5. The section of the Proxy Statement titled “The Merger – Opinion of Xcerra’s Financial Advisor, Cowen – Summary of Material Financial Analyses – Xcerra Financial Analyses – Discounted Cash Flow Analysis”

The first full paragraph on page 121 of the Proxy Statement is hereby amended and restated as follows:

Cowen estimated a range of values for the shares of Xcerra Common Stock based upon the discounted present value of Xcerra’s projected unlevered free cash flow for the three-month period ending on July 31, 2018 and the full fiscal years ending in 2019 through 2022 and the terminal value of Xcerra based on multiples of Xcerra’s forecasted Adjusted EBITDA for Xcerra’s fiscal year ending in 2023, and assuming a Merger closing date of April 30, 2018. Cowen calculated unlevered free cash flow based on financial forecast information provided by Xcerra management as (a) Adjusted EBITDA, less (b) stock based compensation expense, less (c) cash taxes, less (d) capital expenditures, less (e) change in net working capital, and this analysis was based upon certain assumptions described by, projections supplied by and discussions held with the management of Xcerra, which resulted in unlevered free cash flows of $5.3 million, $51.4 million, $54.9 million, $56.3 million and $57.6 million, in the three-month period ending on July 31, 2018 and the full fiscal years ending in 2019 through 2022, respectively. In performing this analysis, Cowen utilized discount rates ranging from 12.0% to 14.0%, which were selected based on the estimated weighted average cost of capital of Xcerra. Cowen utilized terminal multiples of Adjusted EBITDA ranging from 6.0x to 8.0x, which range was selected by Cowen in its professional judgment. In performing this analysis, Cowen also calculated the present value of Xcerra’s estimated United States federal and 18 state net operating loss carry forwards, as estimated and provided by the management of Xcerra, discounted to present value at a discount rate of 13.1%, which was selected based on Xcerra’s estimated cost of equity.

The second full paragraph on page 123 of the Proxy Statement is hereby amended and restated as follows:

Cowen estimated a range of values for the shares of Cohu Common Stock based upon the discounted present value of Cohu’s projected unlevered free cash flow for the eight-month period ending on December 29, 2018 and the full fiscal years ending in 2019 through 2022 and the terminal value of Cohu based on multiples of Cohu’s forecasted Adjusted EBITDA for Cohu’s fiscal year ending in 2023, and assuming a Merger closing date of April 30, 2018. Cowen calculated unlevered free cash flow based on financial forecast information provided by or at the direction of Cohu management as (a) Adjusted EBITDA, less (b) stock based compensation expense, less (c) cash taxes, less (d) capital expenditures, less (e) change in net working capital, and this analysis was based upon certain assumptions described by, projections supplied by and discussions held with the management of Cohu, which resulted in unlevered free cash flows of $23.3 million, $46.5 million, $53.1 million, $57.9 million and $60.2 million, in the eight-month period ending on December 29, 2018 and the full fiscal years ending in 2019 through 2022, respectively. 8. The section of the Proxy Statement titled “The Merger – Legal Proceedings”

The section of the Proxy Statement titled “The Merger - Legal Proceedings” on page 140 of the Proxy Statement is hereby amended and restated as follows:

On July 23, 2018, a putative shareholder class action complaint was filed in the United States District Court for the District of Massachusetts against Xcerra and each member of the Xcerra Board, captioned Xinkang Shui v. Xcerra Corporation, et al., C.A. No. 1:18-cv-11529 (the “Shui Action”). The complaint alleges, among other things, that Xcerra and each member of the Xcerra Board violated federal securities laws and regulations by soliciting stockholder votes in connection with the Merger through a proxy statement that purportedly omits material facts necessary to make the statements therein not false or misleading. The complaint seeks, among other things, either to enjoin Xcerra from conducting the stockholder vote on the Merger unless and until the allegedly omitted material information is disclosed or, in the event the Merger is consummated, to recover damages. The complaint also seeks an award of costs and attorneys’ fees.

On July 30, 2018, a second putative shareholder class action complaint was filed in the United States District Court for the District of Massachusetts against Xcerra and each member of the Xcerra Board, captioned Waseem Khan v. Xcerra Corporation, et al., C.A. No. 1:18-cv-11592 (the “Khan Action” and together with the Shui Action, the “Actions”). The complaint alleges, among other things, that Xcerra and each member of the Xcerra Board violated federal securities laws and regulations by soliciting stockholder votes in connection with the Merger through a proxy statement that purportedly omits material facts necessary to make the statements therein not false or misleading. The complaint seeks, among other things, either to enjoin Xcerra from conducting the stockholder vote on the Merger unless and until the allegedly omitted material information is disclosed or, in the event the Merger is consummated, to rescind it or recover rescissory damages. The complaint also seeks an award of costs and attorneys’ fees.

On August 19, 2018, Xcerra and each member of the Xcerra Board and the plaintiff in the Shui Action reached agreement whereby plaintiff would dismiss his complaint based on Xcerra’s intent to make certain supplemental disclosures relating to the Merger (the “Supplemental Disclosures”).

The Supplemental Disclosures are being made in response to the complaints in the Actions and solely for the purpose of mooted the allegations contained therein. Xcerra denies the allegations of the two class action complaints, including that it committed any violations of law. Xcerra continues to believe that the allegations in the complaints are without merit and is mooted the claims solely for the purpose of avoiding the expense and burden of litigation.
