tacelli and Müller also agreed that Xcerra and Cohu should enter into a non-disclosure agreement in advance of any in-person meetings or detailed discussions regarding Xcerra's business.

Also on March 14, 2018, representatives of Cowen and representatives of Deutsche Bank participated in a telephonic meeting to discuss the Initial Proposal Letter. During the meeting, the representatives of Cowen communicated the Xcerra Board's belief that the per share purchase price reflected in the Initial Proposal Letter was insufficient and that Cohu would need to increase the per share purchase price. The representatives of Cowen and Deutsche Bank set up a follow-up call for March 16, 2018 to discuss the potential transaction involving Cohu and Xcerra.

On March 16, 2018, representatives of Cowen and representatives of Deutsche Bank participated in a telephonic meeting to discuss the Initial Proposal Letter. During the meeting, the representatives of Cowen reiterated to Deutsche Bank that Cohu would need to increase the proposed per share purchase price. Representatives of Cowen and representatives of Deutsche Bank discussed Cohu's and Xcerra's respective historical financial performance, the recent activity in the trading of Xcerra's common stock and a pro forma financial analysis. Representatives of Deutsche Bank also discussed with representatives of Cowen the potential market reaction to a transaction involving Cohu and Xcerra. At the end of the meeting, representatives of Cowen and representatives of Deutsche Bank agreed that they would work to schedule a meeting between the respective management teams of Xcerra and Cohu later in the month to continue due diligence and discussions with respect to a potential transaction.

On March 20, 2018, representatives of Deutsche Bank called representatives of Cowen to discuss Cohu's forthcoming announcement the following morning regarding an increase in Cohu's previous earnings guidance as a result of revenue recognition related to the accelerated qualification and product acceptance of Cohu's Eclipse XTA handler by a large Korean customer.

Also on March 20, 2018, the Cohu Board met to, among other things, discuss updates to the status of negotiations with Xcerra.

On March 21, 2018, Mr. Tacelli participated in a telephonic meeting with the chief executive officer of Company A. During the meeting, Company A's chief executive officer noted that Company A believed that Xcerra's LTXC tester business would complement Company A's business, but that Company A was not interested in an acquisition of 100% of the outstanding shares of Xcerra Common Stock. The chief executive officer of Company A inquired as to whether Xcerra would consider the sale of its LTXC tester business to Company A. Mr. Tacelli responded that Xcerra was not seeking to divest any of its businesses, but if Company A was interested in submitting an offer of sufficient premium to justify the divestment of the LTXC tester business, Xcerra would evaluate such offer. Following this discussion, the chief executive officer of Company A informed Mr. Tacelli that Company A would not be further pursuing a strategic transaction with Xcerra.

On March 21, 2018, Xcerra and Cohu executed a mutual non-disclosure agreement which did not contain a standstill provision.

On March 22, 2018, Mr. Tacelli provided the Xcerra Board a summary of his discussions on March 21, 2018 with the chief executive officer of Company A, including that Company A had indicated that it was not interested in an acquisition of the entirety of Xcerra but, rather, was only interested in acquiring the LTXC tester business, and accordingly, would no longer pursue a strategic transaction with Xcerra.

On March 26, 2018, Messrs. Tacelli, Gallenberger and Müller and Mr. Jeffrey Jones, Cohu's Vice President of Finance and Chief Financial Officer, met for an in-person meeting in Chestnut Hill, Massachusetts, in order to discuss the semiconductor industry generally, the businesses run by each company and general factors to consider in determining the potential transaction value.

On March 27, 2018, Messrs. Tacelli, Gallenberger, Müller, Jones, and Kampf and representatives of each of Cowen and Deutsche Bank, participated in in-person meetings in Dedham, Massachusetts. During the meetings, the participants discussed the key terms of a potential transaction involving Cohu and Xcerra, including with respect to the per share purchase price to be paid by Cohu, preliminary diligence matters, financing of the transaction and regulatory matters. Mr. Gallenberger also presented to the participants the Xcerra FY 2018 – FY 2019 Forecast. During the meetings, Messrs. Müller and Jones initially indicated that Cohu would increase its offer from $11.75 per share to $12.50 per share of Xcerra Common Stock. Following extensive discussions and negotiations, Messrs. Tacelli, Gallenberger, Müller and Jones agreed to present to the respective boards of directors of Xcerra and Cohu for approval an offer of $13.75 per share of Xcerra Common Stock, consisting of $9.00 in cash and $4.75 in Cohu Common Stock and proposed that the post-closing board of directors of Cohu would include the addition of two former Xcerra directors. The members of Cohu's management in attendance at the meetings indicated that Cohu would provide a formal written revised offer for the Xcerra Board's consideration following approval of the offer by Cohu's Board. The closing price of Xcerra Common Stock on March 27, 2018, was $11.39 per share and the closing price of Cohu Common Stock on March 27, 2018, was $22.91 per share.

On March 28, 2018, Mr. Tacelli provided a summary of the March 26 and March 27 meetings to members of the Xcerra Board by email.

Also on March 28, 2018, the Cohu Board held a special telephonic meeting, a portion of which was attended by representatives of Deutsche Bank and representatives of Cleary Gottlieb. At the meeting, the Cohu Board discussed, among other matters, the March 26 and March 27 meetings, the potential business combination between Cohu and Xcerra, Xcerra's business and stock performance, preliminary financial information relating to Xcerra and Cohu and a preliminary timeline of the potential transaction. Following this discussion, the Cohu Board authorized Mr. Müller to present to Xcerra a revised written proposal letter, dated as of March 29, 2018 (the "Revised Proposal Letter"), specifying, among other things, a non-binding offer for Cohu to acquire 100% of the outstanding shares of Xcerra Common Stock at a per share price equal to $13.75, consisting of $9.00 payable in cash and $4.75 payable in Cohu Common Stock at an exchange ratio to be based on the 30-trading day volume weighted average price of Cohu's Common Stock through the last trading day prior to the signing of a definitive merger agreement. The closing price of Xcerra Common Stock on March 29, 2018 was $11.65 per share and the closing price of Cohu Common Stock on March 29, 2018, was $22.81 per share.

On March 29, 2018, Mr. Müller delivered to Mr. Tacelli the Revised Proposal Letter. Also on March 29, 2018, Mr. Müller delivered to Mr. Tacelli a letter agreement to be entered into by Cohu and Xcerra (the "Exclusivity Agreement") providing that Cohu would have the exclusive right to negotiate with Xcerra regarding a possible acquisition of Xcerra until May 8, 2018 (unless earlier terminated).

Also on March 29, 2018, representatives of Cowen and representatives of Deutsche Bank participated in a telephonic meeting to discuss the key terms of the Revised Proposal Letter, including the per share purchase price and the exchange ratio for the stock portion of the consideration, Cohu's financing of the transaction, key due diligence items, and Xcerra's desire to solicit interest from other potentially interested parties before entering into an exclusivity agreement with Cohu.

On March 30, 2018, Messrs. Tacelli and Müller participated in a telephonic meeting to discuss the Revised Proposal Letter. Mr. Tacelli noted that the Revised Proposal Letter had been provided to the Xcerra Board for discussion at a meeting of the Xcerra Board to be held later that day.

Also on March 30, 2018, the Cohu Board met telephonically to discuss updates to the status of negotiations with Xcerra.

Also on March 30, 2018, the Xcerra Board held a telephonic meeting, which was also attended by members of Xcerra's management, representatives of Cowen and representatives of Latham & Watkins. Representatives of Cowen provided the Xcerra Board with an update regarding the potential transaction involving Cohu and Xcerra, including with respect to the negotiations that had taken place between members of Xcerra's management and members of Cohu's management at the in-person meetings held on March 26 and March 27, 2018. The representatives of Cowen noted that, during such negotiations, the participants discussed Cohu's proposed implied per share purchase price and that representatives of Xcerra's management had been successful in negotiating from the initial offer of $11.75 per share set forth in the Initial Proposal Letter to the $13.75 per share offer set forth in the Revised Proposal Letter. The representatives of Cowen also noted that the Revised Proposal Letter provided that two former Xcerra Board members would be invited to join Cohu's board of directors following the closing of the transaction and that Xcerra stockholders would own approximately 28% of outstanding Cohu Common Stock following the closing of the transaction. The representatives of Cowen also reviewed with the Xcerra Board Cowen's preliminary financial analysis of the implied per share consideration of $13.75 represented by the Revised Proposal Letter. Following Cowen's presentation, the participants in the meeting discussed the potential transaction, including the per share purchase price reflected in the Revised Proposal Letter (which Messrs. Tacelli and Gallenberger and representatives of Cowen stated, based on negotiations with representatives of Cohu that took place on March 27, 2018, to be the highest price that they believed that Cohu would be willing to offer), Xcerra's recent performance, the current state of the semiconductor test equipment market and certain regulatory approvals that would be required in connection with the potential transaction. A representative of Latham & Watkins then reviewed with the members of the Xcerra Board their fiduciary duties with respect to the Xcerra Board's consideration of the potential transaction. Following discussion and taking into account the review of strategic alternatives and market outreach that had been conducted in connection with the Unic Merger Agreement, the Xcerra Board directed Cowen to approach, on behalf of Xcerra, a total of 15 parties (the “Potential Partners”) to solicit their interest in pursuing a strategic transaction with Xcerra. The Potential Partners included those parties that the Xcerra Board believed, after consultation with Xcerra’s management and representatives of Cowen, were the parties most likely to be interested in, and capable of, pursuing a strategic transaction with Xcerra. Company A was included as a Potential Partner. A representative of Latham & Watkins then reviewed the terms of the proposed Exclusivity Agreement provided by Cohu. Following discussion, the Xcerra Board determined that Xcerra would enter into the Exclusivity Agreement only after Cowen’s outreach to the Potential Partners had been completed. Following further discussion, the members of the Xcerra Board unanimously approved the Revised Proposal Letter. The Xcerra Board further approved the Exclusivity Agreement, subject to the satisfactory completion of Cowen’s outreach to the Potential Partners and the absence of interest expressed by any of the Potential Partners in pursuing a possible strategic transaction with Xcerra. The Xcerra Board directed Xcerra’s management and the respective representatives of Cowen and Latham & Watkins to continue to engage with Cohu with respect to due diligence and to commence drafting a definitive agreement.

Beginning on March 30, 2018, at the request of management of Xcerra as directed by the Xcerra Board, Cowen approached on behalf of Xcerra each of the Potential Partners.

On April 2, 2018, Messrs. Tacelli and Gallenberger participated in a telephonic meeting with Mr. Müller to discuss measurement of the exchange ratio for the portion of the per share merger consideration which would be paid to Xcerra’s stockholders in the form of Cohu Common Stock. Following discussion, Messrs. Tacelli, Gallenberger and Müller agreed that the exchange ratio for the shares of Cohu Common Stock to be issued in the Merger would be based on the 20-trading day volume weighted average price of Cohu Common Stock through the last trading day prior to the signing of the definitive agreement.

Also on April 2, 2018, the Cohu Board met telephonically to discuss updates to the status of negotiations with Xcerra.

On April 3, 2018, Colin Savoy, Xcerra’s Chief Legal Counsel participated in an introductory telephonic meeting with Mr. Kampfer to discuss diligence matters and the Exclusivity Agreement. Messrs. Savoy and Kampfer also discussed potential regulatory matters presented by the proposed transaction.

Later on April 3, 2018, following an introduction by Mr. Savoy, representatives of Latham & Watkins participated in a telephonic meeting with representatives of Cleary Gottlieb to discuss diligence matters and the Exclusivity Agreement. Following the meeting, representatives of Latham & Watkins delivered a revised version of the Exclusivity Agreement to representatives of Cleary Gottlieb which, among other things, provided that Cohu would also not solicit proposals for a possible acquisition of Cohu during the term of exclusivity thereunder. Representatives of Latham & Watkins also delivered an initial draft of a “clean team” agreement with respect to Cohu’s due diligence of Xcerra, as well as a list of information requests with respect to Xcerra’s due diligence of Cohu.

On April 4, 2018, representatives of Cohu and Xcerra held a telephonic meeting to discuss the status of the Exclusivity Agreement.

On April 5, 2018, Cowen completed its outreach efforts to the Potential Partners. After considering the proposed terms of the Merger Agreement and the presentations of each of Latham & Watkins and Cowen, including the receipt of Cowen's oral opinion, the Xcerra Board engaged in extended discussion concerning the considerations supporting entry into the Merger Agreement and certain factors that may not support entry into the Merger Agreement, including such factors as are described in this joint proxy statement/prospectus under the section entitled — Recommendations of the Xcerra Board and Xcerra's Reasons for the Merger. Following such discussion, the Xcerra Board unanimously determined that the Merger Agreement, in the form presented to the Xcerra Board, and the Merger and the other transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement, were fair to, advisable and in the best interests of Xcerra and its stockholders. The representatives of Deutsche Bank then rendered to the Cohu Board an oral opinion, subsequently confirmed by delivery of a written opinion dated May 7, 2018, to the effect that, as of the date of such opinion, and based upon and subject to the assumptions, limitations, qualifications and conditions described in such opinion, the Merger Consideration proposed to be paid per share of Xcerra Common Stock in the Merger pursuant to the Merger Agreement was fair, from a financial point of view, to Cohu. The opinion and analysis of Deutsche Bank is more fully described below in "Opinion of Cohu's Financial Advisor, Deutsche Bank Securities, Inc."

Following the meetings of the Xcerra Board and the Cohu Board on May 7, 2018, the Merger Agreement and related documents were executed and delivered by Xcerra, Cohu and Merger Sub. including compensation, of such person's continued employment with or service to Xcerra (other than with respect to the two members of the Cohu Board to be designated by Xcerra as described in "—Board of Directors and Management after the Transaction") following the consummation of the Merger. Since the execution of the Merger Agreement, representatives of Cohu have had preliminary discussions with two members of Xcerra's senior management regarding their interest in continuing their employment with the Surviving Corporation following the Merger. Cohu has not made any offers to, nor have any agreements been entered into with, any member of Xcerra's management.

Recommendation of the Cohu Board and Cohu's Reasons for the Merger

At the meeting of the Cohu Board on May 7, 2018, after careful consideration, including detailed discussions with Cohu's management and its legal and financial advisors, all of the directors present at the meeting unanimously approved and declared advisable the Merger Agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, including the Merger, and determined that the Merger Agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, including the Merger, are fair to, advisable and in the best interests of, Cohu and the Cohu stockholders, and recommended that the Cohu stockholders vote FOR the Stock Issuance Proposal and FOR the Cohu Adjournment Proposal.

In evaluating the Merger, the Cohu Board consulted with Cohu's management, as well as Cohu's legal and financial advisors and, in reaching a conclusion to approve the Merger and related transactions and to recommend that Cohu stockholders approve the Stock Issuance Proposal, the Cohu Board reviewed a significant amount of information and considered a number of factors including:

- its knowledge of Cohu's business, operations, financial condition, earnings and prospects and of Xcerra's business, operations, financial condition, earnings and prospects and the ratio of Cohu's stock price to Xcerra's stock price over various periods, taking into account the results of Cohu's due diligence of Xcerra;
- its knowledge of the current environment in the semiconductor back-end manufacturing industry, including emerging competing technologies, emerging complementary technologies, customer consolidation trends, economic conditions, current financial market conditions and the likely effects of these factors on Cohu's and Xcerra's potential growth, development, productivity and strategic options;
- the provisions of the Merger Agreement providing for the payment of the Merger Consideration in a combination of cash and Cohu Common Stock;
- the strategic nature of the acquisition, which would create a world leader in semiconductor back-end manufacturing equipment with combined sales of approximately $840.0 million;
- the complementary nature of Cohu's and Xcerra's product lines, including semiconductor test and inspection handlers, test contactors, thermal sub-systems and MEMS test modules;
- other strategic benefits of the transaction, including the expansion of Cohu's business into areas where it has no presence, such as semiconductor automated test equipment, PCB test solutions and PCBA fixtures business, expansion of the portfolio of customer solutions in test contactors (a business that is less seasonal than test handler system sales), enhancing Cohu's global customer service and support infrastructure, improving and accelerating R&D strategies and innovation to develop next generation products and solutions, potentially increased valuation multiples and shareholder value, and potentially greater access to financial markets to enable future growth initiatives.
- that a fixed exchange ratio for the Stock Consideration avoids fluctuations in the number of shares that will be issued through the transaction, but can result in fluctuations in value caused by near-term market volatility;
- the probability that regulatory approvals for the Merger could be obtained within the timeframes specified in the Merger Agreement without the imposition of conditions beyond what Cohu would find unacceptable;
- that two members of the Xcerra Board would be joining the current Cohu Board to form the Cohu Board at the Effective Time (the "New Cohu Board") and that the senior management of Cohu would otherwise continue as the senior management of Cohu;

Table of Contents

- the belief that the Cohu management team will be able to successfully integrate the two companies;
- Cohu's management's expectation of achieving full annual run-rate cost synergies of $20.0 million within 24 months following closing of the Merger;
- the provisions of the Merger Agreement that allow the Cohu Board, under certain circumstances, to change its recommendation with regard to the Merger Agreement prior to Cohu stockholder approval of the Stock Issuance Proposal, in response to an unsolicited takeover proposal with respect to which the Cohu Board determines in good faith, after consultation with Cohu's outside legal counsel, that the failure to change its recommendation would be inconsistent with the Cohu Board's fiduciary duties;
- that, subject to certain exceptions, Xcerra is prohibited from taking certain actions that would be deemed to be a solicitation under the Merger Agreement, including solicitation, initiation, inducement, encouragement, facilitation or assistance of any inquiries or the making of any proposals for certain types of business combinations or acquisitions of Xcerra (or entering into any agreements for such business combinations or acquisitions of Xcerra);
- that Xcerra must pay to Cohu a termination fee of $22.8 million if the Merger Agreement is terminated under certain circumstances specified in the Merger Agreement, as described in the section entitled "The Merger Agreement — Termination Fees;"
- the probability that the conditions to completion of the Merger would be satisfied prior to the Termination Date;
- the premiums paid by the acquiring entities in comparable mixed cash-and-stock transactions in the recent past; and
- the financial presentation of Deutsche Bank to the Cohu Board on May 7, 2018 and the oral opinion of Deutsche Bank delivered to the Cohu Board on May 7, 2018, subsequently confirmed by delivery of a written opinion dated May 7, 2018, as to the fairness, from a financial point of view, as of the date of such opinion, and based upon and subject to the assumptions, limitations, qualifications and conditions described in Deutsche Bank's opinion, to Cohu of the Merger Consideration of $9.00 in cash and 0.2109 of a share of Cohu Common Stock proposed to be paid per share of Xcerra Common Stock in the Merger, as more fully described below in "The Merger — Opinion of Cohu's Financial Advisor, Deutsche Bank"

The Cohu Board also considered the potential adverse impact of other factors weighing negatively against the Merger, including, without limitation, the following:

- the risks and contingencies relating to the announcement and pendency of the Merger and the risks and costs to Cohu if the Merger does not close timely or does not close at all, including the impact on Cohu's relationships with employees and with third parties;
- the dilution to Cohu stockholders resulting from the issuance of the Stock Consideration;
- the risk of diverting management's focus, employee attention and resources from other strategic opportunities and operational matters while working to complete the Merger and implement Merger integration efforts;
- the challenges of combining the businesses, operations and workforces of Cohu and Xcerra and realizing the anticipated synergies projected to result from the Merger;
- the possibility that the Merger may not be completed or that completion may be unduly delayed for reasons beyond the control of Cohu and/or Xcerra, including the potential length of the regulatory review process and the risk that applicable antitrust and competition authorities may seek to prohibit or enjoin the proposed Merger, or otherwise seek to impose conditions on Cohu and/or Xcerra that Cohu could find undesirable;

Table of Contents

- the risk that the parties may incur significant costs and delays resulting from seeking governmental consents and approvals necessary for completion of the Merger;
- certain terms and conditions of the Merger Agreement, including:
 - that Cohu must pay to Xcerra a termination fee of $22.8 million or $45.0 million if the Merger Agreement is terminated under certain circumstances specified in the Merger Agreement, as described in the section entitled “The Merger Agreement — Termination Fees;” and
 - the requirement that Cohu generally conduct its business only in the ordinary course and that Cohu is subject to a variety of other restrictions on the conduct of its business prior to the completion of the Merger, as more fully described in the section entitled “The Merger Agreement — Conduct of Business Pending the Merger;” any of which may delay or prevent Cohu from pursuing business opportunities that may arise or may delay or preclude Cohu from taking actions that would be advisable if it were to remain an independent company.
- the fact that Cohu expects to incur indebtedness of up to approximately $350.0 million in connection with the Merger (net debt of approximately $230.0 million), which debt will have a floating interest rate, and such debt may adversely impact Cohu’s operations following the Merger and prevent Cohu from engaging in share buybacks or financing larger new projects; and
- the risks described in the section entitled “Risk Factors.”

The Cohu Board concluded that the anticipated benefits of the Merger outweigh the preceding considerations.

In addition, the Cohu Board was aware of and considered the interests that some of Cohu’s directors and executive officers may have in the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement that may be different from, or in addition to, their interests as stockholders and the interests of Cohu stockholders generally, as described in “The Merger — Interests of Cohu Directors and Executive Officers in the Merger.”

The reasons set forth above are not intended to be exhaustive, but include material facts considered by the Cohu Board in approving the Merger Agreement. In view of the wide variety of factors considered in connection with its evaluation of the Merger and the complexity of these matters, the Cohu Board did not find it useful to and did not attempt to quantify, rank or assign any relative or specific weights to the various factors that it considered in reaching its determination to approve the Merger and the Merger Agreement and to make its recommendation to Cohu stockholders. In addition, individual members of the Cohu Board may have given differing weights to different factors. The Cohu Board carefully considered all of the factors described above as a whole.

Recommendation of the Xcerra Board and Xcerra’s Reasons for the Merger

At a meeting on May 7, 2018, the Xcerra Board unanimously:

- determined that the terms of the Merger and the other transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement were fair to, and in the best interests of, Xcerra and its stockholders;
- determined that it was in the best interests of Xcerra and its stockholders, and declared it advisable, to enter into the Merger Agreement;
- approved the execution and delivery by Xcerra of the Merger Agreement, the performance by Xcerra of its covenants and agreements contained in the Merger Agreement and the consummation of the Merger and the other transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement upon the terms and subject to the conditions contained therein; and
- resolved to recommend that the Xcerra stockholders approve the Merger Agreement in accordance with the MBCA.

As described above under “The Merger Agreement — Background of the Merger,” in the course of reaching its determination to approve the Merger and the Merger Agreement, the Xcerra Board held numerous meetings and consulted with Xcerra’s senior management, financial advisor and outside legal counsel, and reviewed, evaluated and considered a variety of factors weighing positively and negatively in respect of the Merger.

The Xcerra Board considered a wide and complex variety of factors in reaching its determination to approve the Merger and the Merger Agreement, including the following positive factors (which such factors are not necessarily presented in order of relative importance):

- information concerning Xcerra’s and Cohu’s business, financial performance (both historical and projected), financial condition, results of operations (both historical and projected), and business strategic objectives, as well as the risks of accomplishing those objectives;
- the results of Xcerra’s due diligence investigation of Cohu and the reputation, business practices and experience of Cohu and its current management;
- the expectation that the combined company would achieve over $20.0 million of annual run-rate cost synergies within two years of the closing of the Merger, excluding stock-based compensation, including synergies resulting from the elimination of redundant public company costs, consolidation of back office operations, consolidation of worldwide facilities and elimination of other redundant investments;
- the advantages that the combined company may have over Xcerra as a standalone company, including as a result of the belief that the combined company will be a leading worldwide semiconductor tester and handler supplier and will be better positioned to more effectively service its customers through its broader and more diversified product offerings;
- the expanded possibilities, including organic growth and future acquisitions, that would be available to the combined company, given its larger size, asset base, capital and footprint;
- the view that the combined company will be better able to withstand the cyclical nature of the semiconductor industry;
- the fact that the Merger Consideration of $13.92 per share (based upon the closing price of a share of Cohu Common Stock on May 7, 2018) represents a premium to the then current and historical market prices of Xcerra Common Stock as follows:
 - an approximately 8.4% premium to the closing price of Xcerra Common Stock on May 7, 2018, the last trading day prior to the approval of the Merger Agreement by the Xcerra Board;
 - an approximately 15.4% premium to the average closing price of Xcerra Common Stock in the 30 trading day period ending on May 7, 2018, the last trading day prior to the approval of the Merger Agreement by the Xcerra Board; and
 - an approximately 28.5% premium to the average closing price of Xcerra Common Stock in the 90 trading day period ending on May 7, 2018, the last trading day prior to the approval of the Merger Agreement by the Xcerra Board;
- the fact that the cash component of the Merger Consideration provides liquidity and certainty of value as compared to the uncertain future long-term value that Xcerra’s stockholders might or might not realize if Xcerra remained an independent publicly-traded company;
- the fact that the stock component of the Merger Consideration provides an opportunity for Xcerra’s stockholders to participate in the potential appreciation of Cohu Common Stock, including through the potential realization of anticipated synergies from the business combination;
- the fact that the Merger is expected to be immediately accretive to non-GAAP earnings per share following the Merger;

- the fact that, because the stock portion of the Merger Consideration is based on a fixed exchange ratio, Xcerra's stockholders will benefit from any increase in the trading price of Cohu Common Stock between the announcement of the Merger and the completion of the Merger;
- the Xcerra Board's belief that regulatory approvals necessary to complete the transaction could be obtained and the obligation of Cohu and Xcerra to use their respective reasonable best efforts to obtain such approvals and to take such actions (including with respect to selling, holding separate or otherwise disposing of certain businesses or assets upon the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in the Merger Agreement) as are necessary to obtain such approvals;
- the fact that the closing of the Merger is subject to approval of Xcerra's stockholders and that Xcerra's stockholders have the ability to vote against the approval of the Merger Agreement and the transactions contemplated therein for any reason;
- the Xcerra Board's assessment that none of the reasonably possible alternatives to the Merger, including remaining an independent publicly-traded company, was reasonably likely to present a superior opportunity for Xcerra to create greater value for Xcerra's stockholders, taking into account the potential benefits to Xcerra stockholders of these alternatives and the timing and likelihood of accomplishing the goals of such alternatives, as well as business, competitive, industry, market and execution risks;
- the risks and uncertainties associated with Xcerra remaining an independent company compared to the opportunities presented by the Merger, including the risks and uncertainties with respect to:
 - Xcerra achieving its growth plans in light of the current and future market conditions, including the risks and uncertainties in the U.S. and global economy generally and the semiconductor and semiconductor equipment industries specifically;
 - the intensely competitive nature of the semiconductor equipment and electronics manufacturing industries in which Xcerra competes;
 - the cyclical nature of the semiconductor industry and the corresponding fluctuations in Xcerra's financial results and the market price of Xcerra Common Stock over the last 12 months and the last several years, as well as the fact that the semiconductor industry has been in an upcycle for longer than typical historically;
 - consolidation trends within the semiconductor industry;
 - Xcerra's dependence on a highly concentrated customer base;
 - the fluctuations in Xcerra's sales and operating results in recent periods and its prospects for future growth, and the general risks associated with Xcerra's ability to execute on a business plan that would create stockholder value in excess of the Merger Consideration;
 - the significant lead-time and expense of developing new products and Xcerra's ability to anticipate the technical needs of its customers;
 - the importance of scale in a competitive market environment and the associated challenges to growth as a smaller independent company;
 - the dependence of Xcerra on subcontractors and sole source suppliers for the manufacture of the subcomponents and subassemblies used to produce Xcerra's test products and the business risks associated with such a dependency;
 - the dependence of Xcerra on a limited number of suppliers for some components and subassemblies, and the risk of supply shortages or loss of suppliers;
 - the dependence of Xcerra on international sales for a significant portion of Xcerra's revenue in recent periods and the business risks associated with such a dependency; and

- the general risks and market conditions that could affect the price of Xcerra Common Stock;
- the possibility that, as a result of the foregoing or other risks, it could take a considerable period of time before the trading price of Xcerra Common Stock would reach and sustain a price per share that is equal to, or greater than, the Merger Consideration, as adjusted for the time value of money, and that Xcerra Common Stock may never reach such a price;
- estimated forecasts of Xcerra's future financial performance prepared by Xcerra's management, together with management's view of Xcerra's financial condition, results of operations, business, prospects and competitive position and the ability to achieve the performance set forth in such forecasts;
- the financial analyses presented to the Xcerra Board by Cowen with respect to the Merger Consideration and the written opinion of Cowen to the Xcerra Board to the effect that, as of May 7, 2018, and subject to the various assumptions and limitations set forth therein, the Merger Consideration of $9.00 in cash and 0.2109 of a share of Cohu Common Stock to be received by the Xcerra stockholders in the Merger was fair, from a financial point of view, to such stockholders, other than Cohu and its affiliates. The full text of Cowen's opinion is attached hereto as Annex C and is incorporated into this joint proxy statement/prospectus by reference and in its entirety. Cowen's opinion is more fully described below under the heading "The Merger — Opinion of Xcerra's Financial Advisor, Cowen;"
- Cohu's agreement to appoint two current members of the Xcerra Board to the Cohu Board upon the consummation of the Merger in order to provide continuity and to bring Xcerra's knowledge and familiarity with its business model to bear on the efforts of the combined company to achieve its expansion goals and to realize the potential synergies anticipated from the Merger;
- the negotiations with respect to the Merger Consideration, including the determination by the Xcerra Board that, following negotiations with Cohu, the Merger Consideration was the highest price that Cohu would agree to pay;
- the absence of any credible acquisition proposal with a higher price than the Merger Consideration, and, in particular, the absence of any such credible acquisition proposal after contacts with multiple other parties regarding a potential acquisition;
- the likelihood that the Merger would be completed based on, among other things (not in any relative order of importance):
 - the conditions to closing set forth in the Merger Agreement and the absence of a financing condition;
 - representations by Cohu and Merger Sub in the Merger Agreement that, assuming the accuracy of Xcerra's representations in the Merger Agreement, the aggregate proceeds represented by the financing commitments will be sufficient for Cohu and Merger Sub to pay all amounts required to be paid in connection with the Merger;
 - the fact that Cohu has provided an executed commitment letter from a reputable financing source with respect to debt financing sufficient for the consummation of the Merger and the obligation of Cohu to use its reasonable best efforts to ensure that the full proceeds of the financing will be available to Cohu at the closing of the Merger (as more fully discussed in the section of this joint proxy statement/prospectus titled "The Merger Agreement — Financing"); and
 - the fact that the Merger Agreement provides that Cohu will be required to pay Xcerra a termination fee in an amount equal to $22.8 million or $45.0 million if the Merger Agreement is terminated in certain circumstances (as further explained in the section of this joint proxy statement/prospectus entitled "The Merger Agreement — Termination Fees");
- the ability of the Xcerra Board, under certain circumstances, to make a change in its recommendation to Xcerra's stockholders with respect to the approval of the Merger Agreement (as further explained in the section of this joint proxy statement/prospectus entitled “The Merger Agreement — The Xcerra Board’s Recommendation; Xcerra Board Recommendation Change”);

- the ability of Xcerra to furnish information to, and conduct negotiations with, third parties in certain circumstances, and to terminate the Merger Agreement to accept a superior proposal upon payment to Cohu of a termination fee equal to $22.8 million (which the Xcerra Board believed was reasonable under the circumstances);
- the availability of appraisal rights under Massachusetts law to Xcerra stockholders who do not vote in favor of the approval of the Merger Agreement and comply with all of the required procedures under Massachusetts law, which provides those stockholders with an opportunity to demand payment of the “fair value” of their shares of Xcerra Common Stock as determined pursuant to Massachusetts law, which may be more than, less than, or the same as the amount such stockholders would have received under the Merger Agreement;
- the fact that Xcerra’s financial and legal advisors were involved during the process and negotiations and updated the Xcerra Board directly and regularly, which provided the Xcerra Board with additional perspectives on the process and negotiations; and
- the belief of the Xcerra Board that the terms of the Merger Agreement, including the representations, warranties, covenants and the closing conditions, were the product of arm’s-length negotiations between the parties and are reasonable and in the best interests of Xcerra’s stockholders;
- the fact that the members of the Xcerra Board were unanimous in their determination to recommend the Merger Agreement for approval by Xcerra stockholders.

The Xcerra Board also considered a variety of potentially negative factors and risks relating to the Merger Agreement and the Merger, including the following (which factors and risks are not necessarily presented in order of relative importance):

- the fact that a significant portion of the Merger Consideration is comprised of Cohu Common Stock and the exchange ratio is fixed, and therefore Xcerra’s stockholders will be adversely affected by any decrease in the price of Cohu Common Stock between the announcement of the Merger and the completion of the Merger, and that the terms of the Merger Agreement do not include “collar” provisions or stock-price-based termination rights that would be triggered by a decrease in the value of the Merger Consideration implied by the price of Cohu Common Stock;
- the fact that completion of the Merger will require antitrust clearance in the United States and Germany;
- the fact that the Merger may not receive required antitrust approval, or that other conditions to the parties’ obligations to complete the Merger will not be satisfied and, as a result, the possibility that the Merger may not be completed even if the Merger Agreement is approved by Xcerra’s stockholders;
- the fact that, in connection with the grant of antitrust approval, governmental authorities may impose conditions on Cohu or Xcerra which could adversely affect the operations and value of the combined company;
- the difficulty Cohu would have completing the Merger if the financing described in the debt commitment letter entered into by Cohu in connection with the execution of the Merger Agreement, or any alternative financing arrangements, were not available at Closing;
- the potential negative effects of the public announcement of the Merger on Xcerra’s or Cohu’s sales, operating results, stock price, ability to retain key management, sales and marketing, technical and other personnel, and such party’s relationships with customers, suppliers and regulators;
- the risks and substantial costs to Xcerra if the Merger does not close, including the diversion of management and employee attention, potential employee attrition and the potential disruptive effect on Xcerra’s business and customer relationships;

- the fact that certain provisions of the Merger Agreement prohibit Xcerra from soliciting, and limit its ability to respond to, proposals for alternative transactions;
- the restrictions on the conduct of Xcerra's business prior to completion of the Merger, requiring Xcerra to conduct its business in the ordinary course and preventing Xcerra from taking certain specified actions, each of which could delay or prevent Xcerra from undertaking business opportunities that might arise pending completion of the Merger;
- the possibility that Xcerra may be obligated to pay Cohu a termination fee equal to $22.8 million under certain circumstances, including in the event that Xcerra terminates the Merger Agreement to enter into a definitive agreement related to a superior proposal (as further explained under the section of this joint proxy statement/prospectus entitled "The Merger Agreement — Termination Fees");
- the fact that the termination fees payable by Cohu are only available in certain circumstances in which the Merger Agreement is terminated;
- the fact that Xcerra's stockholders may not approve the Merger;
- the conditions to the obligations of Cohu and Merger Sub to complete the Merger and the right of Cohu to terminate the Merger Agreement under certain circumstances;
- the fact that Xcerra's directors and executive officers may have interests in the Merger that are different from, or in addition to, those of Xcerra's stockholders generally, including certain interests arising from the employment and compensation arrangements of Xcerra's executive officers, and the manner in which they would be affected by the Merger;
- the risk of not realizing any or all of the potential synergies or other benefits of the Merger, including, without limitation, as a result of the challenges of combining the business, operations and workforces of Cohu and Xcerra, and the risk that expected operating efficiencies and cost savings may not be realized or will cost more to achieve than anticipated;
- the fact that Cohu will incur additional indebtedness in connection with the Merger, which indebtedness may adversely impact the operations of the combined company following the Merger;
- the substantial transaction costs to be incurred in connection with the Merger;
- the risk and potential negative outcome of potential litigation in connection with the Merger;
- the fact that the receipt of the Merger Consideration by Xcerra's stockholders in exchange for their shares of Xcerra Common Stock in connection with the Merger will be a taxable transaction for U.S. federal income tax purposes as described in the section of this joint proxy statement/prospectus titled "Material United States Federal Income Tax Consequences;"
- the potential length of the regulatory approval process and the fact that, should additional time be needed to obtain the regulatory approvals required to close the Merger, Cohu may extend the termination date from six months to up to twelve months, further exacerbating any potential negative effects on Xcerra and its business during the period between the execution of the Merger Agreement and the earlier to occur of the closing of the Merger or the termination of the Merger Agreement; and
- various other risks associated with the Merger and the business of Cohu, Xcerra and the combined company described under "Risk Factors."

The foregoing discussion of the information and factors considered by the Xcerra Board is not intended to be exhaustive, but includes the material factors considered by the Xcerra Board. In view of the wide variety of factors considered in connection with its evaluation of the Merger and the complexity of these matters, the Xcerra Board did not find it useful to and did not attempt to quantify, rank, or otherwise assign relative weights to these factors. In addition, the Xcerra Board did not undertake to make any specific determination as to whether any particular factor, or any aspect of any particular factor, was favorable or unfavorable to its ultimate determination, but, rather, the Xcerra Board conducted an overall analysis of the factors described above, including discussions with Xcerra's management and its financial and legal advisors. In considering the factors described above, individual members of the Xcerra Board may have given different weights to different factors.

This explanation of the Xcerra Board's reasons for the Merger and all other information presented in this section is forward-looking in nature and, therefore, should be read in light of the factors discussed under "Forward-Looking Statements."

The Xcerra Board unanimously recommends that you vote "FOR" the proposal to approve the Merger Agreement, "FOR" the proposal to adjourn the Xcerra Special Meeting to a later date or dates if necessary or appropriate to solicit additional proxies if there are insufficient votes to adopt the Merger Agreement at the time of the Xcerra Special Meeting and "FOR" the proposal to approve, by non-binding, advisory vote, compensation that will or may become payable to Xcerra's named executive officers in connection with the Merger.

Opinion of Cohu's Financial Advisor, Deutsche Bank

At the May 7, 2018 meeting of the Cohu Board, Deutsche Bank rendered its oral opinion to the Cohu Board, subsequently confirmed by delivery of a written opinion dated May 7, 2018, to the effect that, as of the date of such opinion, and based upon and subject to the assumptions, limitations, qualifications and conditions described in Deutsche Bank's opinion, the Merger Consideration of $9.00 in cash and 0.2109 of a share of Cohu Common Stock proposed to be paid per share of Xcerra Common Stock in the Merger pursuant to the Merger Agreement was fair, from a financial point of view, to Cohu.

The full text of Deutsche Bank's written opinion, dated May 7, 2018, which sets forth the assumptions made, procedures followed, matters considered and limitations, qualifications and conditions on the review undertaken by Deutsche Bank in connection with its opinion, is included in this joint proxy statement/prospectus as Annex B. The summary of Deutsche Bank's opinion set forth in this joint proxy statement/prospectus is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the opinion. Deutsche Bank's opinion was approved and authorized for issuance by a Deutsche Bank fairness opinion review committee and was addressed to, and was for the use and benefit of, the Cohu Board in connection with and for the purpose of its evaluation of the Merger. Deutsche Bank's opinion was limited to the fairness, from a financial point of view, to Cohu of the Merger Consideration of $9.00 in cash and 0.2109 of a share of Cohu Common Stock proposed to be paid per share of Xcerra Common Stock pursuant to the Merger Agreement as of the date of the opinion. Deutsche Bank's opinion did not address any other terms of the Merger or the Merger Agreement nor did it address the terms of any other agreement entered into or to be entered into in connection with the Merger. Cohu did not ask Deutsche Bank to, and Deutsche Bank's opinion did not, address the fairness of the Merger, or any consideration received in connection therewith, to the holders of any class of securities, creditors or other constituencies of Cohu, nor did it address the fairness of the contemplated benefits of the Merger. Deutsche Bank expressed no opinion as to the merits of the underlying decision by Cohu to engage in the Merger or the relative merits of the Merger as compared to any alternative transactions or business strategies. Nor did Deutsche Bank express any opinion, and Deutsche Bank's opinion does not constitute a recommendation, as to how any holder of Cohu Common Stock or any other person should vote with respect to the Merger or any other matter. In addition, Deutsche Bank did not express any view or opinion as to the fairness, financial or otherwise, of the amount or nature of any compensation payable to or to be received by any the officers, directors, or employees of any parties to the Merger, or any class of such persons, in connection with the Merger, whether relative to the Merger Consideration or otherwise. Deutsche Bank's opinion did not in any manner address the prices at which the Cohu Common Stock, the Xcerra Common Stock or other securities will trade following the announcement or completion of the Merger.

In connection with Deutsche Bank's role as financial advisor to Cohu, and in arriving at its opinion, Deutsche Bank reviewed certain publicly available financial and other information concerning Xcerra and Cohu, and certain internal analyses, financial forecasts and other information relating to Xcerra and Cohu prepared by management of Cohu, as summarized in “The Merger — Unaudited Prospective Financial Information — Cohu Unaudited Prospective Financial Information.” Deutsche Bank also held discussions with certain senior officers and other representatives and advisors of Cohu regarding the businesses and prospects of Xcerra, Cohu and the combined company and with certain senior officers and other representatives and advisors of Xcerra regarding the businesses and prospects of Xcerra. In addition, Deutsche Bank:

- reviewed the reported prices and trading activity for the Xcerra Common Stock and the Cohu Common Stock;
- compared certain financial and stock market information for Xcerra and Cohu with, to the extent publicly available, similar information for certain other companies Deutsche Bank considered relevant whose securities are publicly traded;
- reviewed, to the extent publicly available, the financial terms of certain recent business combinations which Deutsche Bank deemed relevant;
- reviewed the Merger Agreement;
- reviewed analyses and forecasts of the amount and timing of certain cost savings, operating efficiencies, financial synergies and other strategic benefits projected by Cohu to be achieved as a result of the Merger, collectively referred to in this section “The Merger — Opinion of Cohu’s Financial Advisor, Deutsche Bank” as the synergies; and
- performed such other studies and analyses and considered such other factors as Deutsche Bank deemed appropriate.

Deutsche Bank did not assume responsibility for independent verification of, and did not independently verify, any information, whether publicly available or furnished to it, concerning Xcerra or Cohu, including, without limitation, any financial information considered in connection with the rendering of Deutsche Bank’s opinion. Accordingly, for purposes of Deutsche Bank’s opinion, Deutsche Bank, with the knowledge and permission of the Cohu Board, assumed and relied upon the accuracy and completeness of all such information. Deutsche Bank did not conduct a physical inspection of any of the properties or assets, and did not prepare, obtain or review any independent evaluation or appraisal of any of the assets or liabilities (including any contingent, derivative or off-balance-sheet assets or liabilities), of Xcerra, Cohu or any of their respective subsidiaries, nor did Deutsche Bank evaluate the solvency or fair value of Xcerra, Cohu or any of their respective subsidiaries (or the impact of the Merger thereon) under any law relating to bankruptcy, insolvency or similar matters. With respect to the financial forecasts, including, without limitation, the synergies, made available to Deutsche Bank and used in its analyses, Deutsche Bank assumed with the knowledge and permission of the Cohu Board, that such forecasts, including with respect to the synergies, had been reasonably prepared on bases reflecting the best currently available estimates and judgments of the management of Cohu as to the matters covered thereby. In rendering its opinion, Deutsche Bank expressed no view as to the reasonableness of such forecasts and projections, including, without limitation, with respect to the synergies, or the assumptions on which they were based.

Deutsche Bank’s opinion was necessarily based upon economic, market and other conditions as in effect on, and the information made available to Deutsche Bank as of, the date of its opinion. Deutsche Bank expressly disclaimed any undertaking or obligation to advise any person of any change in any fact or matter affecting Deutsche Bank’s opinion of which Deutsche Bank may become aware after the date of its opinion.

For purposes of rendering its opinion, Deutsche Bank assumed with the knowledge and permission of the Cohu Board that, in all respects material to Deutsche Bank’s analysis, the Merger will be completed in accordance with the terms of the Merger Agreement, without any waiver, modification or amendment of any term, condition or agreement that would be material to Deutsche Bank’s analysis. Deutsche Bank also assumed with the knowledge and permission of the Cohu Board that all material governmental, regulatory or other approvals and consents required in connection with the completion of the Merger will be obtained and that in connection with obtaining any necessary governmental, regulatory or other approvals and consents, no restrictions, terms or conditions will be imposed that would be material to Deutsche Bank's analysis. Deutsche Bank is not a legal, regulatory, tax or accounting expert and relied on the assessments made by Cohu and its other advisors with respect to such issues.

Cohu selected Deutsche Bank as its financial advisor in connection with the Merger based on Deutsche Bank's qualifications, expertise, reputation and experience in mergers and acquisitions. Pursuant to an engagement letter between Cohu and Deutsche Bank, dated October 6, 2017, Cohu agreed to pay Deutsche Bank a fee of $500,000 which became payable upon the delivery of its opinion (or which would have become payable if Deutsche Bank had advised Cohu it was unable to render an opinion) and a fee of $3,500,000 upon the closing of the Merger. Pursuant to the engagement letter, Deutsche Bank's aggregate advisory fees described in the previous sentence will be reduced by 10.0% of any financing fees to be paid to Deutsche Bank in connection with its engagement as sole lead manager of the Financing, as described further in "The Merger — Financing Relating to the Merger." Cohu has also agreed to reimburse Deutsche Bank for all reasonable fees, expenses and disbursements of Deutsche Bank's outside counsel and all of Deutsche Bank's reasonable travel and other out-of-pocket expenses incurred in connection with the Merger or otherwise arising out of the retention of Deutsche Bank, in each case on the terms set forth in the engagement letter. Cohu has also agreed to indemnify Deutsche Bank and certain related persons to the fullest extent lawful against certain liabilities, including certain liabilities arising out of its engagement or the Merger.

Deutsche Bank is an internationally recognized investment banking firm experienced in providing advice in connection with mergers and acquisitions and related transactions. Deutsche Bank is an affiliate of Deutsche Bank AG (together with its affiliates, the "DB Group"). One or more members of DB Group have, from time to time, provided, investment banking, commercial banking (including extension of credit) or other financial services to Xcerra or its affiliates for which they have received, and in the future may receive, compensation. Based on a review of its internal management information system as of May 4, 2018, the DB Group had received approximately €100,000 in fees for such services from Xcerra since January 1, 2016. One or more members of DB Group have, from time to time, provided, and are currently providing, investment banking, commercial banking (including extension of credit) or other financial services to Cohu or its affiliates for which they have received, and in the future may receive, compensation. Based on a review of its internal management information system as of May 4, 2018, the DB Group had received less than €100,000 in fees for such services from Cohu since January 1, 2016. One or more members of the DB Group have agreed to provide financing to Cohu in connection with the Merger, as described further in "The Merger — Financing Relating to the Merger." The DB Group may also provide investment and commercial banking services to Cohu, Xcerra and their respective affiliates in the future, for which Deutsche Bank would expect the DB Group to receive compensation. In the ordinary course of business, members of the DB Group may actively trade in the securities and other instruments and obligations of Cohu, Xcerra and their respective affiliates for their own accounts and for the accounts of their customers. Accordingly, the DB Group may at any time hold a long or short position in such securities, instruments, and obligations.

Summary of Material Financial Analyses

The following is a summary of the material financial analyses contained in a presentation that was made by Deutsche Bank to the Cohu Board on May 7, 2018 and that were used in connection with rendering its opinion described above.

The following summary, however, does not purport to be a complete description of the financial analyses performed by Deutsche Bank, nor does the order in which the analyses are described represent the relative importance or weight given to the analyses by Deutsche Bank. Some of the summaries of the financial analyses below include information presented in tabular format. In order to fully understand the analyses, the tables must be read together with the full text of each summary. The tables alone do not constitute a complete description of Deutsche Bank's analyses. Considering the data described below without considering the full narrative description of the financial analyses, including the methodologies and assumptions underlying the analyses, could create a misleading or incomplete view of Deutsche Bank's analyses. Except as otherwise noted, the following quantitative information, to the extent that it is based on market data, is based on market data as it existed on or before May 7, 2018, and is not necessarily indicative of current market conditions.

In preparing its analyses, Deutsche Bank utilized calculations of, among other things, (i) total enterprise value ("TEV"), calculated as equity value plus, if applicable, minority interest plus net debt, (ii) adjusted earnings before interest, taxes, depreciation and amortization, calculated by starting with Operating Income and adding back stock-based compensation, depreciation, amortization, restructuring costs and acquisition related charges ("Adjusted EBITDA"), (iii) earnings per share ("EPS"), calculated by adding back stock-based compensation, amortization, restructuring costs and acquisition related charges and (iv) price as a multiple of EPS ("P/E"). For additional information regarding the financial data provided by Cohu's management underlying these calculations, please see "The Merger — Unaudited Prospective Financial Information — Cohu Unaudited Prospective Financial Information."

Selected Public Companies Analysis — Xcerra

Deutsche Bank reviewed and compared certain financial information and commonly used valuation measurements for Xcerra with corresponding financial information and valuation measurements for Cohu and the following publicly-traded semiconductor capital equipment companies:

- Advantest Corporation
- Camtek Ltd.
- FormFactor, Inc.
- inTest Corporation
- Kulicke and Soffa Industries, Inc.
- Teradyne, Inc.

Although none of Cohu or the other selected companies is directly comparable to Xcerra, the companies included were chosen because they are publicly traded companies with financial and operating characteristics that, for purposes of analysis, may be considered similar to those of Xcerra. Accordingly, the analysis of publicly traded companies was not simply mathematical. Rather, it involved complex considerations and qualitative judgments, reflected in the opinion of Deutsche Bank, concerning differences in financial and operating characteristics of the selected companies and other factors that could affect the public trading value of such companies.

Based on the closing prices of Xcerra, Cohu and each of the other selected companies on May 7, 2018, information contained in the most recent public disclosures of Xcerra, Cohu and the other selected companies, analyst consensus estimates of Adjusted EBITDA and EPS for Xcerra, Cohu and the other selected companies and Cohu estimates of Adjusted EBITDA and EPS for Xcerra, Deutsche Bank calculated the following multiples for Xcerra, Cohu and each of the selected companies:

- TEV as a multiple of estimated calendar year ("CY") 2018 Adjusted EBITDA;
- TEV as a multiple of estimated CY 2019 Adjusted EBITDA
- price as a multiple of CY 2018E estimated EPS; and
- price as a multiple of CY 2019E estimated EPS.

Table of Contents

The results of this analysis are summarized as follows:

Selected Companies	TEV/CY 2018E Adjusted EBITDA	TEV/CY 2019E Adjusted EBITDA	P/CY 2018E EPS	P/CY 2019E EPS
High	11.6x	10.1x	18.3x	15.9x
Median (including Cohu)	10.3x	7.6x	13.8x	11.6x
Low	5.2x	4.8x	7.9x	7.0x
Xcerra
Consensus	7.1x	6.4x	11.7x	10.3x
Cohu Estimates	6.3x	5.5x	10.0x	8.8x

Based in part upon the TEV/Adjusted EBITDA and P/E multiples of the selected companies described above and taking into account their professional judgment and experience, Deutsche Bank calculated ranges of estimated implied value per share of Xcerra Common Stock by:

- applying multiples of TEV to Cohu management estimates of Xcerra's CY 2018 Adjusted EBITDA of 6.0x to 10.0x, resulting in a range of implied values of $12.42 to $18.65 per share of Xcerra Common Stock;
- applying multiples of TEV to Cohu management estimates of Xcerra's CY 2019 Adjusted EBITDA of 5.0x to 8.5x, resulting in a range of implied values of $11.87 to $18.03 per share of Xcerra Common Stock;
- applying multiples of price to Cohu management estimates of Xcerra's CY 2018 EPS of 11.0x to 13.5x, resulting in a range of implied values of $14.14 to $17.35 per share of Xcerra Common Stock; and
- applying multiples of price to Cohu management estimates of Xcerra's CY 2019 EPS of 9.5x to 11.5x, resulting in a range of implied values of $13.85 to $16.76 per share of Xcerra Common Stock.

Deutsche Bank noted that the implied value of the Merger Consideration of $9.00 in cash and 0.2109 of a share of Cohu Common Stock per share of Xcerra Common Stock was $13.92 based upon the $23.35 closing price of the Cohu Common Stock on May 7, 2018, and that the closing price of the Xcerra Common Stock on May 7, 2018 was $12.84 per share.

Although none of the selected transactions is directly comparable to the Merger, the companies that participated in the selected transactions are such that, for purposes of analysis, the selected transactions may be considered similar to the Merger. The analysis of selected transactions was not simply mathematical, rather, it involved complex considerations and qualitative judgments, reflected in the opinion of Deutsche Bank, concerning differences in financial and operational characteristics of the target companies involved in the selected transactions and other factors that could affect the acquisition value of such companies.

With respect to each selected transaction and based on publicly available information, Deutsche Bank calculated the multiple of TEV to last twelve months ("LTM") Adjusted EBITDA and to next twelve months ("NTM") Adjusted EBITDA. Using the $13.92 implied value of the Merger Consideration based upon the $23.35 closing price of the Cohu Common Stock on May 7, 2018 and cash balances provided by Xcerra management and approved for Deutsche Bank's use by Cohu management, Deutsche Bank also calculated the same multiples for Xcerra based upon actual CY 2017 Adjusted EBITDA and analyst consensus estimates of CY 2018 Adjusted EBITDA. Multiples that were negative or above 35.0x were excluded for purposes of this analysis.

	TEV/LTM Adjusted EBITDA	TEV/NTM Adjusted EBITDA
High	31.5x	30.8x
Mean	13.7x	12.7x
Median	12.0x	10.2x
Low	8.2x	6.8x
Cohu at $13.92	8.0x (2017)	7.0x (2018E)

Based in part upon the TEV/ Adjusted EBITDA multiples described above and taking into account their professional judgment and experience, Deutsche Bank calculated ranges of estimated implied value per share of Xcerra Common Stock by applying multiples of TEV to Cohu management estimates of Xcerra's 2017 Adjusted EBITDA of 8.0x to 12.0x, resulting in a range of implied values of $13.91 to $19.32 per share of Xcerra Common Stock. In addition, Deutsche Bank calculated ranges of estimated implied value per share of Xcerra Common Stock by applying multiples of TEV to Cohu management estimates of Xcerra's 2018 Adjusted EBITDA of 7.0x to 11.5x, resulting in a range of implied values of $13.98 to $20.98 per share of Xcerra Common Stock.

Deutsche Bank noted that the implied value of the Merger Consideration of $9.00 in cash and 0.2109 of a share of Cohu Common Stock per share of Xcerra Common Stock was $13.92 based upon the $23.35 closing price of the Cohu Common Stock on May 7, 2018 and that the closing price of the Xcerra Common Stock on May 7, 2018 was $12.84 per share.

Discounted Cash Flow Analysis — Xcerra

Deutsche Bank performed a discounted cash flow analysis of Xcerra using financial forecasts and other information and data provided by Cohu management to calculate ranges of implied value of the Xcerra Common Stock as of May 7, 2018. In performing the discounted cash flow analysis, Deutsche Bank applied a range of discount rates of 11.0% to 13.0% to (i) unlevered free cash flows expected to be generated by Xcerra during calendar years 2018 through 2022, using the mid-year convention both with and without taking into account the synergies estimated by Cohu management to result from the Merger and (ii) estimated terminal values calculated using a range of perpetuity growth rates of 2.0% to 3.0%. For purposes of its financial analysis, Deutsche Bank calculated unlevered free cash flow as (a) Adjusted EBITDA, less (b) stock based compensation expense, less (c) cash taxes, less (d) capital expenditures, less (e) change in net working capital (in each case as set forth in “The Merger — Unaudited Prospective Financial Information — Cohu Unaudited Prospective Financial Information”).

Deutsche Bank derived the foregoing range of discount rates using a weighted average cost of capital analysis based on a risk free rate of 3.02% using the 20-year U.S. Treasury yield as of May 7, 2018 and certain other financial metrics, including betas, for Xcerra, Cohu and the other selected companies described above.

This analysis resulted in ranges of implied estimated equity value of $13.64 to $17.07 per share of Xcerra Common Stock without taking into account the synergies estimated by Cohu management to result from the Merger and $15.90 to $20.55 per share of Xcerra Common Stock taking into account the synergies estimated by Cohu management to result from the Merger.

Deutsche Bank noted that the implied value of the Merger Consideration of $9.00 in cash and 0.2109 of a share of Cohu Common Stock per share of Xcerra Common Stock was $13.92 based upon the $23.35 closing price of the Cohu Common Stock on May 7, 2018 and that the closing price of the Xcerra Common Stock on May 7, 2018 was $12.84 per share.

Selected Public Companies Analysis — Cohu

Deutsche Bank reviewed and compared certain financial information and commonly used valuation measurements for Cohu with corresponding financial information and valuation measurements for Xcerra and the publicly traded companies described under “The Merger — Opinion of Cohu’s Financial Advisor, Deutsche Bank—Selected Public Companies Analysis — Xcerra” above.

Although none of Xcerra or the other selected companies is directly comparable to Cohu, the companies included were chosen because they are publicly traded companies with financial and operating characteristics that, for purposes of analysis, may be considered similar to those of Cohu. Accordingly, the analysis of publicly traded companies was not simply mathematical. Rather, it involved complex considerations and qualitative judgments, reflected in the opinion of Deutsche Bank, concerning differences in financial and operating characteristics of the selected companies and other factors that could affect the public trading value of such companies.

Based on the closing prices of Cohu, Xcerra and each of the other selected companies on May 7, 2018, information contained in the most recent public disclosures of Cohu, Xcerra and the other selected companies, analyst consensus estimates of Adjusted EBITDA and EPS for Cohu, Xcerra and the other selected companies and Cohu estimates of Adjusted EBITDA and EPS for Cohu, Deutsche Bank calculated the following multiples for Cohu, Xcerra and each of the selected companies:

- TEV as a multiple of estimated CY2018 Adjusted EBITDA;

- TEV as a multiple of estimated CY 2019 Adjusted EBITDA;
- price as a multiple of CY 2018E estimated EPS; and
- price as a multiple of CY 2019E estimated EPS.

The results of this analysis are summarized as follows:

Selected Companies	TEV/CY 2018E Adjusted EBITDA	TEV/CY 2019E Adjusted EBITDA	P/CY 2018E EPS	P/CY 2019E EPS
High	11.6x	10.1x	18.3x	15.9x
Median (including Xcerra)	10.3x	7.6x	13.6x	10.3x
Low	5.2x	4.8x	7.9x	7.0x
Cohu
Consensus	8.6x	7.4x	13.8x	11.6x
Cohu Estimates	8.6x	7.2x	13.6x	11.5x

Based in part upon the TEV/Adjusted EBITDA and P/E multiples of the selected companies described above and taking into account their professional judgment and experience, Deutsche Bank calculated ranges of estimated implied value per share of Cohu Common Stock by:

- applying multiples of TEV to Cohu management estimates CY 2018 Adjusted EBITDA of 6.0x to 10.0x, resulting in a range of implied values of $17.63 to $26.41 per share of Cohu Common Stock;
- applying multiples of TEV to Cohu management estimates CY 2019 Adjusted EBITDA of 5.0x to 8.5x, resulting in a range of implied values of $17.57 to $26.76 per share of Cohu Common Stock;
- applying multiples of price to Cohu management estimates of CY 2018 EPS of 11.0x to 13.5x, resulting in a range of implied values of $18.86 to $23.15 per share of Cohu Common Stock; and
- applying multiples of price to Cohu management estimates of CY 2019 EPS of 9.5x to 11.5x, resulting in a range of implied values of $19.31 to $23.38 per share of Cohu Common Stock.

Deutsche Bank noted that the closing price of the Cohu Common Stock was $23.35 per share on May 7, 2018.

Discounted Cash Flow Analysis — Cohu

Deutsche Bank performed a discounted cash flow analysis of Cohu using financial forecasts and other information and data provided by Cohu management to calculate ranges of implied value of the Cohu Common Stock as of May 7, 2018. In performing the discounted cash flow analysis, Deutsche Bank applied a range of discount rates of 11.0% to 13.0% to (i) unlevered free cash flows expected to be generated by Cohu during calendar years 2018 through 2022, using the mid-year convention and (ii) estimated terminal values calculated using a range of perpetuity growth rates of 2.0% to 3.0%. For purposes of its financial analysis, Deutsche Bank calculated unlevered free cash flow as (a) Adjusted EBITDA, less (b) stock based compensation expense, less (c) cash taxes, less (d) capital expenditures, less (e) change in net working capital (in each case as set forth in “The Merger — Unaudited Prospective Financial Information — Cohu Unaudited Prospective Financial Information”).

Deutsche Bank derived the foregoing range of discount rates using a weighted average cost of capital analysis based on a risk free rate of 3.02% using the 20-year US Treasury yield as of May 7, 2018 and certain other financial metrics, including betas, for Cohu, Xcerra and the other selected companies described above.

This analysis resulted in ranges of implied estimated equity value of $21.83 to $27.78 per share of Cohu Common Stock.

Deutsche Bank noted that the closing price of the Cohu Common Stock was $23.35 per share on May 7, 2018.

Miscellaneous

The preparation of a fairness opinion is a complex process involving the application of subjective business and financial judgment in determining the most appropriate and relevant methods of financial analysis and the application of those methods to the particular circumstances and, therefore, is not readily susceptible to summary description. Deutsche Bank believes that its analyses must be considered as a whole and that considering any portion of such analyses and of the factors considered without considering all analyses and factors could create a misleading view of the process underlying its opinion. In arriving at its fairness determination, Deutsche Bank did not assign specific weights to any particular analyses.

In conducting its analyses and arriving at its opinion, Deutsche Bank utilized a variety of generally accepted valuation methods. The analyses were prepared solely for the purpose of enabling Deutsche Bank to provide its opinion to the Cohu Board as to the fairness, from a financial point of view, of the Merger Consideration to Cohu as of the date of its opinion and do not purport to be appraisals or necessarily reflect the prices at which businesses or securities actually may be sold, which are inherently subject to uncertainty. As described above, in connection with its analyses, Deutsche Bank made, and was provided by the management of Cohu with, numerous assumptions with respect to industry performance, general business and economic conditions and other matters, many of which are beyond the control of Deutsche Bank, Xcerra or Cohu. Analyses based on estimates or forecasts of future results are not necessarily indicative of actual past or future values or results, which may be significantly more or less favorable than suggested by such analyses. Because such analyses are inherently subject to uncertainty, being based upon numerous factors or events beyond the control of Xcerra, Cohu or their respective advisors, Deutsche Bank does not assume responsibility if future results or actual values are materially different from these forecasts or assumptions.

The terms of the Merger, including the Merger Consideration, were determined through arm's-length negotiations between Xcerra and Cohu and were approved by the Cohu Board. The decision to enter into the Merger was solely that of the Cohu Board. As described further under "The Merger — Recommendation of the Cohu Board and Cohu's Reasons for the Merger," the opinion and presentation of Deutsche Bank to the Cohu Board were only one of a number of factors taken into consideration by the Cohu Board in making its determination to approve the Merger Agreement and the transactions contemplated by it, including the Merger.

Opinion of Xcerra's Financial Advisor, Cowen

Xcerra retained Cowen to act as its exclusive financial advisor in connection with certain potential strategic transactions, including a possible sale of, or other business combination involving, Xcerra, and to render an opinion to the Xcerra Board as to the fairness, from a financial point of view, of the Merger Consideration of $9.00 in cash and 0.2109 of a share of Cohu Common Stock to be received by the Xcerra stockholders in the Merger.

On May 7, 2018, Cowen delivered its opinion to the Xcerra Board to the effect that, as of that date and subject to the various assumptions and limitations set forth therein, the Merger Consideration of $9.00 in cash and 0.2109 of a share of Cohu Common Stock to be received by the Xcerra stockholders in the Merger was fair, from a financial point of view, to such stockholders, other than Cohu and its affiliates. The full text of the written opinion of Cowen, dated May 7, 2018, is attached as Annex C hereto and is incorporated by reference. Xcerra encourages stockholders to read the opinion in its entirety for the assumptions made, procedures followed, other matters considered and limits of the review by Cowen. The summary of the written opinion of Cowen set forth herein is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of such opinion. Cowen's analyses and opinion were prepared for and addressed to the Xcerra Board and are directed only to the fairness, from a financial point of view, of the Merger Consideration of $9.00 in cash and 0.2109 of a share of Cohu Common Stock to be received by the Xcerra stockholders in the Merger, other than Cohu and its affiliates. Cowen's opinion is not a recommendation to any stockholder or any other person as to how to vote with respect to the Merger or to take any other action in connection with the Merger or otherwise.

In arriving at its opinion, Cowen reviewed and considered such financial and other matters as it deemed relevant, including, among other things:

- a draft of the Merger Agreement dated May 7, 2018;
- certain publicly available financial and other information for Xcerra and certain other relevant financial and operating data furnished to Cowen by the management of Xcerra;

- certain internal financial analyses, financial forecasts, reports and other information concerning Cohu prepared by the management of Cohu and approved for Cowen's use by the management of Xcerra, as described further in "The Merger — Unaudited Prospective Financial Information — Cohu Unaudited Prospective Financial Information" (referred to in this section as the "Cohu Forecasts") and, together with the Xcerra Forecasts, the "Forecasts");
- discussions Cowen has had with certain members of the management of Xcerra and Cohu concerning the historical and current business operations, financial condition and prospects of Xcerra and Cohu and such other matters Cowen deemed relevant;
- certain operating results of Xcerra and Cohu as compared to the operating results of certain publicly traded companies Cowen deemed relevant;
- the reported price and trading history of the shares of Xcerra Common Stock and Cohu Common Stock as compared to the reported price and trading histories of certain publicly traded companies Cowen deemed relevant;
- certain financial terms of the Merger as compared to the financial terms of certain selected business combinations Cowen deemed relevant; and
- such other information, financial studies, analyses and investigations and such other factors that Cowen deemed relevant for the purposes of its opinion.

In conducting its review and arriving at its opinion, Cowen, with the consent of the Xcerra Board, assumed and relied, without independent investigation, upon the accuracy and completeness of all financial and other information provided to it by Xcerra and Cohu, respectively, or which was publicly available or was otherwise reviewed by Cowen. Cowen did not undertake any responsibility for the accuracy, completeness or reasonableness of, or independent verification of, such information. Cowen relied upon, without independent verification, the assessment of the management of Xcerra as to the existing products and services of Xcerra and Cohu and the viability of, and risks associated with, the future products and services of Xcerra and Cohu. In addition, Cowen did not conduct, or assume any obligation to conduct, any physical inspection of the properties or facilities of Xcerra or Cohu. Cowen further relied upon the representation of Xcerra and Cohu that all information provided to it by Xcerra and Cohu, respectively, is accurate and complete in all material respects. Cowen, with the consent of the Xcerra Board, assumed that the Forecasts were reasonably prepared by the respective managements of Xcerra and Cohu on bases reflecting the best currently available estimates and good faith judgments of such managements as to the future performance of Xcerra and Cohu, as applicable, and that such Forecasts provided a reasonable basis for its opinion. Cowen expressed no opinion as to the Forecasts or the assumptions on which they were made. Cowen expressly disclaimed any undertaking or obligation to advise any person of any change in any fact or matter affecting its opinion of which Cowen became aware after the date of its opinion.

Cowen assumed that there were no material changes in the assets, liabilities, financial condition, results of operations, business or prospects of Xcerra or Cohu since the date of the last financial statements made available to Cowen. Cowen did not make or obtain any independent evaluations, valuations or appraisals of the assets or liabilities of Xcerra or Cohu, nor was Cowen furnished with such materials. In addition, Cowen did not evaluate the solvency or fair value of Xcerra, Cohu or Merger Sub under any state or federal laws relating to bankruptcy, insolvency or similar matters. Cowen's opinion does not address any legal, tax or accounting matters related to the Merger Agreement or the Merger, as to which it assumed that Xcerra and the Xcerra Board have received such advice from legal, tax and accounting advisors as each has determined appropriate. Cowen's opinion addressed only the fairness of the Merger Consideration, from a financial point of view, to the Xcerra stockholders, other than Cohu and its affiliates. Cowen expressed no view as to any other aspect or implication of the Merger or any other agreement, arrangement or understanding entered into in connection with the Merger or otherwise. Cowen's opinion was necessarily based upon economic and market conditions and other circumstances as they existed and could be evaluated by Cowen on the date of its opinion. It should be understood that, although subsequent developments may affect Cowen's opinion, Cowen does not have any obligation to update, revise or reaffirm its opinion and Cowen expressly disclaims any responsibility to do so. Cowen expressed no opinion as to what the value of Cohu Common Stock actually will be when issued or the prices at which Cohu Common Stock will trade at any time, including following announcement or consummation of the Merger.

Cowen did not consider any potential legislative or regulatory changes currently being considered or recently enacted by the United States or any foreign government, or any domestic or foreign regulatory body, or any changes in accounting methods or generally accepted accounting principles that may be adopted by the SEC, the Financial Accounting Standards Board, or any similar foreign regulatory body or board.

For purposes of rendering its opinion, Cowen assumed, in all respects material to its analysis, that the representations and warranties of each party contained in the Merger Agreement are true and correct, that each party will perform all of the covenants and agreements required to be performed by it under the Merger Agreement and that all conditions to the consummation of the Merger will be satisfied without waiver thereof. Cowen assumed that the final form of the Merger Agreement would be substantially similar to the last draft reviewed by Cowen. Cowen also assumed that all governmental, regulatory and other consents and approvals contemplated by the Merger Agreement would be obtained and that in the course of obtaining any of those consents no restrictions would be imposed or waivers made that would have an adverse effect on the contemplated benefits of the Merger. Cowen assumed that the Merger will be consummated in a manner that complies with the applicable provisions of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, the Exchange Act and all other applicable state or federal statutes, rules and regulations.

Cowen's opinion was intended for the benefit and use of the Xcerra Board in its consideration of the financial terms of the Merger. Cowen's opinion may not be disclosed, referred to, or communicated (in whole or in part) to any third party for any purpose whatsoever except with Cowen's prior written approval. However, Cowen's opinion may be reproduced in full in disclosure documents relating to the Merger which Xcerra is required to file under the Exchange Act, including this joint proxy statement/prospectus. Cowen's opinion does not constitute a recommendation to any stockholder of Xcerra or any other person as to how to vote with respect to the Merger or to take any other action in connection with the Merger or otherwise. Cowen was not requested to opine as to, and its opinion does not in any manner address, Xcerra's underlying business decision to effect the Merger or the relative merits of the Merger as compared to other business strategies or transactions that might be available to Xcerra. In addition, Cowen was not requested to opine as to, and its opinion does not in any manner address, the fairness of the amount or nature of the compensation to any of Xcerra's officers, directors or employees, or class of such persons, relative to the compensation to the public Xcerra stockholders or whether CoHu has sufficient cash, available lines of credit or other sources of funds to enable it to pay the Merger Consideration.

Summary of Material Financial Analyses

The following is a summary of the material financial analyses performed by Cowen to arrive at its opinion. Some of the summaries of financial analyses include information presented in tabular format. In order to fully understand the financial analyses, the tables must be read together with the text of each summary. The tables alone do not constitute a complete description of the financial analyses. Considering the data set forth in the tables without considering the full narrative description of the financial analyses, including the methodologies and assumptions underlying the analyses, could create a misleading or incomplete view of the financial analyses. Cowen performed certain procedures, including each of the financial analyses described below, and reviewed with the Xcerra Board and the management of Xcerra the assumptions on which such analyses were based and other factors, including the historical and projected financial results of Xcerra.

Based upon the information presented above, Cowen's experience in the semiconductor capital equipment industry and its professional judgment, Cowen selected implied reference multiple ranges. The following table presents the implied value per share based on the selected multiple ranges using Xcerra's historical LTM revenue, Adjusted EBITDA and Non-GAAP EPS (LTM period ending January 31, 2018) and Xcerra's forecasted NTM revenue, Adjusted EBITDA and Non-GAAP EPS (NTM period ending January 31, 2019), in each case compared to the Implied Merger Consideration as of market close on May 4, 2018 of $13.77, comprised of $9.00 in cash and 0.2109 of a share of Cohu Common Stock.

Although the Xcerra Selected Transactions were used for comparison purposes, none of those transactions is directly comparable to the Merger, and none of the target companies in those transactions is directly comparable to Xcerra. Accordingly, an analysis of the results of such a comparison is not purely mathematical, but instead involves complex considerations and judgments concerning differences in historical and projected financial and operating characteristics of the target companies involved and other factors that could affect the acquisition value of such companies or Xcerra to which they are being compared.

Discounted Cash Flow Analysis

Cowen estimated a range of values for the shares of Xcerra Common Stock based upon the discounted present value of Xcerra's projected unlevered free cash flow for the three-month period ending on July 31, 2018 and the full fiscal years ending in 2019 through 2022 and the terminal value of Xcerra based on multiples of Xcerra's forecasted Adjusted EBITDA for Xcerra's fiscal year ending in 2023, and assuming a Merger closing date of April 30, 2018. Cowen calculated unlevered free cash flow based on financial forecast information provided by Xcerra management as (a) Adjusted EBITDA, less (b) stock based compensation expense, less (c) cash taxes, less (d) capital expenditures, less (e) change in net working capital (in each case as set forth in "The Merger—Unaudited Prospective Financial Information—Xcerra Unaudited Prospective Financial Information"), and this analysis was based upon certain assumptions described by, projections supplied by and discussions held with the management of Xcerra. In performing this analysis, Cowen utilized discount rates ranging from 12.0% to 14.0%, which were selected based on the estimated weighted average cost of capital of Xcerra. Cowen utilized terminal multiples of Adjusted EBITDA ranging from 6.0x to 8.0x, which range was selected by Cowen in its professional judgment. In performing this analysis, Cowen also calculated the present value of Xcerra's estimated United States federal and 18 state net operating loss carry forwards, as estimated and provided by the management of Xcerra, discounted to present value at a discount rate of 13.1%, which was selected based on Xcerra's estimated cost of equity.

Utilizing this methodology, the implied value per share ranged from $12.81 to $15.82, compared to the Implied Merger Consideration as of market close on May 4, 2018 of $13.77, comprised of $9.00 in cash and 0.2109 of a share of Cohu Common Stock. The range of discount ranges and terminal multiples described above implied a range of perpetuity growth rates based on Xcerra's estimated unlevered free cash flow in the terminal year of 2.8% to 6.8%.

Discounted Cash Flow Analysis

Cowen estimated a range of values for the shares of Cohu Common Stock based upon the discounted present value of Cohu's projected unlevered free cash flow for the eight-month period ending on December 31, 2018 and the full fiscal years ending in 2019 through 2022 and the terminal value of Cohu based on multiples of Cohu's forecasted Adjusted EBITDA for Cohu's fiscal year ending in 2023, and assuming a Merger closing date of April 30, 2018. Cowen calculated unlevered free cash flow based on financial forecast information provided by or at the direction of Cohu management as (a) Adjusted EBITDA, less (b) stock based compensation expense, less (c) cash taxes, less (d) capital expenditures, less (e) change in net working capital (in each case as set forth in "The Merger—Unaudited Prospective Financial Information—Cohu Unaudited Prospective Financial Information"), and this analysis was based upon certain assumptions described by, projections supplied by and discussions held with the management of Cohu. In performing this analysis, Cowen utilized discount rates ranging from 9.5% to 11.5%, which were selected based on the estimates derived from a weighted average cost of capital analysis of Cohu. Cowen utilized terminal multiples of Adjusted EBITDA ranging from 6.0x to 8.0x, which range was selected by Cowen in its professional judgment.

Utilizing this methodology, the implied value per share ranged from $22.37 to $27.93, compared to the closing price as of May 4, 2018 of $22.60 per share of Cohu Common Stock. The range of discount ranges and terminal multiples described above implied a range of perpetuity growth rates based on Cohu's estimated unlevered free cash flow in the terminal year of (0.7)% to 3.6%.

General

The summary set forth above does not purport to be a complete description of all the analyses performed by Cowen. The preparation of a fairness opinion involves various determinations as to the most appropriate and relevant methods of financial analysis and the application of these methods to the particular circumstances and, therefore, such an opinion is not readily susceptible to partial analysis or summary description. Cowen did not attribute any particular weight to any analysis or factor considered by it, but rather made qualitative judgments as to the significance and relevance of each analysis and factor. Accordingly, notwithstanding the separate factors summarized above, Cowen believes, and has advised the Xcerra Board, that its analyses must be considered as a whole and that selecting portions of its analyses and the factors considered by it, without considering all analyses and factors, could create an incomplete view of the process underlying its opinion. In performing its analyses,

Cowen made numerous assumptions with respect to industry performance, business and economic conditions and other matters, many of which are beyond the control of Xcerra or Cohu, as applicable. These analyses performed by Cowen are not necessarily indicative of actual values or future results, which may be significantly more or less favorable than suggested by such analyses. In addition, analyses relating to the value of businesses do not purport to be appraisals or to reflect the prices at which businesses or securities may actually be sold. Accordingly, such analyses and estimates are inherently subject to uncertainty, being based upon numerous factors or events beyond the control of the parties or their respective advisors. None of Xcerra, Cohu, Cowen or any other person assumes responsibility if future results are materially different from those projected. The analyses supplied by Cowen and its opinion were among several factors taken into consideration by the Xcerra Board in making its decision to approve the Merger Agreement and should not be considered as determinative of such decision.

Cowen was selected by Xcerra to render an opinion to the Xcerra Board because of Cowen's familiarity with Xcerra, because Cowen is a nationally recognized investment banking firm and because, as part of its investment banking business, Cowen is continually engaged in the valuation of businesses and their securities in connection with mergers and acquisitions, negotiated underwritings, secondary distributions of listed and unlisted securities, private placements and valuations for corporate and other purposes. In addition, in the ordinary course of its business, Cowen and its affiliates may actively trade or hold the securities of Xcerra, Cohu and/or their respective affiliates for their own account and for the accounts of their customers, and, accordingly, may at any time hold a long or short position in such securities. In the two years preceding the date of its opinion, Cowen has provided investment banking services to Xcerra and has received fees for the rendering of such services in the amount of $525,000, and has not provided investment banking services to Cohu or any other party to the Merger Agreement. Cowen and its affiliates may in the future provide investment banking services to Xcerra and Cohu and may receive fees for the rendering of such services. The issuance of Cowen's opinion was approved by Cowen's Fairness Opinion Review Committee.

Pursuant to the engagement letter between Cowen and Xcerra, Cowen will be entitled to receive a transaction fee estimated to be approximately $8 million, $500,000 of which became payable upon Cowen rendering its opinion, which is creditable, together with a $500,000 fee that was paid to Cowen in connection with an opinion it delivered to the Xcerra Board in April 2017, against such transaction fee, and the balance of which is contingent upon the consummation of the Merger. Additionally, Xcerra has agreed to reimburse Cowen for certain of its out-of-pocket expenses, including attorneys' fees (against which expenses, other than attorneys' fees, the retainer fees received by Cowen will be credited), and has agreed to indemnify Cowen against certain liabilities, including liabilities under the federal securities laws. The terms of the fee arrangement with Cowen were negotiated at arm's length between Xcerra and Cowen, and the Xcerra Board was aware of the arrangement, including the fact that a significant portion of the fee payable to Cowen is contingent upon the consummation of the Merger.

Cohu Unaudited Prospective Financial Information

Cohu does not normally publicly disclose long-term projections with respect to future revenue, earnings or other results due to, among other reasons, the uncertainty, unpredictability and subjectivity of the underlying assumptions and estimates. However, in connection with the evaluation of the Merger, Cohu provided representatives of Deutsche Bank, Xcerra and Cowen with certain non-public, unaudited financial forecasts relating to Cohu that were prepared by management of Cohu (the "Cohu Management Projections"). The Cohu Management Projections for fiscal years 2018 through 2020 were prepared as part of Cohu's annual strategic planning process conducted in September 2017, as part of Cohu's 2018 operating plan analysis conducted in December 2017, and then updated by Cohu management in May 2018 including the addition of management normalized growth estimates for 2021 and 2022. Cohu also provided to representatives of Deutsche Bank certain non-public unaudited financial forecasts relating to Xcerra that were provided by Xcerra and adjusted by Cohu

Xcerra Unaudited Prospective Financial Information

In the normal course of business planning, in early May of each year Xcerra's management prepares, for internal use, certain unaudited prospective financial information with respect to Xcerra's business plans for the immediately succeeding fiscal year (the "Annual Operating Plan" or "AOP"). The AOP is based on a "bottoms-up" analysis of Xcerra's prospects, with input from the managers of each of Xcerra's business units. This prospective information is part of Xcerra's annual internal planning and performance goal setting processes and is discussed, reviewed and approved by the Xcerra Board annually.

In connection with the Merger and the other transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement, Xcerra's management updated and expanded certain financial forecasts regarding Xcerra (for the purposes of this section, the "Xcerra Forecasts" means each of the Xcerra FY 2018 — FY 2019 Forecast and the Xcerra FY 2018 — FY 2023 Forecast, each as described below). In developing the Xcerra Forecasts, Xcerra's management made assumptions with respect to industry performance, general business, economic, regulatory, litigation, geopolitical, market and financial conditions, as well as Xcerra specific factors such as supply and demand trends, the status of, and estimated revenues from, new products and services, effective tax rate and utilization of net operating losses, all of which are difficult to predict, and many of which are beyond Xcerra's control. The Xcerra Forecasts were updated on a different basis, for a different purpose and at a different time than Xcerra's public guidance as to Xcerra's future financial performance and on a different basis, for a different purpose and at a different time than other internal financial forecasts that Xcerra's management may prepare for its own use or for the use of the Xcerra Board in evaluating Xcerra's business. The Xcerra Forecasts were therefore updated solely in connection with the evaluation of the Merger and do not, and were not intended to, update or revise Xcerra's public guidance as to its future financial performance.

The Xcerra FY 2018 — FY 2019 Forecast

The Xcerra FY 2018 — FY 2019 Forecast was prepared by Xcerra's management in the ordinary course of business for use at the Xcerra Board's March 30, 2018 meeting for purposes of evaluating Xcerra's business and included projections for Xcerra's third and fourth quarter of its 2018 fiscal year as well as for Xcerra's full 2019 fiscal year. The Xcerra FY 2018 — FY 2019 Forecast was based upon certain assumptions regarding Xcerra-specific factors such as supply and demand trends and the status, and estimated revenues from, new products and services, and general business, market and financial conditions. The Xcerra FY 2018 — FY 2019 Forecast was delivered by members of Xcerra's management to representatives of Cohu. The Xcerra FY 2018 – FY 2019 Forecast was prepared on a stand-alone basis and therefore does not reflect any effect of an acquisition of Xcerra by Cohu, any of its affiliates or any other party or any other strategic transaction involving Xcerra. The below table is a summary of the Xcerra FY 2018 — FY 2019 Forecast.

Interests of Cohu Directors and Executive Officers in the Merger

When considering the recommendation of the Cohu Board with respect to the Stock Issuance Proposal, Cohu stockholders should be aware that some directors and executive officers of Cohu may have interests in the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement that may be different from, or in addition to, their interests as Cohu stockholders and the interests of Cohu stockholders generally.

A member of the Cohu Board owns 3,333 shares of Xcerra Common Stock, which the director acquired in 2008. As of [●], the value of those shares was $[●]. The director's interest in Xcerra is limited to the economic value of those shares. The Cohu Board considered the director's economic interest in Xcerra Common Stock in connection with the Cohu Board's evaluation and negotiation of the Merger Agreement and the Merger, and determined that (a) the director's interest in Xcerra was not material to the director and (b) such interest thus would not have an impact on the director's ability to exercise independent judgment with respect to Cohu's decision to enter into the Merger Agreement or to recommend that Cohu stockholders vote for the Stock Issuance Proposal. While it is expected that the director will vote such director's shares of Xcerra Common Stock in favor of the Xcerra proposal to approve the Merger Agreement, such director has not entered into any binding agreement to do so.

The members of the Cohu Board were aware of and considered these interests, among other matters, in evaluating and negotiating the Merger Agreement and the Merger, and in recommending that Cohu stockholders vote for the Stock Issuance Proposal.

Interests of Xcerra Directors and Executive Officers in the Merger

When considering the recommendation of the Xcerra Board that Xcerra stockholders vote to approve the Merger Agreement, Xcerra stockholders should be aware that Xcerra's directors and executive officers have interests in the Merger that are different from, or in addition to, the interests of Xcerra stockholders generally, as more fully described below. The Xcerra Board was aware of and considered these interests to the extent that they existed at the time, among other matters, in approving the Merger Agreement and the Merger and recommending that the Merger Agreement be approved by Xcerra stockholders.

Arrangements with Cohu

As of the date of this joint proxy statement/prospectus none of Xcerra's executive officers has entered into any agreement with Cohu or any of its affiliates regarding employment with, or the right to purchase or participate in the equity of, the Surviving Corporation or one or more of its affiliates. Prior to or following the closing of the Merger, certain of Xcerra's executive officers may have discussions, or may enter into agreements with, Cohu or Merger Sub or their respective affiliates regarding employment with, or the right to purchase or participate in the equity of, the Surviving Corporation or one or more of its affiliates, including Cohu.

The New Cohu Board is expected to include two directors from the current Xcerra Board (the "Xcerra Designees"). The Cohu Board presently consists of six directors, including Cohu's Chief Executive Officer. It is currently expected that the compensation to be paid to the Xcerra Designees in connection with their service on the New Cohu Board will be to the same as the compensation paid to directors of the Cohu Board immediately prior to the Effective Time. For a discussion of the New Cohu Board, please see the section of this joint proxy statement/prospectus captioned "The Merger — Board of Directors and Management after the Transaction."

Change-of-Control Employment Agreements

Messrs. Tacelli and Gallenberger are each party to a Change-of-Control Employment Agreement with Xcerra (a "Change-of-Control Employment Agreement"). Each Change-of-Control Employment Agreement provides for certain separation benefits in the event that the applicable executive's employment is terminated by

Xcerra (or a successor entity) other than for “cause,” death, or “disability” or by the executive for “good reason,” (as such terms are defined in the Change-of-Control Employment Agreement) during the three years following the closing date of the Merger, or for any reason during the 30-day period following the first anniversary of the closing date of the Merger (or upon certain terminations prior to the Merger or in connection with or in anticipation of the Merger), as described further in the section of this joint proxy statement/prospectus captioned “The Merger Agreement — Potential Payments Upon Termination or Change-in-Control.”

For estimates of the amounts that would be payable to Messrs. Tacelli and Gallenberger upon a qualifying termination of their employment following the Merger, see the section below titled “The Merger Agreement — Potential Payments Upon Termination or Change-in-Control — Golden Parachute Compensation.”

Executive Employment Agreements

Mr. Rondé is party to an employment agreement with Xcerra’s French subsidiary. Mr. Rondé’s employment agreement provides for separation benefits in the event that his employment is terminated by Xcerra, except in the case of his gross or willful misconduct, subject to Mr. Rondé executing and not revoking an Xcerra provided settlement agreement, as described in further in the section of this joint proxy statement/prospectus captioned “The Merger Agreement — Potential Payments Upon Termination or Change-in-Control.”

For an estimate of the amounts that would be payable to Mr. Rondé upon a termination of his employment, see the section below titled “The Merger Agreement — Potential Payments Upon Termination or Change-in-Control — Golden Parachute Compensation.”

Insurance and Indemnification of Directors and Executive Officers

The Merger Agreement provides that the Surviving Corporation and its subsidiaries will (and Cohu will cause the Surviving Corporation and its subsidiaries to) honor and fulfill in all respects the obligations of Xcerra and its subsidiaries under (i) any and all indemnification agreements between Xcerra or any of its subsidiaries, any of their respective current or former directors and officers as of the date of the Merger Agreement pursuant to the terms of such agreements as in effect as of the date of the Merger Agreement and any person who becomes a director or officer of Xcerra or any of its subsidiaries prior to the Effective Time and executes an indemnification agreement on terms no less favorable to Xcerra and no more favorable to such person than the current form of indemnification agreement with its directors that has been made available to Cohu and (ii) any and all indemnification, expense advancement and exculpation provisions in any articles of organization or bylaws or comparable organizational document of Xcerra or any of its subsidiaries in effect on the date of the Merger Agreement, in each case until the sixth anniversary of the Effective Time.

The Merger Agreement also provides that, for a period of six years from the Effective Time, the Surviving Corporation and its subsidiaries will (and Cohu will cause the Surviving Corporation and its subsidiaries to) cause the articles of organization, bylaws or other organizational documents of the Surviving Corporation and its subsidiaries to contain provisions with respect to indemnification, exculpation, advancement of expenses and limitation of director and officer liability that are at least as favorable to the current or former directors and officers of Xcerra and its subsidiaries as those set forth in Xcerra’s and its subsidiaries’ organizational documents as of the date of the Merger Agreement. The Merger Agreement further provides that the Surviving Corporation and its subsidiaries will not, for a period of six years from the Effective Time, amend, repeal or otherwise modify such provisions in the organizational documents in any manner that would adversely affect the rights of the current or former directors and officers of Xcerra and its subsidiaries.

The Merger Agreement also provides that, prior to the Effective Time, Xcerra will purchase a six year prepaid “tail” policy on Xcerra’s current officers and directors liability insurance, provided that Xcerra will not pay, and Cohu and the Surviving Corporation will not be obligated to pay, annual premiums in excess of 300% of the amount paid by Xcerra for such coverage for its last full fiscal year. The Surviving Corporation will (and Cohu will cause the Surviving Corporation to) maintain such “tail” policy in full force and effect. The “tail” policy will cover claims arising from facts, events, acts or omissions that occurred at or prior to the Effective Time, including the transactions contemplated in the Merger Agreement.

Treatment of Restricted Stock Units

As of July 16, 2018, there were 2,222,257 outstanding Xcerra RSUs, of which 1,090,250 were held by Xcerra’s directors and executive officers.

At the Effective Time, each Vested RSU will be cancelled and terminated as of the Effective Time and the holder thereof will receive an amount in cash (without interest) equal to the Vested RSU Consideration. The Surviving Corporation will pay each holder of a Vested RSU the Vested RSU Consideration on either (i) the first regularly scheduled payroll date after the closing of the Merger or (ii) if such payroll date is scheduled for payment prior to the fifth business day after the closing of the Merger, the second regularly scheduled payroll date after the closing of the Merger.

At the Effective Time, each Unvested RSU will be converted into an Assumed RSU.

For a more complete description of the treatment of Xcerra RSUs, see the section of this joint proxy statement/prospectus captioned “The Merger Agreement — Treatment of Equity-Based Awards.”

For estimates of the amounts that would be payable to Xcerra’s named executive officers in settlement of their Vested RSUs and Assumed RSUs, see the section below titled “The Merger Agreement — Potential Payments Upon Termination or Change-in-Control — Golden Parachute Compensation.”

2010 Stock Plan

The 2010 Stock Plan provides that all Unvested RSUs will become vested in full if the participant is terminated without “cause” (as defined in the 2010 Stock Plan) by Xcerra or an acquiring or succeeding corporation within one year after a “change in control event” (as defined in the 2010 Stock Plan and which includes the Merger). In summary, “cause” is defined in the 2010 Stock Plan as (i) willful failure by the participant, which failure is not cured within 30 days of written notice to the participant from Xcerra, to perform his or her material responsibilities to Xcerra or (ii) willful misconduct by the participant which affects the business reputation of Xcerra, with the participant being considered to have been discharged for “cause” if Xcerra determines, within 30 days after the participant’s resignation, that discharge for cause was warranted.

Treatment of Purchase Rights under the Employee Stock Purchase Plan

Pursuant to the Merger Agreement, Xcerra will not establish any new offering period under the Xcerra ESPP and Xcerra will take all actions necessary so that (i) any offering period and purchase period (or similar period during which shares may be purchased) underway as of the date of the Merger Agreement under the Xcerra ESPP is terminated as of the Final Exercise Date; (ii) any pro-rata adjustments that may be necessary to reflect any shortened offering period or purchase period (or similar period) are made and so that any such shortened offering period or purchase period (or similar period) is treated as a fully effective and completed offering period or purchase period, as applicable, for all purposes under the Xcerra ESPP; (iii) each participant’s shares purchase right under the Xcerra ESPP outstanding as of the Final Exercise Date are exercised as of the Final Exercise Date; (iv) no further offering periods or purchase periods (or similar periods during which shares may be purchased) will commence under the Xcerra ESPP on or after the date of the Merger Agreement; (v) no participant in the Xcerra ESPP may increase the rate of his or her contributions to the Xcerra ESPP on or after the date of the Merger Agreement; (vi) no individual who is not participating in the Xcerra ESPP as of the date of the Merger Agreement may commence participation in the Xcerra ESPP on or after the date of the Merger Agreement; and (vii) the Xcerra ESPP is terminated as of the Final Exercise Date, provided, however, that termination of the Xcerra ESPP will be subject to the consummation of the Merger.

Golden Parachute Compensation

In accordance with Section 14A of the Exchange Act, Xcerra is providing its stockholders with the opportunity to cast an advisory (non-binding) vote on the compensation that may be paid or become payable to its named executive officers in connection with the Merger, as determined in accordance with Item 402(t) of Regulation S-K. The following table and accompanying narrative provide the information about that compensation that is required to be disclosed and subject to the advisory vote pursuant to SEC rules. Pursuant to the SEC rules, the disclosure provided below includes compensation to the named executive officers, whether present, deferred or contingent, that is based on or otherwise relates to the Merger.

The amounts set forth in the table below, which represent an estimate of each named executive officer’s transaction-related compensation, as of July 16, 2018, assume the following:

- a closing date of the Merger of July 16, 2018;
- Messrs. Tacelli and Gallenberger are terminated by Xcerra other than for “cause” (within the meaning of their Change-of-Control Employment Agreements and the 2010 Stock Plan), death or “disability” or by the executive for “good reason” (within the meaning of their Change-of-Control Employment Agreements), and Mr. Rondé is terminated by Xcerra for any reason, except gross or willful misconduct by Mr. Rondé and without “cause” (as defined in the 2010 Stock Plan), in each case, immediately following the Merger, entitling each named executive officer to receive the severance payments and benefits under the terms of such named executive officer’s Change-of-Control Employment Agreement, for Messrs. Tacelli and Gallenberger, and employment agreement, for Mr. Rondé, and each of the named executive officers to receive the acceleration of his Unvested RSUs pursuant to the terms of the 2010 Stock Plan; and
- the value of each Vested RSU is $14.36, and the value of the acceleration of each Assumed RSU is equal to the full value of an Assumed RSU, which is also $14.36, as described in footnote 2 to the table below.

Please note that the amounts reported below are estimates based on multiple assumptions that may or may not actually occur, including the assumptions described above and those described in “The Merger — Interests of Xcerra Directors and Executive Officers in the Merger.” As a result, the actual merger-related compensation, if any, to be received by any of Xcerra’s named executive officers may differ in material respects from the amounts set forth below.

For a narrative description of the terms and conditions applicable to the payments quantified in the table below, see “The Merger — Interests of Xcerra Directors and Executive Officers in the Merger,” which is incorporated herein by reference.

(1) Amount represents the cash severance that Messrs. Tacelli and Gallenberger are eligible to receive upon a qualifying termination of their employment immediately following a change of control of Xcerra assuming such date is July 16, 2018. For Messrs. Tacelli and Gallenberger, this amount represents the sum of (i) the named executive officer’s prorated Highest Annual Bonus (as defined in the Change-of-Control Employment Agreements) and (ii) two times the sum of the named executive officer’s current base salary and such executive officer’s Highest Annual Bonus. The cash severance payments are “double-trigger” in nature as they will only be payable in the event of a qualifying termination of employment on or following the completion of the Merger. In the case of Mr. Rondé, this amount represents that cash severance that he is eligible to receive upon a termination by Xcerra for any reason, except in the case of gross or willful misconduct, under his employment agreement. This amount represents Mr. Rondé's current annual base salary, a pro-rata portion of his target annual incentive bonus for 2018 and his full target annual incentive bonus for 2018. The annual base salary and the Highest Annual Bonus for each of Messrs. Tacelli, and Gallenberger, and target incentive bonus for Mr. Rondé as of the assumed termination date are as follows:

Name	Base Salary ($)	Highest Annual Bonus ($)	2018 Annual Target Bonus ($)
David G. Tacelli	624,000	535,658	312,000
Mark J. Gallenberger	426,400	366,033	213,200
Pascal Rondé (6)	330,398	n/a	165,199

- (2) Pursuant to the terms and conditions of the 2010 Stock Plan, each named executive officer of Xcerra would be entitled to certain accelerated vesting of his outstanding Unvested RSUs if the executive officer is terminated without "cause" (as such term is defined in the 2010 Stock Plan) within one year following the assumed date of the completion of the Merger (July 16, 2018). Pursuant to the Merger Agreement, Unvested RSUs will be assumed by Cohu and shall be converted into Assumed RSUs as described in further detail in the section of this joint proxy statement/prospectus captioned "The Merger Agreement — Treatment of Equity-Based Awards." The acceleration of Assumed RSUs is "double trigger" in nature as such acceleration will occur only in the event of a qualifying termination of employment on or following the completion of the Merger. The amounts in this column reflect the value for each named executive officer of the Vested RSUs and the Unvested RSUs (which, in turn, is the value of the Assumed RSUs into which such Unvested RSUs will be converted at the Effective Time). The value of each Vested RSU is assumed to equal $14.36, which is the sum of (x) $9.00 plus (y) $5.36 (which is 0.2109 multiplied by $25.45, the closing price of Cohu common stock on July 16, 2018). The value of the acceleration of each Assumed RSU is assumed to equal $14.36 (which is the Equity Award Exchange Ratio assuming a Cohu common stock value of $25.45, or 0.5855, multiplied by $25.45).

The amounts for each named executive officer represent the following amounts:

Name	RSUs Held (#)	Value of RSUs ($)
David G. Tacelli	540,000	7,758,399
Mark J. Gallenberger	337,500	4,848,980
Pascal Rondé (6)	152,750	2,194,596

- (3) Amount represents continued health benefits for two years provided to Messrs. Tacelli and Gallenberger under their Change-of-Control Employment Agreements, as described in further detail in the section of this joint proxy statement/prospectus above captioned "The Merger Agreement — Potential Payments Upon Termination or Change-in-Control" and is based on the type of insurance coverage Xcerra carried for Messrs. Tacelli and Gallenberger as of July 16, 2018 and is valued at the premiums then in effect. These benefits are "double-trigger" in nature as they will only be provided in the event of a qualifying termination of employment following the completion of the Merger.
- (4) The Change-of-Control Employment Agreements with Messrs. Tacelli and Gallenberger provide for a full gross up of any golden parachute excise taxes due under Section 4999 of the Code, as described in further detail in the section of this joint proxy statement/prospectus above captioned "The Merger Agreement — Potential Payments Upon Termination or Change-in-Control." Any such gross up payments are "single-trigger" in nature as some of such payments will become payable immediately upon the completion of the Merger, whether or not employment is terminated, while other amounts are "double-trigger" in nature as they will become payable only if employment is terminated on or following the closing of the Merger. The closing of the Merger is not expected to trigger any excise taxes under Section 4999 of the Code to Messrs. Tacelli and Gallenberger, and thus, the estimated amount of gross up payments for each

- of them is zero. The employment agreement with Mr. Rondé does not provide for a gross up to cover any taxes payable by Mr. Rondé.
- (5) Amount represents the maximum amount of outplacement services provided to Messrs. Tacelli and Gallenberger under their Change-of-Control Employment Agreements, as described in further in the section of this joint proxy statement/prospectus captioned “The Merger Agreement — Potential Payments Upon Termination or Change-in-Control.” These benefits are “double-trigger” in nature as they will only be provided in the event of a qualifying termination of employment following the completion of the Merger.
- (6) Amounts paid to Mr. Rondé are paid in Euros. To calculate the conversion of Euro to U.S. Dollars (USD), in accordance with SEC rules, Xcerra used an exchange ratio of €1.00 to $1.1710, the Euro to USD exchange rate in effect on July 16, 2018.

Equity Interests of Xcerra’s Executive Officers and Non-Employee Directors

The following table sets forth the number of shares of Xcerra Common Stock and the number of shares of Xcerra Common Stock underlying equity awards currently held by each of Xcerra’s executive officers and non-employee directors, in each case that either are currently vested or that will vest in connection with the Merger, as of July 16, 2018. The table also sets forth the values of these shares and equity awards based on the Merger Consideration. No new shares of Xcerra Common Stock or equity awards were granted to any executive officer or non-employee director in contemplation of the Merger.

Effect of the Merger on Xcerra’s Equity Awards

As of July 16, 2018, there were 2,222,257 Xcerra RSUs outstanding, of which 1,090,250 were held by Xcerra’s directors and executive officers.

At the Effective Time, each Vested RSU will be cancelled and terminated as of the Effective Time and the holder thereof will receive an amount in cash (without interest) equal to the Vested RSU Consideration. The Surviving Corporation will pay each holder of a Vested RSU the Vested RSU Consideration on either (i) the first regularly scheduled payroll date after the closing of the Merger or (ii) if such payroll date is scheduled for payment prior to the fifth business day after the closing of the Merger, the second regularly scheduled payroll date after the closing of the Merger.

At the Effective Time, each Unvested RSU will be converted into an Assumed RSU.

Pursuant to the Merger Agreement, Xcerra will not establish any new offering period under the Xcerra ESPP and Xcerra will take all actions necessary so that (i) any offering period and purchase period (or similar period during which shares may be purchased) underway as of the date of the Merger Agreement under the Xcerra ESPP is terminated as of the Final Exercise Date; (ii) any pro-rata adjustments that may be necessary to reflect any shortened offering period or purchase period (or similar period) are made and so that any such shortened offering period or purchase period (or similar period) is treated as a fully effective and completed offering period or purchase period, as applicable, for all purposes under the Xcerra ESPP; (iii) each participant’s shares purchase right under the Xcerra ESPP outstanding as of the Final Exercise Date are exercised as of the Final Exercise Date; (iv) no further offering periods or purchase periods (or similar periods during which shares may be purchased) will commence under the Xcerra ESPP on or after the date of the Merger Agreement; (v) no participant in the Xcerra ESPP may increase the rate of his or her contributions to the Xcerra ESPP on or after the date of the Merger Agreement; (vi) no individual who is not participating in the Xcerra ESPP as of the date of the Merger Agreement may commence participation in the Xcerra ESPP on or after the date of the Merger Agreement; and (vii) the Xcerra ESPP is terminated as of the Final Exercise Date, provided, however, that termination of the Xcerra ESPP will be subject to the consummation of the Merger.

Regulatory Approvals Required for the Merger

The completion of the Merger is subject to compliance with the HSR Act. The notifications required under the HSR Act to the U.S. Federal Trade Commission and the Antitrust Division, were filed on May 25, 2018, and the transaction is currently under review by the Antitrust Division. Under the HSR Act, the Merger may not be completed until the required 30-day HSR waiting period has expired or been terminated. The original waiting period was originally scheduled to expire on June 25, 2018. On June 25, 2018 in consultation with Xcerra, Cohu voluntarily withdrew its HSR Act notification, and re-filed the notification and report form under the HSR Act with the U.S. Federal Trade Commission and the Antitrust Division on June 27, 2018, which restarted the 30-day waiting period as of the date the notification was re-filed. The waiting period with respect to the re-filed notification and report form expires at 11:59 p.m., Pacific Time, on July 27, 2018, unless it is shortened by a grant of early termination or extended by the Antitrust Division issuing a request for additional information, also known as a “second request.” If a second request is issued, the transaction cannot close until 30 days after substantial compliance with the second request unless the parties otherwise agree with the Antitrust Division not to close the transaction, enter into a consent decree with the Antitrust Division, or the Antitrust Division concludes its investigation and grants early termination of the second waiting period.

The completion of the Merger is also subject to compliance with applicable foreign antitrust laws. The GWB requires pre-merger notification of and approval by the FCO. The Merger may not be completed until either the FCO clears the merger or the mandatory waiting period expires. The parties have filed with the FCO on June 16, 2018. On July 16, 2018, the FCO issued a decision in which it granted clearance.

Cohu and Xcerra have agreed to use their reasonable best efforts, subject to specified limitations, to take, or cause to be taken, all actions necessary, proper or advisable under applicable antitrust laws and regulations, including the HSR Act and other applicable foreign antitrust laws, to complete the Merger as promptly as reasonably practical under the circumstances. See “The Merger Agreement — Conditions to Completion of the Merger” for more information.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, in connection with obtaining HSR Act antitrust clearance or non-U.S. antitrust clearances, none of Cohu, Merger Sub or Xcerra is required to (i) defend through legal proceedings on the merits any claim asserted in any court to the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement by any party, including appeals; (ii) to agree or proffer to limit or not to exercise any rights of ownership of any securities or agree or proffer to enter into any agreement that limits the ownership or operation of, or freedom of action with respect to, any respective business of Cohu or any of its subsidiaries or Xcerra or any of its subsidiaries; (iii) to agree to any term or take any action that is not conditioned upon the consummation of the Merger and the other transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement; or (iv) to agree to any term or take any action that would result in the sale, license, assignment, transfer or other divestiture or disposition of, holding separate or any other limitation on, (A) in the case of businesses, services, products or assets of Xcerra and its subsidiaries, any such businesses, services, products or assets that generated aggregate revenue for the twelve month period ended December 30, 2017 greater than $20.0 million and (B) in the case of businesses, services, products or assets of Cohu and its subsidiaries, any such businesses, services, products or assets that generated aggregate revenue for the twelve month period ended December 30, 2017 of greater than $4.0 million. Additionally, none of Cohu, Merger Sub or Xcerra is required to agree to any sale, license, assignment, transfer or other divestiture or disposition of, holding separate or any other limitation on products or services that have not yet been commercialized (including those under development or in the research, planning, prototyping, design, pre-production, evaluation or testing phases). See “The Merger Agreement — Efforts to Complete the Merger” for more information.

Legal Proceedings

On July 23, 2018, a putative shareholder class action complaint was filed in the United States District Court for the District of Massachusetts against Xcerra and each member of the Xcerra Board, captioned Xinkang Shui v. Xcerra Corporation, et al., C.A. No. 1:18-cv-11529. The complaint alleges, among other things, that Xcerra and each member of the Xcerra Board violated federal securities laws and regulations by soliciting stockholder votes in connection with the Merger through a proxy statement that purportedly omits material facts necessary to make the statements therein not false or misleading. The complaint seeks, among other things, either to enjoin Xcerra from conducting the stockholder vote on the Merger unless and until the allegedly omitted material information is disclosed or, in the event the Merger is consummated, to recover damages.

Xcerra is reviewing the complaint and has not yet formally responded to it, but believes that the plaintiffs’ allegations are without merit and intends to defend against them vigorously. However, litigation is inherently uncertain and there can be no assurance regarding the likelihood that Xcerra’s defense of the actions will be successful. Additional complaints containing substantially similar allegations may be filed in the future.

Dividend Policy

The payment of dividends by Cohu after the Merger is subject to the determination of the Cohu Board. The Merger Agreement does not permit Cohu to pay dividends other than (A) regular quarterly cash dividends payable by Cohu in respect of Cohu Common Stock in the ordinary course of business consistent with past practice in an amount not exceeding $0.06 per share of Cohu Common Stock in any fiscal quarter and with record dates that are not earlier than the applicable record dates set forth in the confidential disclosure letter to the Merger Agreement or (B) dividends and distributions paid by a direct or indirect wholly owned subsidiary of Cohu to Cohu or another direct or indirect wholly owned subsidiary of Cohu. Decisions regarding whether or not to pay dividends and the amount of any dividends will be based on the judgment of the Cohu Board, compliance with the DGCL, compliance with the Merger Agreement and with agreements governing Cohu’s indebtedness (including the Facilities (as defined below)), earnings, cash requirements, results of operations, cash flows and financial condition and other factors that the Cohu Board may consider important. While Cohu anticipates that if the Merger were consummated it would continue to pay dividends, Cohu can make no assurances that this will be the case in the future.

Financing Relating to the Merger

In connection with the proposed Merger, on May 7, 2018, Cohu obtained the Commitment Letter from Deutsche Bank AG New York Branch, the Lender, pursuant to which the Lender (acting alone or through or with affiliates selected by it) has committed to provide the Term Facility, with an aggregate principal amount of up to $350.0 million, and if cash on hand of Xcerra is not available at the closing of the Merger, the Cash Bridge Facility, with an aggregate principal amount of up to $100.0 million, to finance a portion of the Cash Consideration and pay related costs and expenses. In addition, the Commitment Letter contains provisions that would govern a potential revolving credit facility (at Cohu’s option). The obligations of the Lender to provide the Facilities are subject to a number of customary conditions, including, without limitation, execution and delivery of definitive documentation consistent with the Commitment Letter and the documentation standard specified therein. The Commitment Letter terminates upon the earliest of (i) the valid termination or abandonment of the Merger Agreement prior to the consummation of the Merger, (ii) the consummation of the Merger without the use of such Facility, and (iii) the Termination Date (including as extended in accordance with the Merger Agreement).

Subject to the terms and conditions of the Commitment Letter, the Lender has committed to provide the full amount of the Term Facility and the full amount of the Bridge Facility (the “Debt Financing”) on the Closing Date. The proceeds of the Term Facility and the Bridge Facility will be used, together with cash on hand of Cohu and Xcerra and/or other available financing resources, (i) to finance the Cash Consideration payable pursuant to the terms of the Merger Agreement and (ii) to pay certain transaction costs and expenses.

The Lender’s commitments under the Commitment Letter include conditions typical for facilities of this kind including, without limitation, the execution and delivery of the definitive financing documentation, completion of the Merger, the non-occurrence of a Company Material Adverse Effect (as defined in the Merger Agreement and described in “The Merger Agreement — Representations and Warranties”) on Xcerra, the accuracy in all material respects of certain representations and warranties related to both Cohu and Xcerra, the delivery of certain financial statements of Cohu and Xcerra.

Amortization and Maturity. Subject to the terms and conditions of the Commitment Letter, the Term Facility will amortize in equal quarterly installments in aggregate annual amounts equal to 1% of the original principal amount of the Term Facility, with the balance payable on the date that is seven years after the initial funding under the Facilities (the “Funding Date”). The Bridge Facility will mature on the date that is thirty days after the Funding Date. The Bridge Facility does not require any amortization.

Prepayments and Redemptions. Except for prepayment premiums applicable to certain repricing transactions with respect to the term loans, voluntary reductions of the unutilized portion of the Facilities and prepayments of borrowings under the Facilities will be permitted at any time, in minimum principal amounts, without premium or penalty.

Subject to certain exceptions and thresholds, the Term Facility will be required to be prepaid with proceeds relating to (i) excess cash flow, (ii) non-ordinary course asset sales or other dispositions and (iii) the issuance of certain debt obligations.

Guarantee and Security. The Term Facility and Bridge Facility will be senior secured obligations of Cohu and certain of its subsidiaries.

Covenants and Events of Default. The Facilities will contain a number of negative covenants (to be applicable to Cohu and its restricted subsidiaries) that, subject to certain exceptions, include limitations on (among other things):

- liens;
- indebtedness;
- mergers, consolidations or other fundamental changes;
- sales of property and assets;
- loans, acquisitions, joint ventures and other investments;
- dividends and share repurchases;
- prepayment or redemption of junior and subordinated indebtedness;
- transactions with affiliates;
- negative pledge clauses;
- changes in the nature of business;
- amendments to organizational documents or junior debt documents in a manner adverse to the Lender; and
- changes in fiscal quarters or fiscal years.

Listing of Cohu Common Stock and Delisting of Xcerra Common Stock

Cohu will use its reasonable best efforts to cause the shares of Xcerra Common Stock to be issued in the Merger to be approved for listing on NASDAQ, subject to official notice of issuance, prior to the Effective Time. Approval of the listing on NASDAQ of such shares of Cohu Common Stock to be issued in the Merger pursuant to the Merger Agreement is a condition to each party's obligation to complete the Merger. If the Merger is completed, shares of Xcerra Common Stock will be delisted from NASDAQ and will be deregistered under the Exchange Act.

Appraisal Rights for Xcerra Stockholders

Under the provisions of Part 13 of the MBCA, a stockholder of a Massachusetts corporation is entitled to appraisal rights, and payment of the fair value of his, her or its shares, in the event of certain corporate actions. Appraisal rights offer stockholders the ability to demand payment in cash of the fair value of their shares in the event they are dissatisfied with the consideration that they are to receive in connection with the corporate action. Under Section 13.02(a)(1) of the MBCA, stockholders of a Massachusetts corporation generally are entitled to appraisal rights in the event of a merger, but such rights are subject to certain exceptions. Under the MBCA, Xcerra is required to state whether it has concluded that Xcerra stockholders are, are not or may be entitled to assert appraisal rights. Xcerra has concluded that Xcerra stockholders may be entitled to appraisal rights.

Any Xcerra stockholder who believes that he, she or it is entitled to appraisal rights and who wishes to preserve those rights should carefully review Part 13 of the MBCA, a copy of which is attached to this proxy statement/prospectus as Annex D, which sets forth the procedures to be complied with in perfecting any such rights. Failure to strictly comply with the procedures specified in Part 13 of the MBCA could result in the loss of any appraisal rights to which Xcerra stockholders may be entitled. To the extent any Xcerra stockholder seeks to assert appraisal rights but is determined by a court not to be entitled to such appraisal rights (or was entitled to exercise such appraisal rights but failed to take all necessary action to perfect them or effectively withdraws or loses them), such stockholder will be entitled to receive the Merger Consideration, without interest.

Under the MBCA, Xcerra stockholders who perfect their rights to appraisal in accordance with Part 13 of the MBCA and do not thereafter withdraw their demands for appraisal or otherwise lose their appraisal rights, in each case in accordance with the MBCA, will be entitled to demand payment of the "fair value" of their shares of Xcerra Common Stock, together with interest, each as determined under Part 13 of the MBCA. The fair value of the shares is the value of the shares immediately before the Effective Time, excluding any element of value arising from the expectation or accomplishment of the Merger, unless exclusion would be inequitable. Xcerra stockholders should be aware that the fair value of their shares of Xcerra Common Stock as determined by Part 13 of the MBCA could be more than, the same as or less than the Merger Consideration they would receive pursuant to the Merger if they did not seek appraisal of their shares.

Xcerra stockholders who wish to exercise appraisal rights or to preserve their right to do so should review the following discussion and Part 13 of the MBCA carefully. Xcerra stockholders who fail to timely and properly comply with the procedures specified could lose their appraisal rights. If a broker, bank or other nominee holds your shares of Xcerra Common Stock and you wish to assert appraisal rights, you must instruct your nominee to take the steps necessary to enable you to assert appraisal rights. If you or your nominee fails to follow all of the steps required by the MBCA, you could lose any right to demand appraisal of your shares. You should note that a vote in favor of the Merger Agreement will result in the waiver of any right that you would otherwise have to demand payment for your shares under the appraisal rights provisions of the MBCA.

An Xcerra stockholder who wishes to assert appraisal rights must deliver written notice of such stockholder's intent to demand payment to Xcerra's principal offices at the following address: Xcerra Corporation, 825 University Avenue, Norwood, Massachusetts 02062, Attention: Corporate Secretary. If Xcerra does not receive an Xcerra stockholder's written notice of intent to demand payment prior to the vote at the

Xcerra Special Meeting, or if such stockholder votes, or causes or permits to be voted, his, her or its shares of Xcerra Common Stock in favor of approval of the Merger Agreement, such stockholder will not be entitled to any appraisal rights under the provisions of the MBCA and will instead only be entitled to receive the Merger Consideration. The submission of a proxy card voting “against” or “abstaining” on the Merger Agreement proposal will not constitute sufficient notice of an Xcerra stockholder’s intent to demand payment to satisfy Part 13 of the MBCA.

Only a holder of record of shares of Xcerra Common Stock (“Xcerra Record Holder”) may exercise appraisal rights. Except as described below, an Xcerra stockholder may assert appraisal rights only if such stockholder seeks such rights with respect to all of his, her or its shares. An Xcerra Record Holder may assert appraisal rights as to fewer than all the shares registered in his, her or its name but owned by a beneficial Xcerra stockholder only if the Xcerra Record Holder objects with respect to all shares of the class or series owned by the beneficial Xcerra stockholder and notifies Xcerra in writing of the name and address of each beneficial Xcerra stockholder on whose behalf appraisal rights are being asserted. The rights of an Xcerra Record Holder who asserts appraisal rights for only part of the shares held of record in the Xcerra Record Holder’s name will be determined as if the shares as to which the Xcerra Record Holder objects and the Xcerra Record Holder’s other shares were registered in the names of different Xcerra Record Holders.

If the Merger is completed, Part 13 of the MBCA requires Xcerra to deliver a written appraisal notice to all Xcerra stockholders who satisfied the requirements described above. The appraisal notice must be sent by Xcerra no earlier than the date the Merger becomes effective and no later than 10 days after such date. The appraisal notice must include a copy of Part 13 of the MBCA and a certification form that specifies the date of the first announcement to Xcerra stockholders of the principal terms of the Merger and requires the Xcerra stockholder asserting appraisal rights to certify (1) whether or not beneficial ownership of the shares for which appraisal rights are asserted was acquired before the announcement date and (2) that the Xcerra stockholder did not vote in favor of the Merger Agreement. The appraisal notice also must state:

- the date by which Xcerra must receive the certification form, which may not be fewer than 40 nor more than 60 days after the date the appraisal notice and certification form are sent to Xcerra stockholders demanding appraisal, and that the Xcerra stockholder waives the right to demand appraisal with respect to the shares unless Xcerra receives the certification form by such date;
- where the certification form must be sent and where certificates for certificated shares must be deposited and the date by which the certificates must be deposited;
- Xcerra’s estimate of the fair value of the shares;
- that, if requested by the Xcerra stockholder in writing, Xcerra will provide the number of Xcerra stockholders who return certification forms by the due date and the total number of shares owned by them; and
- the date by which the notice to withdraw a demand for appraisal must be received.

Once an Xcerra stockholder deposits his, her or its certificates or, in the case of uncertificated shares, returns the executed certification form, the stockholder loses all rights as a stockholder unless the stockholder withdraws from the appraisal process by notifying Xcerra in writing by the withdrawal deadline. An Xcerra stockholder who does not withdraw from the appraisal process in this manner may not later withdraw without Xcerra’s written consent. An Xcerra stockholder who does not execute and return the form (and in the case of certificated shares, deposit such stockholder’s share certificates) by the due date will not be entitled to payment under Part 13 of the MBCA.

Part 13 of the MBCA provides for certain differences in the rights of stockholders exercising appraisal rights depending on whether their shares are acquired before or after the announcement of a merger. Except with respect to shares acquired after the announcement date of May 7, 2018, Xcerra must pay in cash to those Xcerra stockholders who are entitled to appraisal rights and have complied with the procedural requirements of Part 13 of the MBCA, the amount that Xcerra estimates to be the fair value of their shares, plus interest. Interest accrues from the Effective Time until the date of payment, at the average rate currently paid by Xcerra on its principal bank loans or, if none, at a rate that is fair and equitable under all the circumstances. This payment must be made by Xcerra within 30 days after the due date of the certification form, and must be accompanied by:

- recent financial statements of Xcerra;
- a statement of Xcerra's estimate of the fair value of the shares, which estimate must equal or exceed Xcerra's estimate given in the appraisal notice; and
- a statement that Xcerra stockholders who complied with the procedural requirements have the right, if dissatisfied with such payment, to demand further payment as described below.

An Xcerra stockholder who has been paid Xcerra's estimated fair value and is dissatisfied with the amount of the payment must notify Xcerra in writing of his, her or its estimate of the fair value of the shares and demand payment of that estimate plus interest, less the payment already made. An Xcerra stockholder who fails to notify Xcerra in writing of his, her or its demand to be paid such stockholder's stated estimate of the fair value plus interest within 30 days after receiving Xcerra's payment waives the right to demand further payment and will be entitled only to the payment made by Xcerra based on Xcerra's estimate of the fair value of the shares.

Xcerra may withhold payment from Xcerra stockholders who are entitled to appraisal rights but did not certify that beneficial ownership of all of such stockholder's shares for which appraisal rights are asserted was acquired before the announcement date. If Xcerra elects to withhold payment, it must provide such Xcerra stockholders notice of certain information within 30 days after the due date of the certification form, including Xcerra's estimate of fair value and the stockholder's right to accept Xcerra's estimate of fair value, plus interest, in full satisfaction of the stockholder's demand. Those Xcerra stockholders who wish to accept the offer must notify Xcerra of their acceptance within 30 days after receiving the offer. Within 10 days after receiving an Xcerra stockholder's acceptance, Xcerra must pay in cash the amount it offered in full satisfaction of the accepting stockholder's demand.

An Xcerra stockholder offered payment who is dissatisfied with that offer must reject the offer and demand payment of his, her or its stated estimate of the fair value of such stockholder's shares, plus interest. An Xcerra stockholder who fails to notify Xcerra in writing of his, her or its demand to be paid his, her or its stated estimate of the fair value plus interest within 30 days after receiving Xcerra's offer of payment waives the right to demand payment and will be entitled only to the payment offered by Xcerra based on Xcerra's estimate of the fair value of the shares. Those Xcerra stockholders who do not reject Xcerra's offer in a timely manner will be deemed to have accepted Xcerra's offer, and Xcerra must pay to them in cash the amount it offered to pay within 40 days after sending the offer.

If an Xcerra stockholder makes a demand for payment which remains unsettled, Xcerra must commence an equitable proceeding in Norfolk Superior Court, Commonwealth of Massachusetts, within 60 days after receiving the payment demand and petition the court to determine the fair value of the shares and accrued interest. If Xcerra does not commence the proceeding within the 60-day period, it must pay in cash to each Xcerra stockholder the amount such stockholder demanded, plus interest. Xcerra must make all Xcerra stockholders whose demands remain unsettled parties to the proceeding as an action against their shares, and all parties must be served with a copy of the petition. Each Xcerra stockholder made a party to the proceeding is entitled to judgment (1) for the amount, if any, by which the court finds the fair value of the stockholder's shares, plus interest, exceeds the amount paid by Xcerra to the stockholder for such shares or (2) the fair value, plus interest, of the stockholder's shares for which Xcerra elected to withhold payment.

The court in an appraisal proceeding must determine all costs of the proceeding, including the reasonable compensation and expenses of appraisers appointed by the court. The court must assess any costs against Xcerra, except that the court may assess costs against all or some of the Xcerra stockholders demanding appraisal, in amounts the court finds equitable, to the extent the court finds such stockholders acted arbitrarily, vexatiously, or not in good faith with respect to the rights provided by Part 13 of the MBCA. The court in an appraisal proceeding may also assess the fees and expenses of counsel and experts for the respective parties, in amounts the court finds equitable:

- against Xcerra and in favor of any or all Xcerra stockholders demanding appraisal if the court finds Xcerra did not substantially comply with its requirements under Part 13 of the MBCA; or
- against either Xcerra or an Xcerra stockholder demanding appraisal, in favor of any other party, if the court finds that the party against whom the fees and expenses are assessed acted arbitrarily, vexatiously, or not in good faith with respect to the rights provided by Part 13 of the MBCA.

If the court in an appraisal proceeding finds that the services of counsel for any Xcerra stockholder were of substantial benefit to other Xcerra stockholders similarly situated, and that the fees for those services should not be assessed against Xcerra, the court may award to such counsel reasonable fees to be paid out of the amounts awarded the stockholders who were benefited. To the extent Xcerra fails to make a required payment pursuant to Part 13 of the MBCA, the Xcerra stockholder may sue directly for the amount owed and, to the extent successful, will be entitled to recover from Xcerra all costs and expenses of the suit, including counsel fees.

The foregoing discussion is not a complete statement of the law pertaining to appraisal rights under the MBCA and is qualified in its entirety by the full text of Part 13 of the MBCA, which is attached to this proxy statement/prospectus as Annex D. Xcerra stockholders should consult with their advisors, including legal counsel, in connection with any demand for appraisal.

Accounting Treatment

The Merger will be accounted for as a business combination using the “acquisition” method of accounting with Cohu as the accounting acquirer. Cohu’s stockholders immediately prior to the Effective Time will continue to own the majority of the Cohu Common Stock after the consummation of the Merger.

THE MERGER AGREEMENT

Explanatory Note Regarding the Merger Agreement

The following summary describes the material provisions of the Merger Agreement. The descriptions of the Merger Agreement in this summary and elsewhere in this joint proxy statement/prospectus are not complete and are qualified in their entirety by reference to the Merger Agreement, a copy of which is included as Annex A to this joint proxy statement/prospectus and which is incorporated into this joint proxy statement/prospectus by reference. Cohu stockholders and Xcerra stockholders are encouraged to read the Merger Agreement carefully and in its entirety because this summary may not contain all the information about the Merger Agreement that is important to you. The rights and obligations of the parties are governed by the express terms of the Merger Agreement and not by this summary or any other information contained in this joint proxy statement/prospectus. The representations and warranties may also be subject to a contractual standard of materiality different from those generally applicable to reports and documents filed with the SEC and in some cases were qualified by confidential matters disclosed to Cohu and Merger Sub by Xcerra in connection with the Merger Agreement. In addition, the representations and warranties may have been included in the Merger Agreement for the purpose of allocating contractual risk between Xcerra, Cohu and Merger Sub rather than to establish matters as facts, and may be subject to standards of materiality applicable to such parties that differ from those applicable to investors. Stockholders are not third-party beneficiaries under the Merger Agreement and should not rely on the representations, warranties, covenants and agreements or any descriptions thereof as characterizations of the actual state of facts or condition of Xcerra, Cohu or Merger Sub or any of their respective affiliates or businesses. Moreover, information concerning the subject matter of the representations and warranties may change after the date of the Merger Agreement. In addition, you should not rely on the covenants in the Merger Agreement as actual limitations on the respective businesses of Xcerra, Cohu and Merger Sub, because the parties may take certain actions that are either expressly permitted in the confidential disclosure letter to the Merger Agreement or as otherwise consented to by the appropriate party, which consent may be given without prior notice to the public. Effects of the Merger; Directors and Officers; Articles of Organization; Bylaws

The Merger Agreement provides that, subject to the terms and conditions of the Merger Agreement and the applicable provisions of the MCBA and the DGCL, at the Effective Time, (1) Merger Sub will be merged with and into Xcerra, with Xcerra becoming a wholly owned subsidiary of Cohu; and (2) the separate corporate existence of Merger Sub will thereupon cease. From and after the Effective Time, the Surviving Corporation will possess all properties, rights, privileges, powers and franchises of Xcerra and Merger Sub, and all of the debts, liabilities and duties of Xcerra and Merger Sub will become the debts, liabilities and duties of the Surviving Corporation.

The parties will take all necessary action to ensure that, effective as of, and immediately following, the Effective Time, the board of directors of the Surviving Corporation will consist of the directors of Merger Sub at the Effective Time, to hold office in accordance with the articles of organization and bylaws of the Surviving Corporation until their resignation or removal or until their successors are duly elected or appointed and qualified. From and after the Effective Time, the officers of Xcerra immediately prior to the Effective Time will be the officers of the Surviving Corporation, until their resignation or removal or until their successors are duly appointed. At the Effective Time, the articles of organization of Xcerra as the Surviving Corporation will be amended and restated in their entirety in the form of Exhibit A to the Merger Agreement, and the bylaws of Merger Sub, as in effect immediately prior to the Effective Time, will become the bylaws of the Surviving Corporation (with such changes, to be effective at the Effective Time, as Cohu may propose) until thereafter amended.

Closing and Effective Time

The closing of the Merger will take place no later than the second business day following the satisfaction or waiver of all conditions to closing of the Merger (described below under the caption “The Merger Agreement — Conditions to the Closing of the Merger”) (other than those conditions to be satisfied at the closing of the Merger, but subject to satisfaction or waiver, if permitted, of those conditions) or such other time agreed to in writing by Cohu, Xcerra and Merger Sub. Notwithstanding the satisfaction or waiver of all conditions to closing of the Merger, Cohu and Merger Sub will not be obligated to effect the closing of the Merger prior to the earlier to occur of (a) any Business Day during the Marketing Period (as defined below) specified by Cohu on no less than three business days’ written notice to Xcerra and (b) the first business day following the final day of the Marketing Period, but subject, in each case, to the satisfaction (or, to the extent permitted, waiver) of the conditions to closing of the Merger (other than those conditions that by their nature are only capable of being satisfied at the closing of the Merger, but subject to the satisfaction or written waiver (where permissible) of those conditions at the closing of the Merger).

For purposes of the Merger Agreement, the “Marketing Period” is defined as the first period of twenty consecutive business days, subject to certain terms and excluded dates set forth in the Merger Agreement, commencing after the first date on which, and throughout which period, (i) Cohu will have received from Xcerra certain required financing information in connection with the financing (as described further below in “The Merger Agreement — Financing”) and such financing information meets certain requirements set forth in the Merger Agreement, (ii) the conditions to each party’s obligation to effect the Merger and the conditions to the obligations of Cohu and Merger Sub have been satisfied (other than conditions that would only be capable of being satisfied at the closing of the Merger) and (iii) nothing has occurred and no condition or state of facts exists that would cause any of such conditions to fail to be satisfied assuming the closing were to be scheduled for any time during such twenty consecutive business day period.

Merger Consideration

Common Stock

At the Effective Time, each outstanding share of Xcerra Common Stock (other than Cancelled Shares and dissenting company shares) will be converted into the right to receive the Merger Consideration (which consists of (a) the Cash Consideration of $9.00 per share, without interest and less any applicable withholding taxes, and (b) the Stock Consideration of 0.2109 of a validly issued, fully paid and nonassessable share of Cohu Common Stock). All shares converted into the right to receive the Merger Consideration will automatically be cancelled at the Effective Time.

Treatment of Equity-Based Awards

Table of Contents

At the Effective Time, each Vested RSU will be cancelled and terminated as of the Effective Time and the holder thereof will receive an amount in cash (without interest) equal to the Vested RSU Consideration. The Surviving Corporation will pay each holder of a Vested RSU the Vested RSU Consideration on either (i) the first regularly scheduled payroll date after the closing of the Merger or (ii) if such payroll date is scheduled for payment prior to the fifth business day after the closing of the Merger, the second regularly scheduled payroll date after the closing of the Merger.

At the Effective Time, each Unvested RSU will be converted into an Assumed RSU.

Treatment of Purchase Rights under the Employee Stock Purchase Plan

Pursuant to the Merger Agreement, Xcerra will not establish any new offering period under the Xcerra ESPP and Xcerra will take all action necessary so that (i) any offering period and purchase period (or similar period during which shares may be purchased) underway as of the date of the Merger Agreement under the Xcerra ESPP is terminated as of the Final Exercise Date; (ii) any pro-rata adjustments that may be necessary to reflect any shortened offering period or purchase period (or similar period) are made and so that any such shortened offering period or purchase period (or similar period) is treated as a fully effective and completed offering period or purchase period, as applicable, for all purposes under the Xcerra ESPP; (iii) each participant's shares purchase right under the Xcerra ESPP outstanding as of the Final Exercise Date are exercised as of the Final Exercise Date; (iv) no further offering periods or purchase periods (or similar periods during which shares may be purchased) will commence under the Xcerra ESPP on or after the date of the Merger Agreement; (v) no participant in the Xcerra ESPP may increase the rate of his or her contributions to the Xcerra ESPP on or after the date of the Merger Agreement; (vi) no individual who is not participating in the Xcerra ESPP as of the date of the Merger Agreement may commence participation in the Xcerra ESPP on or after the date of the Merger Agreement; and (vii) the Xcerra ESPP is terminated as of the Final Exercise Date, provided, however, that termination of the Xcerra ESPP will be subject to the consummation of the Merger.

Potential Payments Upon Termination or Change-in-Control

Change-of-Control Employment Agreements

Messrs. Tacelli and Gallenberger are, individually, party to a Change-of-Control Employment Agreement with Xcerra, originally entered into in 1998 and 2000, respectively. Each agreement has a three-year term that extends for one year upon the anniversary date of the agreement unless a notice not to extend is given by us. Under each of the Change-of-Control Employment Agreements, if a "change of control" (as defined in the agreement and which includes the Merger) of Xcerra occurs during the term of an agreement, then the agreement becomes operative for a fixed three-year period. Each agreement provides generally that the applicable executive's terms and conditions of employment (including position, location, compensation and benefits) will not be adversely changed during the three-year period after a change of control of Xcerra. If Xcerra terminates the executive's employment other than for "cause," death or "disability" or if the executive terminates for "good reason" (as such terms are defined in the agreement) during such three-year period or for any reason during the 30-day period following the first anniversary of the change of control (or upon certain terminations prior to a change of control or in connection with or in anticipation of a change of control), the executive is entitled to receive the following severance compensation:

- a lump sum cash payment equal to Xcerra's accrued obligations through the date of termination for base pay and a prorated bonus based upon the annual variable incentive compensation paid for the most recently completed fiscal year (the "Highest Annual Bonus");
- an amount equal to two times the executive's base salary plus the Highest Annual Bonus, payable in a lump sum cash payment (for Mr. Tacelli) or in installments over 12 months (for Mr. Gallenberger);
- continued health benefits for two years; and

- outplacement services through the end of the second calendar year following the year in which the executive's termination occurs, up to a maximum cost to Xcerra of $30,000.

The Change-of-Control Employment Agreements also provide for a tax gross up payment to cover any excise tax under Section 4999 of the Code due on any compensation (whether under the Change-of-Control Employment Agreements or otherwise), including any additional federal, state and local income tax consequences resulting therefrom, provided that such gross up payment shall be made only if the present value of the compensatory payments exceeds 110% of such payments reduced to the extent that would not give rise to any excise tax.

For purposes of the Change-of-Control Employment Agreements, "cause" means the occurrence of any of the following, as determined in good faith by the applicable executive:

- the willful and continued failure of the executive to perform substantially the executive's duties with Xcerra or one of its affiliates (other than any such failure resulting from incapacity due to physical or mental illness), after a written demand for substantial performance is delivered to the executive by the Xcerra Board or the Chief Executive Officer of Xcerra which specifically identifies the manner in which the Xcerra Board or Chief Executive Officer believes that the executive has not substantially performed the executive's duties, or;
- the willful engaging by the executive in illegal conduct or gross misconduct which is materially and demonstrably injurious to Xcerra.

No act or failure to act, on the part of the executive, will be considered "willful" unless it is done, or omitted to be done, by the executive in bad faith or without reasonable belief that the executive's action or omission was in the best interests of Xcerra. Any act, or failure to act, based upon authority given pursuant to a resolution duly adopted by the Xcerra Board or upon the instructions of the Chief Executive Officer or a senior officer of Xcerra or based upon the advice of counsel for Xcerra shall be conclusively presumed to be done, or omitted to be done, by the executive in good faith and in the best interests of Xcerra. The cessation of employment of the executive shall not be deemed to be for cause unless and until there shall have been delivered to the executive a copy of a resolution duly adopted by the affirmative vote of not less than three-quarters of the entire membership of the Xcerra Board at a meeting of the Xcerra Board called and held for such purpose (after reasonable notice is provided to the executive and the executive is given an opportunity, together with counsel, to be heard before the Xcerra Board), finding that, in the good faith opinion of the Xcerra Board, the executive is guilty of the conduct described above, and specifying the particulars thereof in detail.

For purposes of the Change-of-Control Employment Agreements, "good reason" means the occurrence of any of the following, as determined in good faith by the applicable executive:

- the assignment to the executive of any duties inconsistent in any respect with the executive's position (including status, offices, titles and reporting requirements), authority, duties or responsibilities as contemplated by the agreement, or any other action by Xcerra which results in a diminution in such position, authority, duties or responsibilities, excluding for this purpose an isolated, insubstantial and inadvertent action not taken in bad faith and which is remedied by Xcerra promptly after receipt of notice thereof given by the executive;
- any failure by Xcerra to comply with any of the provisions of the agreement setting forth the executive's compensation, other than an isolated, insubstantial and inadvertent failure not occurring in bad faith and which is remedied by Xcerra promptly after receipt of notice thereof given by the executive;
- Xcerra's requiring the executive to be based at any office or location other than as provided in the agreement or Xcerra's requiring the executive to travel on Xcerra business to a substantially greater extent than required immediately prior to the date a change of control occurs;

Table of Contents

- any purported termination by Xcerra of the executive's employment otherwise than as expressly permitted by the agreement; or
- any failure by Xcerra to comply with and satisfy the provision of the agreement requiring any successor to assume the agreement.

For purposes of the Change-of-Control Employment Agreements, "Change of Control" is generally defined as any of the following:

- the acquisition by a person or group of 20% or more of Xcerra's outstanding stock;
- a change of a majority of the Xcerra Board without approval of the Xcerra Board;
- the consummation of a reorganization, merger, consolidation or asset sale, except where Xcerra stockholders receive 50% or more of the stock of the resulting company, at least a majority of the board of the resulting company was on the Xcerra Board of Xcerra prior to the transaction and after which no shareholder owns 20% or more of the stock of the resulting company which did not own such stock immediately prior to the transaction; or
- the approval of a liquidation or dissolution of Xcerra.

Executive Employment Agreements

Messrs. Tacelli and Gallenberger are also each party to an employment agreement with Xcerra that provides that if the executive's employment is terminated by Xcerra other than for "cause," death, or disability or by the executive for "good reason" (as such terms are defined in the agreement) at any time, the executive will be entitled to receive cash severance and continuation of health benefits, among other things, subject to the executive's execution of a release of claims. However, in the event the executive becomes entitled to severance or benefits under his Change-of-Control Employment Agreement with Xcerra, the executive will no longer be entitled to the severance benefits under the terms of the executive's employment agreement. Therefore, if Messrs. Tacelli and Gallenberger are terminated by Xcerra other than for "cause," death or "disability" or by the executive for "good reason," or for any other reason solely during the 30-day period following the first anniversary of the completion of the Merger (or upon certain terminations prior to the Merger or in connection with or in anticipation of the Merger), the executive will not be entitled to receive severance benefits under the terms of the executive's employment agreement and, accordingly, such benefits and terms are not summarized in this Proxy Statement.

Mr. Rondé is also party to an employment agreement with Xcerra's French subsidiary. Under the terms of Mr. Rondé's employment agreement, Mr. Rondé is entitled to receive the following compensation in the event his employment is terminated by Xcerra, except in the case of his gross or willful misconduct, subject to Mr. Rondé executing and not revoking an Xcerra provided settlement agreement:

- a termination indemnity equal to one year of Mr. Rondé's gross base salary, inclusive of any amount of dismissal or retirement indemnity that Mr. Rondé may otherwise be entitled to under any applicable collective bargaining agreement;
- a pro rata portion of Mr. Rondé's target annual incentive bonus (based on the target bonus percentage in effect as of the termination date); and
- an amount equal to Mr. Rondé's target annual incentive bonus (based on the target bonus percentage in effect as of the termination date).

Pursuant to the Collective Bargaining Agreement of "Metallurgie (ingenieurs et cadres)," which is applicable to all employees of Xcerra's French subsidiary, if Mr. Rondé retires he may be entitled to receive a social payment from Xcerra. In Mr. Rondé's case, such social payment could be an amount up to two months of his then current salary. To the extent that Xcerra is required to make the severance payments described above to Mr. Rondé, Xcerra will not be required to make the social payment under the collective bargaining agreement.

Exchange and Payment Procedures

Prior to the closing of the Merger, Cohu will designate a U.S. bank or trust company (the “Exchange Agent”) to make payments of the Merger Consideration to Xcerra stockholders. At the closing of the Merger, Cohu will deposit or cause to be deposited with the Exchange Agent cash and evidence of the Cohu Common Stock sufficient to pay the aggregate Merger Consideration to Xcerra stockholders.

Promptly following the Effective Time, the Exchange Agent will send to each Xcerra Record Holder a letter of transmittal and instructions advising such Xcerra stockholders how to surrender stock certificates and book-entry shares in exchange for their portion of the Merger Consideration. Upon receipt of (1) surrendered certificates (or affidavits of loss in lieu thereof) or book-entry shares representing shares of Xcerra Common Stock; and (2) a signed letter of transmittal and such other documents as may be required pursuant to such instructions, the holder of such shares will be entitled to receive their portion of the Merger Consideration in exchange therefor. The amount of any Merger Consideration paid to Xcerra stockholders may be reduced by any applicable withholding taxes.

If any cash deposited with the Exchange Agent is not claimed within nine months following the Effective Time, such cash will be delivered to the Surviving Corporation, upon demand, and any Xcerra stockholders who have not complied with the exchange procedures in the Merger Agreement will thereafter look only to the Surviving Corporation, as general creditor for payment of the Merger Consideration.

The letter of transmittal will include instructions if an Xcerra stockholder has lost a share certificate or if such certificate has been stolen or destroyed. In the event any certificates have been lost, stolen or destroyed, then before such Xcerra stockholder will be entitled to receive the Merger Consideration, such stockholder will have to make an affidavit of the loss, theft or destruction, and if required by Cohu or the Exchange Agent, deliver a bond in such amount as Cohu or the Exchange Agent may direct as indemnity against any claim that may be made against it with respect to such certificate.

Representations and Warranties

The Merger Agreement contains customary and, in certain cases, reciprocal, representations and warranties by Xcerra, Cohu and Merger Sub that are subject, in some cases, to specified exceptions and qualifications contained in the Merger Agreement.

Some of the representations and warranties in the Merger Agreement made by Xcerra and by Cohu and Merger Sub are qualified as to “materiality” or “Company Material Adverse Effect” or “Parent Material Adverse Effect.” For purposes of the Merger Agreement and this joint proxy statement/prospectus, “Company Material Adverse Effect” and “Parent Material Adverse Effect” means, with respect to Xcerra, or Cohu, as applicable, a material adverse effect on (a) the ability of Xcerra or Cohu to consummate the Merger or any of the other transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement, or (b) the business, operations, assets, financial condition or results of operations of Xcerra or Cohu and their Subsidiaries, taken as a whole; provided, however, that none of the following will be taken into account when determining whether a “Company Material Adverse Effect” or a “Parent Material Adverse Effect,” as applicable, has occurred or may, would or could occur:

- general economic conditions (or changes in such conditions) in the United States or any other country or region in the world, or conditions in the global economy generally;
- conditions (or changes in such conditions) in the securities markets, capital markets, credit markets, currency markets or other financial markets in the United States or any other country or region in the world;
- conditions (or changes in such conditions) in the industries in which Xcerra or Cohu, as applicable, and their respective subsidiaries conduct business;

- political conditions (or changes in such conditions) in the United States or any other country or region in the world, or acts of war (whether or not declared), sabotage, military action or terrorism (including any escalation or general worsening of any such acts of war (whether or not declared), sabotage military action or terrorism) in the United States or any other country or region in the world;
- earthquakes, hurricanes, tsunamis, tornadoes, floods, mudslides, wild fires or other natural disasters, weather conditions and other force majeure events in the United States or any other country or region in the world;

- changes in Xcerra's or Cohu's stock price, as applicable, or the trading volume of Xcerra Common Stock or Cohu Common Stock, as applicable, in and of itself, or any failure by Xcerra or Cohu, as applicable, to meet any public estimates or expectations of Xcerra's or Cohu's, as applicable, revenue, earnings or other financial performance or results of operations for any period, in and of itself, or any failure by Xcerra or Cohu, as applicable, to meet any internal budgets, plans or forecasts of its revenues, earnings or other financial performance or results of operations, in and of itself (but not, in each case, the underlying cause of such changes or failures, unless such changes or failures are otherwise excepted from this definition); and
- any legal proceedings made or brought by any of the current or former Xcerra stockholders or Cohu stockholders, as applicable, (on their own behalf or on behalf of Xcerra or Cohu, as applicable,) against Xcerra or Cohu, as applicable, or their directors for breaches of fiduciary duties or as class action claims arising out of the Merger or in connection with any other transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, to the extent that any condition or situation described in any of the first six items described in the above bullet points has a disproportionate adverse effect on Xcerra or Cohu and their subsidiaries, as applicable, taken as a whole, in comparison to other companies or entities operating in any of the industries in which Xcerra and Cohu and their subsidiaries operate that is affected by such condition or situation, they will not be excluded from a determination of whether a Company Material Adverse Effect or a Parent Material Adverse Effect, as applicable, has occurred and, in such case, the incremental disproportionate impact or impacts may be taken into account in determining whether a Company Material Adverse Effect or a Parent Material Adverse Effect, as applicable, has occurred.

The reciprocal representations and warranties relate to, among other things:

In addition, Cohu has also agreed that, except as (i) specifically permitted or required by the Merger Agreement or required by law; (ii) disclosed in the confidential disclosure letter to the Merger Agreement; or (iii) approved in advance by Xcerra (which approval will not be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed), and subject to certain qualifications and exceptions as set forth in the Merger Agreement, during the period of time between the date of the signing of the Merger Agreement and the earlier to occur of the termination of the Merger Agreement and the Effective Time, Cohu will not, and will cause each of its subsidiaries not to:

- enter into agreements to do any of the foregoing.

No Solicitation

From the period beginning on the date of the Merger Agreement and continuing until the earlier to occur of the termination of the Merger Agreement and the Effective Time, Xcerra and its subsidiaries and their respective directors, officers, employees, controlled affiliates, investment bankers, financial advisors, attorneys, accountants or other agents or representatives, are not permitted to:

- solicit, initiate or induce the making, submission or announcement of, or knowingly encourage, facilitate or assist, a Company Acquisition Proposal (as defined below) or any inquiry, proposal or offer that would reasonably be expected to lead to a Company Acquisition Proposal;
- furnish to any Person (other than Cohu, Merger Sub or any designees of Cohu or Merger Sub) any non-public information relating to Xcerra or any of its subsidiaries, or afford to any person (other than Cohu, Merger Sub or any designees of Cohu or Merger Sub) access to the business, properties, assets, books, records or other non-public information, or to any personnel, of Xcerra or any of its subsidiaries, in any such case with respect to, or with the intent to induce, encourage, facilitate or assist in the making, submission or announcement of a Company Acquisition Proposal or the making of an inquiry or proposal that would reasonably be expected to lead to a Company Acquisition Proposal;
- enter into, continue or otherwise participate or engage in discussions or negotiations with any person (other than Cohu, Merger Sub or any designees of Cohu or Merger Sub) with respect to, or with the intent to induce, encourage, facilitate or assist in the making, submission or announcement of, a Company Acquisition Proposal or any inquiries, proposal or offer that would reasonably be expected to lead to a Company Acquisition Proposal;
- agree to, approve, endorse, recommend or consummate any Company Acquisition Proposal or enter into any letter of intent, memorandum of understanding, agreement in principle or similar document, or any contract contemplating or otherwise relating to a Company Acquisition Proposal or a Company Acquisition Transaction (as defined below), other than certain permitted confidentiality agreements;
- grant any waiver or release under any standstill or similar agreement with respect to any equity securities of Xcerra or any of its subsidiaries or their respective assets or properties; or
- resolve or agree to do any of the foregoing.

From and after the date of the Merger Agreement, Xcerra and its subsidiaries and their respective representatives are required to (i) immediately cease any and all existing discussions or negotiations with any persons or entities (other than Cohu, Merger Sub or any of their respective designees or representatives) conducted prior to the execution of the Merger Agreement with respect to a Company Acquisition Proposal and (ii) request the prompt return or destruction of all confidential information of Xcerra or its subsidiaries previously furnished to any person or entity with respect to any Company Acquisition Proposal or potential Company Acquisition Proposal and terminate the access of any person or entity (other than Cohu, Merger Sub or any of their respective designees or representatives) to any “data room” hosted by Xcerra or any of its Subsidiaries or representatives relating to any Company Acquisition Proposal.

Notwithstanding the restrictions described above, prior to the approval of the Merger Agreement by Xcerra stockholders, if the Xcerra Board receives from any person or entity a bona fide, written and unsolicited Company Acquisition Proposal not involving a breach of the Merger Agreement, then the Xcerra Board may provide information to, and engage or participate in negotiations or substantive discussions with, such person regarding a Company Acquisition Proposal if the Xcerra Board determines in good faith after consultation with its financial advisor and its outside legal counsel that such proposal is a Company Superior Proposal (as defined below) or would reasonably be expected to lead to a Company Superior Proposal; provided that (1) the Xcerra Board has determined in good faith (after consultation with its outside legal counsel) that the failure to take such action would reasonably be expected to be inconsistent with its fiduciary duties and (2) Xcerra gives Cohu prior written notice of Xcerra's intention to participate or engage in discussions or negotiations with, or furnish non-public information to, such person or entity.

For purposes of this joint proxy statement/prospectus and the Merger Agreement:

"Company Acquisition Proposal" means any offer or proposal (other than an offer or proposal by Cohu or Merger Sub) to engage in a Company Acquisition Transaction.

"Company Acquisition Transaction" means any transaction or series of related transactions (other than the Merger) involving:

- (1) any direct or indirect purchase or other acquisition by any person or entity or "group" (as defined in or under Section 13(d) of the Exchange Act), whether from Xcerra and/or any other person(s), of shares of Xcerra Common Stock representing more than 20% of the shares of Xcerra Common Stock outstanding after giving effect to the consummation of such purchase or other acquisition, including pursuant to a tender offer or exchange offer by any person or entity or "group" (as defined in or under Section 13(d) of the Exchange Act) that, if consummated in accordance with its terms, would result in such person or entity or "group" beneficially owning more than 20% of the shares of Xcerra Common Stock outstanding after giving effect to the consummation of such purchase or acquisition;
- (2) any direct or indirect purchase or other acquisition by any person or entity or "group" (as defined in or under Section 13(d) of the Exchange Act) of more than 20% of the consolidated assets of Xcerra and its subsidiaries taken as a whole (measured by the fair market value thereof as of the date of such sale, transfer, acquisition or disposition);
- (3) any merger, consolidation, business combination or other similar transaction involving Xcerra pursuant to which any person or entity or "group" (as defined in or under Section 13(d) of the Exchange Act), other than the Xcerra stockholders (as a group) immediately prior to the consummation of such transaction, would hold shares of Xcerra Common Stock representing more than 20% of the shares of the Xcerra Common Stock outstanding after giving effect to the consummation of such transaction; or
- (4) a liquidation, dissolution or other winding up of Xcerra.

"Company Superior Proposal" means any written bona fide Company Acquisition Proposal not arising out of a breach of Xcerra's non-solicitation obligations under the Merger Agreement, which the Xcerra Board has determined in good faith (after consultation with its financial advisor and outside legal counsel), taking into account all relevant legal, financial and regulatory aspects of such Company Acquisition Proposal and the likelihood of consummation of such Company Acquisition Transaction, is reasonably capable of being consummated on a timely basis and would be more favorable from a financial point of view to Xcerra stockholders (in their capacity as such) than the Merger and the failure of the Xcerra Board to approve or recommend such Company Acquisition Proposal would be inconsistent with the directors' fiduciary duties, after taking into account any written offers made by Cohu in accordance with the terms of the Merger Agreement to modify the terms or conditions of the Merger Agreement; provided, however, that for purposes of the reference to a "Company Acquisition Proposal" in this definition of a "Company Superior Proposal," all references to "more than twenty percent (20%)" in the definition of "Company Acquisition Transaction" will be deemed to be references to "a majority."

The Xcerra Board's Recommendation; Xcerra Board Recommendation Change

As described above, and subject to the provisions described below, the Xcerra Board has made the recommendation that the Xcerra stockholders vote "FOR" the proposal to approve the Merger Agreement. The Merger Agreement provides that the Xcerra Board will not effect a change of the Xcerra Board's recommendation to Xcerra stockholders except as described below.

Table of Contents

Subject to the exceptions set forth below, the Xcerra Board may not (with any action described in the following being referred to as an “Xcerra Board Recommendation Change”):

- withhold, withdraw, amend, qualify or modify in a manner adverse to Cohu, or publicly propose to withhold, withdraw, amend, qualify or modify in a manner adverse to Cohu, the Xcerra Board recommendation;
- approve, endorse or recommend, or publicly propose to approve, endorse or recommend, a Company Acquisition Proposal;
- fail to include the Xcerra Board recommendation in this joint proxy statement/prospectus;
- fail to publicly recommend against acceptance of any tender offer or exchange offer for shares of Xcerra Common Stock within ten business days after the commencement of such offer; or
- fail to publicly reaffirm the Xcerra Board recommendation following any Company Acquisition Proposal having been publicly made, proposed or communicated (and not publicly withdrawn) within ten business days after Cohu so requests in writing.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Xcerra Board may effect an Xcerra Board Recommendation Change at any time prior to approval of the Merger Agreement by Xcerra stockholders in connection with a Company Intervening Event if the Xcerra Board determines (after consultation with its outside legal counsel) that the failure to effect an Xcerra Board recommendation change in response to such Company Intervening Event would be inconsistent with its fiduciary duties, and:

- Xcerra has provided prior written notice to Cohu, which notice will include the reason (in reasonable detail) for such Xcerra Board recommendation change; and
- if requested by Cohu, Xcerra has, during the period beginning on the date of delivery of written notice of an intervening event and ending on the fifth business day following such delivery date, made its representatives available to discuss the intervening event with Cohu’s representatives and negotiated with Cohu in good faith (to the extent that Cohu desires to so negotiate) to make modifications to the terms and conditions of the Merger Agreement so that the Xcerra Board (or a committee thereof) no longer determines that the failure to make an Xcerra Board Recommendation Change in response to such intervening event would be inconsistent with its fiduciary obligations pursuant to applicable law.

For purposes of this joint proxy statement/prospectus and the Merger Agreement, a “Company Intervening Event” means any circumstance, event, change, development, occurrence, state of facts, condition or effect occurring or arising after the date of the Merger Agreement (other than and not related to a Company Acquisition Proposal) that was neither known to nor reasonably foreseeable by the Xcerra Board on or prior to the date of the Merger Agreement and that is material to Xcerra and its subsidiaries, taken as a whole; provided that none of the following (whether alone or in combination) will constitute or be deemed to contribute to a Company Intervening Event: (i) changes in Xcerra’s stock price or the trading volume of Xcerra Common Stock (though the underlying causes of such changes that are not otherwise excluded from the definition of “Company Intervening Event” may be taken into account); (ii) the fact, in and of itself, that Xcerra meets or exceeds any public estimates or expectations of Xcerra’s revenue, earnings or other financial performance or results of operations for any period (though the underlying causes of such performance that are not otherwise excluded from the definition of “Company Intervening Event” may be taken into account); (iii) the fact, in and of itself, that Xcerra meets or exceeds internal budgets, plans or forecasts of its revenues, earnings or other financial performance or results of operations (though the underlying causes of such performance that are not otherwise excluded from the definition of “Company Intervening Event” may be taken into account); (iv) any events, changes or circumstances relating to Cohu or any of its affiliates; and (v) any events, changes or circumstances relating to the launch of any new products or services by Xcerra or any of its subsidiaries.

Additionally, at any time prior to approval of the Merger Agreement by Xcerra stockholders, the Xcerra Board may effect an Xcerra Board Recommendation Change in response to a bona fide Company Acquisition

Proposal that the Xcerra Board has concluded in good faith (after consultation with its financial advisor and outside legal counsel) is a Company Superior Proposal and may terminate the Merger Agreement to enter into a definitive agreement with respect to such Company Superior Proposal if:

- the bona fide written Company Acquisition Proposal was not solicited in violation of Xcerra's non-solicitation obligations under the Merger Agreement;
- the Xcerra Board has determined in good faith (after consultation with its outside legal counsel) that the failure to effect an Xcerra Board Recommendation Change would be inconsistent with its fiduciary duties;
- Xcerra has provided prior written notice to Cohu of the Company Superior Proposal, which notice will include the terms and conditions of, and the identity of the person making, such Company Superior Proposal and a copy of the proposed agreement under which such Company Superior Proposal is proposed to be consummated and any other material transaction documents, and Xcerra has provided new written notice to Cohu with respect to any amendment to the material terms of such Company Superior Proposal;
- if requested by Cohu, Xcerra has made its representatives available to discuss with Cohu's representatives any proposed modifications to the terms and conditions of the Merger Agreement during the period beginning as soon as practicable on the day of delivery by Xcerra to Cohu of notice of the Company Superior Proposal or notice of an amendment to the Company Superior Proposal, as applicable, and ending on the fifth business day following the day of such delivery or, in the case of a notice of an amendment to a Company Superior Proposal, the third business day following the day of such delivery;
- Xcerra has, during the five business day or such additional three business day notice period described above, as applicable, negotiated with Cohu and its representatives in good faith (to the extent that Cohu desires to so negotiate) to make such adjustments to the terms and conditions of the Merger Agreement as proposed by Cohu;
- if Cohu will have delivered to Xcerra during such five business day or such additional three business day period described above, as applicable, a written offer to modify the terms of the Merger Agreement, the Xcerra Board (or a committee thereof) will have determined in good faith, after considering the terms of such offer by Cohu, that the Company Superior Proposal or amendment thereto, as applicable, still constitutes a Company Superior Proposal and the failure to make an Xcerra Board Recommendation Change would be inconsistent with the Xcerra Board's fiduciary duties; and
- Xcerra will have paid, or caused the payment of, the applicable termination fee pursuant to the Merger Agreement.

The Cohu Board's Recommendation; Cohu Board Recommendation Change

As described above, and subject to the provisions described below, the Cohu Board has made the recommendation that the Cohu stockholders vote "FOR" the Stock Issuance Proposal. The Merger Agreement provides that the Cohu Board will not effect a change of the Cohu Board's recommendation except as described below.

Subject to the exceptions below, the Cohu Board may not (with any action described in the following being referred to as a "Cohu Board Recommendation Change"):

- withhold, withdraw, amend, qualify or modify in a manner adverse to Xcerra, or publicly propose to withhold, withdraw, amend, qualify or modify in a manner adverse to Xcerra, the Cohu Board recommendation;
- fail to include the Cohu Board recommendation in this joint proxy statement/prospectus;

Table of Contents

- fail to publicly reaffirm the Cohu Board recommendation following any Parent acquisition proposal (as defined below) having been publicly made, proposed or communicated (and not publicly withdrawn) within ten business days after Xcerra so requests in writing.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Cohu Board may, at any time prior to the approval of the Stock Issuance Proposal by the Cohu stockholders, effect a Cohu Board Recommendation Change for a Parent Intervening Event (as defined below) or if the Cohu Board receives a Parent Acquisition Proposal that constitutes a Parent Superior Proposal (as defined below) if:

- the Cohu Board determines (after consultation with its outside legal counsel) that the failure to do so would be inconsistent with its fiduciary duties;
- Cohu has provided prior written notice to Xcerra of its intention to do so, which notice, if made in connection with a Parent Intervening Event, will include a reasonable description of the Parent Intervening Event and, if made in connection with a Parent Superior Proposal, will include the terms and conditions of, and the identity of the person or entity making, such Parent Superior Proposal;
- if requested by Xcerra, Cohu has made its representatives available to negotiate in good faith with Xcerra's representatives any revisions to the terms and conditions of the Merger Agreement during the period beginning on the day of delivery by Cohu to Xcerra of notice of the Parent Superior Proposal or of any amendment to such Parent Superior Proposal, as applicable, and ending on the fifth business day following the day of such delivery; and
- if Xcerra will have delivered to Cohu during such five business day period described above a written offer to modify the terms of the Merger Agreement, the Cohu Board will have determined in good faith, after considering the terms of such offer by Xcerra, that the Parent Superior Proposal still constitutes a Parent Superior Proposal and the failure to make a Cohu Board recommendation change would be inconsistent with the Cohu Board's fiduciary duties or, in case of a Parent Intervening Event, that failure to make a Cohu Board Recommendation Change would be inconsistent with the Cohu Board's fiduciary duties; and

For purposes of this joint proxy statement/prospectus and the Merger Agreement:

"Parent Acquisition Proposal" means any offer or proposal (other than an offer or proposal by Xcerra to Cohu or Merger Sub) to engage in a Parent Acquisition Transaction.

"Parent Acquisition Transaction" means any transaction or series of related transactions (other than the Merger) involving:

- (1) any direct or indirect purchase or other acquisition by any person or entity or "group" (as defined in or under Section 13(d) of the Exchange Act), whether from Cohu and/or any other person(s), of shares of Cohu Common Stock representing more than 20% of the shares of Cohu Common Stock outstanding after giving effect to the consummation of such purchase or other acquisition, including pursuant to a tender offer or exchange offer by any person or entity or "group" (as defined in or under Section 13(d) of the Exchange Act) that, if consummated in accordance with its terms, would result in such person or entity or "group" beneficially owning more than 20% of the shares of Cohu's capital stock outstanding after giving effect to the consummation of such purchase or acquisition;
- (2) any direct or indirect purchase or other acquisition by any person or entity or "group" (as defined in or under Section 13(d) of the Exchange Act) of more than 20% of the consolidated assets of Cohu and its subsidiaries taken as a whole (measured by the fair market value thereof as of the date of such sale, transfer, acquisition or disposition);
- (3) any merger, consolidation, business combination or other similar transaction involving Cohu pursuant to which any person or entity or "group" (as defined in or under Section 13(d) of the Exchange Act),

other than the Cohu stockholders (as a group) immediately prior to the consummation of such transaction, would hold shares of Cohu Common Stock representing more than 20% of the shares of Cohu Common Stock outstanding after giving effect to the consummation of such transaction; or

- (4) a liquidation, dissolution or other winding up of Cohu.

“Parent Superior Proposal” means any written bona fide Parent Acquisition Proposal with respect to which the Cohu Board has determined (after consultation with its financial advisor and outside legal counsel) that the failure of the Cohu Board to approve or recommend such Parent Acquisition Proposal would be inconsistent with the fiduciary duties of the members of the Cohu Board.

“Parent Intervening Event” means any circumstance, event, change, development, occurrence, state of facts, condition or effect occurring or arising after the date of the Merger Agreement that was neither known to nor reasonably foreseeable by the Cohu Board on or prior to the date of the Merger Agreement and that is material to Cohu and its subsidiaries, taken as a whole; provided that none of the following (whether alone or in combination) will constitute or be deemed to contribute to a Parent Intervening Event: (i) changes in Cohu’s stock price or the trading volume of the Cohu Common Stock (though the underlying causes of such changes that are not otherwise excluded from the definition of “Parent Intervening Event” may be taken into account); (ii) the fact, in and of itself, that Cohu meets or exceeds any public estimates or expectations of Cohu’s revenue, earnings or other financial performance or results of operations for any period (though the underlying causes of such performance that are not otherwise excluded from the definition of “Parent Intervening Event” may be taken into account); (iii) the fact, in and of itself, that Cohu meets or exceeds internal budgets, plans or forecasts of its revenues, earnings or other financial performance or results of operations (though the underlying causes of such performance that are not otherwise excluded from the definition of “Parent Intervening Event” may be taken into account); (iv) any events, changes or circumstances relating to Xcerra or any of its affiliates; (v) any events, changes or circumstances relating to the launch of any new products or services by Cohu or any of its subsidiaries; and (vi) any Parent Acquisition Proposal or the consummation of a Parent Acquisition Transaction.

Employee Benefits

For a period of one year following the Effective Time (or such shorter time as any former employee of Xcerra who remains employed by the Surviving Corporation following the Merger (referred to as “continuing employee”) remains employed by the Surviving Corporation and its subsidiaries following the Effective Time), continuing employees will be provided employee benefits (excluding equity-based benefits and individual employment agreements) that are no less favorable in the aggregate than the employee benefits provided to the continuing employees immediately prior to the Effective Time under the employee benefit plans of Xcerra (any such employee benefit plans are referred to in this joint proxy statement/prospectus as “Xcerra Plans”). Base salary, bonus opportunity or regular wages as of immediately prior to the Effective Time will not be decreased for a period of one year following the Effective Time for any continuing employees.

The Surviving Corporation will (and Cohu will cause the Surviving Corporation to) use commercially reasonable efforts to cause to be granted to any continuing employee credit under the Xcerra Plans in which the continuing employee participates after the Merger for all service with Xcerra and its subsidiaries prior to the Effective Time for purposes of eligibility to participate and vesting, and solely for purposes of vacation, sick time or paid time off accrual and severance pay, entitlement to benefits where length of services is relevant. However, such service need not be credited to the extent that it would result in duplication of coverage or benefits.

In addition, to the extent commercially reasonable (i) each continuing employee will be immediately eligible to participate, without any waiting time, in any and all employee benefit plans sponsored by the Surviving Corporation and its subsidiaries other than the Xcerra Plans (“New Plans”) to the extent coverage under any such New Plan replaces coverage under a comparable Xcerra Plan in which such continuing employee participates immediately before the Effective Time (“Old Plans”); (ii) for purposes of each New Plan providing medical, dental, pharmaceutical, vision and/or disability benefits to any continuing employee, the Surviving Corporation will cause all waiting periods, pre-existing condition exclusions, evidence of insurability requirements and actively-at-work or similar requirements of such New Plan to be waived for such continuing employee and his or her covered dependents to the extent it would have been waived under the comparable Old Plan, and the Surviving Corporation will cause any eligible expenses incurred by such continuing employee and his or her covered dependents during any unfinished portion of the plan year of the Old Plan ending on the date such continuing employee's participation in the corresponding New Plan begins to be given full credit under such New Plan for purposes of satisfying all deductible, coinsurance and maximum out-of-pocket requirements applicable to such continuing employee and his or her covered dependents for the applicable plan year as if such amounts had been paid in accordance with such New Plan; and (iii) the Surviving Corporation will credit the accounts of such continuing employee under any New Plan which is a flexible spending plan with any unused balance in the account of such continuing employee under the applicable Xcerra Plan. Any vacation or paid time off accrued but unused by a continuing employee as of immediately prior to the Effective Time will be credited to such continuing employee following the Effective Time, subject to applicable accrual limits or other forfeiture.

On or as soon as administratively practicable (consistent with past practices) following the later of the closing of the Merger and December 31, 2018, Cohu will establish a replacement incentive compensation plan (which is referred to as the "Replacement Bonus Plan") for the participants of the Xcerra Executive Profit Sharing Plan and the Xcerra Extended Executive Profit Sharing Plan (the "FY2019 Plans") who remain employed by Surviving Corporation or another affiliate of Cohu through such date, covering the period from the date the Replacement Bonus Plan is established through the end of Cohu's then-current fiscal year. The Replacement Bonus Plan will provide target annual bonus compensation for each such participant equivalent to the participant's target annual bonus compensation from the applicable FY2019 Plan, which will be paid out pro rata based on the number of days in the fiscal year that the Replacement Bonus Plan covers. All other terms, considered in the aggregate, of the Replacement Bonus Plan must be no less favorable for all continuing employees than the terms of the FY2019 Plans.

Financing

In connection with the proposed Merger, on May 7, 2018, Cohu obtained the Debt Commitment Letter from the Lender, pursuant to which the Lender (acting alone or through or with affiliates selected by it) has committed to provide the Facilities. The obligations of the Lender to provide the Facilities are subject to a number of customary conditions, including, without limitation, execution and delivery of definitive documentation consistent with the Commitment Letter and the documentation standards specified therein. The Commitment Letter terminates upon the earliest of (i) the valid termination or abandonment of the Merger Agreement prior to the consummation of the Merger, (ii) the consummation of the Merger without the use of the Facilities, and (iii) the Termination Date (including as extended in accordance with the Merger Agreement). See "The Merger — Financing Relating to the Merger" for more information.

Each of Cohu and Merger Sub have agreed to use, and cause their affiliates to use, their respective "Best Efforts" (as described further in the Merger Agreement) to take, or cause to be taken, all actions and do, or cause to be done, all things necessary or advisable to arrange and obtain the Debt Financing as promptly as practicable on the terms and conditions described in the financing documents.

Xcerra has agreed that it will, and will cause its subsidiaries to, use its reasonable best efforts to cause its and their respective representatives to, use reasonable best efforts to cooperate with Cohu in connection with the arrangement of any third-party financing as may be reasonably requested by Cohu, subject to certain exceptions described in the Merger Agreement. The receipt of financing is not a condition to the Merger.

In addition, Cohu will promptly, upon written request by Xcerra, reimburse Xcerra for all reasonable and documented out-of-pocket costs and expenses incurred in connection with Xcerra's, its subsidiaries' or their respective representatives' obligations under the Merger Agreement with respect to the financing. Cohu will also indemnify and hold harmless Xcerra, its subsidiaries and their respective representatives from and against any and all liabilities, losses, damages, claims, costs or expenses suffered or incurred by them in connection with the financing, the arrangement of the financing, the performance of their obligations under the Merger Agreement with respect to the financing and any information utilized in connection with the financing, except to the extent suffered or incurred as a result of (1) any inaccurate or misleading financial information relating to Xcerra and its subsidiaries provided by Xcerra in writing specifically for use in connection with the financing and (2) the fraud, bad faith or willful breach by Xcerra or any of its subsidiaries of its obligations under the Merger Agreement with respect to the financing.

Efforts to Close the Merger

Subject to certain exceptions set forth in the Merger Agreement, Cohu, Merger Sub and Xcerra will use their respective reasonable best efforts to take all actions and assist and cooperate with each other party to the Merger Agreement, in each case as necessary, proper and advisable pursuant to applicable law or otherwise to consummate the Merger.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, in connection with obtaining the Approvals, none of Cohu, Merger Sub or Xcerra is required to (i) defend through legal proceedings on the merits any claim asserted in any court to the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement by any party, including appeals; (ii) to agree or proffer to limit or not to exercise any rights of ownership of any securities or agree or proffer to enter into any agreement that limits the ownership or operation of, or freedom of action with respect to, any respective business of Cohu or any of its subsidiaries or Xcerra or any of its subsidiaries; (iii) to agree to any term or take any action that is not conditioned upon the consummation of the Merger and the other transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement; or (iv) to agree to any term or take any action that would result in the sale, license, assignment, transfer or other divestiture or disposition of, holding separate or any other limitation on, (A) in the case of businesses, services, products or assets of Xcerra and its subsidiaries, any such businesses, services, products or assets that generated aggregate revenue for the twelve month period ended December 30, 2017 greater than $20.0 million and (B) in the case of businesses, services, products or assets of Cohu and its subsidiaries, with respect to any such businesses, services, products or assets that generated aggregate revenue for the twelve month period ended December 30, 2017 greater than $4.0 million. Additionally, one of Cohu, Merger Sub or Xcerra is required to agree to any sale, license, assignment, transfer or other divestiture or disposition of, holding separate or any other limitation on products or services that have not yet been commercialized (including those under development or in the research, planning, prototyping, design, pre-production, evaluation or testing phases).

Indemnification and Insurance

The Surviving Corporation and its subsidiaries will (and Cohu will cause the Surviving Corporation and its subsidiaries to) honor and fulfill in all respects the obligations of Xcerra and its subsidiaries under (i) certain indemnification agreements between Xcerra or any of its subsidiaries and (x) any of their respective current or former directors and officers as of the date of the Merger Agreement pursuant to the terms of such agreements as in effect as of the date of the Merger Agreement and (y) any person who becomes a director or officer of Xcerra or any of its subsidiaries prior to the Effective Time and executes an indemnification agreement on terms no less favorable to Xcerra and no more favorable to such person than the current form of indemnification agreement with its directors that has been made available to Cohu and (ii) any and all indemnification, expense advancement and exculpation provisions in any articles of organization or bylaws or comparable organizational document of Xcerra or any of its subsidiaries in effect on the date of the Merger Agreement, in each case until the sixth anniversary of the Effective Time.

The Surviving Corporation and its subsidiaries will (and Cohu will cause the Surviving Corporation and its subsidiaries to), for a period of six years from the Effective Time, cause the articles of organization, bylaws or other organizational documents of the Surviving Corporation and its subsidiaries to contain provisions with respect to indemnification, exculpation, advancement of expenses and limitation of director and officer liability that are at least as favorable to the current or former directors and officers of Xcerra and its subsidiaries as those set forth in Xcerra's and its subsidiaries' organizational documents as of the date of the Merger Agreement. The Surviving Corporation and its subsidiaries will not, for a period of six years from the Effective Time, amend, repeal or otherwise modify such provisions in any manner that would adversely affect the rights of the current or former directors and officers of Xcerra and its subsidiaries.

The Merger Agreement also provides that, prior to the Effective Time, Xcerra will purchase a six year prepaid "tail" policy on Xcerra's current officers and directors liability insurance, provided that Xcerra will not pay, and Cohu and the Surviving Corporation will not be obligated to pay, annual premiums in excess of 300% of the amount paid by Xcerra for such coverage for its last full fiscal year. The Surviving Corporation will (and Cohu will cause the Surviving Corporation to) maintain such "tail" policy in full force and effect. The "tail" policy will cover claims arising from facts, events, acts or omissions that occurred at or prior to the Effective Time, including the transactions contemplated in the Merger Agreement.

Other Covenants

The Merger Agreement also contains certain additional covenants, including, among other things, covenants relating to Xcerra's and Cohu's respective stockholders meetings, the undertaking of each of Xcerra and Cohu to provide the other with prompt notice of all stockholder litigation relating to the Merger Agreement, and Cohu's reasonable best efforts to cause the Cohu Common Stock to be issued in the Merger to be approved for listing on NASDAQ.

Repatriation of Cash

The parties have agreed that Cohu may periodically request from Xcerra (but not more often than once per calendar month), and Xcerra will reasonably promptly provide its good faith estimate of the amount of cash held by the non-U.S. subsidiaries of Xcerra. If requested by Cohu by one or more written notices (each, a "Repatriation Notice") to Xcerra, delivered no earlier than 15 days prior to, and no later than ten 10 business days prior to, the anticipated date for the closing of the Merger, Xcerra and its subsidiaries will use their respective commercially reasonable efforts to repatriate (whether by distribution, transfer or intercompany loans), in the manner reasonably requested by Cohu, any cash held by the non-U.S. subsidiaries of Xcerra designated in the Repatriation Notices as reasonably necessary for Cohu's funding of the consummation of the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement, such that the amounts set forth in the Repatriation Notices will be available in the bank accounts of Xcerra no later than the day immediately preceding the closing of the Merger.

Cohu has agreed to promptly, upon request by Xcerra, reimburse Xcerra and its subsidiaries, as applicable, for all reasonable and documented out-of-pocket costs and expenses (including any attorneys' fees and taxes) incurred by Xcerra or its subsidiaries, as applicable, in connection with the repatriation actions summarized above. Cohu has agreed to indemnify and hold harmless Xcerra and its subsidiaries (and its and their representatives) from and against any and all losses, damages, claims, costs or other expenses (including taxes) suffered or incurred by any of them in connection with the repatriation actions summarized above. Cohu will not have any obligation to so reimburse or indemnify or hold harmless Xcerra or its subsidiaries or its or their representatives unless (i) the Merger Agreement is terminated in accordance with its terms or (ii) the closing of the Merger has not occurred within 10 business days of any distribution, transfer or loan of funds undertaken pursuant to the repatriation provisions summarized above. However, Cohu will have no obligation to so reimburse or indemnify or hold harmless Xcerra or its subsidiaries or its or their representatives if (x) in the case of clause (i), the Merger Agreement is terminated by Cohu due to the inaccuracy of Xcerra's representations or warranties or any breach of the Merger Agreement by Xcerra (as described further below under "The Merger Agreement — Termination of the Merger Agreement") and (y) in the case of clause (ii), and without limitation of Xcerra's rights under clause (i), Xcerra's breach of the Merger Agreement was the cause of the failure of the closing of the Merger to occur within such 10 business day period. Xcerra must use its commercially reasonable efforts to mitigate any losses, damages, claims, costs, taxes or other expenses subject to reimbursement pursuant to the clause summarized in this paragraph, including by rescinding any distributions, transfers or loans made if permitted by applicable law and otherwise practicable in Xcerra's reasonable discretion.

Cohu Board Representation

Cohu has agreed to cause two individuals who are members of the Xcerra Board as of immediately prior to the Effective Time to become members of the Cohu Board immediately after the Effective Time, one of whom will become a Class 3 director and one of whom will become a Class 2 director (each as defined in Cohu's articles of incorporation). Any new members appointed to the Cohu Board in accordance with this provision of the Merger Agreement will be selected by the Nominating and Governance Committee of the Cohu Board, after consulting with Xcerra, pursuant to the director nomination process set forth in Cohu's proxy statement on Schedule 14A filed with the SEC on April 3, 2018, to serve on the Cohu Board until the next annual meeting of Cohu stockholders at which such members' term expires.

- the approval of the Merger Agreement by the affirmative vote of the holders of two-thirds of the outstanding shares of Xcerra Common Stock and the approval of the issuance of Cohu Common Stock in the Merger by the holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of Cohu Common Stock represented in person or by proxy at the Cohu Special Meeting;

- certain representations and warranties of Xcerra relating to Xcerra's capitalization being true and correct in all but de minimis respects as of the date of the Merger Agreement and on and as of the date of the closing of the Merger with the same force and effect as if made on and as of such date or period, except for those representations and warranties which address matters only as of a particular date or period (which representations will have been true and correct as of such particular date);

- the other representations and warranties of Xcerra set forth elsewhere in the Merger Agreement being true and correct in all respects as of the date of the Merger Agreement and on and as of the date of the closing of the Merger with the same force and effect as if made on and as of such date (disregarding all materiality qualifications contained in such representations and warranties), except (1) for any failure to be so true and correct which would not reasonably be expected to have, individually or in the aggregate, a Company Material Adverse Effect, and (2) for those representations and warranties which address matters only as of a particular date or period (which representations will have been true and correct as of such particular date or period, except for any failure to be so true and correct as of such date which would not reasonably be expected to have, individually or in the aggregate, a Company Material Adverse Effect);
- Xcerra having performed in all material respects the obligations required by the Merger Agreement to be performed by Xcerra at or prior to the Effective Time;
- the receipt by Cohu and Merger Sub of a certificate of Xcerra, validly executed for and on behalf of Xcerra and in its name by a duly authorized officer, certifying that the conditions described in the preceding five paragraphs have been satisfied; and
- there not having occurred any event, occurrence, revelation or development of a state of circumstances or facts which, individually or in the aggregate, has had or would reasonably be expected to have a Company Material Adverse Effect.

In addition, the obligation of Xcerra to consummate the Merger is subject to the satisfaction or waiver (where permitted by applicable law), at or prior to the Effective Time, of each of the following additional conditions:

- the representations and warranties of Cohu relating to the approval of the issuance of Cohu Common Stock to be issued in the Merger by Cohu stockholders and absence of certain changes being true and correct in all respects as of the date of the Merger Agreement and on and as of the date of the closing of the Merger with the same force and effect as if made on and as of such date (or, in the case of those representations and warranties that are made as of a particular date or period, as of such date or for such period);
- certain representations and warranties of Cohu relating to Cohu's capitalization being true and correct in all but de minimis respects as of the date of the Merger Agreement and on and as of the date of the closing of the Merger with the same force and effect as if made on and as of such date, except for those representations and warranties which address matters only as of a particular date or period (which representations will have been true and correct as of such particular date or period);

- each of the remaining representations and warranties of Cohu set forth in the Merger Agreement being true and correct as of the date of the Merger Agreement and on and as of the date of the closing of the Merger with the same force and effect as if made on and as of such date (except for those representations and warranties which address matters only as of a particular date or period, which representations will have been true and correct as of such particular date or period), and except (1) for any failure to be so true and correct which would not reasonably be expected to have, individually or in the aggregate, a Parent Material Adverse Effect, and (2) for those representations and warranties which address matters only as of a particular date or period (which representations will have been true and correct as of such particular date or period, except for any failure to be so true and correct as of such date which would not reasonably be expected to have, individually or in the aggregate, a Parent Material Adverse Effect)

- Cohu and Merger Sub having performed in all material respects all obligations required by the Merger Agreement to be performed by Cohu or Merger Sub prior to the Effective Time;
- there not having occurred any event, occurrence, revelation or development of a state of circumstances or facts which, individually or in the aggregate, has had or would reasonably be expected to have a Parent Material Adverse Effect; and
- the receipt by Xcerra of a certificate of Cohu and Merger Sub, validly executed for and on behalf of Cohu and Merger Sub and in their respective names by a duly authorized executive officer thereof, certifying that the conditions described in the preceding six paragraphs have been satisfied.

The Merger Agreement may be terminated at any time prior to the Effective Time, whether before or after the approval of the Merger Agreement by Xcerra stockholders or the approval of the issuance of Cohu Common Stock in the Merger by Cohu stockholders, in the following ways:

- by mutual written agreement of Xcerra and Cohu;
- by either Xcerra or Cohu if:
 - the Effective Time has not occurred on or before November 7, 2018, Termination Date, provided that, subject to certain restrictions and conditions set forth in the Merger Agreement, the Termination Date may be extended up to six additional months (except that the right to terminate the Merger Agreement as a result of the occurrence of the Termination Date will not be available to any party whose breach of any provision of the Merger Agreement results in the failure of the Merger to be consummated by such time);
 - any applicable law or order of a governmental authority makes the Merger, the issuance of Cohu Common Stock in the Merger or the other transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement illegal or has the effect of prohibiting the consummation of the Merger, the issuance of Cohu Common Stock in the Merger or the other transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement and such order has become final and nonappealable;

 - Cohu and Merger Sub are not then in material breach of the Merger Agreement and Xcerra has breached or failed to perform any of its representations, warranties, covenants or other agreements set forth in the Merger Agreement such that certain corresponding conditions to closing of the Merger set forth in the Merger Agreement are not satisfied, and such breach is not capable of being cured, or is not cured, before the earlier of the Termination Date or the date that is 20 days following Xcerra's receipt of written notice by Cohu of such breach; or
 - prior to the approval of the Merger Agreement by Xcerra stockholders, the Xcerra Board effects an Xcerra Board Recommendation Change or Xcerra will have materially breached or failed to perform any of its obligations under the non-solicitation and Xcerra Board recommendation covenants of the Merger Agreement.

In the event that the Merger Agreement is terminated pursuant to the Merger Agreement, the Merger Agreement will be of no further force or effect without liability of any party to the other parties, as applicable, except that certain sections of the Merger Agreement will survive the termination of the Merger Agreement in accordance with their respective terms, including terms relating to reimbursement of expenses and indemnification.

In addition, no termination of the Merger Agreement will affect the rights or obligations of the parties pursuant to the confidentiality agreement between Cohu and Xcerra, which rights, obligations and agreements will survive the termination of the Merger Agreement in accordance with their respective terms.

Xcerra will be entitled to receive Cohu Termination Fee from Cohu if the Merger Agreement is terminated:

- by Xcerra, in the event that Cohu and/or Merger Sub has breached or failed to perform any of its respective representations, warranties, covenants or other agreements set forth in the Merger Agreement such that certain corresponding conditions to closing the Merger set forth in the Merger Agreement are not satisfied, and such breach is not capable of being cured, or is not cured, before the earlier of the termination date or the date that is 20 days following Cohu's and/or Merger Sub's receipt of written notice by Xcerra of such breach; or
- by Xcerra, in the event that (1) the Cohu Board has effected a Cohu Board Recommendation Change or (2) Cohu has materially breached or failed to perform any of its obligations relating to the Cohu Board recommendation.

Xcerra will be entitled to receive the Financing Failure Termination Fee from Cohu if the Merger Agreement is terminated by Xcerra, in the event that (1) the Marketing Period has ended and all of the applicable conditions to closing the Merger have been satisfied (other than those conditions that by their terms are to be satisfied at the closing of the Merger, each of which is capable of being satisfied at the closing of the Merger), (2) Cohu and Merger Sub have failed to consummate the Merger on or before the date required by the Merger Agreement, (3) Xcerra has thereafter irrevocably notified Cohu in writing that the conditions to closing the Merger have been satisfied (other than those conditions that by their terms are to be satisfied at the closing of the Merger, each of which is capable of being satisfied at the closing of the Merger) or it is prepared to waive unsatisfied conditions and is ready, willing and able to consummate the Merger, and (4) Cohu and Merger Sub fail to consummate the Merger within five business days of such notice.

Specific Performance and Other Remedies

In the event of a breach or threatened breach of any covenant or obligation in the Merger Agreement, the non-breaching party will be entitled to an injunction or injunctions, specific performance or other equitable relief to enforce specifically the terms and provisions of the Merger Agreement.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, Xcerra's right to specific performance of or other equitable remedies with respect to Cohu's and Merger Sub's obligation to consummate the Merger are subject to the requirements that: (1) the Marketing Period has ended and all of the conditions to closing of the Merger have been satisfied (other than those conditions that by their terms are to be satisfied at the closing of the Merger, each of which is capable of being satisfied at the closing of the Merger), (2) the financing has been funded or will be funded at the closing of the Merger, (3) Cohu and Merger Sub fail to complete the closing of the Merger by the time it was required to have occurred pursuant to the Merger Agreement, (4) Xcerra has irrevocably confirmed in writing delivered to

Each party has agreed not to oppose the granting of specific performance and other equitable relief on the basis that the other parties have an adequate remedy at law or that an award of specific performance is not an appropriate remedy for any reason at law or equity.

Xcerra has agreed (on behalf of itself and its subsidiaries) to (1) waive any claims or rights against any financing sources relating to or arising out of the Merger Agreement, the financing and the Commitment Letter, (2) not to bring or support any suit, action or proceeding against any financing source in connection with the Merger Agreement, the financing and the Commitment Letter, and (3) to cause any suit, action or proceeding asserted against any financing source in connection with the Merger Agreement, the financing and the Commitment Letter to be dismissed or otherwise terminated.

MATERIAL UNITED STATES FEDERAL INCOME TAX CONSEQUENCES

The following is a summary of the material United States federal income tax consequences of the Merger to U.S. holders (as defined below) of Xcerra Common Stock who hold their stock as a capital asset and will hold their Cohu Common Stock as a capital asset following the Merger, each within the meaning of Section 1221 of the U.S. Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the “Code”). This summary is based on the Code, the U.S. Treasury Regulations promulgated thereunder, and administrative rulings and court decisions in effect as of the date of this joint proxy statement/prospectus, all of which are subject to change at any time or differing interpretations, possibly with retroactive effect. This summary also addresses non-U.S. holders (as defined below) to the extent set forth below.

For purposes of this discussion, the term “U.S. holder” means a beneficial owner of Xcerra Common Stock that is an individual citizen or resident of the United States; a corporation (or other entity taxable as a corporation for U.S. federal income tax purposes) created or organized in the United States or is otherwise subject to U.S. federal income tax on a net income basis in respect of its Xcerra Common Stock. A “non-U.S. holder” means a beneficial owner of Xcerra Common Stock that is not a U.S. holder (other than a partnership or entity treated as such for U.S. federal income tax purposes).

This summary is not a complete description of all the U.S. federal income tax consequences of the Merger and, in particular, may not address U.S. federal income tax considerations applicable to Xcerra stockholders who are subject to special treatment under U.S. federal income tax law (including, for example, partnerships (or an entity or arrangement treated as a partnership for U.S. federal income tax purposes) and partners therein, financial institutions, dealers in securities, regulated investment companies or real estate investment trusts, insurance companies or tax-exempt entities, holders who acquired Xcerra Common Stock pursuant to the exercise of an employee stock option or right or otherwise as compensation, holders who hold Xcerra Common Stock as part of a hedge, straddle or conversion transaction, persons deemed to sell our common stock under the constructive sale provisions of the Code, U.S. expatriates and former citizens or long-term residents of the United States, “controlled foreign corporations,” “passive foreign investment companies” or corporations that accumulate earnings to avoid U.S. federal income tax, non-U.S. holders that have beneficially owned, directly or pursuant to attribution rules, more than five percent of Xcerra Common Stock at any time during the five-year period ending on the date of the Merger, and persons who do not vote in favor of the Merger and who properly demand appraisal of their shares under Part 13 of the MBCA).

Also, this summary does not address U.S. federal income tax considerations applicable to holders of options or warrants to purchase Xcerra Common Stock, holders of Xcerra RSUs, or holders of debt instruments convertible into Xcerra Common Stock. In addition, no information is provided with respect to the tax consequences of the Merger under the U.S. federal estate, gift, Medicare, and alternative minimum tax laws, or any applicable state, local, or foreign tax laws. This summary does not address the tax consequences of any transactions effectuated before, after or at the same time as the Merger, whether or not they are in connection with the Merger.

U.S. Holders

The receipt of the Merger Consideration by U.S. holders in exchange for shares of Xcerra Common Stock pursuant to the Merger will be a taxable transaction for U.S. federal income tax purposes. In general, for U.S. federal income tax purposes, a U.S. holder who receives the Merger Consideration in exchange for shares of Xcerra Common Stock pursuant to the Merger will recognize gain or loss in an amount equal to the difference, if any, between (1) the fair market value of the Cohu Common Stock as of the Effective Time plus the amount of cash received and (2) the U.S. holder's adjusted tax basis in the shares of Xcerra Common Stock exchanged therefor.

If a U.S. holder's holding period in the shares of Xcerra Common Stock surrendered in the Merger is greater than one year as of the date of the Merger, the gain or loss will be long-term capital gain or loss. Long-term capital gains of certain non-corporate holders, including individuals, are generally subject to U.S. federal income tax at preferential rates. The deductibility of a capital loss recognized on the exchange is subject to limitations. If a U.S. holder acquired different blocks of Xcerra Common Stock at different times or different prices, such U.S. holder must determine its adjusted tax basis and holding period separately with respect to each block of Xcerra Common Stock.

A U.S. holder's aggregate tax basis in Cohu Common Stock received in the Merger will equal the fair market value of the stock as of the Effective Time. The holding period of the Cohu Common Stock received in the Merger will begin on the day after the Merger.

Non-U.S. Holders

Subject to the discussion below under "Information Reporting and Backup Withholding," a non-U.S. holder generally will not be subject to U.S. federal income tax on the receipt of the Merger Consideration unless the non-U.S. holder is a nonresident alien individual who was present in the United States for 183 days or more in the taxable year and certain other conditions are met (in which event the non-U.S. holder will be subject to tax at a flat rate of 30 percent (or such lower rate as may be specified under an applicable income tax treaty) on the gain from the exchange of Xcerra Common Stock, which gain may be offset by applicable U.S. source losses from sales or exchanges of other capital assets recognized during the year).

Information Reporting and Backup Withholding

Payments made in exchange for shares of Xcerra Common Stock pursuant to the Merger may be subject, under certain circumstances, to information reporting and backup withholding (currently, at a rate of 24%). To avoid backup withholding, a U.S. holder that does not otherwise establish an exemption should complete and return an Internal Revenue Service Form W-9, certifying under penalties of perjury that such U.S. holder is a "United States person" (within the meaning of the Code), that the taxpayer identification number provided is correct and that such U.S. holder is not subject to backup withholding.

Non-U.S. taxpayers may be required to comply with applicable certification procedures to establish that they are not U.S. taxpayers in order to avoid the application of such information reporting requirements and backup withholding.

Backup withholding is not an additional tax. Any amounts withheld under the backup withholding rules may be refunded or credited against a holder's U.S. federal income tax liability and may entitle the holder to a refund, provided that such holder furnishes the required information to the Internal Revenue Service in a timely manner.

Xcerra stockholders should consult their tax advisors as to the specific tax consequences to them of the Merger in light of their particular circumstances, including the applicability and effect of any federal, state, local, foreign and other tax laws.

INFORMATION ABOUT COHU

Cohu was incorporated under the laws of California in 1947, as Kalbfell Lab, Inc. and commenced active operations in the same year. Cohu's name was changed to Kay Lab in 1954. In 1957, Cohu was reincorporated under the laws of the State of Delaware as Cohu Electronics, Inc. and in 1972 Cohu's name was changed to Cohu, Inc.

Cohu is a leading supplier of semiconductor test and inspection handlers, micro-electro mechanical system (MEMS) test modules, test contactors and thermal sub-systems used by global semiconductor manufacturers and test subcontractors. Cohu develops, manufactures, sells and services a broad line of equipment capable of handling a wide range of integrated circuits and light-emitting diodes (LEDs).

Handlers are electromechanical systems used to automate testing and inspection of integrated circuits and LEDs in the back-end of the semiconductor manufacturing process to determine the quality and performance of the semiconductor devices, such as microprocessors, logic, analog, memory or mixed signal devices. The majority of handlers use either pick-and-place, gravity-feed, turret or test-in-strip technologies. The type of device, test parallelism, thermal requirements and signal interface requirements normally determines the appropriate handling approach. MEMS test modules are independent physical stimuli units for testing sensor integrated circuits typically used in the automotive and consumer electronics industries. These MEMS test modules can be integrated to gravity-feed, pick-and-place, turret or test-in-strip handlers for testing a variety of sensors, including pressure, acoustic, magnetic field hall effect, optical and others.

To ensure quality, semiconductors are typically tested at hot and/or cold temperatures, which can simulate the final operating environment. Cohu's test handler products are designed to provide a precisely controlled test environment, often over the range of -60 degrees Celsius to +175 degrees Celsius. As the speed and power of certain integrated circuits, such as microprocessors and mobile processors, have increased so has the need to actively manage the self-generated heat during the test process to maximize yield. This heat is capable of damaging or destroying the integrated circuit and can result in speed downgrading, when devices self-heat and fail to successfully test at their maximum possible speed. Device yields are extremely important and speed grading directly affects the selling price of the integrated circuit and the profitability of the semiconductor manufacturer. In addition to temperature capability, other key factors in the design of test handlers are handling speed, flexibility, parallel test capability, alignment to the test contactors, system size, reliability and cost.

Thermal sub-systems are used in advanced burn-in and system-level test applications to maintain and control the temperature of integrated circuits during the testing process. Burn-in stresses devices for detection of early failures (infant mortality) prior to distribution. The burn-in process is also used by semiconductor manufacturers to develop reliability models of newly introduced devices. The objective of reliability testing is to determine a device's fault-free operation and estimated useful life by exposing the device to various electrical and thermal conditions that impact its performance. System-level testing is required for functional testing of high-end microprocessors as well as mobile processors combined with memory. This is typically the last test operation of complex, expensive integrated circuits prior to the final electronic integration process.

Cohu's products are used in high-volume production environments and many are in service twenty-four hours per day, seven days a week. Customers continuously strive to increase the utilization of their production test equipment and expect high reliability from test handlers, MEMS test modules and thermal subsystems used in burn-in and system-level test. The availability of trained technical support personnel is an important competitive factor in the marketplace. Accordingly, Cohu deploys service engineers worldwide, often within customers' production facilities, who work with customer personnel to maintain, repair and continuously improve the performance of Cohu's equipment.

Cohu's principal executive offices are located at 12367 Crosthwaite Circle, Poway, California, 92064-6817. Cohu's telephone number is (858) 848-8100 and its website is www.cohu.com. Cohu's principal manufacturing

Dissenters' and Appraisal Rights

Cohu

Under the DGCL, the rights of stockholders to obtain a judicial appraisal of the fair value for their shares, referred to as appraisal rights, may be available in connection with a statutory merger or consolidation in certain specific situations if the stockholders have neither voted in favor of nor consented in writing to the merger or consolidation.

In addition, unless otherwise provided in the certificate of incorporation, no appraisal rights are available under Delaware law to holders of shares of any class of stock which is either (1) listed on a national securities exchange, or (2) held of record by more than 2,000 stockholders, unless such stockholders are required by the terms of the merger to accept anything other than:

- shares of stock of the surviving corporation;
- shares of stock of another corporation which, as of the effective date of the merger or consolidation, are of the kind described in (1) or (2) above;
- cash instead of fractional shares of such stock; or
- any combination of the above three bullets.

Appraisal rights are not available under Delaware law in the event of the sale of all or substantially all of a corporation's assets or the adoption of an amendment to its certificate of incorporation, unless such rights are granted in the corporation's certificate of incorporation. Cohu's certificate of incorporation does not grant such rights. Appraisal rights are also not available to a corporation's stockholders under Delaware law when the corporation is to be the surviving corporation and no vote of its stockholders is required to approve the merger.

Xcerra

Under the MBCA, appraisal rights offer stockholders of a corporation the ability to demand payment in cash for the fair value of their shares of common stock in the event of the following corporate or other actions: (1) certain mergers that require stockholder approval under the MBCA or the corporation's articles of organization, unless the stockholders receive as consideration only cash equal to what they would receive upon dissolution, or, in the case of stockholders holding marketable securities in the target corporation, only marketable securities in the surviving corporation, cash, or a combination thereof, and in both cases, no director, officer, or controlling stockholder has an extraordinary financial interest in the transaction; (2) a plan of share exchange, unless both the existing shares and the consideration consist of marketable securities and no director, officer or controlling stockholder has an extraordinary financial interest in the transaction; (3) a sale or exchange of all or substantially all of the corporation's property other than in the regular course of business; (4) an amendment of the corporation's articles of organization that materially and adversely affects the stockholders' rights as specified in the MBCA; (5) an amendment of the articles of organization or of the bylaws or the entering into by the corporation of any agreement to which the stockholder is not a party that adds restrictions on the transfer or registration of any outstanding shares held by the stockholder or amends any pre-existing restrictions on the transfer or registration of his shares in a manner which is materially adverse to the ability of the stockholder to transfer his shares; (6) any corporate action taken pursuant to a stockholder vote to the extent that the articles of organization, bylaws or a resolution of the board of directors provides that voting or nonvoting stockholders are entitled to appraisal; and (7) conversion of the corporation

The MBCA provides, among other procedural requirements for the exercise of appraisal rights, that (A) only those shares entitled to vote are eligible for appraisal, (B) a stockholder's written demand for appraisal of shares must be received before the taking of the vote on the matter giving rise to appraisal rights, when the matter is voted on at a meeting of stockholders and (C) a stockholder requesting appraisal may not vote any shares in favor of the proposed action. See the section entitled " The Merger — Appraisal Rights for Xcerra Stockholders " and the text of Part 13 of the MBCA reproduced in its entirety as Annex D to this joint proxy statement/prospectus for further information. SUBMISSION OF FUTURE STOCKHOLDER PROPOSALS

Inclusion of Proposals in Cohu's Proxy Statement and Proxy Card under the SEC's Rules

For a proposal to be considered for inclusion in the proxy statement and form of proxy for Cohu's 2019 annual meeting of stockholders, a written proposal must be received by Cohu's Secretary at Cohu's principal executive offices no later than December 4, 2018 and must comply with Rule 14a-8 of the Exchange Act, regarding the inclusion of stockholder proposals in company-sponsored proxy materials. If Cohu changes the date of the 2019 annual meeting of stockholders by more than 30 days from the date of Cohu's 2018 annual meeting of the stockholders, a written proposal must be received by Cohu at its principal executive offices a reasonable time before Cohu begins to print and mail Cohu's proxy materials for Cohu's 2019 annual meeting of stockholders.

Nomination of Director Candidates and Proposals Not Intended for Inclusion in Proxy Materials

If a Cohu stockholder intends to nominate an individual for election to the Cohu Board at its 2019 annual meeting of stockholders or wishes to present a proposal at the 2019 annual meeting of stockholders but do not intend for such proposal to be included in the proxy statement for such meeting, Cohu's bylaws require that, among other things, stockholders give written notice of the nomination or proposal to its Secretary at its principal executive offices no later than the close of business on December 4, 2018 (the 120th day prior to the first anniversary of the date Cohu's 2018 proxy statement was released to Cohu stockholders). Notwithstanding the foregoing, in the event that Cohu advances the date of the 2019 annual meeting of stockholders by more than 30 days, written notice by a stockholder must be received no later than the tenth day following the day on which public announcement of the 2019 annual meeting of stockholders is made. Stockholder proposals not intended to be included in the proxy statement or nominations for director candidates that do not meet the notice requirements set forth above and further described in Article III, Section 12 of Cohu's bylaws will not be acted upon at the 2019 annual meeting of stockholders.

The foregoing summary of Cohu's stockholder nomination and proposal procedures is not complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of Cohu's bylaws that has been publicly filed with the SEC and is available at <http://www.sec.gov>.

At the Effective Time, the directors of Merger Sub immediately prior to the Effective Time shall become the initial directors of the Surviving Corporation, each to hold office in accordance with the articles of organization and bylaws of the Surviving Corporation until their resignation or removal or until their respective successors are duly elected or appointed and qualified, whichever is earlier.

(b) Officers. At the Effective Time, the officers of the Company immediately prior to the Effective Time shall become the initial officers of the Surviving Corporation, each to hold office in accordance with the articles of organization and bylaws of the Surviving Corporation until their resignation or removal or until their respective successors are duly appointed, whichever is earlier.

2.7 Effect on Capital Stock.

(a) Capital Stock. Upon the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in this Agreement, at the Effective Time, by virtue of the Merger and without any action on the part of Parent, Merger Sub, the Company, or the holders of any of the following securities, the following shall occur:

(i) Company Common Stock. Each share of Company Common Stock that is outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time (other than (A) Cancelled Company Shares and (B) Dissenting Company Shares) shall be cancelled and extinguished and automatically converted into, and thereafter represent only, the right to receive (A) $9.00 in cash, without interest thereon (the “Cash Consideration”), and (B) 0.2109 of a validly issued, fully paid and nonassessable share of Parent Common Stock (the “Stock Consideration” and, together with the Cash Consideration, the “Merger Consideration”), upon the surrender of the certificate representing such share of Company Common Stock or the Uncertificated Shares in accordance with Section 2.8 (or in the case of a lost, stolen or destroyed certificate, upon delivery of an affidavit in the manner provided in Section 2.10).

(ii) Excluded Company Common Stock. Each share of Company Common Stock owned by Parent, Merger Sub or the Company (including any such shares held in the treasury of the Company), or by any direct or indirect wholly-owned Subsidiary of Parent or the Company, in each case immediately prior to the Effective Time (“Cancelled Company Shares”) shall be cancelled and extinguished without any conversion thereof or consideration paid therefor.

(iii) Capital Stock of Merger Sub. Each share of common stock of Merger Sub that is outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time shall be converted into one (1) validly issued, fully paid and nonassessable share of common stock of the Surviving Corporation. Each certificate evidencing ownership of such shares of common stock of Merger Sub shall thereafter evidence ownership of shares of common stock of the Surviving Corporation.

(b) Adjustment to the Merger Consideration. The Merger Consideration shall be adjusted appropriately to reflect the effect of any stock split, reverse stock split, stock dividend (including any dividend or distribution of securities convertible into Company Common Stock or Parent Common Stock, as applicable, but excluding, for the avoidance of doubt, the granting or other issuance of Company Options or Company Restricted Stock Units permitted by Section 5.1(b) of this Agreement), reclassification, combination, exchange of shares or other like change with respect to Company Common Stock or Parent Common Stock, as applicable, occurring on or after the date hereof and prior to the Effective Time. Nothing in this Section 2.7(b) shall be construed to modify or render inapplicable any restriction contained in this Agreement applicable to the Company, Parent or any of their respective Subsidiaries with respect to the taking of any action that may necessitate an adjustment pursuant to the first sentence of this Section 2.7(b).

(c) Statutory Rights of Appraisal.

(i) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary set forth in this Agreement, all shares of Company Common Stock that are issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time and held by Company Stockholders who shall neither have voted in favor of the Merger nor consented thereto in writing and who shall have properly and validly perfected, and not effectively withdrawn or lost, their statutory rights of appraisal in respect of such shares of Company Common Stock in accordance with Section 13.02 of the MBCA (collectively, “Dissenting Company Shares”) shall not be converted into, or represent the right to receive, the Merger Consideration pursuant to Section 2.7(a)(i). Such Company Stockholder shall be entitled only to such rights as are granted by the MBCA to a holder of Dissenting Company Shares. At the Effective Time, the Dissenting Company Shares shall no longer be outstanding and shall automatically be cancelled and cease to exist, and each Company Stockholder who holds Dissenting Company Shares shall cease to have any rights with respect thereto, except the right to receive payment of the appraised value of such Dissenting Company Shares in accordance with the provisions of Section 13.02 of the MBCA; provided that all Dissenting Company Shares held by Company Stockholders who shall have failed to perfect or who shall have effectively withdrawn or lost their rights to appraisal of such Dissenting Company Shares under such Section 13.02 of the MBCA shall no longer be considered to be Dissenting Company Shares and shall thereupon be deemed to have been converted into, and to have become exchangeable for, as of the later of the Effective Time and the time that such right to appraisal has been irrevocably lost or withdrawn or has expired, the right to receive the Merger Consideration, without interest thereon, upon surrender of the certificate or certificates that formerly evidenced such shares of Company Common Stock or the Uncertificated Shares in the manner provided in Section 2.8.

(ii) The Company shall give Parent (A) prompt notice of any demands for appraisal received by the Company, withdrawals and attempted withdrawals of such demands, and any other instruments served pursuant to Massachusetts Law and received by the Company with respect to rights to appraisal or in respect of Dissenting Company Shares and (B) the right to direct and participate in all negotiations and proceedings with respect to demands for appraisal under Massachusetts Law in respect of Dissenting Company Shares. The Company shall not, except with the prior written consent of Parent, make any payment with respect to or approve any withdrawal of any demands for appraisal, or settle or offer to settle any such demands for payment, in respect of Dissenting Company Shares.

(d) Company Compensatory Awards. Upon the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in this Agreement, and without any action on the part of Parent, Merger Sub, the Company or any holder of such Company Restricted Stock Units, each Company Restricted Stock Unit that remains outstanding as of immediately prior to the Effective Time shall be treated as set forth in this Section 2.7(d).

(i) Each Company Restricted Stock Unit that is outstanding and either (A) vests automatically according to its terms at the Effective Time or (B) is held by a member of the Company Board (each, a “Vested” Restricted Stock Unit) shall be cancelled and terminated as of the Effective Time and the holder thereof shall receive, subject to Section 2.8\(e\), (1) an amount in cash (without interest) equal to the product of (x) the Cash Consideration multiplied by (y) the total number of shares of Company Common Stock represented by such Vested Restricted Stock Unit and (2) a number of shares of Parent Common Stock equal to the product of (x) the Stock Consideration multiplied by (y) the total number of shares of Company Common Stock represented by such Vested Restricted Stock Unit immediately prior to the Effective Time (such consideration, the “Restricted Stock Unit Consideration”). The Surviving Corporation shall pay or provide to each holder of a Vested Restricted Stock Unit the Restricted Stock Unit Consideration described in the immediately preceding sentence (through the Surviving Corporation’s or a Subsidiary of the Surviving Corporation’s payroll system, or the Surviving Corporation’s or a Subsidiary of the Surviving Corporation’s equity award administrator, as may be applicable and in accordance with the Surviving Corporation’s payroll practices for service providers located outside of the United States) on either (A) the first regularly scheduled payroll date after the Closing or (B) if such first payroll date is scheduled for payment prior to the fifth Business Day after the Closing, the second regularly scheduled payroll date after the Closing, in any such case, consistent with past practices, including accounting for all applicable withholding.

(ii) Each Company Restricted Stock Unit that is outstanding and unvested as of the Effective Time and not described in Section 2.7\(d\)\(i\) (an “Unvested Restricted Stock Unit”) shall, on the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in this Agreement, be assumed by Parent and shall be converted into a Parent restricted stock unit award (each, an “Assumed Restricted Stock Unit Award”) representing that number of whole shares of Parent Common Stock equal to the product of (A) the number of shares of Company Common Stock represented by such Unvested Restricted Stock Unit immediately prior to the Effective Time multiplied by (B) the Equity Award Exchange Ratio, with the result rounded down to the nearest whole number of shares of Parent Common Stock. Except as provided in this Section 2.7\(d\)\(ii\), each Assumed Restricted Stock Unit Award will be subject to the same terms and conditions applicable to the Unvested Restricted Stock Units immediately prior to the Effective Time, including the same vesting restrictions and continued service requirements, except for reasonable administrative changes that are not materially adverse to the holder of the Unvested Restricted Stock Unit or changes to which the holder consents.

(e) The Company shall take all actions reasonably necessary to effect the transactions contemplated by Section 2.7\(d\) under all Company Restricted Stock Unit agreements and any other plan or arrangement of the Company, including delivering all required notices and obtaining any required consent. As promptly as practicable after the Closing, Parent shall pay by wire transfer of immediately available funds to the Surviving Corporation, and Parent shall cause the Surviving Corporation to pay to each of the holders of Vested Restricted Stock Units, the Restricted Stock Unit Consideration (through the Surviving Corporation’s or a Surviving Corporation Subsidiary’s payroll system, or the Surviving Corporation’s or a Surviving Corporation’s Subsidiary equity award administrator, as may be applicable and in accordance with the Company’s payroll practices for service providers located outside of the United States) on either (A) the first regularly scheduled payroll date after the Closing or (B) if such first payroll date is scheduled for payment prior to the fifth Business Day after the Closing, the second regularly scheduled payroll date after the Closing, in any such case, consistent with past practices, including accounting for all applicable withholding. For the avoidance of doubt, the Company shall not take any action after the date of this Agreement that would accelerate the vesting of the Company Restricted Stock Units in connection with any of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement.

(f) Company ESPP. The Company shall take such action as may be necessary to: (i) cause any offering period and purchase period (or similar period during which shares may be purchased) underway as of the date of this Agreement under the Company ESPP to be terminated as of no later than the last payroll date immediately preceding the Effective Time (the “Final Exercise Date”); (ii) make any pro-rata adjustments that may be necessary to reflect any shortened offering period or purchase period (or similar period), but otherwise treat any such shortened offering period or purchase period (or similar period) as a fully effective and completed offering period or purchase period, as applicable, for all purposes under the Company ESPP; (iii) cause each participant’s shares purchase right under the Company ESPP (the “Company ESPP Rights”) outstanding as of the Final Exercise Date to be exercised as of the Final Exercise Date; (iv) provide that no further offering periods or purchase periods (or similar periods during which shares may be purchased) shall commence under the Company ESPP on or after the date of this Agreement; (v) provide that no participant in the Company ESPP may increase the rate of his or her contributions to the Company ESPP on or after the date of this Agreement; (vi) provide that no individual who is not participating in the Company ESPP as of the date of this Agreement may commence participation in the Company ESPP on or after the date of this Agreement; and (vii) terminate the Company ESPP as of the Final Exercise Date, provided, however, that termination of the Company ESPP shall be subject to the consummation of the Merger. Each outstanding option under the Company ESPP on the Final Exercise Date shall be exercised on such date for the purchase of Company Common Stock in accordance with the terms of the Company ESPP. On the Final Exercise Date, the funds credited as of such date under the Company ESPP within the associated accumulated payroll withholding account for each participant under the Company ESPP will be used to purchase shares in accordance with the terms of the Company ESPP, and each share purchased by a participant of the Company ESPP and issued thereunder will be cancelled at the Effective Time and converted into the right to receive the Merger Consideration pursuant to this Section 2.7, subject to withholding of applicable income and employment withholding Taxes. No further Company ESPP Rights will be granted after the date of this Agreement, and no further Company ESPP Rights will be exercised under the Company ESPP after the Final Exercise Date. The Company shall provide timely notice of the setting of the Final Exercise Date and termination of the Company ESPP in accordance with the Company ESPP (which termination will be subject to the consummation of the Merger).

(g) Treatment of Company Stock Plan. Effective as of, and contingent upon the occurrence of, the Effective Time, the Company, acting through the Company Board or the Compensation Committee of the Company Board, as applicable, shall adopt any resolutions and take any actions which are reasonably necessary to terminate the Company Stock Plan. The Company shall take all actions necessary to ensure that, from and after the Effective Time, neither Parent nor the Surviving Corporation will be required to issue Company Common Stock or other share capital of the Company or the Surviving Corporation to any Person pursuant to or in settlement of a Company Option or Company Restricted Stock Unit. Promptly following the date hereof, the Company shall deliver written notice to each holder of a Company Restricted Stock Unit informing such holder of the treatment of their Company Restricted Stock Units contemplated by this Agreement.

(h) Form S-8. On, or as soon as reasonably practicable following the Closing Date, Parent shall use commercially reasonable efforts to file an effective registration statement on Form S-8 (or any successor or other appropriate form) with respect to the Parent Common Stock issuable with respect to Assumed Restricted Stock Unit Awards and Parent shall use commercially reasonable efforts to maintain the effectiveness of such registration statement or registration statements (and maintain the current status of the prospectus or prospectuses contained therein) for so long as the Assumed Restricted Stock Unit Awards assumed in accordance with this Agreement remain outstanding.

2.8 Exchange of Certificates.

(a) Exchange Agent. Prior to the Effective Time, Parent shall select a U.S. bank or trust company reasonably acceptable to the Company (such consent not to be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed) to act as the exchange agent for the Merger (the “Exchange Agent”).

(b) Exchange Fund. At the Closing, Parent shall deposit (or cause to be deposited) with the Exchange Agent, for the sole benefit of the holders of shares of Company Common Stock pursuant to the provisions of Section 2.7\(a\)\(i\), (i) an amount of cash sufficient to pay (A) the aggregate Cash Consideration and (B) the aggregate Fractional Share Cash Amounts and (ii) evidence of the Parent Common Stock issuable pursuant to Section 2.7\(a\)\(i\) in book-entry form equal to the aggregate Stock Consideration (excluding any Fractional Share Cash Amounts) (such cash and Parent Common Stock described in the foregoing clauses (i) and (ii) being hereinafter referred to as the “Exchange Fund”). Until disbursed in accordance with the terms and conditions of this Agreement, the cash included in the Exchange Fund shall be invested by the Exchange Agent, as directed by Parent or the Surviving Corporation, in obligations of or guaranteed by the United States of America or obligations of an agency of the United States government. Any interest and other income resulting from such investments shall be paid to Parent. To the extent that there are any losses with respect to any investments of the Exchange Fund, or the cash portion of the Exchange Fund diminishes for any reason below the level required for the Exchange Agent to promptly pay the cash amounts contemplated by Section 2.7(a)(i), Parent shall, or shall cause the Surviving Corporation to, promptly replace or restore the cash in the Exchange Fund so as to ensure that the Exchange Fund is at all times maintained at a level sufficient for the Exchange Agent to make such cash payments contemplated by Section 2.7(a)(i)(A).

(c) Exchange Procedures. Promptly following the Effective Time (and in no event later than three (3) Business Days after the Effective Time), Parent and the Surviving Corporation shall cause the Exchange Agent to mail to each holder of record (as of immediately prior to the Effective Time) of (i) a certificate or certificates (the “Certificates”) that immediately prior to the Effective Time represented outstanding shares of Company Common Stock and (ii) uncertificated shares of Company Common Stock (the “Uncertificated Shares”), in each case, whose shares were converted into the right to receive the Merger Consideration pursuant to Section 2.7(a)(i), (A) a letter of transmittal in customary form (which shall specify that delivery shall be effected, and risk of loss and title to the Certificates shall pass, only upon delivery of the Certificates to the Exchange Agent) and (B) instructions for use in effecting the surrender of the Certificates and Uncertificated Shares in exchange for the Merger Consideration payable in respect thereof pursuant to the provisions of Section 2.7(a)(i), including any amount payable in respect of Fractional Share Cash Amounts in accordance with Section 2.11. Upon surrender of Certificates for cancellation to the Exchange Agent (in the case of certificated shares) together with such letter of transmittal, duly completed and validly executed in accordance with the instructions thereto, and such other documents as the Exchange Agent may reasonably require, the holders of such Certificates and Uncertificated Shares shall be entitled to receive in exchange therefor (1) an amount in cash equal to the product obtained by multiplying (x) the aggregate number of shares of Company Common Stock represented by such Certificate or Uncertificated Shares that were converted into the right to receive the Merger Consideration pursuant to Section 2.7(a)(i) by (y) the Cash Consideration (including any Fractional Share Cash Amounts that such holder has the right to receive pursuant to the provisions of Section 2.11), and (2) a number of shares of Parent Common Stock equal to the product obtained by multiplying (x) the aggregate number of shares of Company Common Stock represented by such Certificate or Uncertificated Shares that were converted into the right to receive the Merger Consideration pursuant to Section 2.7(a)(i) by (y) the Stock Consideration (in each case of clause (1) and (2), less any applicable withholding taxes payable in accordance with Section 2.8(e)), and the Certificates or Uncertificated Shares so surrendered shall forthwith be cancelled. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Section 2.8(c), in the case of a book-entry transfer of Uncertificated Shares, upon receipt of an “agent’s message” by the Exchange Agent and confirmation of the book-entry transfer of such Uncertificated Shares into the Exchange Agent’s account with Depository Trust Company (and such other evidence, if any, of transfer as the Exchange Agent may reasonably request), the holders of such Uncertificated Shares shall be entitled to receive in exchange therefor (1) an amount in cash equal to the product obtained by multiplying (x) the aggregate number of shares of Company Common Stock represented by such Certificate or Uncertificated Shares that were converted into the right to receive the Merger Consideration pursuant to Section 2.7(a)(i) by (y) the Cash Consideration (including any Fractional Share Cash Amounts that such holder has the right to receive pursuant to the provisions of Section 2.11), and (2) a number of shares of Parent Common Stock equal to the product obtained by multiplying (x) the aggregate number of shares of Company Common Stock represented by such Certificate or Uncertificated Shares that were converted into the right to receive the Merger Consideration pursuant to Section 2.7(a)(i) by (y) the Stock Consideration (in each case of clause (1) and (2), less any applicable withholding taxes payable in accordance with Section 2.8(e)), and the transferred Uncertificated Shares so surrendered shall forthwith be cancelled. The Exchange Agent shall accept such Certificates and transferred Uncertificated Shares upon compliance with such reasonable terms and conditions as the Exchange Agent may impose to effect an orderly exchange thereof in accordance with normal exchange practices. No interest shall be paid or accrued for the benefit of holders of the Certificates and Uncertificated Shares on the Merger Consideration. Until so surrendered, outstanding Certificates and Uncertificated Shares shall be deemed from and after the Effective Time, to evidence only the right to receive the Merger Consideration (including the Fractional Share Cash Amounts), without interest thereon, payable in respect thereof pursuant to the provisions of this Article II.

(d) Transfers of Ownership. In the event that a transfer of ownership of shares of Company Common Stock is not registered in the stock transfer books or ledger of the Company, or if the Merger Consideration is to be paid in a name other than that in which the Certificates or Uncertificated Shares surrendered in exchange therefor are registered in the stock transfer books or ledger of the Company, the Merger Consideration may be paid to a Person other than the Person in whose name the Certificate or Uncertificated Share so surrendered is registered in the stock transfer books or ledger of the Company only if such Certificate or Uncertificated Share is properly endorsed and otherwise in proper form for surrender and transfer and only if the Person requesting such payment has paid to Parent (or any agent designated by Parent) any transfer and other Taxes required by reason of the payment of the Merger Consideration to a Person other than the registered holder of such Certificate or Uncertificated Share or established to the satisfaction of Parent (or any agent designated by Parent) that such Taxes have been paid or are otherwise not payable. Parent shall pay all other transfer taxes.

(e) Required Withholding. Each of the Exchange Agent, Parent, the Surviving Corporation and their agents shall be entitled to deduct and withhold from any amounts payable pursuant to this Agreement to any Person such amounts as are required to be deducted or withheld therefrom under applicable Tax Laws. To the extent that such amounts are so deducted and withheld and paid over to the applicable Governmental Authority, such amounts shall be treated for all purposes under this Agreement as having been paid to the Person to whom such amounts would otherwise have been paid.

(f) No Liability. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary set forth in this Agreement, none of the Exchange Agent, Parent, the Surviving Corporation or any other Person shall be liable to a holder of shares of Company Common Stock for any amount properly paid to a public official pursuant to any applicable abandoned property, escheat or similar Law. Any portion of the Exchange Fund remaining unclaimed immediately prior to such time as such amounts would otherwise escheat to or become property of any Governmental Authority shall, to the fullest extent permitted by applicable Law, become the property of the Surviving Corporation free and clear of all claims or interest of any Persons previously entitled thereto.

(g) Distribution of Exchange Fund to Parent. Any portion of the Exchange Fund that remains undistributed to the holders of the Certificates or Uncertificated Shares on the date that is nine (9) months after the Effective Time shall be delivered to the Surviving Corporation upon demand, and any holders of shares of Company Common Stock that were issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Merger who have not theretofore surrendered their Certificates or Uncertificated Shares representing such shares of Company Common Stock for exchange pursuant to the provisions of this Section 2.8 shall thereafter look for payment of the Merger Consideration payable in respect of the shares of Company Common Stock represented by such Certificates or Uncertificated Shares solely to the Surviving Corporation, as general creditors thereof, for any claim to the applicable Merger Consideration (without interest and subject to abandoned property, escheat or similar Laws) to which such holders may be entitled pursuant to the provisions of this Article II.

2.9 No Further Ownership Rights in Company Common Stock. From and after the Effective Time, all shares of Company Common Stock shall no longer be outstanding and shall automatically be cancelled, retired and cease to exist, and each holder of a Certificate or Uncertificated Shares theretofore representing any shares of Company Common Stock shall cease to have any rights with respect thereto, except the right to receive the Merger Consideration payable therefor upon the surrender thereof in accordance with the provisions of Section 2.8. Any Merger Consideration paid upon the surrender for exchange of Certificates or Uncertificated Shares in accordance with the terms of this Article II shall be deemed to have been paid in full satisfaction of all rights pertaining to such shares of the Company Common Stock represented thereby. From and after the Effective Time, there shall be no further registration of transfers on the records of the Surviving Corporation of shares of Company Common Stock that were issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time, other than transfers to reflect, in accordance with customary settlement procedures, trades effected prior to the Effective Time. If, after the Effective Time, Certificates or Uncertificated Shares are presented to the Surviving Corporation for any reason, they shall be cancelled and exchanged as provided in this Article II, subject to applicable Law in the case of Dissenting Company Shares.

2.10 Lost, Stolen or Destroyed Certificates. In the event that any Certificate shall have been lost, stolen or destroyed, then upon the making of an affidavit and undertaking of an indemnity, in form and substance reasonably acceptable to Parent, of that fact by the Person claiming such Certificate to be lost, stolen or destroyed and, if required by Parent or the Exchange Agent, the posting by such Person of a bond in such customary amount as Parent or the Exchange Agent may determine is reasonable and appropriate as indemnity against any claim that may be made against it or the Surviving Corporation with respect to such Certificate, the Exchange Agent shall issue in exchange for such lost, stolen or destroyed Certificate the Merger Consideration payable in respect thereof pursuant to Section 2.7, including any amount payable in respect of Fractional Share Cash Amounts in accordance with Section 2.11.

2.11 Fractional Shares. No fractional shares of Parent Common Stock shall be issued in connection with the Merger, no certificate or scrip representing fractional shares of Parent Common Stock shall be issued upon the surrender for exchange of Certificates or Uncertificated Shares, and such fractional share interests shall not entitle the owner thereof to vote or to any other rights of a Parent Stockholder. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement, each holder of shares of Company Common Stock converted pursuant to the Merger who would otherwise have been entitled to receive a fraction of a share of Parent Common Stock (after aggregating all shares represented by the Certificates and Uncertificated Shares delivered by such holder) shall receive, in lieu thereof and upon surrender thereof, an amount of cash (rounded to the nearest whole cent), without interest, equal to the product of such fraction multiplied by the volume-weighted average price (rounded to the nearest one-tenth of a cent) of Parent Common Stock as reported by Nasdaq for the five trading days immediately preceding the Closing Date (the “Fractional Share Cash Amounts”). Payment shall occur as soon as practicable after the determination of the amount of cash, if any, to be paid to each former holder of Company Common Stock with respect to any fractional shares and following compliance with the surrender and payment procedures set forth in Section 2.8 and in the letter of transmittal. No dividend or distribution with respect to Parent Common Stock shall be payable on or with respect to any fractional shares and such fractional share interest shall not entitle the owner thereof to any rights of a Parent Stockholder.

ARTICLE III REPRESENTATIONS AND WARRANTIES OF THE COMPANY

Except (i) as disclosed in the letter delivered by the Company to Parent on the date of this Agreement (the “Company Disclosure Letter”), or (ii) as disclosed in the Company’s Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended July 31, 2017 (the “Company Annual Report”) and any Company SEC Reports (as defined below) filed with or furnished to the SEC by the Company after the filing of the Company Annual Report with the SEC but prior to the date hereof (other than (x) disclosures under the captions “Risk Factors,” “Forward-Looking Statements,” or similar precautionary sections and (y) any other disclosures that are predictive, cautionary, forward-looking or non-specific in nature, and in any case only to the extent that it is reasonably apparent from such disclosure that such disclosure is applicable to any section or subsection of this Article III), the Company hereby represents and warrants to Parent and Merger Sub as follows:

3.1 Organization; Good Standing.

(a) The Company is a corporation duly organized, validly existing and in good standing under Massachusetts Law, and has the requisite corporate power and authority to conduct its business as it is presently being conducted and to own, lease, operate or otherwise hold its properties and assets. The Company is not in violation of its Constitutional Documents. The Company is duly qualified to do business and is in good standing in each jurisdiction where the character of its properties owned or leased or the nature of its activities make such qualification necessary (to the extent the “good standing” concept is applicable in the case of any jurisdiction outside the United States), except where the failure to be so qualified or in good standing has not had and would not reasonably be expected to have, individually or in the aggregate, a Company Material Adverse Effect.

(b) The Company has Made Available to Parent true, correct and complete copies of the Company’s Constitutional Documents, in each case in effect as of the date of this Agreement. The Company has Made

Available to Parent true, correct and complete copies (excluding portions thereof relating to the Merger and the transactions contemplated by this Agreement and the Company's related strategic process in connection with the Merger) of the minutes (or, in the case of draft minutes, the most recent drafts thereof as of the date of this Agreement) of all meetings of the Company Stockholders, the Company Board and each committee of the Company Board held since August 1, 2014.

3.2 Corporate Power; Enforceability.

(a) The Company has the requisite corporate power and corporate authority to execute and deliver this Agreement, to perform its covenants and obligations hereunder and, subject to obtaining the Company Stockholder Approval, to consummate the transactions contemplated hereby. The execution and delivery by the Company of this Agreement, the performance by the Company of its covenants and obligations hereunder and the consummation by the Company of the transactions contemplated hereby have been duly authorized by all necessary corporate action on the part of the Company, and no additional corporate proceedings on the part of the Company or any of its Subsidiaries are necessary to authorize the execution and delivery by the Company of this Agreement, the performance by the Company of its covenants and obligations hereunder or the consummation of the Merger or other transactions contemplated hereby, other than obtaining the Company Stockholder Approval.

(b) This Agreement has been duly executed and delivered by the Company and, assuming the due authorization, execution and delivery by Parent and Merger Sub, constitutes a legal, valid and binding obligation of the Company, enforceable against the Company in accordance with its terms, except that such enforceability (i) may be limited by applicable bankruptcy, insolvency, reorganization, moratorium and other similar Laws affecting or relating to creditors' rights generally, and (ii) is subject to general principles of equity (clauses (i) and (ii), collectively, the "Enforceability Limitations").

(c) The Company Board, at a meeting duly called and held has (i) determined that the terms of the Merger and the other transactions contemplated by this Agreement are fair to, and in the best interests of, the Company and its stockholders, (ii) determined that it is in the best interests of the Company and its stockholders, and declared it advisable, to enter into this Agreement, (iii) approved the execution and delivery by the Company of this Agreement, the performance by the Company of its covenants and agreements contained herein and the consummation of the Merger and the other transactions contemplated herein and (iv) upon the terms and subject to the conditions contained herein, resolved to recommend that the holders of shares of the Company Common Stock approve this Agreement in accordance with the MBCA.

3.3 Company Stockholder Approval. The affirmative vote of the holders of two-thirds of the outstanding shares of Company Common Stock (the "Company Stockholder Approval") is the only vote of the holders of any class or series of Company Capital Stock that is necessary to approve this Agreement and consummate the Merger. No other vote of the holders of any class or series of the Company Capital Stock or other Company Securities is required by Law, the Constitutional Documents of the Company or otherwise in connection with the consummation of any of transactions contemplated hereby to be consummated by the Company, including the Merger.

3.4 Non-Contravention. The execution and delivery by the Company of this Agreement, the performance by the Company of its covenants and obligations hereunder, the compliance by the Company with the provisions hereof and the consummation by the Company of the transactions contemplated hereby do not and will not (a) violate or conflict with any provision of the Constitutional Documents of the Company or any of its Subsidiaries, (b) subject to obtaining such Consents set forth in Section 3.4 of the Company Disclosure Letter, violate, conflict with, require consent under or result in the breach of or loss of benefit under, constitute a default (or an event which with notice or lapse of time or both would become a default) under, impair the rights of the Company or any of its Subsidiaries, result in the termination of, accelerate the performance required by or result in a right of termination, cancellation, amendment or acceleration under, any Company Material Contract, in each case, in any material respect, (c) assuming the Consents referred to in Section 3.5 are obtained or made and, in the case of the consummation of the Merger, subject to obtaining the Company Stockholder Approval, violate or conflict with any Law or Order applicable to the Company or any of its Subsidiaries or by which any of their properties or assets are bound, or (d) result in the creation of any Lien (other than Permitted Liens) upon any of the properties or assets of the Company or any of its Subsidiaries, except in the case of each of clauses (b), (c) and (d) above, for any such violations, conflicts, defaults, terminations, accelerations or Liens which have not had and would not reasonably be expected to have, individually or in the aggregate, a Company Material Adverse Effect.

3.5 Required Governmental Approvals. No consent, approval, clearance, waiver, permit, Order or authorization of, filing or registration with, declaration or notification to (any of the foregoing being referred to herein as a “Consent”) any Governmental Authority is required on the part of or with respect to the Company or any of its Subsidiaries in connection with the execution and delivery by the Company of this Agreement, the performance by the Company of its covenants and obligations hereunder, the compliance by the Company with the provisions hereof and the consummation by the Company of the transactions contemplated hereby, except for:

(a) the filing of the Articles of Merger with the Secretary of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts and the Certificate of Merger with the Secretary of State of the State of Delaware;

(b) such filings and approvals as may be required by any federal or state securities Laws, including compliance with any applicable requirements of the Securities Act or the Exchange Act;

(c) Consents required under, and compliance with any other applicable requirements of, the HSR Act and any other applicable Antitrust Laws; and

(d) such other Consents and filings, the failure of which to obtain or submit would not reasonably be expected to have, individually or in the aggregate, a Company Material Adverse Effect.

3.6 Company Capitalization.

(a) The authorized capital stock of the Company consists of 150,000,000 shares of Company Common Stock. As of the close of business in New York City on May 3, 2018 (the “Capitalization Date”): (A) 54,914,530 shares of Company Common Stock were issued and outstanding and (B) no shares of Company Capital Stock were held by the Company as treasury shares. As of the closing of business in New York City on the date of this Agreement, the sum of (x) the number of issued and outstanding shares of Company Common Stock and (y) the number of shares of Company Common Stock covered by outstanding Company Restricted Stock Units does not exceed 57,134,787. No shares of capital stock of the Company are owned by any Subsidiary of the Company. All outstanding shares of Company Common Stock are validly issued, fully paid, nonassessable and free of any preemptive rights.

Parent and Merger Sub have fully paid any and all commitment fees or other fees in connection with the Commitment Letter that are due and payable on or before the date of this Agreement.

(c) Subject to the terms and conditions of the Commitment Letter and the Fee Letter (including the “market flex” provisions contained therein) and subject to the satisfaction of the conditions contained in Section 7.1 and Section 7.2, assuming the accuracy of the Company’s representations and warranties set forth in Article III and assuming compliance by the Company with the covenants set forth herein, the aggregate proceeds contemplated by the Financing, together with other financial resources of Parent and Merger Sub including cash, cash equivalents and marketable securities of Parent and Merger Sub on the Closing Date, will be sufficient to fund all of the amounts required to be provided by Parent and/or Merger Sub for the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby, including the payment of all amounts required to be paid pursuant to Article II and the payment of all associated costs and expenses of the Merger and the other transactions contemplated hereby. Proposal and terminate the access of any Person (other than Parent, Merger Sub or any of their respective designees or Representatives) to any “data room” hosted by the Company or any of its Subsidiaries or Representatives relating to any Company Acquisition Proposal. The Company shall, promptly following the execution of this Agreement, inform its Representatives of the Company’s obligations under this Section 5.3.

(c) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary set forth in this Section 5.3 or elsewhere in this Agreement, if at any time prior to the receipt of the Company Stockholder Approval (i) the Company Board has received from any Person a bona fide written Company Acquisition Proposal that did not arise out of a breach of this Section 5.3 and that the Company Board determines in good faith (after consultation with the Company’s financial advisor and outside legal counsel) either constitutes or would reasonably be expected to lead to a Superior Proposal and (ii) the Company Board determines in good faith (after consultation with outside legal counsel) that the failure to take such action would reasonably be expected to be inconsistent with its fiduciary duties under Massachusetts Law, the Company Board may (if the Company has not materially breached the provisions of this Section 5.3), directly or indirectly through the Company’s Representatives, (A) participate or engage in discussions or negotiations with such Person and its Representatives regarding such Company Acquisition Proposal, including entering into an Acceptable Confidentiality Agreement, (B) furnish to such Person and its Representatives any non-public information relating to the Company or any of its Subsidiaries and/or afford such Person and its Representatives access to the business, properties, assets, books, records or other non-public information, or the personnel, of the Company or any of its Subsidiaries, in each case under this clause (B) pursuant to an Acceptable Confidentiality Agreement, provided that, the Company shall promptly (and in any event within 24 hours) furnish Parent with any non-public information furnished to such Person or its Representatives to the extent such information has not been previously furnished by the Company to Parent or its Representatives, and/or (C) contact the Person who has made such Company Acquisition Proposal to clarify and understand the terms and conditions thereof solely to the extent necessary to enable the Company Board to determine whether such Company Acquisition Proposal constitutes a Superior Proposal or will lead to a Superior Proposal; provided that in the case of any action taken pursuant to the preceding clauses (A), (B) or (C), the Company gives Parent a prior written notice of the Company’s intention to participate or engage in discussions or negotiations with, or furnish non-public information to, such Person.

(d) The Company shall promptly (and in any event within 24 hours of receipt) notify Parent in writing if the Company or any of its Subsidiaries or their respective Representatives receives (i) any Company Acquisition Proposal, (ii) any request for information or access to the business, properties, assets, books, records or personnel of the Company or any of its Subsidiaries that could reasonably be expected to lead to a Company Acquisition Proposal or (iii) any inquiry with respect to, or which could reasonably be expected to lead to, any Company Acquisition Proposal, in each case together with the terms and conditions of such Company Acquisition Proposal, request or inquiry, the identity of the Person making any such Company Acquisition Proposal, request or inquiry and a copy of any written proposal, offer or draft agreement provided by such Person. The Company shall keep Parent fully informed on a substantially current basis of the status and details of any such Company Acquisition Proposal, request or inquiry (including by notifying Parent within 24 hours after the occurrence of any amendment or modification of the price or of any other material term of such Company Acquisition Proposal), including furnishing copies of any written correspondence sent or provided to the Company or any of its Subsidiaries that describes any of the material terms or conditions of such Company Acquisition Proposal and any draft transaction agreements sent or provided to the Company or any of its Subsidiaries. Any material amendments to any Company Acquisition Proposal shall be deemed to be a new Company Acquisition Proposal for purposes of the Company’s compliance with this Section 5.3\(d\).

(e) The Company agrees that any violation of the restrictions set forth in this Section 5.3 by any Subsidiary of the Company or any Representative of the Company or any of its Subsidiaries shall be deemed to be a breach of this Agreement by the Company.

(f) The Company shall not take any action to exempt any Person (other than Parent, Merger Sub and their respective Affiliates) from the restrictions on “business combinations” contained in Chapter 110F of the Massachusetts General Laws (or any similar provision of any other Takeover Law) or otherwise cause such restrictions not to apply, or agree to do any of the foregoing, nor approve any Person (other than Parent, Merger Sub or their respective Affiliates) becoming an “interested stockholder” under Chapter 110F of the Massachusetts General Laws (or any similar provision of any other Takeover Law), in each case unless such actions are taken or approval is given concurrently with a termination of this Agreement pursuant to Section 8.1(e).

(g) Notwithstanding anything in this Section 5.3 to the contrary, the Company shall not, and shall not permit its Subsidiaries or their respective Affiliates or Representatives to, reimburse or agree to reimburse the fees or expenses of any Person in connection with a Company Acquisition Proposal or any inquiries or the making of any proposal that could reasonably be expected to lead to a Company Acquisition Proposal (including, for the avoidance of doubt, in connection with any Acceptable Confidentiality Agreement).

ARTICLE VI ADDITIONAL COVENANTS

6.1 Further Action; Reasonable Best Efforts. Upon the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in this Agreement, each of Parent and Merger Sub, on the one hand, and the Company, on the other hand, shall use its reasonable best efforts to take, or cause to be taken, all actions, and to do, or cause to be done, and to assist and cooperate with the other party or parties hereto in doing, all things reasonably necessary, proper or advisable under applicable Law or otherwise to consummate and make effective, in the most expeditious manner practicable, the Merger and the other transactions contemplated by this Agreement, including using reasonable best efforts to: (i) cause the conditions to the Merger set forth in Article VII to be satisfied; (ii) obtain all necessary actions or non-actions, waivers, consents, approvals, orders and authorizations from Governmental Authorities and make all necessary registrations, declarations and filings with Governmental Authorities that are necessary to consummate the Merger and the other transactions contemplated by this Agreement; and (iii) obtain all necessary or appropriate consents, waivers and approvals under any Company Material Contracts to which the Company or any of its Subsidiaries is a party in connection with this Agreement and the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby so as to maintain and preserve the benefits under such Company Material Contracts following the consummation of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement. In addition to the foregoing, neither Parent or Merger Sub, on the one hand, nor the Company on the other hand, shall take any action or fail to take any action that is intended to, or has (or would reasonably be expected to have) the effect of, preventing, impairing, materially delaying or otherwise adversely affecting the consummation of the Merger or the ability of such party to fully perform its obligations under this Agreement. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, neither the Company nor any of its Subsidiaries shall, without Parent’s prior written consent, pay or commit to pay any consent or other similar fee, “profit sharing” or other similar payment, any penalty or any other consideration (including increased rent or other similar payments or any amendments, supplements or other modifications to (or waivers of) the existing terms of any Contract), or the provision of additional security (including a guaranty) to obtain the consent, waiver or approval of any Person under any Contract.

6.2 Regulatory Approvals.

(a) Parent and/or Merger Sub (and their respective Affiliates, if applicable), on the one hand, and the Company (and its Affiliates, if applicable), on the other hand, shall (i) file with the FTC and the Antitrust Division of the DOJ a Notification and Report Form relating to this Agreement and the transactions contemplated hereby as required by the HSR Act as soon as reasonably practicable after the date of this Agreement, (ii) file any pre-merger or post-merger notification filings, forms and submissions relating to this Agreement and the transactions contemplated hereby with any Governmental Authority as required by the Antitrust Laws of the jurisdictions set forth in Schedule 6.2(a) as soon as reasonably practicable after the date of this Agreement and (iii) prepare and file any other filing or written materials necessary or advisable to be made or submitted to any other Governmental Authority in connection with the Merger and the other transactions contemplated by this Agreement (the filings described in the foregoing clauses (i) through (iii) collectively, “Regulatory Filings”).

(b) Each of Parent and the Company shall (i) cooperate and coordinate with the other in the making of the Regulatory Filings (including, to the extent permitted by applicable Law, (x) providing copies of all such documents to the non-filing parties (or their outside counsel) prior to filing (provided that Parent's Notification and Report Form, and its attachments, to be filed pursuant to the HSR Act may be subject to certain customary redactions), and (y) considering all reasonable additions, deletions or changes suggested in connection therewith) and in connection with resolving any investigation, request or other inquiry of any Governmental Authority under any applicable Laws (including Antitrust Laws) or Orders with respect to any such filing, (ii) supply the other party (or its outside counsel) with any information and reasonable assistance that may be required or reasonably requested by any Governmental Authority in connection with the making of such filings, (iii) supply any additional information that may be required or reasonably requested by the FTC, the DOJ or other relevant Governmental Authority as soon as practicable and in all cases within the amount of time allowed by such Governmental Authorities and (iv) use reasonable best efforts to take, or cause to be taken, all actions and to do, or cause to be done, and to assist and cooperate with the other parties hereto in doing, all things necessary, proper or advisable to (A) obtain the HSR Antitrust Clearance, (B) obtain any required approvals, consents or expirations of applicable waiting periods under any other Antitrust Laws applicable to the Merger, and (C) avoid any impediment to the consummation of the Merger under any applicable Laws (including Antitrust Laws) or Orders, including using reasonable best efforts to take all such action as reasonably may be necessary to resolve such objections, if any, as the FTC, the DOJ or any other Governmental Authority or Person may assert under any applicable Laws (including Antitrust Laws) or Orders with respect to the Merger.

(c) Each of Parent and Merger Sub (and their respective Affiliates, if applicable), on the one hand, and the Company (and its Affiliates, if applicable), on the other hand, shall, to the extent permitted by applicable Law, promptly inform the other of any material communication from any Governmental Authority regarding any of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement in connection with any Regulatory Filings or investigations with, by or before any Governmental Authority relating to this Agreement or the transactions contemplated hereby, including any proceedings initiated by a private party. If any party hereto or Affiliate thereof shall receive a request for additional information or documentary material from any Governmental Authority with respect to a Regulatory Filing or the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, then such party shall use its reasonable best efforts to make, or cause to be made, as soon as reasonably practicable and after consultation with the other party, an appropriate response in compliance with such request. In connection with and without limiting the foregoing, to the extent permitted by applicable Law or by the applicable Governmental Authority, the parties hereto agree to (i) give each other reasonable advance notice of all meetings with any Governmental Authority relating to the Merger or any other transactions contemplated hereby, (ii) give each other an opportunity to participate in each of such meetings to the extent permitted by the Governmental Authority, (iii) keep the other party reasonably apprised with respect to any material communications with any Governmental Authority regarding the Merger or any other transactions contemplated hereby, (iv) cooperate in the filing of any analyses, presentations, memoranda, briefs, arguments, opinions or other written communications explaining or defending the Merger or any other transactions contemplated hereby, articulating any regulatory or competitive argument and/or responding to requests or objections made by any Governmental Authority, (v) provide each other with a reasonable advance opportunity to review and comment upon, and consider in good faith the views of the other with respect to, all material written communications (including any applications, analyses, presentations, memoranda, briefs, arguments and opinions) and planned oral communications with a Governmental Authority regarding the Merger or any other transactions contemplated hereby, and (vi) provide each other (or counsel of each party, as appropriate) with copies of all material written communications to or from any Governmental Authority relating to the Merger or any other transactions contemplated hereby. Any such disclosures, rights to participate or provisions of information by one party to the other may be made on a counsel-only or outside counsel-only basis to the extent required under applicable Law or as appropriate to protect confidential business information or maintain attorney-client or other privilege.

(d) Each of Parent, Merger Sub and the Company shall cooperate with one another to (i) promptly determine whether any filings not contemplated by this Section 6.2 are required to be or should be made, and whether any other consents, approvals, permits or authorizations not contemplated by this Section 6.2 are required to be or should be obtained, from any Governmental Authority under any other applicable Law in connection with the transactions contemplated hereby, and (ii) promptly make any filings, furnish information required in connection therewith and seek to obtain timely any such consents, permits, authorizations, approvals or waivers that the parties determine are required to be or should be made or obtained in connection with the transactions contemplated hereby.

(e) Without limiting the effect of Section 6.2\(b\), each of Parent, Merger Sub and the Company (i) shall use reasonable best efforts to avoid or eliminate impediments under any Antitrust Laws that may be asserted by the FTC, the DOJ or any other Governmental Authority with respect to the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, in each case, so as to enable the Closing to occur as promptly as practicable following the date of this Agreement and, in any event, prior to the Termination Date, including proposing, negotiating, offering to commit and effecting, by consent decree, hold separate order or otherwise, the sale, license, assignment, transfer or other divestiture or disposition of any of the respective businesses, services, products or assets of Parent or any of its Subsidiaries and the Company or any of its Subsidiaries and (ii) shall not take any action (including the acquisition by Parent or the Company, or any of their respective Affiliates, of any Person that derives revenues from products, services or lines of business similar to any Company Product or Parent Product or the consummation of, or the entry into any agreement with respect to, a Parent Acquisition Transaction) if such action would make it materially more likely that there would arise any impediments under any Antitrust Law that may be asserted by any Governmental Authority to the consummation of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, including the Merger.

(f) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Agreement, none of Parent, Merger Sub or the Company shall be required, in connection with obtaining the HSR Antitrust Clearance or Non-U.S. Antitrust Clearances: (i) to defend through Legal Proceedings on the merits any claim asserted in any court to the transactions contemplated by this Agreement by any party, including appeals; (ii) to agree or proffer to limit or not to exercise any rights of ownership of any securities or agree or proffer to enter into any agreement that limits the ownership or operation of, or freedom of action with respect to, any respective business of Parent or any of its Subsidiaries or the Company or any of its Subsidiaries; (iii) to agree to any term or take any action that is not conditioned upon the consummation of the Merger and the other transactions contemplated by this Agreement; or (iv) to agree to any term or take any action that would result in the sale, license, assignment, transfer or other divestiture or disposition of, holding separate or any other limitation on, (A) in the case of businesses, services, products or assets of the Company and its Subsidiaries, with respect to any such businesses, services, products or assets that generated aggregate revenue for the twelve (12) month period ended December 30, 2017 of greater than $20,000,000 and (B) in the case of businesses, services, products or assets of Parent and its Subsidiaries, with respect to any such businesses, services, products or assets that generated aggregate revenue for the twelve (12) month period ended December 30, 2017 of greater than $4,000,000; provided, that none of Parent, Merger Sub or the Company shall be required to agree to any sale, license, assignment, transfer or other divestiture or disposition of, holding separate or any other limitation on products or services that have not yet been commercialized (including those under development or in the research, planning, prototyping, design, pre-production, evaluation or testing phases). The Company shall not, and shall cause its Subsidiaries and Representatives not to, without the written consent of Parent, publicly or before any Governmental Authority or other third party, offer, suggest, propose or negotiate, and shall not commit to or effect, by consent decree, hold separate order or otherwise, any sale, license, assignment, transfer or other divestiture or disposition of, holding separate or any other limitation on any of the respective businesses, services, products or assets of Parent, the Company or any of their respective Subsidiaries.

Each of the Company and Parent shall use its reasonable best efforts to (A) have the Form S-4 declared effective under the Securities Act as promptly as practicable after such filing, (B) ensure that the Form S-4 and the Joint Proxy Statement/Prospectus comply in all material respects with the applicable requirements of the Exchange Act and the rules of the SEC and Nasdaq and (C) keep the Form S-4 effective for so long as necessary to complete the Merger and the other transactions contemplated by this Agreement, including the Parent Common Stock Issuance. provide such other assistance as may be reasonably requested in connection with the preparation, filing with the SEC and distribution of the Form S-4 and the Joint Proxy Statement/Prospectus or any amendment or supplement thereto. If at any time prior to the Company Stockholder Meeting or the Parent Stockholder Meeting, as applicable, any information relating to the Company, on the one hand, or Parent or Merger Sub, on the other hand, or any of their respective directors, officers or other Affiliates, should be discovered by the Company, on the one hand, or Parent or Merger Sub, on the other hand, respectively, which should be set forth in an amendment or supplement to the Form S-4 or the Joint Proxy Statement/Prospectus, so that the Form S-4 or Joint Proxy Statement/Prospectus would not include any misstatement of a material fact or omit to state any material fact necessary to make the statements therein, in light of the circumstances under which they were made, not misleading, the party that discovers such information shall promptly notify the others, and the Company and Parent shall cooperate to promptly prepare and file with the SEC an appropriate amendment or supplement to the Form S-4 and/or the Joint Proxy Statement/Prospectus, as applicable, describing such information and, to the extent required by applicable Law or the SEC or its staff, disseminate such amendment or supplement to the Company Stockholders and/or the Parent Stockholders, as applicable.

(b) Each of the Company and Parent shall use its reasonable best efforts to respond promptly to any comments made by the SEC or its staff with respect to the Form S-4 and/or Joint Proxy Statement/Prospectus and shall use reasonable best efforts to have the Form S-4 and Joint Proxy Statement/Prospectus cleared by the SEC as promptly as practicable after the filing thereof. Subject to applicable Law, each of the Company and Parent shall use its respective reasonable best efforts to cause the Joint Proxy Statement/Prospectus to be disseminated to the Company Stockholders and the Parent Stockholders, respectively, as promptly as practicable after the registration statement on Form S-4 becomes effective.

(c) (i) Neither the Company nor Parent shall file with the SEC nor mail the Form S-4 or Joint Proxy Statement/Prospectus or any amendment or supplement thereto, and (ii) the Company and Parent shall not correspond or otherwise communicate with the SEC or its staff with respect to the Form S-4 or Joint Proxy Statement/Prospectus, in any such case referenced in the preceding clause (i) or (ii) without providing the other party a reasonable advance opportunity to review and comment thereon or participate therein, as the case may be.

(d) Each of the Company and Parent shall advise the other party, promptly after it receives notice thereof, of any receipt of a request by the SEC or its staff for an amendment or revisions to the Form S-4 or Joint Proxy Statement/Prospectus, any receipt of comments from the SEC or its staff on the Form S-4 or Joint Proxy Statement/Prospectus, or any receipt of a request by the SEC or its staff for additional information in connection therewith, and shall provide the other party with copies of all written correspondence between the such Person and its Representatives, on the one hand, and the SEC or its staff, on the other hand, with respect to the Form S-4 and/or Joint Proxy Statement/Prospectus, as applicable. Each of the Company and Parent also shall provide the other party with copies of any written comments or responses to be submitted by such Person in response to any comments or inquiries from the SEC or the staff thereof and shall provide the other parties a reasonable opportunity to participate in the formulation of any written response to any such written comments of the SEC or its staff relating to the Form S-4 and/or Joint Proxy Statement/Prospectus, as applicable.

(e) Unless the Company Board or any authorized committee thereof shall have effected a Company Board Recommendation Change specifically permitted by Section 6.5, the Company shall include the Company Board Recommendation in the Joint Proxy Statement/Prospectus. Unless the Parent Board or any authorized committee thereof shall have effected a Parent Board Recommendation Change specifically permitted by Section 6.5, Parent shall include the Parent Board Recommendation in the Joint Proxy Statement/Prospectus.

6.4 Stockholder Meetings.

(a) As soon as practicable following the date hereof, the Company shall, in consultation with Parent, establish a record date for a meeting of the Company Stockholders (such meeting or any adjournment or postponement thereof, the “Company Stockholder Meeting”) for the purpose of voting to approve the Merger in accordance with the MBCA and commence a broker search pursuant to Section 14a-13 of the Exchange Act in connection therewith. The Company shall duly call, give notice of, convene and hold the Company Stockholder Meeting as promptly as practicable (and in any event no later than 60 calendar days) after the Joint Proxy

Statement/Prospectus is disseminated to Company Stockholders; provided that nothing herein shall prevent the Company from postponing or adjourning the Company Stockholder Meeting on any occasion if (i) there are holders of insufficient shares of the Company Common Stock present or represented by a proxy at the Company Stockholder Meeting to constitute a quorum at the Company Stockholder Meeting, (ii) the Company is required to postpone or adjourn the Company Stockholder Meeting by applicable Law, Order or a request from the SEC or its staff, or (iii) after prior consultation with Parent, the Company Board or any authorized committee thereof shall have determined in good faith (after consultation with outside legal counsel) that it is necessary or appropriate to postpone or adjourn the Company Stockholder Meeting in order to (A) give Company Stockholders sufficient time to evaluate any information or disclosure that the Company has sent to Company Stockholders or otherwise made available to Company Stockholders by issuing a press release, filing materials with the SEC or otherwise (including in connection with a Company Board Recommendation Change) or (B) to provide additional time to solicit proxies from Company Stockholders; provided, further, that the Company shall not postpone or adjourn the Company Stockholder Meeting to a date that is (x) in the aggregate more than thirty (30) days after the date for which the Company Stockholder Meeting was originally scheduled (other than, following consultation with Parent, any adjournments or postponements required by applicable Law, Order or a request from the SEC or its staff) or (y) less than five (5) Business Days prior to the Termination Date, in the case of the foregoing clauses (i) or (iii). All other postponements or adjournments shall require the prior written consent of Parent. The Company shall, on the reasonable request of Parent, advise Parent promptly as to the aggregate tally of proxies received by the Company with respect to the Company Stockholder Approval.

(b) The Company shall submit the Merger for approval by the Company Stockholders at the Company Stockholder Meeting and solicit from the Company Stockholders proxies with respect to the approval of the Merger in accordance with Massachusetts Law. Unless the Company Board or any authorized committee thereof shall have effected a Company Board Recommendation Change specifically permitted by Section 6.5, the Joint Proxy Statement/Prospectus will include the Company Board Recommendation and the Company will use its reasonable best efforts to secure the Company Stockholder Approval at the Company Stockholder Meeting. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the Company agrees that (i) its obligations pursuant to the first sentence of this Section 6.4(b) shall be unconditional unless this Agreement is terminated pursuant to Article VIII whether or not the Company Board shall have made a Company Board Recommendation Change and (ii) its obligations pursuant to the second sentence of this Section 6.4(b) shall be unconditional unless this Agreement is terminated pursuant to Article VIII or the Company Board shall have made a Company Board Recommendation Change specifically permitted by Section 6.5.

(c) As soon as practicable following the date hereof, Parent shall, in consultation with the Company, establish a record date for a meeting of the Parent Stockholders (such meeting or any adjournment or postponement thereof, the “Parent Stockholder Meeting”) for the purpose of voting to approve the Parent Common Stock Issuance in accordance with Parent’s Constitutional Documents, Delaware Law and the rules and regulations of Nasdaq and commence a broker search pursuant to Section 14a-13 of the Exchange Act in connection therewith. Parent shall duly call, give notice of, convene and hold the Parent Stockholder Meeting as promptly as practicable (and in any event no later than 60 calendar days) after the Joint Proxy Statement/Prospectus is disseminated to Parent Stockholders; provided that nothing herein shall prevent Parent from postponing or adjourning the Parent Stockholder Meeting on any occasion if (i) there are holders of insufficient shares of the Parent Common Stock present or represented by a proxy at the Parent Stockholder Meeting to constitute a quorum at the Parent Stockholder Meeting, (ii) Parent is required to postpone or adjourn the Parent Stockholder Meeting by applicable Law, Order or a request from the SEC or its staff, or (iii) after prior consultation with the Company, the Parent Board or any authorized committee thereof shall have determined in good faith (after consultation with outside legal counsel) that it is necessary or appropriate to postpone or adjourn the Parent Stockholder Meeting in order to (A) give Parent Stockholders sufficient time to evaluate any information or disclosure that Parent has sent to Parent Stockholders or otherwise made available to Parent Stockholders by issuing a press release, filing materials with the SEC or otherwise (including in connection with a Parent Board Recommendation Change) or (B) to provide additional time to solicit proxies from Parent Stockholders; provided, further, that Parent shall not postpone or adjourn the Parent Stockholder Meeting to a date that is (x) in the aggregate more than thirty (30) days after the date for which the Parent Stockholder

Meeting was originally scheduled (other than, following consultation with Parent any adjournments or postponements required by applicable Law, Order or a request from the SEC or its staff) or (y) less than five (5) Business Days prior to the Termination Date, in the case of the foregoing clauses (i) or (iii). All other postponements or adjournments shall require the prior written consent of the Company. Parent shall, on the reasonable request of the Company, advise the Company promptly as to the aggregate tally of proxies received by Parent with respect to the Parent Stockholder Approval.

(d) Parent shall submit the Merger and the Parent Common Stock Issuance for approval by the Parent Stockholders at the Parent Stockholder Meeting and solicit from the Parent Stockholders proxies with respect to the approval of the Merger and the Parent Common Stock Issuance in accordance with Delaware Law and the rules and regulations of Nasdaq. Unless the Parent Board or any authorized committee thereof shall have effected a Parent Board Recommendation Change specifically permitted by Section 6.6, the Joint Proxy Statement/Prospectus will include the Parent Board Recommendation and Parent will use its reasonable best efforts to secure the Parent Stockholder Approval at the Parent Stockholder Meeting. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, Parent agrees that (i) its obligations pursuant to the first sentence of this Section 6.4(d) shall be unconditional unless this Agreement is terminated pursuant to Article VIII whether or not the Parent Board shall have made a Parent Board Recommendation Change and (ii) its obligations pursuant to the second sentence of this Section 6.4(d) shall be unconditional unless this Agreement is terminated pursuant to Article VIII or the Parent Board shall have made a Parent Board Recommendation Change specifically permitted by Section 6.6.

(e) The Company and Parent will use their respective reasonable best efforts to hold the Company Stockholder Meeting and the Parent Stockholder Meeting on the same date and as soon as reasonably practicable after the date of this Agreement.

6.5 Company Board Recommendation.

(a) Neither the Company Board nor any committee thereof shall (i) withhold, withdraw, amend, qualify or modify in a manner adverse to Parent, or publicly propose to withhold, withdraw, amend, qualify or modify in a manner adverse to Parent, the Company Board Recommendation, (ii) approve, endorse or recommend, or publicly propose to approve, endorse or recommend, a Company Acquisition Proposal, (iii) fail to include the Company Board Recommendation in the Joint Proxy Statement/Prospectus, (iv) if a tender offer or exchange offer that constitutes a Company Acquisition Proposal is commenced, fail to publicly recommend against acceptance of such tender offer or exchange offer by the Company Stockholders (including, for these purposes, by disclosing that it is taking no position with respect to the acceptance of such tender offer or exchange offer by the Company Stockholders, which shall constitute a failure to recommend against acceptance of such tender offer or exchange offer; provided that a customary “stop, look and listen” communication by the Company Board pursuant to Rule 14d-9(f) under the Exchange Act or a statement that the Company Board has received and is currently evaluating such Company Acquisition Proposal shall not be prohibited or be deemed to be a Company Board Recommendation Change) within ten (10) Business Days after the commencement thereof or such fewer number of days as remain prior to the Company Stockholder Meeting, or (v) fail to publicly reaffirm the Company Board Recommendation following any Company Acquisition Proposal having been publicly made, proposed or communicated (and not publicly withdrawn) within ten (10) Business Days after Parent so requests in writing; provided that Parent may not make such request more than one time with respect to any Company Acquisition Proposal unless there shall have been an additional public announcement by the Company with respect to such Company Acquisition Proposal (each of clauses (i), (ii), (iii), (iv) and (v), a “Company Board Recommendation Change”).

(b) Notwithstanding the foregoing or anything to the contrary set forth in this Agreement, at any time prior to the receipt of the Company Stockholder Approval, (1) in connection with a Company Intervening Event or (2) if the Company Board receives a Company Acquisition Proposal that constitutes a Superior Proposal, the Company Board may (x) in the case of clause (1) effect a Company Board Recommendation Change or (y) in the case of clause (2), effect a Company Board Recommendation Change and authorize the Company to terminate this Agreement to concurrently enter into a definitive agreement with respect to such Superior Proposal, in each case, if and only if, prior to effecting such Company Board Recommendation Change and/or authorizing the Company to terminate this Agreement to concurrently enter into a definitive agreement with respect to such Superior Proposal:

(i) the Company Board determines in good faith, after consultation with its outside legal counsel, that failure to do so would be inconsistent with its fiduciary duties under Massachusetts Law;

(ii) the Company shall have notified Parent in writing at least five (5) Business Days before taking such action of its intention to do so, and shall have specified the reasons therefor, including (A) if such notice is made in connection with a Company Intervening Event, a reasonable description of the Company Intervening Event and (B) if such notice is made in connection with a Superior Proposal, the terms and conditions of, and the identity of the Person making such Superior Proposal, and contemporaneously with such notice furnished a copy (if any) of the proposed agreement under which such Superior Proposal is proposed to be consummated and any other material transaction documents, including any financing commitment letters (it being understood and agreed that, with respect to any amendment to the financial terms or other material terms of such Superior Proposal, the Company shall have provided Parent a new written notice and a new additional period of three (3) Business Days in respect of each such amendment); it being agreed that any of the foregoing notice and any amendment to update such notice and the determination to deliver such notice, or update or amend public disclosure with respect thereto shall not constitute a Company Board Recommendation Change for purposes of this Agreement;

(iii) during such five (5) Business Day period or, if applicable, such additional three (3) Business Day period(s), prior to its effecting a Company Board Recommendation Change or terminating this Agreement, if requested by Parent, the Company shall have made its Representatives available to negotiate with Parent's Representatives in good faith regarding any revisions to the terms of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement proposed by Parent;

(iv) if Parent shall have delivered to the Company a written offer to modify the terms and conditions of this Agreement during such five (5) Business Day period or, if applicable, such additional three (3) Business Day period(s), the Company Board, after expiration of the applicable period and after taking into consideration the adjusted terms and conditions of this Agreement as proposed by Parent, shall have determined in good faith (after consultation with its outside legal counsel and financial advisor) that (A) in the case of a Superior Proposal, such Superior Proposal continued to be a Superior Proposal, and that the failure to make a Company Board Recommendation Change or terminate this Agreement would be inconsistent with its fiduciary duties to the Company Stockholders under Massachusetts Law or (B) in the case of a Company Intervening Event, the failure to make a Company Board Recommendation Change would be inconsistent with its fiduciary duties under Massachusetts Law; and

(v) in the case of the Company terminating this Agreement to enter into a definitive agreement with respect to a Superior Proposal, the Company shall have paid, or caused the payment of, the Termination Fee in accordance with Section 8.3(b)(iii).

(c) Nothing in this Agreement shall prohibit the Company Board and/or any authorized committee thereof from (i) taking and disclosing to the Company Stockholders a position contemplated by Rule 14e-2(a) under the Exchange Act or complying with the provisions of Rule 14d-9 promulgated under the Exchange Act and (ii) making any disclosure to the Company Stockholders that the Company Board and/or any committee thereof determines in good faith (after consultation from its outside legal counsel) that the failure to make such disclosure would be inconsistent with its fiduciary duties under Massachusetts Law; provided that any such disclosure (other than a "stop, look and listen" communication or any substantially similar communication of the type contemplated by Section 14d-9(f) under the Exchange Act) shall be deemed to be a Company Board Recommendation Change (including for purposes of Section 8.1(f)) unless the Company Board expressly reaffirms its recommendation to the Company Stockholders in favor of the approval of this Agreement and the Merger in such disclosure; provided, further, that this Section 6.5(c) shall not be deemed to permit the Company Board to make a Company Board Recommendation Change or take any of the actions referred to in Section 6.5(b), except, in each case, to the extent permitted by Section 6.5(b).

6.6 Parent Board Recommendation.

(a) Neither the Parent Board nor any committee thereof shall (i) withhold, withdraw, amend, qualify or modify in a manner adverse to the Company, or publicly propose to withhold, withdraw, amend, qualify or modify in a manner adverse to the Company, the Parent Board Recommendation, (ii) fail to include the Parent Board Recommendation in the Joint Proxy Statement/Prospectus or (iii) fail to publicly reaffirm the Parent Board Recommendation following any Parent Acquisition Proposal having been publicly made, proposed or communicated (and not publicly withdrawn) within ten (10) Business Days after the Company so requests in writing; provided that the Company may not make such request more than one time with respect to any Parent Acquisition Proposal unless there shall have been an additional public announcement by Parent with respect to such Parent Acquisition Proposal (each of clauses (i), (ii) and (iii), a “Parent Board Recommendation Change”).

(b) Notwithstanding the foregoing or anything to the contrary set forth in this Agreement, at any time prior to the receipt of the Parent Stockholder Approval, (1) in connection with a Parent Intervening Event or (2) if the Parent Board receives a Parent Acquisition Proposal that constitutes a Parent Superior Proposal, the Parent Board may effect a Parent Board Recommendation Change, in each case, if and only if, prior to effecting such Parent Board Recommendation Change:

(i) the Parent Board determines in good faith, after consultation with its outside legal counsel, that failure to do so would be inconsistent with its fiduciary duties under Delaware Law;

(ii) Parent shall have notified the Company in writing at least five (5) Business Days before taking such action of its intention to do so, and shall have specified the reasons therefor, including (A) if such notice is made in connection with a Parent Intervening Event, a reasonable description of the Parent Intervening Event and (B) if such notice is made in connection with a Parent Superior Proposal, the terms and conditions of, and the identity of the Person make such Parent Superior Proposal;

(iii) during such five (5) Business Day period, prior to its effecting a Parent Board Recommendation Change, if requested by the Company, Parent shall have made its Representatives available to negotiate with the Company’s Representatives in good faith regarding any revisions to the terms of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement proposed by Parent; and

(iv) if the Company shall have delivered to Parent a written offer to modify the terms and conditions of this Agreement during such five (5) Business Day period, the Parent Board, after expiration of such period and after taking into consideration the adjusted terms and conditions of this Agreement as proposed by the Company, shall have determined in good faith (after consultation with its outside legal counsel and financial advisor) that, (A) in the case of a Parent Superior Proposal, such Parent Superior Proposal continued to be a Parent Superior Proposal, and that the failure to make a Parent Board Recommendation Change would be inconsistent with its fiduciary duties to the Parent Stockholders under Delaware Law or (B) in the case of a Parent Intervening Event, the failure to make a Parent Board Recommendation Change would be inconsistent with its fiduciary duties under Delaware Law.

(c) Nothing in this Agreement shall prohibit the Parent Board and/or any authorized committee thereof from making any disclosure to the Parent Stockholders that the Parent Board and/or any committee thereof determines in good faith (after consultation from its outside legal counsel) that the failure to make such disclosure would be inconsistent with its fiduciary duties under Delaware Law; provided that any such disclosure shall be deemed to be a Parent Board Recommendation Change (including for purposes of Section 8.1\(f\), unless the Parent Board expressly reaffirms its recommendation to the Parent Stockholders in favor of the approval of this Agreement and the Merger in such disclosure; provided, further, that this Section 6.6\(c\) shall not be deemed to permit the Parent Board to make a Parent Board Recommendation Change or take any of the actions referred to in Section 6.6\(b\), except, in each case, to the extent permitted by Section 6.6\(b\).

6.7 Public Statements and Disclosure. The initial press release relating to this Agreement shall be a joint press release, the text of which shall be agreed to by both Parent and the Company. Thereafter, none of the Company, on the one hand, or Parent and Merger Sub, on the other hand, shall issue any public release or make any public announcement concerning this Agreement or the transactions contemplated by this Agreement without the prior written consent of the other (which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed), except as such release or announcement may be required by applicable Law or by obligations pursuant to any listing agreement with any applicable securities exchange or regulatory or Governmental Authority to which the relevant party is subject or submits, wherever situated, in which case the party required to make the release or announcement shall use its reasonable best efforts to allow the other party or parties hereto reasonable time to comment on such release or announcement in advance of such issuance; provided that the restrictions set forth in this Section 6.7 shall not apply to (i) any release or announcement made or proposed to be made by the Company following a Company Board Recommendation Change, (ii) any release or announcement made or proposed to be made by Parent following a Parent Board Recommendation Change or (iii) any filing to be made by a party pursuant to the Exchange Act; provided, further, that each party may make statements that substantially reiterate (and are not inconsistent with) previous press releases, public disclosures or public statements made by the parties in compliance with this Section 6.7.

6.8 Anti-Takeover Laws. In the event that any Takeover Law is or becomes applicable to this Agreement or any of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, the Company, Parent and Merger Sub shall take all action necessary within their respective control (including, in the case of the Company and the Company Board, grant all necessary approvals) to ensure that the transactions contemplated by this Agreement may be consummated as promptly as practicable on the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in this Agreement and otherwise to eliminate, or if it is not possible to eliminate, to minimize the effect of such Takeover Law on this Agreement and the transactions contemplated hereby.

6.9 Access. At all times during the period commencing from the date of this Agreement and continuing until the earlier to occur of the termination of this Agreement pursuant to Article VIII and the Effective Time, the Company shall, and shall cause each of its Subsidiaries to, afford Parent, Merger Sub, and their respective Representatives reasonable access during normal business hours, upon reasonable notice, to the properties, assets, books and records, Contracts, facilities and personnel of the Company and its Subsidiaries; provided that the Company may restrict or otherwise prohibit access to any documents or information to the extent that (a) any applicable Law requires the Company to restrict or otherwise prohibit access to such documents or information, (b) access to such documents or information would give rise to a material risk of waiving any attorney-client privilege, work product doctrine or other privilege held by the Company or its Subsidiaries and (c) access to a Contract to which the Company or any of its Subsidiaries is a party or is otherwise bound would violate or cause a default under, or give a third party the right to terminate or accelerate the rights under, such Contract; and provided further that no information or knowledge obtained by Parent in any investigation conducted pursuant to the access contemplated by this Section 6.9 shall affect or be deemed to modify any representation or warranty of the Company set forth in this Agreement or otherwise impair the rights and remedies available to Parent and Merger Sub hereunder. In the event that the Company does not provide access or information in reliance on the preceding sentence, it shall use its reasonable best efforts to communicate the applicable information to Parent in a way that would not violate any applicable Law, Contract or obligation or waive such a privilege. Any investigation conducted pursuant to the access contemplated by this Section 6.9 shall be conducted in a manner that does not unreasonably interfere with the conduct of the business of the Company and its Subsidiaries or create a risk of damage or destruction to any property or assets of the Company or any of its Subsidiaries. Any access to the properties of the Company or any of its Subsidiaries shall be subject to the terms and conditions of any applicable Lease and the Company's reasonable security measures and insurance requirements. The terms and conditions of the Confidentiality Agreement shall apply to any information obtained by Parent, Merger Sub or any of their respective Representatives pursuant to the access contemplated by this Section 6.9. Nothing in this Section 6.9 or elsewhere in this Agreement shall be construed to require the Company, any of its Subsidiaries or any Representatives of any of the foregoing to prepare any reports, analyses, appraisals, opinions or other information.

6.10 Section 16 Matters. Prior to the Effective Time, the Company and Parent shall, as applicable, take all actions reasonably necessary or appropriate to cause the transactions contemplated by this Agreement and any other dispositions of equity securities of the Company and Parent, in each case, (including derivative securities), respectively, in connection with the transactions contemplated by this Agreement by each individual who is a director or officer of the Company subject to the reporting requirements of Section 16(a) of the Exchange Act, to be exempt under Rule 16b-3 promulgated under the Exchange Act.

6.11 Directors' and Officers' Indemnification and Insurance.

(a) The Surviving Corporation and its Subsidiaries shall (and Parent shall cause the Surviving Corporation and its Subsidiaries to) honor and fulfill in all respects the obligations of the Company and its Subsidiaries under any and all (i) indemnification agreements set forth in Section 6.11 of the Company Disclosure Letter, and as in effect on the date of this Agreement, between the Company or any of its Subsidiaries and (A) any of their respective current or former directors and officers as of the date of this Agreement pursuant to the terms of such agreements as in effect on the date hereof and (B) any person who becomes a director or officer of the Company or any of its Subsidiaries prior to the Effective Time and executes an indemnification agreement on terms no less favorable to the Company and no more favorable to such person than the current form of indemnification agreement with its directors and officers that has been made available to Parent (the "Indemnified Persons") and (ii) indemnification, expense advancement and exculpation provisions in any Constitutional Documents of the Company or any of its Subsidiaries in effect on the date of this Agreement, in each case until the sixth (6th) anniversary of the Effective Time. In addition, during the period commencing at the Effective Time and ending on the sixth (6th) anniversary of the Effective Time, the Surviving Corporation and its Subsidiaries shall (and Parent shall cause the Surviving Corporation and its Subsidiaries to) cause the certificates of incorporation and bylaws (and other similar organizational documents) of the Surviving Corporation and its Subsidiaries to contain provisions with respect to indemnification, exculpation and the advancement of expenses, covering acts and omissions of directors and officers, in each case in their respective capacities as such, occurring at or prior to the Effective Time, that are at least as favorable as the indemnification, exculpation and advancement of expenses provisions contained in the certificates of incorporation and bylaws (or other similar organizational documents) of the Company and its Subsidiaries as of the date hereof, and during such six-year period, such provisions shall not be repealed, amended or otherwise modified in any manner adverse to the Indemnified Persons except as required by applicable Law.

(b) Prior to the Effective Time, notwithstanding anything to the contrary set forth in this Agreement, the Company shall purchase a six-year "tail" prepaid policy on the Company's current directors' and officers' liability insurance ("D&O Insurance"), provided that the Company shall not pay, and Parent and the Surviving Corporation shall not be obligated to pay, annual premiums in excess of three hundred percent (300%) of the amount paid by the Company for coverage for its last full fiscal year (such three hundred percent (300%) amount, the "Maximum Annual Premium") (which premiums the Company represents and warrants to be as set forth in Section 3.23 of the Company Disclosure Letter). The Surviving Corporation shall (and Parent shall cause the Surviving Corporation to) maintain such "tail" policy in full force and effect. The Surviving Corporation shall (and Parent shall cause the Surviving Corporation to) maintain such a "tail" policy in full force and effect.

(c) If Parent or the Surviving Corporation or any of its successors or assigns shall (i) consolidate with or merge into any other Person and shall not be the continuing or surviving corporation or entity of such consolidation or merger, or (ii) transfer all or substantially all of its properties and assets to any Person, then, and in each such case, proper provisions shall be made so that such continuing or surviving corporation or entity or transferee of such properties or assets, as the case may be, shall assume all of the obligations of Parent and the Surviving Corporation set forth in this Section 6.11.

(d) The obligations set forth in this Section 6.11 shall not be terminated, amended or otherwise modified in any manner that adversely affects any Indemnified Person without the prior written consent of such affected Indemnified Person. Each of the Indemnified Persons (and their heirs) are intended to be third-party beneficiaries of this Section 6.11 with full rights of enforcement as if a party thereto. The rights of the Indemnified Persons (and their heirs) under this Section 6.11 shall be in addition to, and not in substitution for, any other rights that such persons may have under the certificates of incorporation, bylaws or other equivalent organizational documents, any and all indemnification agreements, if any, with the Company or any of its Subsidiaries as Made Available to Parent, or applicable Law (whether at law or in equity). The obligations and liability of Parent, the Surviving Corporation and their respective Subsidiaries under this Section 6.11 shall be joint and several.

(e) Nothing in this Agreement is intended to, shall be construed to or shall release, waive or impair any rights to directors' and officers' insurance claims under any policy that is or has been in existence with respect to the Company or any of its Subsidiaries for any of their respective directors, officers or other employees, it being understood and agreed that the indemnification provided for in this Section 6.11 is not prior to or in substitution for any such claims under such policies.

6.12 Employee Matters.

(a) For a period of one (1) year following the Effective Time (or such shorter time as a Continuing Employee remains employed by the Surviving Corporation and its Subsidiaries following the Effective Time), the Surviving Corporation and its Subsidiaries shall (and Parent shall cause the Surviving Corporation and its Subsidiaries to) provide, for the benefit of Continuing Employees, employee benefits (excluding equity-based benefits and individual employment agreements) that are no less favorable in the aggregate than the benefits that were provided to the Continuing Employees under the Company Employee Plans as of immediately prior to the Effective Time (such employee benefit plans, the "Company Plans"). In addition, base salary, bonus opportunity or regular wages as of immediately prior to the Effective Time shall not be decreased for a period of one (1) year following the Effective Time for any Continuing Employee who continues to be employed by the Surviving Corporation or an Affiliate during that period.

(b) To the extent that a Company Plan is made available to any Continuing Employee at or following the Effective Time, the Surviving Corporation shall (and Parent shall cause the Surviving Corporation to) use commercially reasonable efforts to cause to be granted to such Continuing Employee credit for all service with the Company and its Subsidiaries prior to the Effective Time for purposes of eligibility to participate and vesting, and solely for purposes of vacation, sick time or paid time off accrual and severance pay, entitlement to benefits where length of service is relevant; provided that such service need not be credited to the extent that it would result in duplication of coverage or benefits. In addition, and without limiting the generality of the foregoing, to the extent commercially reasonable: (i) each Continuing Employee shall be immediately eligible to participate, without any waiting time, in any and all employee benefit plans sponsored by the Surviving Corporation and its Subsidiaries (other than the Company Plans) (such plans, collectively, the "New Plans") to the extent coverage under any such New Plan replaces coverage under a comparable Company Plan in which such Continuing Employee participates immediately before the Effective Time (such plans, collectively, the "Old Plans"); (ii) for purposes of each New Plan providing medical, dental, pharmaceutical, vision and/or disability benefits to any Continuing Employee, the Surviving Corporation shall cause all waiting periods, pre-existing condition exclusions, evidence of insurability requirements and actively-at-work or similar requirements of such New Plan to be waived for such Continuing Employee and his or her covered dependents to the extent it would have been waived under the comparable Old Plan, and the Surviving Corporation shall cause any eligible expenses incurred by such Continuing Employee and his or her covered dependents during any unfinished portion of the plan year of the Old Plan ending on the date such Continuing Employee's participation in the corresponding New Plan begins to be given full credit under such New Plan for purposes of satisfying all deductible, coinsurance and maximum out-of-pocket requirements applicable to such Continuing Employee and his or her covered dependents for the applicable plan year as if such amounts had been paid in accordance with such New Plan; and (iii) the Surviving Corporation shall credit the accounts of such Continuing Employee under any New Plan which is a flexible spending plan with any unused balance in the account of such Continuing Employee under the applicable Company Plan. Any vacation or paid time off accrued but unused by a Continuing Employee as of immediately prior to the Effective Time shall be credited to such Continuing Employee following the Effective Time, subject to applicable accrual limits or other forfeiture.

(c) On or as soon as administratively practicable (consistent with past practices) following the later of the Closing and December 31, 2018, Parent shall establish a replacement incentive compensation plan (the "Replacement Bonus Plan") for the participants of the Xcerra Executive Profit Sharing Plan and the Xcerra

Extended Executive Profit Sharing Plan (the “FY2019 Plans”) who remain employed by Surviving Corporation or another Affiliate of Parent through such date, covering the period from the date the Replacement Bonus Plan is established through the end of Parent’s then-current fiscal year. The Replacement Bonus Plan shall provide target annual bonus compensation for each such participant equivalent to the participant’s target annual bonus compensation from the applicable FY2019 Plan, which will be paid out pro rata based on the number of days in the fiscal year that the Replacement Bonus Plan covers. All other terms, considered in the aggregate, of the Replacement Bonus Plan shall be no less favorable for all Continuing Employees than the terms of the FY2019 Plans.

(d) Prior to making any written or oral communications to the Continuing Employees pertaining to compensation or benefits matters set forth in this Section 6.12, the Company shall provide Parent with a copy of the intended communication and Parent shall have a reasonable period of time to review and comment on the communication.

(e) No later than thirty (30) Business Days following the date of this Agreement, with respect to each “officer” of the Company (as defined in Rule 16a-1 promulgated under the Exchange Act) (each a “Section 16 Officer”) and any other “disqualified individual” of the Company (as defined in Section 280G(c) of the Code), the Company shall furnish a schedule that sets forth (i) the Company’s reasonable, good faith estimate of the maximum amount (separately identifying single and double-trigger amounts and any tax gross-up payments) that could be paid to such Section 16 Officer or other disqualified individual as a result of any of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement (including the Merger) (alone or in combination with any other event), (ii) the “base amount” (as defined in Section 280G(b)(3) of the Code) for each such Section 16 Officer or other disqualified individual, and (iii) underlying documentation on which such calculations are based. The schedules and underlying documentation required by this Section 6.12(e) shall be updated and delivered to Parent not later than twenty (20) Business Days prior to the anticipated Closing Date.

(f) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary set forth in this Agreement, no provision of this Agreement shall be deemed to (i) guarantee employment for any period of time for, or preclude the ability of Parent or the Surviving Corporation to terminate, any Continuing Employee for any reason, (ii) require Parent or the Surviving Corporation to continue any Company Plan or prevent the amendment, modification or termination thereof after the Effective Time; or (iii) to constitute the establishment or adoption of or an amendment to any employee benefit or compensation plan, program, agreement, contract, policy or arrangement or otherwise be treated as an amendment or modification of any Company Plan, New Plan or other benefit plan arrangement. No provision of this Agreement shall create any third party beneficiary rights in any employee of the Company or any Company Subsidiary, any beneficiary or dependents thereof, or any collective bargaining representative thereof under this Agreement, including without limitation with respect to the compensation, terms and conditions of employment and benefits that may be provided to any employee of the Company or any of its Subsidiaries by Parent, the Surviving Corporation or any of the Affiliates or under any benefit plan which any of them may maintain, or otherwise.

6.13 Obligations of Merger Sub. Parent shall take all action necessary to cause Merger Sub and, after the Effective Time, the Surviving Corporation to perform their respective obligations under this Agreement and to consummate the transactions contemplated hereby upon the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in this Agreement.

6.14 Notification of Certain Matters.

(a) At all times during the period commencing from the date hereof and continuing until the earlier to occur of the termination of this Agreement pursuant to Article VIII and the Effective Time, the Company shall give prompt notice to Parent and Merger Sub upon becoming aware that any representation or warranty made by it in this Agreement has become untrue or inaccurate, or of any failure of the Company to comply with or satisfy any covenant, condition or agreement to be complied with or satisfied by it under this Agreement, in any such case if and only to the extent that such untruth or inaccuracy, or such failure, would reasonably be expected to cause any of the conditions to the obligations of Parent and Merger Sub to consummate the transactions contemplated hereby set forth in Section 7.2(a) and Section 7.2(b) to not be satisfied at the Closing; provided that no such notification shall affect or be deemed to modify any representation or warranty of the Company set forth in this Agreement or the conditions to the obligations of Parent and Merger Sub to consummate the transactions contemplated by this Agreement or the remedies available to the parties hereunder; and provided further that the terms and conditions of the Confidentiality Agreement shall apply to any information provided to Parent pursuant to this Section 6.14\(a\).

(b) At all times during the period commencing from the date hereof and continuing until the earlier to occur of the termination of this Agreement pursuant to Article VIII and the Effective Time, Parent shall give prompt notice to the Company upon becoming aware that any representation or warranty made by Parent or Merger Sub in this Agreement has become untrue or inaccurate, or of any failure of Parent or Merger Sub to comply with or satisfy any covenant, condition or agreement to be complied with or satisfied by it under this Agreement, in any such case if and only to the extent that such untruth or inaccuracy, or such failure, would reasonably be expected to cause any of the conditions to the obligations of the Company to consummate the transactions contemplated hereby set forth in Section 7.3\(a\) and Section 7.3\(b\) to not be satisfied at the Closing; provided that no such notification shall affect or be deemed to modify any representation or warranty of Parent or Merger Sub set forth in this Agreement or the conditions to the obligations of the Company to consummate the transactions contemplated by this Agreement or the remedies available to the parties hereunder; and provided further that the terms and conditions of the Confidentiality Agreement shall apply to any information provided to the Company pursuant to this Section 6.14\(b\).

6.15 Certain Litigation. The Company and Parent shall each promptly advise the other of any litigation or other Legal Proceeding commenced after the date hereof against such Person, any of its Subsidiaries or any of their respective directors or officers (in their capacity as such) relating to this Agreement or the transactions contemplated hereby and shall keep the other party reasonably informed regarding any such litigation or Legal Proceeding. The Company shall give Parent the opportunity to participate in the defense and any settlement of any such stockholder litigation and shall consider Parent's views with respect to such stockholder litigation or Legal Proceeding. The Company shall not enter into any settlement agreement in respect of any stockholder litigation or Legal Proceeding against the Company or its directors or officers relating to this Agreement or the transactions contemplated hereby without Parent's prior written consent (such consent not to be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed).

6.16 Financing.

(a) Each of Parent and Merger Sub shall use, and shall cause their Affiliates to use, their respective Best Efforts to take, or cause to be taken, all actions and do, or cause to be done, all things necessary or advisable to arrange and obtain the Financing as promptly as practicable on the terms and conditions described in the Financing Documents, including using their respective Best Efforts to: (i) maintain in effect the Financing Documents, (ii) enter into definitive agreements with respect thereto on a timely basis (taking into account the expected timing of the Marketing Period) on the terms and conditions contained in the Commitment Letter and the Fee Letter (including any "flex" provisions contained in the Fee Letter), (iii) satisfy, or cause their Affiliates to satisfy, on a timely basis (taking into account the expected timing of the Marketing Period) (or, if deemed advisable by Parent, seek the waiver of) all conditions applicable to Parent, Merger Sub or their respective Affiliates in the Financing Documents that are within their control and (iv) consummate the Financing at or prior to the Closing, including by enforcing their respective rights under the Financing Documents (including by seeking damages or taking other enforcement actions, including seeking an order of specific performance).

(b) Parent shall not agree to, or permit, any amendments, replacements, supplements or modifications to, or any waivers or assignment of commitments under, the Commitment Letter (it being understood that the exercise of any "market flex" provisions contained in the Fee Letter shall be deemed not to be any such amendment, replacement, supplement, modification, waiver or assignment) without the prior written consent of the Company (such consent not to be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed); provided, that Parent shall have the right to amend, replace, supplement or otherwise modify, or waive any of its rights under the Commitment Letter, and/or substitute or add other equity or debt financing, and/or permit the parties to the Commitment Letter to assign their commitments thereunder to other equity or debt financing sources without the prior written consent of the Company if, and only if, such amendments, modifications, waivers, assignments or replacements would not: (i) reduce the aggregate amount of the Financing to an amount committed that is below the amount required, together with other financial resources of Parent and Merger Sub, including cash, cash equivalents and marketable securities of Parent and Merger Sub on the Closing Date, to consummate the Merger on the terms contemplated by this Agreement; (ii) adversely impact in any material respect the ability of Parent and/or Merger Sub to enforce their rights under the Financing Documents; (iii) amend or modify the then-existing conditions precedent to funding of the Financing in a manner that would make such conditions less likely in any material respect to be satisfied by the Closing or impose new or additional conditions precedent to funding of the Financing; (iv) otherwise be reasonably expected to prevent or materially delay or impair the ability of Parent to consummate the Merger and the other transactions contemplated by this Agreement; provided that Parent shall have the right to permit any Financing Source to assign its commitment under the Commitment Letter to other financing sources solely to the extent consistent with the other terms of this Section 6.16\(b\) and upon the Company's written request, Parent shall promptly deliver to the Company copies of any amendment, replacement, supplement, modification or waiver of the Financing Documents.

(c) In the event that any portion of the Financing becomes unavailable on the terms and conditions contemplated in the Commitment Letter and the Fee Letter (including any "market flex" provisions that are contained therein) (other than as a result of a breach by the Company of any representation, warranty or obligation hereunder with respect to which Parent has provided written notice to the Company) and such portion is necessary to consummate the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, (i) Parent shall promptly so notify the Company and (ii) Parent and Merger Sub shall use their respective Best Efforts to take, or cause to be taken, all actions and do, or cause to be done, all things necessary or advisable to (A) promptly obtain (in light of the expected timing of the Marketing Period) the Financing or such portion of the Financing from alternative sources, which may include one or more of a senior secured debt financing, an offering and sale of notes, or any other financing or offer and sale of other debt securities, or any combination thereof, in an amount sufficient, when added to any portion of the Financing that is available, to pay in cash all amounts required to be paid by Parent in connection with the transactions contemplated by this Agreement ("Alternative Financing") and (B) promptly obtain a new debt financing commitment letter (the "Alternative Commitment Letter") and negotiate and enter into a definitive agreement with respect thereto that provides for debt financing on terms and conditions (including conditions to draw and flex provisions) not materially less favorable than those in the Commitment Letter and the Fee Letter (including any "market flex" provisions that are contained therein), in the aggregate, to Parent and which will not result in a material delay of the consummation of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement. In such event, the term "Financing" as used in this Agreement shall be deemed to include any Alternative Financing, and the term "Commitment Letter" as used in this Agreement shall be deemed to include any Alternative Commitment Letter.

(d) Prior to the Closing, Parent shall (i) give the Company prompt notice (A) upon becoming aware of any material breach of any provision of, or termination by any party thereto of the Financing Documents, (B) upon the receipt of any written communication from any Person party to the Financing Documents with respect to any threatened breach or termination thereof by such Person or (C) if it is reasonably expected that Parent or Merger Sub will not be able to obtain all or any portion of the Financing on the terms and conditions of the Financing Documents (including any "market flex" provisions contained in the Fee Letter) and such portion is necessary to consummate the transactions contemplated by this Agreement and (ii) keep the Company reasonably informed, at the Company's request, of material developments in Parent's and Merger Sub's efforts to arrange the Financing.

(e) Nothing in this Section 6.16 or any other provision of this Agreement shall require, and in no event shall Parent or Merger Sub be required to (i) seek the Financing from a source other than the Lenders or in any amount in excess of that contemplated by the Commitment Letter, (ii) amend or waive any term or condition of this Agreement, or (iii) commence any legal action or proceeding, subject to Section 9.7, against any Financing Source.

(f) Each of Parent and Merger Sub acknowledges and agrees that in no event shall the receipt or availability of any funds or financing (including, for the avoidance of doubt, the Financing) by Parent or any Affiliate or any other financing or other transaction be a condition to any of Parent's or Merger Sub's obligations under this Agreement.

6.17 Assistance with Financing.

(a) During the period commencing on the date hereof and continuing until the earlier of the termination of this Agreement pursuant to Article VIII and the Effective Time, the Company shall, and shall cause its Subsidiaries to and use its reasonable best efforts to cause its and their respective Representatives to, at Parent's sole expense, use reasonable best efforts to cooperate in connection with the arrangement of Financing as may be reasonably requested by Parent (provided that such requested cooperation is otherwise consistent with this Agreement and does not unreasonably interfere with the ongoing operations of the Company or its Subsidiaries), including:

(i) subject to Section 6.9, participating, and causing the Company's senior management, officers and advisers to participate, in each case at mutually agreeable times and places and with reasonable advance notice, in a reasonable number of calls and meetings in a reasonable location (including customary one-on-one meetings with the Financing Sources and such members of senior management designated by the Company), presentations, due diligence (including accounting due diligence) and presentations to prospective Financing Sources and investors, in each case in connection with all or any portion of the Financing;

(ii) as promptly as practicable after request therefor, furnishing to Parent, Merger Sub and the Financing Sources, and their respective Representatives (and, in the case of any required pro forma financial statements, reasonably cooperating with Parent with respect to its preparation of pro forma financial statements) (A) all financial statements and financial data and (B) such other pertinent financial and other information regarding the Company and its Subsidiaries, in each case which is, (1) reasonably requested by Parent, Merger Sub or the Financing Sources, (2) customarily necessary for financings of the type contemplated by the Financing Documents and (3) necessary (x) for Parent to satisfy the conditions set forth in Section 7 of Exhibit C of the Commitment Letter or (y) in order for Parent (or the Financing Sources) to arrange or syndicate the Financing (all such information in this clause (ii), together with the authorization letters referred to in clause (iii)(A) below, the "Required Information"); provided, that with respect to any pro forma financial data required to be delivered by the Company pursuant to this clause (ii), such pro forma financial data shall only consist of the necessary historical financial data relating to the Company and its Subsidiaries to enable Parent to produce (or cause to be produced) pro forma financial statements and other pro forma financial data and financial information (including pro forma adjustments relating to the transactions contemplated by this Agreement), in each case, as required to satisfy the condition set forth in Section 7 of Exhibit C of the Commitment Letter;

(iii) (A) providing Parent with customary representation letters and authorization letters and other information, to the extent readily available, that is reasonably requested for the preparation of bank information memoranda and similar documents in connection with the Financing and (B) assisting with the preparation of materials for rating agency presentations, offering documents, private placement memoranda, bank information memoranda (and, to the extent necessary, additional information memoranda that do not include material non-public information), prospectuses and similar documents reasonably requested in connection with the Financing;

(iv) using reasonable best efforts to cooperate with and assist Parent or Merger Sub in obtaining consents to the use of legal opinions, hedging agreements, appraisals, surveys, engineering reports, title insurance and other documentation and items required by the Financing Sources or as are reasonably requested by Parent;

(v) executing and delivering, as of the Effective Time, any definitive financing documents, including any credit agreements, guarantees, pledge agreements, security agreements, mortgages, deeds of trust and other security documents or other certificates, documents and instruments relating to guarantees, the pledge of collateral and other matters ancillary to the Financing (including a certificate of the chief financial officer of the Company or any Subsidiary with respect to solvency matters (or a solvency opinion with respect to such solvency matters) and consents of accountants for use of their reports in any materials relating to any Financing) as may be as may be reasonably determined by Parent to be necessary in order to consummate any Financing and

(iii) In the event that this Agreement is terminated by the Company pursuant to Section 8.1(e) the Company shall pay to Parent the Termination Fee by wire transfer of immediately available funds to an account or accounts designated in writing by Parent, immediately before and as a condition to the effectiveness of such termination.

(iv) In the event that this Agreement is terminated by Parent pursuant to Section 8.1(g), the Company shall pay to Parent the Termination Fee, by wire transfer of immediately available funds to an account or accounts designated in writing by Parent, within two (2) Business Days after demand by Parent.

(v) Except in the event of a material breach of Section 5.3 or Section 6.5, in any circumstance in which Parent receives payment of the Termination Fee pursuant to this Section 8.3(b), the receipt of the Termination Fee in such circumstance shall constitute the sole and exclusive remedy of Parent and Merger Sub against the Company or any of its or its Affiliates’ former, current or future general or limited partners, stockholders, members, managers, directors, officers, employees, agents, Affiliates or assignees (collectively, the “Company Related Parties”) for any and all losses and damages suffered or incurred as a result of the failure of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement to be consummated or for a breach or failure to perform hereunder or otherwise arising out of, or directly or indirectly relating to, this Agreement, the negotiation, execution or performance hereof or the transactions contemplated hereby, and upon receipt of the Termination Fee in such circumstance, none of the Company Related Parties shall have any further liability or obligation relating to or arising out of this Agreement, the transactions contemplated hereby or in respect of any other document, theory of law or equity or oral representations made or alleged to be made in connection herewith or therewith, in contract, in tort or otherwise (except that (x) the obligations under the Confidentiality Agreement shall continue to survive and (y) the Company shall also be obligated with respect to Section 8.3(e)). Except as expressly provided in the immediately preceding sentence, following the receipt of the Termination Fee in such circumstance, (A) none of Parent, Merger Sub or any Parent Related Party shall be entitled to bring, maintain or support any Legal Proceedings against the Company or any Company Related Party arising out of or in connection with this Agreement, the negotiation, execution or performance hereof or the transactions contemplated hereby (or the abandonment or termination thereof) or any matters forming the basis for such termination, and (B) Parent and Merger Sub shall use their reasonable best efforts to cause any Legal Proceedings pending in connection with this Agreement, the negotiation, execution or performance hereof or the transactions contemplated hereby, to the extent maintained by Parent, Merger Sub or any Parent Related Party against the Company or any Company Related Party to be dismissed with prejudice promptly.

(c) Parent Payments.

(i) In the event that this Agreement is terminated by the Company pursuant to Section 8.1(c), Parent shall pay to the Company $22,800,000 (the “Reverse Termination Fee”) by wire transfer of immediately available funds to an account or accounts designated in writing by the Company, within seven (7) Business Days after demand by the Company.

(ii) In the event that this Agreement is terminated by the Company pursuant to Section 8.1(f), Parent shall pay to the Company the Reverse Termination Fee, by wire transfer of immediately available funds to an account or accounts designated in writing by the Company, within two (2) Business Days after demand by the Company.

(A) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary set forth in this Agreement, in any circumstance in which the Company receives payment of the Reverse Termination Fee or the Financing Failure Termination Fee pursuant to this Section 8.3(c), the receipt of the Reverse Termination Fee or the Financing Failure Termination Fee in such circumstance shall constitute the sole and exclusive remedy of the Company against Parent, Merger Sub, the Financing Sources (without limiting the last sentence of Section 9.7(b)) or any of their or their Affiliates’ respective former, current or future general or limited partners, stockholders, members, managers, directors, officers, employees, agents, Affiliates or assignees (collectively, the “Parent Related Parties”) for any and all losses and damages suffered or incurred as a result of the failure of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement to be consummated or for a breach or failure to perform hereunder or otherwise arising out of, or directly or indirectly relating to, this Agreement, the negotiation, execution or performance hereof or the transactions contemplated hereby, and upon receipt of the Reverse Termination Fee or Financing Failure Termination Fee in such circumstance, none of the Parent Related Parties shall have any further liability or obligation relating to or arising out of this Agreement, the transactions contemplated hereby or in respect of any other document, theory of law or equity or oral representations made or alleged to be made in connection herewith, in contract, in tort or otherwise (except that (x) the obligations under the Confidentiality Agreement shall continue to survive and (y) Parent shall also be obligated with respect to Section 8.3(e)).

(B) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary set forth in this Agreement, in any circumstance in which the Company shall have the right to terminate this Agreement pursuant to Section 8.1(h) but not pursuant to Section 8.1(c) and the Financing shall not be available, then the right to terminate this Agreement pursuant to Section 8.1(h) and to receive the Financing Failure Termination Fee shall constitute the sole and exclusive remedy of the Company against Parent, Merger Sub, the Financing Sources (without limiting the last sentence Section 9.7(b)) and the Parent Related Parties for any and all losses and damages suffered or incurred as a result of the failure of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement to be consummated or for a breach or failure to perform any obligations hereunder or otherwise arising out of, or directly or indirectly relating to, this Agreement, the negotiation, execution or performance hereof or the transactions contemplated hereby, and upon receipt of the Financing Failure Termination Fee in such circumstance, none of the Parent Related Parties shall have any further liability or obligation relating to or arising out of this Agreement, the transactions contemplated hereby or in respect of any other document, theory of law or equity or oral representations made or alleged to be made in connection herewith, in contract, in tort or otherwise (except that (x) the obligations under the Confidentiality Agreement shall continue to survive and (y) Parent shall also be obligated with respect to Section 8.3(e)).

(C) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Agreement, no Parent Related Party, except Parent and Merger Sub, shall have any liability for any obligation or liability to the Company, any of its Affiliates or any of its or their direct or indirect stockholders for any claim for any loss suffered as a result of any breach of this Agreement (including any willful and material breach), or the failure of the Merger or any other transaction contemplated hereby to be consummated, or in respect of any oral representation made or alleged to be have been made in connection herewith, whether in equity or at law, in contract, in tort or otherwise. Following the receipt of the Reverse Termination Fee or the Financing Failure Termination Fee, as applicable, (A) none of the Company or any Company Related Party shall be entitled to bring, maintain or support any Legal Proceedings against Parent, Merger Sub, the Financing Sources (without limiting the last sentence Section 9.7(b)) or any Parent Related Party arising out of or in connection with this Agreement, the negotiation, execution or performance hereof or the transactions contemplated hereby (or the abandonment or termination thereof) or any matters forming the basis for such termination, and (B) the Company shall use its reasonable best efforts to cause any Legal Proceedings pending in connection with this Agreement, the negotiation, execution or performance hereof or the transactions contemplated hereby, to the extent maintained by the Company or any Company Related Party against Parent, Merger Sub, the Financing Sources or any Parent Related Party to be dismissed with prejudice promptly.

(d) Single Payment Only. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary set forth in this Agreement, in no event shall Parent be obligated to pay, or cause to be paid, both the Reverse Termination Fee and the Financing Failure Termination Fee (other than to the extent that both fees are so payable and the higher applicable fee has not yet been paid) (if, for the avoidance of doubt, second such fee becomes payable subsequent to the payment of the first such fee, Parent shall only be obligated to pay the difference between the amount already paid and the higher fee payable hereunder). The parties hereto acknowledge and hereby agree that in no event shall the Company be required to pay the Termination Fee nor shall Parent be required to pay the Reverse Termination Fee or Financing Failure Termination Fee on more than one occasion, whether or not such termination fee may be payable under more than one provision of this Agreement at the same or at different times and the occurrence of different events.

(e) Liquidated Damages. Each of the Company, Parent and Merger Sub acknowledges and agrees that (i) the agreements contained in this Section 8.3 are an integral part of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, (ii) each of the Termination Fee, the Reverse Termination Fee and the Financing Failure Termination Fee is not a penalty, but is liquidated damages, in a reasonable amount that will compensate Parent and the Company, respectively, in the circumstances in which such termination fee is payable, for the efforts and resources expended and opportunities forgone while negotiating this Agreement and in reliance on this Agreement and on the expectation of the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby, which amount would otherwise be impossible to calculate with precision and (iii) without these agreements, neither the Company nor Parent would have entered into this Agreement; accordingly, if the Company or Parent, as the case may be, fails to timely pay any amount due pursuant to in this Article VIII and, in order to obtain such payment, the Company or Parent commences a suit that results in a judgment against the non-paying party for the payment of any amount set forth in this Article VIII, the non-paying shall pay the other party its costs and expenses in connection with such suit, together with interest on such amount at the annual rate of five percent (5%) plus the prime rate as published in The Wall Street Journal in effect on the date such payment was required to be made through the date such payment was actually received, or such lesser rate as is the maximum permitted by applicable Law.

8.4 Amendment. Subject to applicable Law and subject to the other provisions of this Agreement, this Agreement may be amended by the parties hereto, by action taken or authorized by their respective Boards of Directors, at any time by execution of an instrument in writing signed on behalf of each of Parent, Merger Sub and the Company; provided that in the event that this Agreement has been adopted by the Company Stockholders in accordance with Massachusetts Law, no amendment shall be made to this Agreement that requires the approval or adoption of such Company Stockholders under Massachusetts Law without such approval or adoption; provided, further, that following the Parent Stockholder Approval, no amendment shall be made to this Agreement that requires the approval of the Parent Stockholders under applicable Law without such approval. This Agreement may not be amended, modified or supplemented in any manner, whether by course of conduct or otherwise, except by an instrument in writing specifically designated as an amendment hereto, signed on behalf of each of the parties in interest at the time of the amendment. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein, no amendment, modification or waiver of Section 8.3(c)(iv), this Section 8.4, Section 9.3, Section 9.5, the last sentence of Section 9.7(b), Section 9.8, Section 9.9 and Section 9.10 (and any provision of this Agreement to the extent a modification, waiver or termination of such provision would modify the substance of any of the foregoing provisions) that is adverse to the interests of the Financing Sources will be effective against a Financing Source without the prior written consent of such Financing Source.

8.5 Extension; Waiver. At any time and from time to time prior to the Effective Time, any party or parties hereto may, by action taken or authorized by their respective Boards of Directors, to the extent legally allowed and except as otherwise set forth herein, (a) extend the time for the performance of any of the obligations or other acts of the other party or parties hereto, as applicable, (b) waive any inaccuracies in the representations and warranties made to such party or parties hereto contained herein or in any document delivered pursuant hereto and (c) waive compliance with any of the agreements or conditions for the benefit of such party or parties hereto contained herein; provided that after the Company Stockholder Approval or the Parent Stockholder Approval, as applicable, has been obtained, no waiver may be made that pursuant to applicable Law requires further approval or adoption by the Company Stockholders or Parent Stockholders, as applicable, without such further approval or adoption. Any agreement on the part of a party or parties hereto to any such extension or waiver shall be valid only if set forth in an instrument in writing signed on behalf of such party or parties, as applicable. Any failure or delay in exercising any right under this Agreement shall not constitute a waiver of such right, nor shall any single or partial exercise of any such right or power, or any abandonment or discontinuance of steps to enforce such right or power, or any course of conduct, preclude any other or further exercise thereof or the exercise of any other right or power. The rights and remedies of the parties hereunder are cumulative and are not exclusive of any rights or remedies which they would otherwise have hereunder.

ARTICLE IX GENERAL PROVISIONS

9.1 Survival of Representations, Warranties and Covenants. 9.3 Assignment. No party may assign either this Agreement or any of its rights, interests, or obligations hereunder without the prior written approval of the other parties; provided that Merger Sub may assign, in its sole discretion, any or all of its rights, interests and obligations under this Agreement to another direct or indirect wholly-owned Subsidiary of Parent, in each case, at any time upon prior consultation with the Company so long as such assignment does not give rise to any incremental withholding Taxes pursuant to Section 2.8(e), in which case all references herein to “Merger Sub” shall be deemed references to such respective assignee, except that all representations and warranties made herein with respect to Merger Sub as of the date of this Agreement shall be deemed to be representations and warranties made with respect to such assignee as of the date of such assignment and provided that no such assignment shall relieve Merger Sub of its obligations hereunder if such assignee does not perform such obligation; provided further that Parent may collaterally assign any or all of its rights and benefits (but not any of its obligations) under this Agreement to any Financing Source. Subject to the preceding sentence, this Agreement shall be binding upon and shall inure to the benefit of the parties hereto and their respective successors and permitted assigns.

9.4 Entire Agreement. This Agreement and the documents and instruments and other agreements among the parties hereto as contemplated by or referred to herein, including the Company Disclosure Letter, the Parent Disclosure Letter, the other schedules hereto and the Confidentiality Agreement, constitute the entire agreement among the parties with respect to the subject matter hereof and supersede all prior and contemporaneous agreements and understandings, both written and oral, among the parties with respect to the subject matter hereof; provided that the Confidentiality Agreement shall not be superseded, shall survive any termination of this Agreement and shall continue in full force and effect until the earlier to occur of (a) the Effective Time and

(b) the date on which the Confidentiality Agreement expires in accordance with its terms or is validly terminated by the parties thereto.

9.5 No Third-Party Beneficiaries. This Agreement is not intended to, and shall not, confer upon any Person other than the parties hereto and their respective successors and permitted assigns any rights or remedies hereunder, except (a) as set forth in or contemplated by the terms and provisions of Section 6.11, (b) from and after the Effective Time, the rights of holders of shares of the Company Common Stock and other Company Securities to receive the consideration pursuant to the Merger, as set forth in Article II and (c) the rights of the Financing Sources identified in Section 8.3\(c\)\(iv\), Section 8.4, Section 9.3, this Section 9.5, the last sentence of Section 9.7\(b\), Section 9.8, Section 9.9 and Section 9.10.

9.6 Severability. In the event that any provision of this Agreement, or the application thereof, becomes or is declared by a court of competent jurisdiction to be illegal, void or unenforceable, the remainder of this Agreement will continue in full force and effect and the application of such provision to other Persons or circumstances will be interpreted so as reasonably to effect the intent of the parties hereto. The parties further agree to replace such void or unenforceable provision of this Agreement with a valid and enforceable provision that will achieve, to the extent possible, the economic, business and other purposes of such void or unenforceable provision.

9.7 Remedies.

(a) Except as provided in Section 8.3\(b\), Section 8.3\(c\), Section 8.3\(d\) and Section 8.3\(e\) and subject to Section 9.9 (Jurisdiction), any and all remedies herein expressly conferred upon a party hereto will be deemed cumulative with and not exclusive of any other remedy conferred hereby, or by law or equity upon such party, and the exercise by a party of any one remedy will not preclude the exercise of any other remedy.

(b) The parties hereto hereby agree that irreparable damage would occur in the event that any provision of this Agreement were not performed in accordance with its specific terms or were otherwise breached, and that money damages or other legal remedies would not be an adequate remedy for any such damages. Accordingly, the parties hereto acknowledge and hereby agree that in the event of any breach or threatened breach by the Company, on the one hand, or Parent and/or Merger Sub, on the other hand, of any of their respective covenants or obligations set forth in this Agreement, the Company, on the one hand, and Parent and Merger Sub, on the other hand, shall be entitled to an injunction or injunctions to prevent or restrain breaches or threatened breaches of this Agreement, by the other (as applicable), and to specifically enforce the terms and provisions of this Agreement to prevent breaches or threatened breaches of, or to enforce compliance with, the covenants and obligations of the other under this Agreement. The Company, on the one hand, and Parent and Merger Sub, on the other hand hereby agree not to raise any objections to the availability of the equitable remedy of specific performance to prevent or restrain breaches or threatened breaches of this Agreement by such party (or parties), and to specifically enforce the terms and provisions of this Agreement to prevent breaches or threatened breaches of, or to enforce compliance with, the covenants and obligations of such party (or parties) under this Agreement. Any party seeking an injunction or injunctions to prevent breaches of this Agreement and to enforce specifically the terms and provisions of this Agreement shall not be required to provide any bond or other security in connection with any such order or injunction. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, the Company (on behalf of itself and its Subsidiaries) (i) hereby waives any claims or rights against any Financing Sources relating to or arising out of this Agreement, the Financing, the Commitment Letter and the transactions contemplated hereby and thereby, whether at law or in equity and whether in tort, contract or otherwise, (ii) hereby agrees not to bring or support any suit, action or proceeding against any Financing Source in connection with this Agreement, the Financing, the Commitment Letter and the transactions contemplated hereby and thereby, whether at law or in equity and whether in tort, contract or otherwise, and (iii) hereby agrees to cause any suit, action or proceeding asserted against any Financing Source by or on behalf of the Company or any of its Subsidiaries in connection with this Agreement, the Financing, the Commitment Letter and the transactions contemplated hereby and thereby to be dismissed or otherwise terminated. In furtherance and not in limitation of the foregoing waivers and agreements, it is acknowledged and agreed that no Financing Source shall have any liability for any claims or damages to the Company in connection with this Agreement, the Financing, the Commitment Letter and the transactions contemplated hereby and thereby.

(c) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Agreement (including Section 9.7\(b\)), it is explicitly agreed that the Company's right to specific performance of or other equitable remedies with respect to Parent's and Merger Sub's obligations to consummate the Merger shall be subject to the requirements that: (i) the Marketing Period has ended and all of the conditions precedent to Parent's and Merger Sub's obligations set forth in Section 7.1 and Section 7.2 have been satisfied or waived (other than those conditions that by their terms are to be satisfied at the Closing, but which conditions are capable of being satisfied at the Closing), (ii) the Financing has been funded or will be funded in accordance with the terms thereof at the Closing, (iii) Parent and Merger Sub fail to complete the Closing by the time the Closing was required to have occurred pursuant to Section 2.3, (iv) the Company has irrevocably confirmed in writing delivered to Parent that if specific performance is granted and the Financing is funded, then it would take such actions that are within its control to consummate the Closing in accordance with the terms hereof (including satisfaction of the conditions to Parent's and Merger Sub's obligations in Section 7.1 and Section 7.2 that contemplate an action be taken or documents be delivered at the Closing), and (v) Parent fails to complete the Closing within three (3) Business Days following delivery of the confirmation pursuant to clause (iv) above and the Company stood ready, willing and able to complete the Closing throughout such three (3) Business Day period. For the avoidance of doubt, the foregoing provisions of this Section 9.7\(c\) shall not be deemed to limit in any way the Company's right to specific performance of or other equitable remedies to any of Parent's or Merger Sub's other agreements or obligations hereunder (including under Section 6.16) other than its obligation to consummate the Merger. In no event shall the Company be entitled to seek the remedy of specific performance or other equitable remedies with respect to Parent's obligations to consummate the Merger other than solely under the specific circumstances and as specifically set forth in this Section 9.7\(c\). In no event shall any Person other than the Company be entitled to seek the remedy of specific performance of any of Parent's or Merger Sub's obligations to consummate the Merger. In no event shall any Person other than Parent and/or Merger Sub be entitled to seek the remedy of specific performance of the Company's obligations to consummate the Merger. Each party agrees that it will not oppose the granting of specific performance and other equitable relief on the basis that the other parties have an adequate remedy at law or that an award of specific performance is not an appropriate remedy for any reason at law or equity; provided, that nothing contained in this sentence shall prohibit a party from opposing a grant of specific performance or other equitable relief on the basis that such remedy is not permitted pursuant to the terms of this Agreement. For the avoidance of doubt, while the Company or Parent may pursue both a grant of specific performance as and only to the extent expressly permitted by this Section 9.7 and the payment of Reverse Termination Fee or the Financing Failure Termination Fee, as applicable (only to the extent expressly permitted by Section 8.3\(c\)) or the payment of the Termination Fee (only to the extent expressly permitted by Section 8.3\(b\)), as applicable, under no circumstances shall Parent or the Company, as applicable, be obligated to both specifically perform its obligations to consummate the Merger, on the one hand, and pay the Reverse Termination Fee, Financing Failure Termination Fee or the Termination Fee, as applicable, on the other hand.

9.8 Governing Law. This Agreement shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of Delaware without giving effect to any choice or conflict of law provision or rule (whether of the State of Delaware or any other jurisdiction) that would cause the application of Laws of any jurisdictions other than those of the State of Delaware; provided that matters relating to the fiduciary duties of the Company Board and internal corporate affairs of the Company shall be governed by the laws of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts without giving effect to any choice or conflict of law provision or rule (whether of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts or any other jurisdiction) that would cause the application of Laws of any jurisdictions other than those of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein, any right or obligation with respect to any Financing Source in connection with this Agreement, the Financing, the Commitment Letter, the Fee Letter and the transactions contemplated hereby and thereby (including, but not limited to, the validity, interpretation, construction, breach, enforcement or termination thereof, and whether arising in contract or tort or otherwise) shall be governed by, and construed in accordance with, the law of the State of New York.

9.9 Jurisdiction.

(a) The parties hereto agree that any Legal Proceeding seeking to enforce any provision of, or based on any matter arising out of or in connection with, this Agreement or the transactions contemplated hereby shall be brought in the Chancery Court of the State of Delaware located in Wilmington, Delaware and any state appellate court therefrom located in Wilmington, Delaware, or, if no such state court has proper jurisdiction, the Federal District Court for the District of Delaware located in Wilmington, Delaware, and any appellate court therefrom. Each party hereby irrevocably submits to the exclusive jurisdiction of such court in respect of any legal or equitable Legal Proceeding arising out of or relating to this Agreement or the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, or relating to enforcement of any of the terms of this Agreement, and hereby waives, and agrees not to assert, as a defense in any such Legal Proceeding, any claim that it is not subject personally to the jurisdiction of such court, that the Legal Proceeding is brought in an inconvenient forum, that the venue of the Legal Proceeding is improper or that this Agreement or the transactions contemplated hereby may not be enforced in or by such courts. Each party hereto agrees that notice or the service of process in any Legal Proceeding arising out of or relating to this Agreement or the transactions contemplated hereby shall be properly served or delivered if delivered in the manner contemplated by Section 9.2 or in any other manner permitted by Applicable Law.

(b) Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, each party hereto further agrees that any New York State court or Federal court of the United States of America sitting in the County of New York, Borough of Manhattan, and any appellate court from any thereof shall have exclusive jurisdiction over any action (whether at law or at equity and whether brought by any party hereto or any other person) brought against any Lender or other Financing Source in connection with the Financing or this Agreement, and that no party hereto will bring or support, or permit any of their affiliates to bring or support, any such action in any other court.

9.10 WAIVER OF JURY TRIAL. EACH OF PARENT, MERGER SUB AND THE COMPANY HEREBY IRREVOCABLY WAIVES ALL RIGHT TO TRIAL BY JURY IN ANY ACTION, PROCEEDING OR COUNTERCLAIM (WHETHER BASED ON CONTRACT, TORT OR OTHERWISE) ARISING OUT OF OR RELATING TO THIS AGREEMENT, THE FINANCING, ANY OF THE TRANSACTIONS RELATED HERETO OR THERETO, THE ACTIONS OF PARENT, MERGER SUB OR THE COMPANY IN THE NEGOTIATION, ADMINISTRATION, PERFORMANCE AND ENFORCEMENT HEREOF OR THEREOF.

9.11 Disclosure Letter References. The parties hereto agree that the disclosure set forth in any particular section or subsection of the Company Disclosure Letter or the Parent Disclosure Letter, as applicable, shall be deemed to be an exception to (or, as applicable, a disclosure for purposes of) (a) the representations and warranties of the Company, Parent, or Merger Sub, as applicable, that are set forth in the corresponding section or subsection of this Agreement, and (b) any other representations and warranties of the Company, Parent, or Merger Sub, as applicable, that are set forth in this Agreement, but, in the case of this clause (b), only if and to the extent that the relevance of that disclosure as an exception to (or a disclosure for the purposes of) such other representations and warranties is readily apparent on the face of such disclosure to a reasonable person without any independent knowledge regarding the matters so disclosed.

9.12 Counterparts; Facsimile or .pdf Signature. This Agreement may be executed in two or more counterparts, all of which shall be considered one and the same agreement and shall become effective when one or more counterparts have been signed by each of the parties hereto and delivered to the other parties, it being understood that all parties need not sign the same counterpart. This Agreement may be executed by facsimile or .pdf signature, and a facsimile or .pdf signature shall constitute an original for all purposes.

Deutsche Bank Securities Inc. ("Deutsche Bank") has acted as financial advisor to Cohu, Inc. ("Parent") in connection with the Agreement and Plan of Merger, dated as of May 7, 2018 (the "Merger Agreement"), by and among Parent, Xavier Acquisition Corporation ("Merger Sub"), and Xcerra Corporation (the "Company"), which provides, among other things, for the merger of Merger Sub with and into the Company, as a result of which the Company will become a wholly owned subsidiary of Parent (the "Transaction"). As set forth more fully in the Merger Agreement, as a result of the Transaction, each share of common stock, par value $0.05 per share (the "Company Common Stock"), of the Company (other than shares of Company Common Stock (i) owned by Parent, Merger Sub or the Company or by any direct or indirect wholly-owned subsidiary of Parent or the Company immediately prior to the effective time of the merger and (ii) dissenting shares) will be converted into the right to receive (x) $9.00 in cash (the "Cash Consideration"), without interest thereon and (y) 0.2109 of a share, par value $1.00 per share (the "Parent Common Stock"), of Parent (the "Stock Consideration" and, together with the Cash Consideration, the "Merger Consideration").

You have requested our opinion, as investment bankers, as to the fairness, from a financial point of view, to Parent of the Merger Consideration proposed to be paid per share of Company Common Stock pursuant to the Merger Agreement.

In connection with our role as financial advisor to Parent, and in arriving at our opinion, we reviewed certain publicly available financial and other information concerning the Company and Parent, and certain internal analyses, financial forecasts and other information relating to the Company and Parent prepared by management of Parent. We have also held discussions with certain senior officers and other representatives and advisors of Parent regarding the businesses and prospects of the Company, Parent and the combined company and with certain senior officers and other representatives and advisors of the Company regarding the businesses and prospects of the Company. In addition, we have (i) reviewed the reported prices and trading activity for the Company Common Stock and the Parent Common Stock, (ii) compared certain financial and stock market information for the Company and Parent with, to the extent publicly available, similar information for certain other companies we considered relevant whose securities are publicly traded, (iii) reviewed, to the extent publicly available, the financial terms of certain recent business combinations which we deemed relevant, (iv) reviewed the Merger Agreement, (v) reviewed analyses and forecasts of the amount and timing of certain cost savings, operating efficiencies, financial synergies and other strategic benefits projected by Parent to be achieved as a result of the Transaction (collectively, the “Synergies”), and (vi) performed such other studies and analyses and considered such other factors as we deemed appropriate.

We have not assumed responsibility for independent verification of, and have not independently verified, any information, whether publicly available or furnished to us, concerning the Company or Parent, including, without limitation, any financial information considered in connection with the rendering of our opinion. Accordingly, for purposes of our opinion, we have, with your knowledge and permission, assumed and relied upon the accuracy and completeness of all such information. We have not conducted a physical inspection of any of the properties or assets, and have not prepared, obtained or reviewed any independent evaluation or appraisal of any of the assets or liabilities (including any contingent, derivative or off-balance-sheet assets or liabilities), of the Company, Parent or any of their respective subsidiaries, nor have we evaluated the solvency or fair value of the Company, Parent or any of their respective subsidiaries (or the impact of the Transaction thereon) under any law relating to bankruptcy, insolvency or similar matters. With respect to the financial forecasts, including, without limitation, the Synergies, made available to us and used in our analyses, we have assumed with your knowledge and permission that such forecasts, including with respect to the Synergies, have been reasonably prepared on bases reflecting the best currently available estimates and judgments of the management of Parent as to the matters covered thereby. In rendering our opinion, we express no view as to the reasonableness of such forecasts and projections, including, without limitation, with respect to the Synergies, or the assumptions on which they are based.

Our opinion is necessarily based upon economic, market and other conditions as in effect on, and the information made available to us as of, the date hereof. We expressly disclaim any undertaking or obligation to advise any person of any change in any fact or matter affecting our opinion of which we become aware after the date hereof.

For purposes of rendering our opinion, we have assumed with your knowledge and permission that, in all respects material to our analysis, the Transaction will be consummated in accordance with the terms of the Merger Agreement, without any waiver, modification or amendment of any term, condition or agreement that would be material to our analysis. We also have assumed with your knowledge and permission that all material governmental, regulatory or other approvals and consents required in connection with the consummation of the Transaction will be obtained and that in connection with obtaining any necessary governmental, regulatory or other approvals and consents, no restrictions, terms or conditions will be imposed that would be material to our analysis. We are not legal, regulatory, tax or accounting experts and have relied on the assessments made by Parent and its other advisors with respect to such issues.

This opinion has been approved and authorized for issuance by a Deutsche Bank fairness opinion review committee and is addressed to, and is for the use and benefit of, the Board of Directors of Parent in connection with and for the purpose of its evaluation of the Transaction. This opinion is limited to the fairness, from a financial point of view, to Parent of the Merger Consideration proposed to be paid per share of Company Common Stock pursuant to the Merger Agreement as of the date hereof. This opinion does not address any other terms of the Transaction or the Merger Agreement. Nor does it address the terms of any other agreement entered into or to be entered into in connection with the Transaction. You have not asked us to, and this opinion does not, address the fairness of the Transaction, or any consideration received in connection therewith, to the holders of any class of securities, creditors or other constituencies of Parent, nor does it address the fairness of the contemplated benefits of the Transaction. We express no opinion as to the merits of the underlying decision by Parent to engage in the Transaction or the relative merits of the Transaction as compared to any alternative transactions or business strategies. Nor do we express an opinion, and this opinion does not constitute a recommendation, as to how any holder of Parent Common Stock or any other person should vote with respect to the Transaction or any other matter. In addition, we do not express any view or opinion as to the fairness, financial or otherwise, of the amount or nature of any compensation payable to or to be received by any of the officers, directors, or employees of any parties to the Transaction, or any class of such persons, in connection with the Transaction, whether relative to the Merger Consideration or otherwise. This opinion does not in any manner address the prices at which the Parent Common Stock, the Company Common Stock or other securities will trade following the announcement or consummation of the Transaction.

Deutsche Bank will be paid a fee for its services as financial advisor to Parent in connection with the Transaction, a portion of which becomes payable upon delivery of this opinion (or would have become payable if Deutsche Bank had advised the Board of Directors that it was unable to render this opinion) and a substantial portion of which is contingent upon consummation of the Transaction. Parent has also agreed to reimburse Deutsche Bank for its expenses, and to indemnify Deutsche Bank against certain liabilities, in connection with its engagement. We are an affiliate of Deutsche Bank AG (together with its affiliates, the "DB Group"). One or more members of the DB Group have, from time to time, provided, and are currently providing, investment banking, commercial banking (including extension of credit) or other financial services to Parent or its affiliates for which they have received, and in the future may receive, compensation. One or more members of the DB Group have agreed to provide financing to Parent in connection with the Transaction. One or more members of the DB Group also have, from time to time, provided investment banking, commercial banking (including extension of credit) or other financial services to the Company or its affiliates for which they have received, and in the future may receive, compensation. The DB Group may also provide investment and commercial banking services to the Company, Parent and their respective affiliates in the future, for which we would expect the DB Group to receive compensation. In the ordinary course of business, members of the DB Group may actively trade in the securities and other instruments and obligations of the Company, Parent and their respective affiliates for their own accounts and for the accounts of their customers. Accordingly, the DB Group may at any time hold a long or short position in such securities, instruments and obligations.

Based upon and subject to the foregoing assumptions, limitations, qualifications and conditions, it is Deutsche Bank's opinion as investment bankers that, as of the date hereof, the Merger Consideration proposed to be paid per share of Company Common Stock pursuant to the Merger Agreement is fair, from a financial point of view, to Parent.

Very truly yours,

Xcerra Corporation

Norwood, MA 02062

Members of the Board:

In your capacity as members of the Board of Directors (the “Board of Directors”) of Xcerra Corporation (the “Company”), you have requested our opinion (the “Opinion”), as investment bankers, as to the fairness, from a financial point of view, to the holders of the common stock, par value $0.05 per share, of the Company (“Company Common Stock”), other than Acquirer (as defined below) and its affiliates, of the Consideration (as defined below) to be received by the shareholders of the Company pursuant to the terms of that certain Agreement and Plan of Merger (the “Agreement”), by and among Cohu, Inc. (“Acquirer”), Xavier Acquisition Corporation, a wholly-owned subsidiary of Acquirer (“Merger Sub”), and the Company.

As more specifically set forth in the Agreement, and subject to the terms, conditions and adjustments set forth in the Agreement, Merger Sub will be merged with and into the Company (the “Transaction”) and each outstanding share of Company Common Stock, other than those shares of Company Common Stock which are not being converted into the right to receive the Consideration (as defined below) under the Agreement, will be converted into the right to receive (i) $9.00 in cash (the “Cash Consideration”), and (ii) 0.2109 of a share of common stock, par value $1.00 per share, of Acquirer (such stock, the “Acquirer Common Stock” and such consideration, the “Stock Consideration,” and together with the Cash Consideration, the “Consideration”).

Cowen and Company, LLC (“we” or “Cowen”), as part of its investment banking business, is continually engaged in the valuation of businesses and their securities in connection with mergers and acquisitions, negotiated underwritings, secondary distributions of listed and unlisted securities, private placements and valuations for corporate and other purposes. In the ordinary course of our business, we and our affiliates may actively trade the securities of the Company, Acquirer and/or their respective affiliates for our own account and for the accounts of our customers and, accordingly, may at any time hold a long or short position in such securities.

We are acting as exclusive financial advisor to the Company in connection with the Transaction and will receive a fee from the Company for our services, a significant portion of which is contingent upon the consummation of the Transaction. We will also receive a fee for providing this Opinion. In addition, the Company has agreed to reimburse our expenses and indemnify us for certain liabilities that may arise out of our engagement. In the two years preceding the date of this Opinion, Cowen has provided investment banking services to the Company and has received fees for the rendering of such services, and has not provided investment banking services to Acquirer. Cowen and its affiliates may in the future provide investment banking services to the Company and Acquirer and may receive fees for the rendering of such services.

- such other information, financial studies, analyses and investigations and such other factors that we deemed relevant for the purposes of this Opinion.

In conducting our review and arriving at our Opinion, we have, with your consent, assumed and relied, without independent investigation, upon the accuracy and completeness of all financial and other information provided to us by the Company and Acquirer, respectively, or which is publicly available or was otherwise reviewed by us. We have not undertaken any responsibility for the accuracy, completeness or reasonableness of, or independent verification of, such information. We have relied upon, without independent verifications, the assessment of the management of the Company as to the existing products and services of the Company and Acquirer and the viability of, and risks associated with, the future products and services of the Company and Acquirer. In addition, we have not conducted or assumed any obligation to conduct any physical inspection of the properties or facilities of the Company or Acquirer. We have further relied upon the representation of the Company and Acquirer that all information provided to us by the Company and Acquirer, respectively, is accurate and complete in all material respects. We have, with your consent, assumed that the Forecasts were reasonably prepared by the respective managements of the Company and Acquirer on bases reflecting the best currently available estimates and good faith judgments of such managements as to the future performance of the Company and Acquirer, as applicable, and that such Forecasts provide a reasonable basis for our Opinion. We express no opinion as to the Forecasts or the assumptions on which they were made. We expressly disclaim any undertaking or obligation to advise any person of any change in any fact or matter affecting our Opinion of which we become aware after the date hereof.

We assumed that there were no material changes in the assets, liabilities, financial condition, results of operations, business or prospects of the Company or Acquirer since the date of the last financial statements made available to us. We have not made or obtained any independent evaluations, valuations or appraisals of the assets or liabilities of the Company or Acquirer, nor have we been furnished with such materials. In addition, we have not evaluated the solvency or fair value of the Company, Acquirer, or Merger Sub under any state or federal laws relating to bankruptcy, insolvency or similar matters. Our Opinion does not address any legal, tax or accounting matters related to the Agreement or the Transaction, as to which we have assumed that the Company and the Board of Directors of the Company have received such advice from legal, tax and accounting advisors as each has determined appropriate. Our Opinion addresses only the fairness of the Consideration, from a financial point of view to the shareholders of the Company, other than Acquirer and its affiliates. We express no view as to any other aspect or implication of the Transaction or any other agreement, arrangement or understanding entered into in connection with the Transaction or otherwise. Our Opinion is necessarily based upon economic and market conditions and other circumstances as they exist and can be evaluated by us on the date hereof. It should be understood that although subsequent developments may affect our Opinion, we do not have any obligation to update, revise or reaffirm our Opinion and we expressly disclaim any responsibility to do so. We are not expressing any opinion as to what the value of Acquirer Common Stock actually will be when issued or the prices at which Acquirer Common Stock will trade at any time, including following announcement or consummation of the Transaction.

We have not considered any potential legislative or regulatory changes currently being considered or recently enacted by the United States or any foreign government, or any domestic or foreign regulatory body, or any changes in accounting methods or generally accepted accounting principles that may be adopted by the Securities and Exchange Commission, the Financial Accounting Standards Board, or any similar foreign regulatory body or board.

For purposes of rendering our Opinion we have assumed in all respects material to our analysis, that the representations and warranties of each party contained in the Agreement are true and correct, that each party will perform all of the covenants and agreements required to be performed by it under the Agreement and that all conditions to the consummation of the Transaction will be satisfied without waiver thereof. We have assumed that the final form of the Agreement will be substantially similar to the last draft reviewed by us. We have also assumed that all governmental, regulatory and other consents and approvals contemplated by the Agreement will be obtained and that in the course of obtaining any of those consents no restrictions will be imposed or waivers made that would have an adverse effect on the contemplated benefits of the Transaction. We have assumed that the Transaction will be consummated in a manner that complies with the applicable provisions of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, and all other applicable state or federal statutes, rules and regulations.

It is understood that our Opinion is intended for the benefit and use of the Board of Directors of the Company in its consideration of the financial terms of the Transaction. Our Opinion should not be disclosed, referred to, or communicated (in whole or in part) to any third party for any purpose whatsoever except with our prior written approval. However, our Opinion may be reproduced in full in disclosure documents relating to the Transaction which the Company is required to file under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended. Our Opinion does not constitute a recommendation to any shareholder of the Company or any other person as to how to vote with respect to the Transaction, or to take any other action in connection with the Transaction or otherwise. We have not been requested to opine as to, and our Opinion does not in any manner address, the Company's underlying business decision to effect the Transaction or the relative merits of the Transaction as compared to other business strategies or transactions that might be available to the Company. In addition, we have not been requested to opine as to, and our Opinion does not in any manner address, (i) the fairness of the amount or nature of the compensation to any of the Company's officers, directors or employees, or class of such persons, relative to the compensation to the public shareholders of the Company or (ii) whether Acquirer has sufficient cash, available lines of credit or other sources of funds to enable it to pay the Consideration.

This Opinion was reviewed and approved by Cowen's Fairness Opinion Review Committee.

Based upon and subject to the foregoing, including the various assumptions and limitations set forth herein, it is our opinion that, as of the date hereof, the Consideration to be received by the shareholders of the Company in the Transaction is fair, from a financial point of view, to the shareholders of the Company (other than Acquirer and its affiliates).

Very truly yours,

/s/ Cowen and Company, LLC

If the corporation concludes that appraisal rights are or may be available, a copy of this Part shall accompany the meeting notice sent to those record shareholders entitled to exercise appraisal rights.

(b) In a merger pursuant to section 11.05, the parent corporation shall notify in writing all record shareholders of the subsidiary who are entitled to assert appraisal rights that the corporate action became effective. Such notice shall be sent within 10 days after the corporate action became effective and include the materials described in section 13.22

Section 13.21. NOTICE OF INTENT TO DEMAND PAYMENT

(a) If proposed corporate action requiring appraisal rights under section 13.02 is submitted to vote at a shareholders' meeting, a shareholder who wishes to assert appraisal rights with respect to any class or series of shares:

(1) shall deliver to the corporation before the vote is taken written notice of the shareholder's intent to demand payment if the proposed action is effectuated; and

(2) shall not vote, or cause or permit to be voted, any shares of such class or series in favor of the proposed action.

(b) A shareholder who does not satisfy the requirements of subsection (a) is not entitled to payment under this chapter.

- (2) state:
- (i) where the form shall be sent and where certificates for certificated shares shall be deposited and the date by which those certificates shall be deposited, which date may not be earlier than the date for receiving the required form under subclause (ii);
- (ii) a date by which the corporation shall receive the form which date may not be fewer than 40 nor more than 60 days after the date the subsection (a) appraisal notice and form are sent, and state that the shareholder shall have waived the right to demand appraisal with respect to the shares unless the form is received by the corporation by such specified date;
- (iii) the corporation's estimate of the fair value of the shares;
- (iv) that, if requested in writing, the corporation will provide, to the shareholder so requesting, within 10 days after the date specified in clause (ii) the number of shareholders who return the forms by the specified date and the total number of shares owned by them; and
- (v) the date by which the notice to withdraw under section 13.23 shall be received, which date shall be within 20 days after the date specified in subclause (ii) of this subsection; and

- (a) A shareholder who receives notice pursuant to section 13.22 and who wishes to exercise appraisal rights shall certify on the form sent by the corporation whether the beneficial owner of the shares acquired beneficial ownership of the shares before the date required to be set forth in the notice pursuant to clause (1) of subsection (b) of section 13.22. If a shareholder fails to make this certification, the corporation may elect to treat the shareholder's shares as after-acquired shares under section 13.25. In addition, a shareholder who wishes to exercise appraisal rights shall execute and return the form and, in the case of certificated shares, deposit the shareholder's certificates in accordance with the terms of the notice by the date referred to in the notice pursuant to subclause (ii) of clause (2) of subsection (b) of section 13.22. Once a shareholder deposits that shareholder's certificates or, in the case of uncertificated shares, returns the executed forms, that shareholder loses all rights as a shareholder, unless the shareholder withdraws pursuant to said subsection (b).
- (b) A shareholder who has complied with subsection (a) may nevertheless decline to exercise appraisal rights and withdraw from the appraisal process by so notifying the corporation in writing by the date set forth in the appraisal notice pursuant to subclause (v) of clause (2) of subsection (b) of section 13.22. A shareholder who fails to so withdraw from the appraisal process may not thereafter withdraw without the corporation's written consent.
- (c) A shareholder who does not execute and return the form and, in the case of certificated shares, deposit that shareholder's share certificates where required, each by the date set forth in the notice described in subsection (b) of section 13.22, shall not be entitled to payment under this chapter.

Section 13.24. PAYMENT

- (a) Except as provided in section 13.25, within 30 days after the form required by subclause (ii) of clause (2) of subsection (b) of section 13.22 is due, the corporation shall pay in cash to those shareholders who complied with subsection (a) of section 13.23 the amount the corporation estimates to be the fair value of their shares, plus interest.

(b) The payment to each shareholder pursuant to subsection (a) shall be accompanied by:

(1) financial statements of the corporation that issued the shares to be appraised, consisting of a balance sheet as of the end of a fiscal year ending not more than 16 months before the date of payment, an income statement for that year, a statement of changes in shareholders' equity for that year, and the latest available interim financial statements, if any;

(2) a statement of the corporation's estimate of the fair value of the shares, which estimate shall equal or exceed the corporation's estimate given pursuant to subclause (iii) of clause (2) of subsection (b) of section 13.22; and

(3) a statement that shareholders described in subsection (a) have the right to demand further payment under section 13.26 and that if any such shareholder does not do so within the time period specified therein, such shareholder shall be deemed to have accepted the payment in full satisfaction of the corporation's obligations under this chapter

Section 13.25. AFTER-ACQUIRED SHARES

(a) A corporation may elect to withhold payment required by section 13.24 from any shareholder who did not certify that beneficial ownership of all of the shareholder's shares for which appraisal rights are asserted was acquired before the date set forth in the appraisal notice sent pursuant to clause (1) of subsection (b) of section 13.22.

(b) If the corporation elected to withhold payment under subsection (a), it must, within 30 days after the form required by subclause (ii) of clause (2) of subsection (b) of section 13.22 is due, notify all shareholders who are described in subsection (a):

(1) of the information required by clause (1) of subsection (b) of section 13.24;

(2) of the corporation's estimate of fair value pursuant to clause (2) of subsection (b) of said section 13.24;

(3) that they may accept the corporation's estimate of fair value, plus interest, in full satisfaction of their demands or demand appraisal under section 13.26;

(4) that those shareholders who wish to accept the offer shall so notify the corporation of their acceptance of the corporation's offer within 30 days after receiving the offer; and

(5) that those shareholders who do not satisfy the requirements for demanding appraisal under section 13.26 shall be deemed to have accepted the corporation's offer.

(c) Within 10 days after receiving the shareholder's acceptance pursuant to subsection (b), the corporation shall pay in cash the amount it offered under clause (2) of subsection (b) to each shareholder who agreed to accept the corporation's offer in full satisfaction of the shareholder's demand.

(d) Within 40 days after sending the notice described in subsection (b), the corporation must pay in cash the amount if offered to pay under clause (2) of subsection (b) to each shareholder described in clause (5) of subsection (b).

Section 13.26. PROCEDURE IF SHAREHOLDER DISSATISFIED WITH PAYMENT OR OFFER

(a) A shareholder paid pursuant to section 13.24 who is dissatisfied with the amount of the payment shall notify the corporation in writing of that shareholder's estimate of the fair value of the shares and demand payment of that estimate plus interest, less any payment under section 13.24. A shareholder offered payment under section 13.25 who is dissatisfied with that offer shall reject the offer and demand payment of the shareholder's stated estimate of the fair value of the shares plus interest.

(b) A shareholder who fails to notify the corporation in writing of that shareholder's demand to be paid the shareholder's stated estimate of the fair value plus interest under subsection (a) within 30 days after receiving the corporation's payment or offer of payment under section 13.24 or section 13.25, respectively, waives the right to demand payment under this section and shall be entitled only to the payment made or offered pursuant to those respective sections.

Section 13.30. COURT ACTION

(a) If a shareholder makes demand for payment under section 13.26 which remains unsettled, the corporation shall commence an equitable proceeding within 60 days after receiving the payment demand and petition the court to determine the fair value of the shares and accrued interest. If the corporation does not commence the proceeding within the 60 day period, it shall pay in cash to each shareholder the amount the shareholder demanded pursuant to section 13.26 plus interest.

(b) The corporation shall commence the proceeding in the appropriate court of the county where the corporation's principal office, or, if none, its registered office, in the commonwealth is located. If the corporation is a foreign corporation without a registered office in the commonwealth, it shall commence the proceeding in the county in the commonwealth where the principal office or registered office of the domestic corporation merged with the foreign corporation was located at the time of the transaction.

(c) The corporation shall make all shareholders, whether or not residents of the commonwealth, whose demands remain unsettled parties to the proceeding as an action against their shares, and all parties shall be served with a copy of the petition. Nonresidents may be served by registered or certified mail or by publication as provided by law or otherwise as ordered by the court.

(d) The jurisdiction of the court in which the proceeding is commenced under subsection (b) is plenary and exclusive. The court may appoint 1 or more persons as appraisers to receive evidence and recommend a decision on the question of fair value. The appraisers shall have the powers described in the order appointing them, or in any amendment to it. The shareholders demanding appraisal rights are entitled to the same discovery rights as parties in other civil proceedings.

(e) Each shareholder made a party to the proceeding is entitled to judgment (i) for the amount, if any, by which the court finds the fair value of the shareholder's shares, plus interest, exceeds the amount paid by the corporation to the shareholder for such shares or (ii) for the fair value, plus interest, of the shareholder's shares for which the corporation elected to withhold payment under section 13.25.

Section 13.31. COURT COSTS AND COUNSEL FEES

(a) The court in an appraisal proceeding commenced under section 13.30 shall determine all costs of the proceeding, including the reasonable compensation and expenses of appraisers appointed by the court. The court shall assess the costs against the corporation, except that the court may assess cost against all or some of the shareholders demanding appraisal, in amounts the court finds equitable, to the extent the court finds such shareholders acted arbitrarily, vexatiously, or not in good faith with respect to the rights provided by this chapter.

(b) The court in an appraisal proceeding may also assess the fees and expenses of counsel and experts for the respective parties, in amounts the court finds equitable:

(1) against the corporation and in favor of any or all shareholders demanding appraisal if the court finds the corporation did not substantially comply with the requirements of sections 13.20, 13.22, 13.24 or 13.25; or

(2) against either the corporation or a shareholder demanding appraisal, in favor of any other party, if the court finds that the party against whom the fees and expenses are assessed acted arbitrarily, vexatiously, or not in good faith with respect to the rights provided by this chapter.

(c) If the court in an appraisal proceeding finds that the services of counsel for any shareholder were of substantial benefit to other shareholders similarly situated, and that the fees for those services should not be assessed against the corporation, the court may award to such counsel reasonable fees to be paid out of the amounts awarded the shareholders who were benefited.

(d) To the extent the corporation fails to make a required payment pursuant to sections 13.24, 13.25, or 13.26, the shareholder may sue directly for the amount owed and, to the extent successful, shall be entitled to recover from the corporation all costs and expenses of the suit, including counsel fees.

PART II

INFORMATION NOT REQUIRED IN THE PROSPECTUS

Item 20. Indemnification of Directors and Officers

Cohu is a Delaware corporation. Section 145(a) of the Delaware General Corporation Law (the “DGCL”) provides that a Delaware corporation may indemnify any person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative, other than an action by or in the right of the corporation, by reason of the fact that such person is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of the corporation or is or was serving at the request of the corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation or enterprise, against expenses, judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement actually and reasonably incurred by such person in connection with such action, suit or proceeding if he or she acted in good faith and in a manner he or she reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the corporation, and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe his or her conduct was unlawful.

Section 145(b) of the DGCL provides that a Delaware corporation may indemnify any person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed action or suit by or in the right of the corporation to procure a judgment in its favor by reason of the fact that such person acted in any of the capacities set forth above, against expenses actually and reasonably incurred by such person in connection with the defense or settlement of such action or suit if he or she acted under similar standards to those set forth above, except that no indemnification may be made in respect to any claim, issue or matter as to which such person shall have been adjudged to be liable to the corporation unless and only to the extent that the court in which such action or suit was brought shall determine that despite the adjudication of liability, in view of all the circumstances of the case, such person is fairly and reasonably entitled to be indemnified for such expenses which the court shall deem proper.

Section 145 of the DGCL further provides, among other things, that to the extent a director or officer of the corporation has been successful in the defense of any action, suit or proceeding referred to in subsection (a) and (b) of Section 145 or in the defense of any claim, issue or matter therein, he or she shall be indemnified against expenses actually and reasonably incurred by him or her in connection therewith; that indemnification provided for by Section 145 shall not be deemed exclusive of any other rights to which the indemnified party may be entitled, and that the corporation may purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of a director or officer of the corporation against any liability asserted against such officer or director and incurred by him or her in any such capacity or arising out of his or her status as such, whether or not the corporation would have the power to indemnify him or her against such liabilities under Section 145.

As permitted by Section 102(b)(7) of the DGCL, Cohu’s certificate of incorporation provides that a director shall not be liable to Cohu or its stockholders for monetary damages for breach of fiduciary duty as a director. However, such provision does not eliminate or limit the liability of a director for acts or omissions not in good faith or for breaching his or her duty of loyalty, engaging in intentional misconduct or knowingly violating the law, paying a dividend or approving a stock repurchase which was illegal, or obtaining an improper personal benefit. A provision of this type has no effect on the availability of equitable remedies, such as injunction or rescission, for breach of fiduciary duty.

Cohu’s bylaws require that directors, officers and employees be indemnified to the maximum extent permitted by Delaware law.

In addition to the indemnification provisions in Cohu’s bylaws, Cohu has entered into indemnity agreements with each director and certain of its executive officers (Messrs. Müller and Jones). These indemnity agreements require that Cohu indemnify each director and executive officer to the fullest extent permitted by the DGCL. The indemnity agreements also require Cohu to make prompt payment of expenses incurred by the director or executive officer in connection with any proceeding upon the request of the director or executive officer in advance of indemnification to the extent permitted by law.

Cohu has policies of directors' and officers' liability insurance which insures the directors and officers against the cost of defense, settlement or payment of a judgment under certain circumstances, as stated in the policies.

Item 21. Exhibits and Financial Statement Schedules

The exhibits listed below in the "Exhibit Index" are filed as part of, or are incorporated by reference in, this Registration Statement and are numbered in accordance with Item 601 of Regulation S-K.

Item 22. Undertakings

(a)(1) The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes to file, during any period in which offers or sales are being made, a post-effective amendment to this Registration Statement: (i) To include any prospectus required by Section 10(a)(3) of the Securities Act of 1933; (ii) To reflect in the prospectus any facts or events arising after the effective date of the Registration Statement (or the most recent post-effective amendment thereof) which, individually or in the aggregate, represent a fundamental change in the information set forth in the Registration Statement. Notwithstanding the foregoing, any increase or decrease in volume of securities offered (if the total dollar value of securities offered would not exceed that which was registered) and any deviation from the low or high end of the estimated maximum offering range may be reflected in the form of prospectus filed with the Commission pursuant to Rule 424(b) if, in the aggregate, the changes in volume and price represent no more than 20 percent change in the maximum aggregate offering price set forth in the "Calculation of Registration Fee" table in the effective Registration Statement; and (iii) To include any material information with respect to the plan of distribution not previously disclosed in the Registration Statement or any material change to such information in the Registration Statement.

(2) The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes that, for the purpose of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each such post-effective amendment shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

(3) The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes to remove from registration by means of a post-effective amendment any of the securities being registered which remain unsold at the termination of the offering.

(4) (a) The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes that, for the purpose of determining liability under the Securities Act to any purchaser, each prospectus filed pursuant to Rule 424(b) as part of the Registration Statement shall, other than registration statements relying on Rule 430B or other than prospectuses filed in reliance on Rule 430A, shall be deemed to be part of and included in the Registration Statement as of the date it is first used after effectiveness; provided, however, that no statement made in the Registration Statement or prospectus that is part of the Registration Statement or made in a document incorporated or deemed incorporated by reference into the Registration Statement or prospectus that is part of the Registration Statement will, as to a purchaser with a time of contract of sale prior to such first use, supersede or modify any statement that was made in the Registration Statement or prospectus that was part of the Registration Statement or made in any such document immediately prior to such date of first use.

That, for purposes of determining liability of the undersigned registrant under the Securities Act of 1933 to any purchaser in the initial distribution of the securities, in a primary offering of securities of the undersigned registrant pursuant to this Registration Statement, regardless of the underwriting method used to sell the securities to the purchaser, if the securities are offered or sold to such purchaser by means of any of the following communications, the undersigned registrant will be a seller to the purchaser and will be considered to offer or sell such securities to such purchaser:

(A) Any preliminary prospectus or prospectus of the undersigned registrant relating to the offering required to be filed pursuant to Rule 424;

(B) Any free writing prospectus relating to the offering prepared by or on behalf of the undersigned registrant or used or referred to by the undersigned registrant;

(C) The portion of any other free writing prospectus relating to the offering containing material information about the undersigned registrant or its securities provided by or on behalf of the undersigned registrant; and

(D) Any other communication that is an offer in the offering made by the undersigned registrant to the purchaser.

(b) The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes that, for purposes of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each filing of the registrant's annual report pursuant to Section 13(a) or 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (and, where applicable, each filing of an employee benefit plan's annual report pursuant to Section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934) that is incorporated by reference in the Registration Statement shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

(c)(1) The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes as follows: that prior to any public reoffering of the securities registered hereunder through use of a prospectus which is a part of this Registration Statement, by any person or party who is deemed to be an underwriter within the meaning of Rule 145(c), the issuer undertakes that such reoffering prospectus will contain the information called for by the applicable registration form with respect to reofferings by persons who may be deemed underwriters, in addition to the information called for by the other items of the applicable form.

(2) The registrant undertakes that every prospectus: (i) that is filed pursuant to paragraph (1) immediately preceding, or (ii) that purports to meet the requirements of Section 10(a)(3) of the Act and is used in connection with an offering of securities subject to Rule 415, will be filed as part of an amendment to the Registration Statement and will not be used until such amendment is effective, and that, for purposes of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each such post-effective amendment shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

(d) Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act of 1933 may be permitted to directors, officers and controlling persons of the registrant pursuant to the foregoing provisions, or otherwise, the registrant has been advised that in the opinion of the Securities and Exchange Commission such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act of 1933 and is, therefore, unenforceable. In the event that a claim for indemnification against such liabilities (other than the payment by the registrant of expenses incurred or paid by a director, officer or controlling person of the registrant in the successful defense of any action, suit or proceeding) is asserted by such director, officer or controlling person in connection with the securities being registered, the registrant will, unless in the opinion of its counsel the matter has been settled by controlling precedent, submit to a court of appropriate jurisdiction the question whether such indemnification by it is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act of 1933 and will be governed by the final adjudication of such issue.

The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes to respond to requests for information that is incorporated by reference into the information statement-prospectus pursuant to Item 4, 10(b), 11, or 13 of this form, within one business day of receipt of such request, and to send the incorporated documents by first class mail or other equally prompt means. This includes information contained in documents filed subsequent to the effective date of the Registration Statement through the date of responding to the request.

The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes to supply by means of a post-effective amendment all information concerning a transaction, and the company being acquired involved therein, that was not the subject of and included in the Registration Statement when it became effective.

Re: Cohu, Inc. Registration Statement on S-4

Ladies and Gentlemen:

I am the Vice President, Corporate Development, General Counsel and Secretary of Cohu, Inc., a Delaware corporation (“Cohu”), and have acted as counsel for Cohu in connection with the proposed issuance by Cohu of shares of common stock, par value $1.00 per share, of Cohu in connection with the merger (the “Merger”) of Xavier Acquisition Corporation (“Merger Sub”) with and into Xcerra Corporation (“Xcerra”) with Xcerra continuing as the surviving corporation and a wholly owned subsidiary of Cohu; with the Merger being effected pursuant to the Agreement and Plan of Merger, dated as of May 7, 2018 (the “Merger Agreement”), by and among Cohu, Merger Sub, and Xcerra.

This opinion is being furnished in accordance with the requirements of Item 601(b)(5) of Regulation S-K under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the “Act”).

In connection with this opinion, I have examined originals or copies, certified or otherwise identified to my satisfaction, of (i) the registration statement on Form S-4 (the “Registration Statement”) to be filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the “SEC”) on the date hereof under the Act; (ii) a specimen certificate representing the common stock; (iii) the certificate of incorporation of Cohu, as amended to date and currently in effect; (iv) the bylaws of Cohu, as amended to date and currently in effect; (v) the Merger Agreement; and (vi) certain resolutions of the Board of Directors of Cohu relating to the approval of the Merger Agreement and the transaction contemplated thereby, including the issuance of the shares of common stock, and certain related matters. I have also examined originals or copies, certified or otherwise identified to my satisfaction, of such records of Cohu and such agreements, certificates of public officials, certificates of officers or other representatives of Cohu and others, and such other documents, certificates and records as I have deemed necessary or appropriate as a basis for the opinion set forth herein.

In my examination, I have assumed the legal capacity of all natural persons, the genuineness of all signatures, the authenticity of all documents submitted to me as originals, the conformity to original documents of all documents submitted to me as certified, conformed or photostatic copies and the authenticity of the originals of such documents. In making my examination of executed documents, I have assumed that the parties thereto, other than Cohu, its directors and officers, had the power, corporate or other, to enter into and perform all obligations thereunder and have also assumed the due authorization by all requisite action, corporate or other, and execution and delivery by such parties of such documents and the validity and binding effect thereof on such parties. As to any facts material to the opinion expressed herein which I have not independently established or verified, I have relied upon oral or written statements and representations of officers and other representatives of Cohu and others.

I am admitted to practice law in the States of California and New York and am not admitted to practice law in any other jurisdiction. My examination of matters of law in connection with the opinion expressed herein has been limited to, and accordingly my opinion herein is limited to, the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware, including the statutory provisions, all applicable provisions of the Delaware Constitution and reported judicial decisions interpreting the foregoing. I express no opinion with respect to any other law of the State of Delaware or of any other jurisdiction.

For purposes of this opinion, I have assumed that prior to the issuance of any shares of common stock in connection with the Merger: (i) the Registration Statement, as finally amended, will have become effective under the Securities Act; (ii) the Merger contemplated by the Merger Agreement will have been consummated in accordance with the Merger Agreement; and (iii) the certificates representing the shares of common stock will have been duly executed by an authorized officer of the transfer agent for the shares of common stock and will have been registered by the registrar for the shares of common stock and will conform to the specimen thereof examined by me. Based upon and subject to the foregoing, I am of the opinion that the shares of common stock, when issued in accordance with the terms and conditions of the Merger Agreement, will be validly issued, fully paid and non-assessable.

I hereby consent to the filing of this opinion with the SEC as an exhibit to the Registration Statement. I also consent to the inclusion of my name under the caption "Validity of Cohu Shares" in the Registration Statement. In giving this consent, I do not thereby admit that I am included in the category of persons whose consent is required under Section 7 of the Act or the rules and regulations of the SEC.

Sincerely,

/s/ Thomas D. Kampfer
